

Church Services Next Sunday

EASTER SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH.

An Easter Sunrise service at 6.30 a. m. to which all are urged to go. Sunday school at 9.30 a. m. Morning worship at 10.45 at which time the pastor will preach an Easter sermon, but there will be no baptism of children at this service. Junior League at 2.30 p. m. Epworth League at 6.30 p. m. At 7.30 p. m. the Sunday school will render an Easter pageant. Everybody is cordially invited to attend all of these services.

HOMER CHARLES KNOX, Pastor.

BOALSBURG REFORMED CHURGE

Services for Easter Sunday: Pine Hall—Church school, 9.30 a. m. Houserville—Holy communion, 10.30 a. m. Boalsburg—Church school, 9.15 a. m. Easter service by school, 7.30 p. m. Pine Grove Mills—Preparatory service Friday, April 9th, at 7.30 p. m. W. W. Moyer, Pastor.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL.

Rev. Alexander McMillan, of Carlisle, will conduct the Easter services at St. John's Episcopal church, 8 o'clock early Eucharist, also at 11 o'clock a. m., and evening service at 7.30 o'clock.

PLEASANT GAP.

Frank Kanars have a new baby girl. Virginia Bell is confined to her home with scarlet fever. Bertrand Keller and wife, of Altoona, spent Sunday with Mr. Keller's parents.

An Easter entertainment will be held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evey and daughter Phyllis spent Sunday at the Wade Evey home.

Dr. and Mrs. Long and daughter, of Altoona, were callers at the Noll and Melroy homes.

Every house should have a bathroom. Nothing is so conducive to health and beauty as a bath.

Mr. and Mrs. Moreland Weaver and Mrs. McKenna, of Altoona, were Sunday callers at the Wade Evey home.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will hold a tureen social and apron bazaar in the church this (Friday) evening.

The H. H. Lohman family moved to Berwick on Monday, and Braak Farland, of Lewistown, moved into the house vacated by them.

Mrs. William Shuey entertained a number of girl friends at cards on Thursday evening. It proved a most enjoyable evening for all.

Miss Maude Huey, of Fillmore, recently visited her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atcherson, at the Gap, and apparently enjoyed her brief stay very much. She has many friends here who are looking forward to her return soon.

My brother George very kindly visited me over Sunday and I found him to be as uncompromising a Republican as ever; so much so that I imagined my sitting room impregnated with a decidedly peppery flavor. In the course of our conversation I asked him why he didn't retire? He replied that he had enough to see him through the balance of his days and was now only working for his children. Beside that, he said, he never worked for a better firm than the Sutton—Abramsen Engineering company, and he was fearful that if he should retire he might become melancholy and lonesome.

To sum it all up the Watchman is a ship freighted with a golden cargo; a message of happiness scattering blessings by the wayside as it travels through the world. It was established for good and is doing good—for whatever educates, enlightens, interests and adds to the knowledge of individuals and communities is essentially productive of highly satisfactory results. The Watchman's utterances of thought and feeling in a pure, clear, pleasant rendition is a most agreeable and praiseworthy accomplishment. I have heard recently some highly complimentary remarks about the Watchman by some very good people. The way the news is classified and presented to the reading public is highly appreciated.

Gray hair is not an indication of old age by any means, as premature bleaching of the hair is on the increase. There are various reasons for this, such as late hours, nervous exhaustion, too much anxiety, giving way to violent exertions, wearing a hat too much in-doors, and the exhaustion of the "gray matter." There are many young people whose lives are as placid as a summer day, whose hair is snowy, and there are old people whose lives have been spent in direct violation of all the laws of hygiene, and yet whose hair is as dark and glossy as in youth. So, after all, it seems that these things are constitutional. We can only counsel moderation in all pleasures that tend to an exciting and unhealthy condition.

CENTRE HALL.

John Kreamer's mother and brother visited him for a week or more.

"Bill" Sweetwood, of Norristown, is a guest in the D. K. Keller home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lohr, of Rutledge, Pa., visited at the Bartholomew home on Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Ella Pringle, of Lock Haven, visited her sister, Mrs. J. F. Lutz, several days during the forepart of the week.

Word came on Tuesday that Mr. Harry English, of Pittsburgh, a brother of Mrs. Millie King, of this place, had died on Sunday.

Those who will spend Easter at home are Charlotte and Harold Keller, and James Keller and family; Frederic Moore, Rossman Wert, Ellen Burkholder and Agnes Geary.

Miss Mary Schreckengast, of Greensburg, spent a week with her father, Mr. Hamilton Schreckengast. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Ruth Gelyn, and baby daughter, also of Greensburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boozer and three children, of Chicago, arrived at the home of the former's father, D. A. Boozer, on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Boozer will spend a part of the time in New York, while the children will spend all their time with their grand-parents.

Dr. Longwell, of Williamsport, came to town on Sunday, bringing with him Mrs. Longwell, son Robert, Mrs. Longwell's mother and aunt, who visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Homan while the doctor made his highly trip to Lewistown. They all returned home on Tuesday afternoon.

Movings are the order of the day. We'll now have to look for our friends in new locations. Among those who changed locations during the week were Fred Bender, John Coldron, Chas. Flink, Margaret Weidler, Albert Emery, Chas. Slack, the Adam's family, Rev. Smith and Mrs. Philip Leister.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Jacob Meyer visited friends in Centre Hall last week.

Wm. Meyer is nursing a sore hand, the result of a dog bite.

Mrs. Nannie Coxey is visiting her son Paul, in Philadelphia.

While attempting to crank a car, on Friday afternoon, Ed. Boop suffered a broken and dislocated arm.

Mrs. George Fortney has returned from Erie, where she had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Stamm, who is quite ill.

Miss Anna M. Dale is having a bath room outfit installed in her residence. Our local plumber, F. M. Charles, has the contract for the job.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cramer and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Houtz, of State College, attended services in the Lutheran church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Smetzer, daughter Margaret and son Lee, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at the home of George Mothersbaugh.

The ladies class of the Lutheran Sunday school will hold a cake and food sale at the home of Mrs. E. W. Hess, on Saturday afternoon, April 3rd.

Mrs. W. J. Wagner, last week, went to Garretson Beach, N. Y., to spend some time with her son, Rev. John H. Wagner and family. Rev. W. J. Wagner, who has been ill, is with his daughter, Mrs. Harkins, at State College, expecting to join Mrs. Wagner this week if his health permits.

Samuel Wagner and son Harold, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Kimport, motored to Juniata on Saturday, where they were guests at a birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Cora Kimport Wagner. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kimport and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bennett and baby, of Elmira, N. Y., who on Sunday visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuhn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zechman moved to Beaver Springs, Tuesday; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tennis having purchased the Zechman furniture store moved into the house vacated by the Zechmans. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phillips moved to the Tennis home on West Main street, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brouse will occupy the house vacated by the Phillips. Geo. Homan and family moved from the Blue Spring farm to the Bricker house, and Hugh Runkle and family moved from Fairbrook to the Blue Spring farm.
