Many Speed Boys Entering for the Altoona Motor Races.

Completing a 3000 mile ride, tucked away in one of Uncle Sams mail pouches, another group of official entry blank forms reached the Altoona Speedway Association from Los Angeles, Cal., bearing the signatures of five more world famous racing pilots.

With fifteen such entries made thus far for the coming June 12th championship event, only five additional will be permitted, as the contest board of A. A. A., specifies twenty starters as the maximum for 13 mile speedways.

Included in the late entries is one veteran of veterans, Earl Cooper, twice holder of the coveted national championship crown, and today recognized as the oldest professional racing pilot in the game.

It was pure love of the sport that caused Cooper to resume his track activities in the year 1922 after he retired. The event was staged at Kansas City, when Joe Thomas, suddenly stricken with an attack of appendicitis, lured his friend Earl to drive in his place. Cooper with his masterful style that had characterized his long career as a driver, pushed the chariot to a fourth place finish.

Those who witnessed the last Labor Day event at Altoona, will recall the terrific speed battle waged for the 200 laps, between the winner "Bob" McDonough leading Harry Hartz and Cooper. Forcing his car with defeating velocity, Cooper fought a particularly desperate speed duel with the others, to maintain a front position. His car performed like an automaton, while he rode with terrifying speed, determined to combat the influences of the hard luck daughter of Dame Fortune.

In flagging the fleeting cars, veteran starter Fred J. Wagner awarded McDonough first place, followed by Hartz with Cooper at his side, representing the most sensational finale of Altoona's speedfests. These two daring pilots received almost as much applause as the winner.

Cooper will appear at the June 12th classic, with a new 913 cubic inch racing motor, equipped with a very highly developed supercharger, which according to reports will surprise the most expectant lover of racing.

Cars Today are Fast and Safer.

The tendency of the automobile industry and of actual motoring conditions is for more speed with added safety.

Today highways are built wide enough and smooth enough to make safe speed of 35 or more miles an hour. The current type of automobile, with four-wheel brakes and easy steering, is flexible and secure at such speeds.

Traffic regulations, on the other hand, are much the same as they were years ago when cars were not built to meet present-day demands. In most States they could be modernized to the benefit of everyone.

SLOW DRIVER WORRIES.

By failing to keep up the speed limit on country highways, the slow driver causes a general paralysis of traffic, which works a hardship on other drivers, causes congestion and makes all driving much more dangerous.

The driver who loafs along at 15 miles an hour, slows up hundreds of cars which have the choice of lagging behind or of taking a chance by speeding around the slow one in the face of oncoming traffic. If the slow driver would speed up or turn off the road, the cars behind would soon be all well spread out and everyone would make better time.

Traffic has become heavy enough to warrant several changes in highway construction and in laws governing their use.

PENALIZE SLOW DRIVERS.

A penalty on the slow driver who blocks traffic should help relieve this condition. Another should deal with the man who stops his car on the road to make adjustments or change tires, forcing traffic from both directions to shuttle its way through the open lane on one side. On wide highways, the man who drives slowly in the middle of the road should be subject to regulation.

It might be advisable to provide harbors at regular intervals along highways into which a motorist in trouble could drive his car to make adjustments, thus avoiding a traffic hindrance, which is a nuisance and a source of danger.

Woman's Ways.
"What a curious thing it is that a woman, when she is young, always wants to be taken for younger than she is; and when she is old, she is proud of her many years and actually boasts of them! A woman is glad to be 20, ashamed to be 40, sorry to be 60, and proud to be 80." And it is quite natural, for youth is a great asset to a woman.—London Tid-Bits.

Scenic Theatre
PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAYS
Week-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, APRIL 24:
"WHITE MICE," with JACQUELINE LOGAN and WILLIAM POWELL. A story of a girl who took a chance. She risked life and honor to win freedom for her father—dared the fates and flirited with death. Power, money and hate threatened her, but with superb courage she won out in a supreme and thrilling climax. Such is the central figure of this adventurous romance amidst the dangers and bloodshed of a South American revolution. A story of red-blooded courage and leaping action. Also, first run two reel comedy.

MONDAY, APRIL 26:
"MISS BREWSTER'S MILLIONS," with BEBE DANIELS, WARNER BAXTER and FORD STERLING. Here we have a de luxe comedy and gorgeous fashion parade in one. The central figure is a cannily extra girl in the movies who suddenly finds herself heiress to a million dollars. But dismay ensues when she finds herself unable to spend it because by the terms of her uncle's will the money must be invested. It is a feminized, jazzified 1926 version of Geo. B. McCutcheon's novel and it's a howl. Also, Pathe News, Accep's Fables and a single varied reel.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27 AND 28:
"THE MARRIAGE WHIRL," headed by CORINNE GRIFFITH, HARRISON FORD and KENNETH HALLAN. Here we have a love battle amidst country club high life and gay night resorts of Paris. How many girls today know the man they marry? Mightily few, and this drama proves it, and shows the younger set who leap into matrimony to the tune of jazz only to find the saxophone moaning a dirge of heartache and regret. Come and see our Corinne in the new specially imported frocks—a revolution for male and female eyes. The screen dares show it, and Corinne Griffith sure makes it real. Also, Our Gang comedy in two reels of hilarious fun, "SUNDAY CALM." Here is a whale of a show.

THURSDAY, APRIL 29:
"COUNSEL FOR THE DEFENSE," with BETTY COMPTON, HOUSE PETERS and JAY HUNT. A story of truth against circumstantial evidence, which wins? Does every jury of twelve men, "tried and true," always bring in the right verdict? How many innocent men are behind prison bars today because of circumstantial evidence? This powerful and thrilling film drama, from Leroy Scott's widely read novel, is a searching story of the evils of circumstantial evidence. Every man, woman and child should see it. Also, Pathe News and Pathe Review. They don't come much better.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 30 AND MAY 1:
"TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP!" with none other than that clever funny comedian, HARRY LANGDON. Here we have six reels of long Langdon laughs what am. Boots, boots, boots, marching up and down again. Laughs, laughs, laughs! bobbing up and down again. And there's no end to the roar. Slip into your joy shoes for a three thousand mile hike with Harry Langdon, the moon-face, merry-making king of comedians. In "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," he'll laugh you off your feet. Come and see it, you won't be disappointed, no, no.

THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY:
"WHISPERING SMITH," with H. B. WARNER and LILLIAN RICH. Single handed he faces inseparable odds, yet he was victorious for he loved. A tumultuous, melodramatic railroad picture, one you'll all enjoy. Also, a red hot, two reel comedy, "REMEMBER WIEN."

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 30 AND MAY 1:
"SEA HORSES," with JACK HOLT and FLORENCE VIDOR. Tornadoes and shipwreck, a fight in a swamp, love and adventure on sea and land, tingling with thrills. Great show.
