an escaped prisoner on Monday morning. He made his escape from Rockfith's curve at 7:30, brought before Judge Harry Keller at ten o'clock, was given a duplicate of his original sentence and was taken back to Pittsburgh on Monday afternoon.

Jordon was convicted in Allegheny county for counterfeiting bank checks and was sentenced on January 13th, 1926, to serve from two to four years in the penitentiary. He was transferred to Rockview on March 18th, and er. made his attempt at escape in less than a month. All of which indicates that Jordon was a fast worker but this was one time when the officials at the penitentiary were just a little too fast for him.

-"The Masked Bride," Mae Murray's latest picture, coming to the she is doing nicely. Scenic next Tuesday and Wednesday.

-Lawrence VanOlinda, an escaped convict from the Rockview penitentiary, was captured at Dodge City, Kansas., and will be brought back to Centre county for sentence. Van-Olinda escaped on Sunday evening, March 22nd, 1925, by cutting his way through the wire stockade while the other prisoners were listening to a radio concert. He was sent up from Erie county less than a year previous for two and a half to five years for receiving stolen goods. He has now enjoyed a little over a year of liberty but will pay for it with a very much longer sentence when sent back.

-- Coming to the Scenic next Tuesday and Wednesday, "The Masked Bride," with Mae Murray and a great cast.

-Osceola Mills had a $37,000 fire on Sunday night, when several buildings owned by George Cocolin were entirely destroyed. Firemen from Philipsburg and Houtzdale assisted the Osceola fire fighters in extinguishing the conflagration.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAYS

Week-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, APRIL 17:

"THE CROWN OF LJES," with POLA NEGRI, NOAH BEERY and ROB-ERT AMES. From a drab boarding house in America to a glittering palace abroad and then back again to a rose covered cottage in America, this is the journey, replete with incidents of hazard, heartache and happiness. It is a human interest drama which gives Pola ample scope for displaying her his-trionic ability. Also, first run two reel comedy, "FROM THE CABBY'S SEAT."

MONDAY, APRIL 19:

"THE OUTSIDER," headed by JACQUELINE LOGAN and LOU TELLE-GEN. The story deals with gypsy lore that will prove different and entirely fascinating to lovers of romance and adventure. Follow the gypsy trail to the land of romance where camp fires gleam and lovers dance to the sensuous strains of sighing violins. Learn about the Romany love, the strongest in all the world. Also, Pathe News, Acsop's Fables and a single reel comedy "TOL'-BLE ROMEO."

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20 AND 21:

"THE MASKED BRIDE," featuring MAE MURRAY, FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN and ROY D'ARCY. Here is the most amazing romance of the Paris underworld ever filmed. The swift, pulsing life, the glamor and mystery of the hidden haunts of the apache are now revealed for a picture that will leave you breathless with its thrills and sudden surprises. Listen! Here is a show that has everything. Note the cast, costumes, spectacle and the gripping drama. It dazzles the eye but grips the heart. See this one, by all means see it. Also, Mack Sennett's gloom chaser, "LONG PANTS," in two reels.

THURSDAY, APRIL 22:

"FORBIDDEN WATERS," with PRISCILLA DEAN, WALTER McGRAIL and DAN MASON. Here is a sparkling comedy drama, bristling with tense action and laughs. The amusing story of a woman who did not know her own mind, her husband of her friends. Parted in the divorce court, they are united in the speeder's court. A wife's comedy which almost became a tragedy. A swift moving, scientillating, humorous, thrilling production that will charm and amaze every spectator. Also, Pathe News and Pathe Review. Take this one in. FRIDAY, APRIL 23: "RANGER OF THE BIG PINES." A genuine show from all angles, taken in the far north and one we know you would not like to miss. Also, 6th chapter of the great serial, "CASEY OF THE COAST GUARD." Don't dare miss it.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE. THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

"MOANA," a story of life and love in the South seas. The cast is composed exclusively of the natives. Moana, son of a tribal chief, was chosen as the leading player. The name signifies "The Sea," and with his fine, graceful physique he best typifies a slowly disappearing race of god-like people. Also, Mack Sennett's comedy scream, "GOOD MORNING, MADAM!"

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 23 AND 24:

"WHISPERING SMITH," headed by H. B. WARNER and LILLIAN RICH. Tearless, daring, sure of eye and speed, he had a gigantic task to perform, yet he never faltered nor lost his nerve. The most colorful railroad drama ever screened, presented by a cast of exceptional merit, ability and brilliance. Also, first run Mack Sennett comedy in two reels, "REMEMBER WHOM."
