PINE GROVE MENTION.

Many radiators in this section froze up Sunday and Monday nights.

The new arrival at the Charles H. Meyers home, at Fairbrook, is a boy.

Miss Helen Forgeus spent the early part of the week with friends in Huntingdon.

Raymond Davis, of Spruce Creek, spent some time on Monday at Rock Springs.

George W. Lauck is erecting a covered driveway to his oil tanks at his garage.

Marshall Heffner is breaking ground for a new house on north Water street.

Rev. Samuel Martin is down at Atlantic City recuperating his shattered health.

After a most successful winter term most of our township schools will close this week.

John E. Bressler found one of his mated gray horses dead in its stall on Monday evening.

Thomas Wilson, of Mooresville, is J. H. McCracken's right hand man on the farm this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Musser have been visiting relatives in New York State the past week.

Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, spent the early part of the week among his Centre county friends.

Misses Sadie and Sue Dannley spent last week at the Dr. S. S. McCormick home, at Hublersburg.

Frank Smith, of Bellefonte, and C. B. Ewing, of Mt. Union, registered at the St. Elmo last Friday.

Miss Edith Sankey spent the latter end of the week in Tyrone with her cousin, Mrs. R. A. Bayard.

C. M. Wieland and family motored over to Halfmoon and spent Sunday with the Rosenburg family.

W. R. Goss and family motored down from Tyone and spent Sunday at the Goss parental home.

Walter Breon has signed up for the summer as 'Squire Woomer's assistant on his farm at Graysville.

The services of Miss Edna Bloom have been secured to help care for the sick at the J. A. Fortney home.

Mrs. William Wertz, of Graysville, was a caller on friends at Rock Spring the first day of the week.

The Shoemaker brothers have opened a business office at State College with Hon. J. Will Kepler in charge.

Alfred Albright is having his home remodeled inside and out, and will equip it with all modern conveniences.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Corl spent the early part of the week in Altoona, where Mr. Corl consulted a specialist.

Thomas Harpster came in from Johnstown and spent the early part of the week with friends at Fairbrook.

Owing to the illness of William Wertz the sons of W. B. Fry have been secured to help out with the farm work.

Clarence Irvin came up from Harrisburg for the opening of the trout fishing season and all he got was disappointment.

E. W. Hess and wife, of Boalsburg, were in town on Saturday shopping and making short calls on some of their friends.

Health officer W. G. Gardner has now a pretty steady job posting measles quarantine cards on homes in the valley.

Carpenter John Osman, of Shingleton, has been busy making some improvements to the Saucerman home at Baileyville.

The Stork made his first visit to the James Wasson home, last week, and left a little boy, which was promptly christened James Jr.

Members of Pennsvalley lodge No. 276, I. O. O. F., are urged to make a good turnout for the big Odd Fellows gathering at State College next Tuesday, April 27th.

Lizzie Dunlap, four years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Dunlap, of Twin Rocks, is here for a month's stay with her grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Dunlap.

"The Early Bird" is the name of a comedy in three acts which will be put on the stage in the I. O. O. F. hall, by the Petersburg high school, on Saturday evening, May 1st.

George A. Goss and wife, of Stonevalley; Charles Goss and lady friend, of Harrisburg, and Fred B. Goss and wife, of Akron, Ohio, visited their mother, Mrs. A. F. Goss, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goheen, with Dan Patterson at the wheel of his Hudson Six, motored up from Boalsburg, last Thursday, and spent the day with John Bailey Goheen, at Baileyville.

Roy Peterson and Ed K. Woomer motored to Altoona, on Sunday to visit Harold Woomer, who recently underwent an operation, at the Mercy hospital. He is now on a fair way to recovery.

After a successful pastorate of three years on the Graysville charge Rev. Harry D. Fleming on Sunday tendered his resignation to take effect May first. He has accepted a call to a church in Lancaster, Pa.

Don't overlook the fact that tonight and tomorrow night are the dates for the first big supper to be served by the ladies of the town for the benefit of the old cemetery fund. You are sure of getting a good, square meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Fry motored to Port Matilda, on Sunday, to add their blessing to the little girl that came as an Easter offering to the C. A. Weaver home, after a lapse of ten years. She has been named Easter Lilly.

Trout fishermen from Altoona, Johnstown and other places vied with our own piscatorialists in whipping the streams on the opening day of the season. H. E. McDowell got an even dozen; "Buzz" Harpster eleven; Mr. Wilson, of Johnstown, three while the greater number got nothing.

Paul Wasson, Earl Louck and "Curley" Randolph were in Washington, D. C., for the opening of the baseball season. They also took in the sights of the national capital.

The monthly meeting of the Brotherhood, at Graysville last Friday evening, was well attended. Prof. Behrer presided at the organ and Miss Grace Mills, of Bellefonte, sang a solo. Rev. H. D. Fleming led in divine services. Rev. J. A. Mills, of Bellefonte, made the principal address. All told it was a very interesting gathering.

Quite a large number of farmers and dairymen attended the meeting held at Baileyville last Thursday to discuss the milk situation, brought about by the contemplated closing on May first of the Rock Springs creamery. The principal question under discussion was the choice between Huntingdon and Centre Hall as the best place to patronize in the future. Representatives from both places were present and addressed the meeting. Sentiment was about equally divided and without making a choice a committee was appointed to interview Mr. Hoffman, manager of the Rock Springs creamery, and urge the keeping open of that plant. A report is to be made at a meeting to be held on Tuesday next.

Penn State Farmers' Field Day to be June 18.

Farmers' field day at the Pennsylvania State College will be held Friday, June 18th, instead of the previous day as originally planned. T. I. Mairs, director of the correspondence courses in agriculture at the College, who is in charge of the arrangements, announces.

An alternative program has been planned and will be available in case rain necessitates holding all meetings indoors. Announcements regarding the work of the different departments and what visitors will see in them will be sent out soon.

Among the features planned for this year are a horse pulling contest, using the Penn State dynamometer which took part in 15 contests in the State last year; an exhibit of rats and chickens, showing the effect of nutritional deficiency diseases; the dairy herd which averaged $282 per cow above feed cost last year; the poultry plant and the college flocks; greenhouses, gardens, experimental plots, and scores of other interesting things in the plant and animal world.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Noll spent Monday in Harrisburg.

Miss Bertha Rimmey has returned home from Philadelphia.

Rev. Buck will preach in the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Blanche Fetterhoff is spending a week at State College.

Miss Emeline Noll, of Philadelphia, was home over the week-end.

Mrs. George Showers entertained her Sunday school class, Thursday evening.

As soon as our ten new school houses are completed we will begin to put on airs and think we are becoming more civilized.

Our boys at Whiterock are missing the smiling countenance of their friend, Hugh Quigley, since he has embarked in the insurance business. All wish him abundant success.

The people of Harrisonville (Horn-town) are delighted to know that they will, at an early day, be the possessors of a new township road to connect them with the state road. It will pass through the T. E. Jodon property.

The family of Harry Grove, of Lewistown, were visitors at the home of Mrs. John Herman, over Sunday last. Harry says all the industries at Lewistown are progressing nicely, and work of every description is plentiful.

"Doc" Stover will, in the near future, erect another up-to-date, new house adjacent to the forks of the road. What we need here is a few more "Doc" Stovers, men who take pride in investing their capital. We are growing.

Our main stay, Whiterock, is again in great shape. Progress and advancement in all departments have an upward tendency. The corporation has a battery of eighteen lime kilns, all of which are now for the first time in full operation. There was a slight slump in the stone market recently, but they now have all the orders required, while at the same time their superior quality of lime keeps them busy filling the incoming orders. Hence it is that all the employees are jubilant and happy. An abundance of capital and judicious management "makes the mare go."

Ground is being broken for the erection of three fine new homes on the Noll Bros. new addition. William Kerstetter is erecting a fine tenement residence adjacent to Samuel Noll Esq. No. 2 will be erected next to William Kerstetter's. No. 2 is in course of erection by Guy Kerstetter, and No. 3 follows. The happy possessor will be Young Hile. This breaks the monotony and more to follow speedily. Furthermore, it is alleged, that as soon as the new township road is completed between the state road and Horn-town some eight or ten new houses will be erected along that line. This is the proper way of procedure, since so many of the penitentiary employes are looking for homes in our beautiful, thrifty village.

RUNVILLE

Mrs. Annie Lucas is visiting friends at Altoona.

Miss Verdie Lucas spent Sunday at Milesburg, with her mother.

Willis Heaton, of Juniata, visited at the home of L. J. Heaton, on Monday.

Mrs. Clara Iddings has gone to Coatsville to spend some time with her sister.

Mrs. Alice Rodgers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garbrick, of Tyrone, last week.

Mrs. Claud Lucas, of Snow Shoe, called on her sister, Mrs. Earl Kaufman, on Saturday.

MEDICAL.

Is Your Health Slowly Slipping Away?

Bellefonte People Advise You to Act in Time.

Is failing health making you uneasy and unhappy? Are you tired, weak and dispirited? Suffer daily backache and stabbing, rheumatic twinges? Then look to your kidneys! The kidneys are the blood-filters. Once they weaken, the whole system is upset. You have dizzy spells, headaches and urinary irregularities. You feel all worn-out. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Thousands recommend Doan's. Here is Bellefonte proof:

Mrs. Ernest Benner, 34 Bishop St., says: "Sometimes the ache across my kidneys became intense. My kidneys didn't act right, for at times they acted too frequently and again not often enough. Dizzy spells came on, too and I actually reeled. My energy left and I felt so tired and worn-out I could hardly do anything. I used Doan's Pills and they rid me of all symptoms of kidney trouble and I felt much better."

spent the week-end at Rebersburg, visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Meyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sipe and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, of Kittanning, called at the home of Mrs. Sallie Friel, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McClincy and two daughters drove to State College on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Poorman.

Those who called to see Mary Heaton the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wagner, Mrs. John Hite, Mrs. E. R. Lucas, of Altoona; Emanuel and Roy Rodgers, of Tyrone; Mrs. Ida Witmer, of Wingate; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, son and daughter, of Kittanning; Billie Johnson, of Wallacetown, and Mrs. Carl Garbrick, of Tyrone.

A thin coat of floor wax evenly spread and lightly buffed is an excellent preserver and indispensable as a polish.

JOHN F. GRAY & SON, Bellefonte 48-18-1y State College

Fifty years ago two men, Bell and Watson, experimenting in a Boston attic, comprised the only "telephone organization" in the world. Today there are in the Bell System 352,000 men and women, expertly trained, who plan, manufacture, construct, maintain and operate this great system of communication.

Today—a third of a million

Two men, with scant facilities and less money at their disposal, winding coils, twanging clock springs and shouting into strange contraptions of wood and parchment, finally created the telephone.

In 1876 Alexander Graham Bell and Thomas A. Watson, his assistant, were the only two "telephone men" in the world.

Today there are twenty-two thousand Bell men and women in Pennsylvania alone.

In the Bell System there are a third of a million.

Every day brings an increase in the number of people they serve and in the volume of calls they handle.

The inherent tendency of telephone growth is to complicate the mechanisms and their operation disproportionately.

Each added telephone means more than just one more line and instrument. The problem of its interconnection with every other telephone of the System—the natural complication of the switching job as thousands and tens of thousands of new users are added, would long ago have swamped the service had constant improvement and simplification of equipment and method not more than kept pace.

Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone. But modern telephone service is the product of a myriad of inventions, scientific and technical, which make the facility of that service seem almost commonplace.

So must it and will it continue to be.
