—Miss Kathryn McGowan has resigned her position as operator in the Bell Telephone exchange, effective tomorrow, and next Monday will go to work as book-keeper at Beezer's garage.

—A card party, under the auspices of St. Mary's guild, will be given in the parish house of St. John's Episcopal church next Tuesday evening, April 20th. Tickets, 50 cents. Play will start at 8.15 o'clock.

—The Bellefonte Academy minstrels this year will be given one night only, Thursday, May 20th. The regular minstrel dance will be held the following night, May 21st, at the Nittany Country club, from 9 to 1 o'clock.

—About 2:30 o'clock on Sunday morning a fire was discovered in the skimmer mill at the plant of the Bellefonte Lumber company. Officials of the company were promptly notified and were able to extinguish the flames without calling out the firemen.

—A little daughter made its arrival in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Straub, at Cleveland, Ohio, on Tuesday night. The young father is the only son of Elmer C. Straub, of Bellefonte, and as this is his first grand-child he naturally feels somewhat elated.

—Some unknown individual, on Sunday night, stole two spare tires on demountable rims from the automobile of Harry N. Meyer. The machine was standing on Spring street, not over thirty feet from the Meyer home, so that the robbery was a pretty brazen piece of work.

—The Watchman last week made brief mention of a fire in the storage department of the Federal Match company, on Thursday afternoon. The fire started in one of the huge block bins and the only cause of origin that could be discovered was an exposed electric wire. The loss is estimated at $3,000, fully covered by insurance.

—The ladies of Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., Millheim, will present a three act play, "Poor Father," in the Moose theatre here Wednesday evening, April 28th. The performance is to be given for the benefit of the Sunbury orphanage of the Order and is said to be very cleverly acted. We bespeak a large house for the visiting Thespians. The prices are 50 and 25c.

—The last public sale of household goods to be held in Bellefonte this spring will take place at the Longwell property, No. 112 North Spring street, at one o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, when the property of Miss Ella Gates will be sold. It will be an opportunity to get that odd piece of furniture you have been looking for, for some time.

—The Millheim Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will present the three act farce, "Poor Father," at the Moose Temple theatre, Bellefonte, on Wednesday evening, April 28. The price of admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. It will be a benefit performance for the I. O. O. F. orphanage at Sunbury and this worthy cause ought to result in attracting a good house.

—If tired out by a hard day's work, sort of blue and out of sorts, go to the scenic and spend an hour or two watching the motion pictures. You'll forget your worries and troubles in your interest in the splendid programs presented each evening at that up-to-date theatre. You won't find any several years' old, worn-out pictures there, as every film is new and up-to-date. Manager T. Clayton Brown has made a study of what the people of Bellefonte appreciate and that is the kind of pictures he is showing.

—The village of Port Matilda, which aspires to become a borough, is at present one of the busiest places in Centre county. During the month of March eighty-seven carloads of freight were shipped from the station at that place, the principal products being silica brick from the Mc-Feely Brick company's plant, and mine props. The brick plant is now running on full time and has orders on hand to keep it busy for months ahead. The new state highway through Bald Eagle valley may have something to do with the boom at Port Matilda.

—James R. Hughes, headmaster of the Bellefonte Academy, has very generously turned over to the Bellefonte High school entire control of the cinder track on Hughes field for the spring season. The track will be put in good condition for track work by the High school squad and the latter wish to give notice that automobile drivers must in the future keep off the track. Good arrangements will be made for the parking of cars in the field without crossing the track and any person who does so deliberately will be regarded as a trespasser and be liable to prosecution.

F. GLENN ROGERS, OF NITTANY, CHOSSEN COUNTY SUPT., WON OUT IN A FIELD OF FIVE CONTESTANTS.

F. Glenn Rogers, of Nittany, was elected county superintendent of public schools, by the school directors of Centre county on Tuesday, as successor to David O. Etters, who has filled the office for more than twenty years. Mr. Rogers, one of the youngest candidates in a field of five, had the lead from the first ballot and was nominated on the third with many votes to spare.

All told there are 175 school directors in Centre county and the first roll call showed 157 present at the meeting, so that 79 votes were necessary to elect. The meeting was called to order by Supt. D. O. Etters who read those sections of the school code relating to the election of a superintendent and presented the credentials of the five candidates, which he said were all in due form. He further stated that he was really surprised to see so many directors present, all doubtless anxious to vote him out of a job.

The meeting was organized by the election of Thomas I. Mairs, as president; O. F. Smith secretary, and S. Ward Gramley and William Wood tellers. E. G. Bressler, of State College, made a motion that in lieu of nominating speeches each of the candidates be given three minutes to stand up before the meeting and state his qualifications for the office. On motion Mr. Bressler's motion was laid on the table.

Nominations being called for J. Thompson Henry, of Martha, nominated assistant county superintendent H. C. Rothrock, Lloyd W. Stover, of Millheim, nominated F. Glenn Rogers, of Nittany, R. G. Bressler, of State College, placed in nomination John B. Payne, of Bellefonte. J. H. Hoy nominated Shuman S. Williams, of State College, and John F. Barnhart nominated L. E. Baird, of Pleasant Gap.

On the first ballot Rogers received 54 votes, Rothrock 45, Williams 37, Payne 13 and Baird 3. The second ballot gave Rogers 77, Rothrock 45, Williams 31, Payne 3 and Baird 1.

On the third ballot Rogers received 113, Rothrock 37, Williams 6 and Payne and Baird none.

Chairman Mairs promptly declared Mr. Rogers elected and the new superintendent was brought into the room and thanked the directors for their confidence in his ability.

County superintendent Etters made a brief speech of farewell to the directors in which he thanked them for their hearty co-operation during all the years he had been in office.

On motion of Mr. Bressler the secretary of the meeting was instructed to write a letter of condolence to the family of F. Milford Fletcher, who was a very active candidate for the superintendency up until his sudden and unexpected death last Saturday.

On motion a collection was taken up to send flowers to the bereaved family and the sum of $54 was contributed.

Mr. Rogers, the new superintendent, who will take office the first Monday in May, will serve until the first Monday in July 1930. He was born in Walker township forty years ago, is married and lives at Nittany. He is a graduate of Bucknell University and took special courses at Columbia University and the University of Pennsylvania. He has had fourteen years experience in school work, most of it of a supervisory or administrative nature, and after his election on Tuesday, was highly endorsed by county superintendent Etters.

Hospital Board Elects a Technician.

At the monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the Centre County hospital, on Tuesday evening, Miss Kech, of Snow Shoe, but who received her training in the Altoona general hospital, was elected technician for the institution and has already taken charge of her work. The board also decided to employ a dietitian.

Manager W. H. Brown made a report for the month of March, the first under his management, which showed an increase in receipts and a decrease in free patients. Mr. Brown was also authorized to take charge of the purchasing department, which includes buying of all supplies, etc., for the hospital.

The board made the gratifying announcement that various individuals have assumed the responsibility of furnishing and equipping five rooms and the children's ward. It will also be recalled that Mrs. Winton, of Scranton, left $5,000 to the hospital in her will as a memorial to her son, and the bequest comes to the hospital at $4,500 net. The board decided to use this money to equip the X-ray laboratory. This will leave one room, the porches and the maternity room yet to furnish.

The hospital would like to possess a female sheep for experimental purposes and if any generously inclined farmer will donate one to the institution it will be greatly appreciated.

The work of completing the new wing is moving along satisfactorily but the hospital management is handicapped to some extent by the lack of funds. There is still considerable due on the "Serve Centre Sick" drive, notwithstanding the fact that the last payments should have been made last November, and if this were cleaned up it would help out a lot. Because of this fact the board is desirous that those still in arrears make their payment at once.

Hospital Auxiliary Is Flourishing.

The regular monthly meeting of the executive board of the women's auxiliary of the Centre County hospital was held in the W. C. T. U. rooms in this place on March 29.

Representatives from State College, Lemont and Unionville were present and presented most interesting reports as to the work their newly organized units are doing.

State College has to date a membership of 190 and Lemont 14. The former returned forty-five towels, hemmed and ready for use and Unionville made fifteen bed shirts and six sheets.

During the past month the following auxiliaries have been formed with their officers as given:

Boalsburg, Mrs. James Irvin, Mrs. William Hamm.
Hubersburg, Mrs. J. E. Vonada, Mrs. S. S. McCormick.
State College, Mrs. J. L. Holmes, Mrs. J. B. Martin.
Pine Grove Mills, Miss Mary Woods, Zion, Mrs. Emma Noll, Miss Mary Struble.
Lemont, Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. Houser.

The new members of the executive board for 1926 include the above women with the following: Mrs. Reed O. Steely, Mrs. Joseph Abt, Mrs. W. Harrison Walker, Miss Margaret Stewart, Mrs. Earl S. Orr, Mrs. Ad Fauble, Mrs. Jacob Hoy, Mrs. Clara Leathers, Mrs. Harvey Schaeffer, Mrs. Robert Morris, Mrs. M. A. Landsy, Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Calvin Young, all of Bellefonte.

The ladies of the Bellefonte auxiliary will hold a food sale at the Moit drug store tomorrow, Saturday, beginning at 10 o'clock.

HELEN B. BLAIR, Secretary.

Telephone Demonstration Proves Interesting Entertainment.

It is a pity that there were so few people at the Moose theatre Monday evening to get the glimpse behind the scenes in a telephone exchange that was staged there by the Bell Telephone Co. Besides being highly instructive and calculated to give the patron a more intimate understanding of the service the company is trying to give him it was decidedly clever.

The phone repartee of the two operatives, Miss Verna Rowe, of Centre Hall, and Miss Bertha Salter, of St. Mary's, who were at the demonstration switch-board and in imagination—trying to get parties for you and me, was so true a reflex of just what happens daily that it was real comedy; so clever in fact that of itself it would make a good vaudeville act.

The whole demonstration was designed to show the patron of the telephone what difficulties crop up from every angle in the effort to give prompt and courteous service and how he or she can co-operate. It was quite worthwhile and, as we have said, it was a pity that there were not more there to see it.

—Look who's in the cast of "The Masked Bride." Mae Murray, Francis X. Bushman, Roy D'Arcy and Chester Conklin. Coming to the Scenic next Tuesday and Wednesday. 16-17

—The Bellefonte Academy will open the baseball season in Bellefonte this (Friday) afternoon with a game with the Indiana Normal nine. Game will be called promptly at 3.30 o'clock. Baseball fans should turn out in force as this will be a good opportunity to see what the Academy's team is going to be like this year.

BIG AIRSHIP MADE NIGHT STOP IN BELLEFONTE.

The biggest airship that has ever visited Bellefonte swooped down out of the air shortly before six o'clock last Saturday evening, landing on the old aviation field on the Beaver farm. The ship was a bi-plane of the Sikorsky type, equipped with two 400 horsepower Liberty motors. It has a seventy-six foot wing-spread and a speed of 125 miles an hour. The ship had been chartered by the Curlee Clothing company, of St. Louis, Mo., and was being used as an advertising stunt to carry company salesmen east as far as the State of Maine.

The ship has an enclosed car with a capacity for sixteen passengers, but carried only nine people on this trip. These included the pilot, Capt. R. Turner, a farmer army flier, two mechanics and six Curlee company salesmen, namely: H. N. Franklin, who was in charge of the crew; Geo. T. Cavanaugh, C. Z. Pedrick, Harry E. Orput, James T. Wallace and J. Marshall Campbell. They left St. Louis on Friday morning and flew to Dayton, Ohio, where they spent the night. Saturday morning was spent in covering Dayton and on leaving there it was the intention to fly to Middletown, Pa., for the night, but the route was new to Capt. Turner and he lost his bearings coming over the mountains of Pennsylvania with the result that he decided to land here.

Spotting the old aviation field, and not knowing that the mail landing field had been changed, he came down there. The salesman left the ship at that point and the pilot and mechanics, on learning the location of the new field, took to the air and sailed the big ship out to the present landing field where it was kept for the night. The entire party spent the night at the Brockerhoff house, leaving on Sunday morning for Middletown.

The ship in question is the same one which was used not long ago in carrying two baby grand pianos and six passengers from New York to Washington.

Annual Inspection Showed Troop B in Fine Fettle.

Capt. Herbert Miller, the officers and every member of Troop B, 52nd machine gun battalion, of Bellefonte, has every reason in the world to feel puffed up over the compliment paid them by the officers present at the annual inspection on Tuesday evening. The inspecting officers were Capt. George Miholland, of Harrisburg, representing the federal government, and Col. William Zerdt, of Philadelphia, representing the Pennsylvania National Guard. After the inspection they had no hesitation in saying that the troop made the best showing of any of the sixty-seven units so far inspected and they believed it would rank close up to the top in the entire Guard.

The inspection was open to the public and between three and four hundred spectators were present to see the soldier boys put through their paces. The Odd Fellows band was in attendance and furnished music for the drills. Following the regular drill the gun squads gave an exhibition drill which was followed by a sham battle on an unseen enemy. Four machine guns were put in service on the armory floor each gun using up a belt of blank cartridges while other guns concealed upstairs belched forth fire through portholes. It was a thrilling climax to the evening's work.

It might be said in closing, without any reflection upon Capt. Miller or the other officers of the troop, that considerable of the credit for its good standing is due to the untiring work of Capt. John W. Weeks, the regular army officer stationed in Bellefonte as instructor for the entire battalion.

Foster Fanning Home Destroyed by Fire.

The Foster Fanning home on the back road up Buffalo Run valley, just above the school house, was entirely destroyed by fire on Monday morning. The Fannings live on what is known as the old Blair farm and the house was one of the old-time log buildings, built over half a century ago. How the fire originated is not known. Christ Beezer was the first to discover it. He was on his way to Bellefonte from his home on Spring creek and noticing the flames drove up to the house. Mrs. Fanning was busy with the morning's wash and did not know her house was afire until the arrival of Mr. Beezer. Word was telephoned to Bellefonte for assistance and the Undine firemen went out with their pumper but it was too far gone to save, and the burning building was too far from Spring creek, the only available water supply, to enable the firemen to do more than save the barn by using their chemicals. Only a small portion of the household goods were saved. Mr. Fanning has some insurance, but not sufficient to cover the loss.

—Counsel for the opposition to the incorporation of the village of Port Matilda into a borough have withdrawn their appeal, which was to have been argued before the Superior court in Pittsburgh next Monday, and now the residents of that town are at liberty to go ahead with the election of borough officers.

—Mr. Harvey D. Dunkle was up from Hecla Park Tuesday looking after a little business and was thoughtful enough to drop in for a bit of a chat here. Besides, he said he knew we would be wanting to go fishing and he left some money, but we don't know what that was for; whether it was to keep the plant going while we were away or to buy fish or bait. Certainly it couldn't have been the latter, for Mr. Dunkle is a law-abiding citizen and he wouldn't have encouraged us to attempt to buy either fish or bait.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey P. Schaeffer entertained a family house party Saturday, at their home on east High street the guests who were Mrs. Schaeffer's sister and brothers included Mrs. H. D. Mr. Blackburn, the elder son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Engles Blackburn, of Philadelphia, is well known in Bellefonte through his frequent visits here with his grandmother, Mrs. Spangler and Col. J. L. Spangler, at their home on Allegheny St.

—Included in the Watchman office, list of callers on Wednesday was Irvin M. Harvey, of State College, whose visits to Bellefonte of late years are so rare that he seemed almost a stranger. In fact he confided to us that his principal excuse for being in Bellefonte that day was the bringing of the ladies of his household down to attend a double wedding at the Methodist parsonage, and after seeing the affair to a finish he slipped out and wandered around town greeting the many friends he made thirty-five or forty years ago when from his farm in Boggs township he served one of the best milk routes in Bellefonte. Then he moved to State College and it must be the association with so many young people up there that has a telling effect upon him because he looks younger now than he did twenty years ago.

Community Supper and Bazaar at Pine Grove Mills.

The women of Ferguson township have assumed the care of the old cemetery at Pine Grove Mills. In it are lying the bodies of many of the pioneers of that community, their descendants so scattered that few are left to care for the last resting place of their forebears. All of the lots in it are full and the new cemetery has been in general use for years. The old, through neglect, has become an eyesore and a discredit, so that to relieve the situation the women have decided to take it in hand and on Friday and Saturday, April 23 and 24, they will hold a community supper and bazaar as the first of a series of efforts to raise funds with which to clean up the burying ground.

On Friday evening they will serve roast chicken, waffles, mashed potatoes, relishes, fruit salad, cake and coffee, all for 50c.

On Saturday evening the same price will prevail and the menu will be the same, except that corn will be added.

In the Bazaar there will be bread, cakes, pies, candy and fancy work.

The cause is a very worthy one and inasmuch as the women of Ferguson township are great cooks their supper should prove a delightful destination for motor parties from all parts of the county.

Double Wedding at Bellefonte Methodist Parsonage.

The Methodist parsonage, on Howard street, was the scene of a double wedding, shortly after nine o'clock on Wednesday morning, when C. R. Meyers and Miss Earnest Diffenderfer, and Adrian LeMay and Miss Edna Price, all of Lewistown, were married with the same ceremony by the pastor, Rev. Homer Charles Knox. In the wedding party which came to Bellefonte with the young people were Mrs. LeMay and Miss LeMay, Mrs. Harry Price, Mrs. Sizer and Lynn Lewis, all of Lewistown, while other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Irvin M. Harvey, of State College, and Mrs. Tate, of Axe Mann.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Knox and her daughter, Miss Jean B., served a delicious wedding breakfast to the young people and later they left by automobile for a wedding trip to Pittsburgh.

Mitchell—Rishell.—The Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Rishell, of Pleasant Gap, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Lois, to Mr. David Ray Mitchell.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's father at their home on March 12th. Mrs. Mitchell is a graduate of Emerson college, Boston, Class of 1925 and has been teaching expression at Houghton college, New York. Mr. Mitchell is a graduate of The Pennsylvania State College and is at present an instructor at that institution.

—At a congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church, held on Tuesday evening, Charles S. Hughes and W. Harrison Walker were re-elected trustees, and Earl S. Orr was elected to take the place of Charles F. Metch, resigned. It was also voted to increase the pastor's salary from $2,800 to $3,000 per year.

—Having improved his business place so greatly that it is one of the niftiest stands on High street Joe Thal has made a start on the outside by planting a thrifty sugar maple on the curb line. Joe is for planting trees instead of cutting them down and in a few years will probably have very acceptable shade in the summer time.
