Local Schools Participate in Penn Relays at Philadelphia.

The Bellefonte High school relay team did not fare so well at the relays held at the University of Pennsylvania last Saturday. The local sprinters won their event last year whereas they got only a second this.

They ran against the teams from New Castle and Pottsville. There were eighteen races in the High school relays and the time made in the heat in which our team contested was the 7th best, being 3 minutes 41 and three fifth seconds. The best time made by any team was 3 minutes and 32 and one-fifth seconds, the slowest 3:50.

The High team was made up by Merrill Waite, Alan Katz, John Shoemaker and James McCullough. It was followed to Philadelphia by about twenty-five rooters, a lot of whom hiked there and back.

PENN STATE RUNNERS TOOK TWO FIRST PLACES.

Penn State had entries in many of the College classes and came first in the four mile relay, which is ordinarily a monotonous race but in this instance proved one of the thrillers of the carnival, since it was fought hard every yard of the way from the start to the tape.

State also won the shuttle hurdle relay, a new event for the relays. It was for 480 yards, and State's time of 1 minute 5 seconds will be entered as the initial American record for the event.

L. A. Schaeffer was taken ill again in the offices of the White Rock Quarries last Friday, a recurrence of the trouble with which he suffered several months ago. His condition was regarded as quite serious until Wednesday, when he took a decided turn for the better and since had improved steadily until yesterday morning when he had another relapse.

The American Child Health Association has asked the country at large to celebrate tomorrow, May 1st, as Child Health Day. Dr. S. M. Hamill, of Philadelphia, who was born and reared at Oak Hall, is acting chairman of Pennsylvania and has appointed representatives in every county. Plan books were sent out to offer concrete suggestions for giving through May Day serious thought and consideration to the protection and safeguards of child health and welfare. In Centre county the celebration is not being confined to tomorrow but will extend through the week. Many schools are presenting the prize-winning play "Clean Up," and using the health song sheet; health talks are to be given, by physicians and dentists to all pupils in certain schools to be weighed and measured; health literature to be given out, slides shown in movie theatres to be special, baby and pre-school age clinics held.

Rumor is current that Millheim's two banking institutions, the Millheim Banking Co., and the First National, are to be merged and reorganized into a National bank with a Trust Co. The First National has bought the Neiman block in that place, it is said, as the first step toward the merger.

Grant Hoover to Open Big Preserve in Bald Eagle Valley.

Grant Hoover, of Williamsport, but a number of years ago a well known insurance agent of Bellefonte, is planning to open his mountain lands in the foothills of the Allegheny mountains as a big forest preserve for the benefit of the people of the State. Since locating in Williamsport Mr. Hoover has become vitally interested in the conservation movement for the preservation of forests, game, etc., and devotes considerable time and money to espousing the cause. In addition, he practices what he preaches by planting young trees on his own land. Regarding his purpose to throw open his land as a preserve a dispatch from Williamsport, on Monday, said:

That a remnant of wild landscape and forest growth of natural character and beauty as intended by nature may be left for the recreation and inspiration of the generations to come, Grant Hoover, of this city, will throw open to the people of the State this summer a preserve in the Bald Eagle Valley.

Mr. Hoover is one of the organizers of the Pennsylvania Conservation Council and one of the few men in the State who refused to cut down a tree. The preserve which he will open is located between Unionville and Julian, in Centre county, and extends for four miles along the Horse-shoe Trail. There are thousands of white and red pine, Norway spruce and European larch trees, all of which he planted.

Mr. Hoover plans to construct a roadway in the form of a loop through this preserve on which travelers by automobile may enter at one end an emerge on the State highway at the other end after a four mile trip through a beautiful wooded section. Of the 263,000 trees on this preserve, 100,000 were planted by Mr. Hoover last year. This spring he will plant 25,000 more. He expects to bring the total number planted up to half a million.

BOALSBURG.

John and Howard Bricker greeted friends in town on Thursday.

P. S. Dale, of State College, visited friends in town on Thursday.

Miss Anna Sweeney spent Monday at the French home, at State College.

John Bressler, of Ferguson township, was in town on business on Monday.

Miss Mildred Gingerich spent the week-end with friends in Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hazel and daughter Jane spent Friday in Brush valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dale, of Oak Hall, with their daughters and son Frederick, were visitors in town on Sunday afternoon.

A number of interested farmers, patrons of Penn State creamery, attended the creamery banquet at that place on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Johnson, of Crafton, were arrivals in town on Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. M. A. Woods.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner returned on Wednesday from a visit with their son, Rev. J. H. Wagner and family, at Garretson Beach, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fisher, of Sunbury, were callers at the home of George Fisher on Monday, en route from a motor trip to Punxsutawney.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ishler and daughters and Miss Emeline Hess motored to Altoona on Sunday. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Nannie Coxy and son Paul.

Miss Beulah Fortney was elected a delegate to the Reformed missionary convention held in Lewistown Thursday and Friday. A number of members of the local society are arranging to motor to Lewisburg to attend the sessions of one day.

Quite an excitement prevailed on Sunday afternoon when an alarm of fire was sounded, the roof on the Tavern having taken fire. Speedy response by neighbors resulted in extinguishing the flames without the aid of the fire company.

Among the sick are Mrs. Sarah Gingrich, who has been very ill for some weeks but is now improving.

Mrs. Joanna Kaup, Miss Minnie Shutt and William Rocky are under a physician's care. Miss Marie Wright is ill with scarlet fever. Mrs. E. R. Tussey, Miss Flora Snyder, Harold Wagner, John Meyer and John Kline are victims of the measles.

Marriage Licenses.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAYS
Week-Ahead Program

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 30 AND MAY 1:
"TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP," featuring none other than Harry Langdon that funny comedian, in seven reels of hilarious fun. Take this one in and you won't be disappointed.

MONDAY, MAY 3:
"THE LOVE HOUR," with HUNTLY GORDON, LOUISE FAZENDA and WILLARD LOUIS. This is a romantic drama of a shop girl and a multimillionaire. The picture tells the story of the dream that reposes in the secret recesses of girlish hearts, to marry a fairy Prince, or a multimillionaire, and live happily ever after. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and single Variety reel, "SWEDEN TODAY."

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, MAY 4 AND 5:
"THE NEW KLONDIKE," headed by THOMAS MEIGHAN and LILA LEE. Florida, jammed before season opens. Glass of water, 15c. Baggage, 5 to 7 days late. Hotels over-crowded, hundreds living in tents. Freight embargo, stenographers making 700 per cent. in real estate deals. Millionaire clerks, Broadway stars, speculators, housewives and chorus girls. The New Klondike, the Eldorado of today. Against this seething, roaring, infinitely colored background Tom Meighan has made a great comedy drama, written by Ring Lardner. Also, Mack Sennett first run comedy, "HOTSY, TOTSY."

THURSDAY, MAY 6:
"TWO CAN PLAY," with GEORGE FAWCETT, ALLAN FORREST and CLARA BOW. The story is about a contest of two men for a girl. The picture begins with a snap of scenes of the father's attempt to prevent a match between Mr. Forrest and Miss Bow. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 7 AND 8:
"LETS GET MARRIED," with LOIS WILSON and RICHARD DIX, in a brand new farce comedy. The action starts when Dix and a couple of pals are seen in front of a night club, accompanied by an organ grinder, his monkey and a street cleaner. The sextette engaged in singing "Sweet Adeline." Their alma mater has just won a great football victory and they are helping to celebrate. Whatever you do don't think of missing this one. Also, Friday 8th chapter of the serial and on Saturday a first run two reel comedy.

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.
THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.
"SEA HORSES," with JACK HOLT, FLORENCE VIDOR, Wm. POWELL and GEORGE BANCROFT. Strong, colorful, satisfying melodrama told even more dramatically in motion pictures than in the words of the author. Here is the type of picture so many demands have been made for. Also, Mack Sennett's funny comedy, "WHISPERING WHISKERS."

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 7 AND 8:
"RAINBOW RILEY," with JOHNNY HINES in his biggest comedy hit of the season. It contains more laughs than the rainbow has colors, and then some. Come prepared for a laugh riot.
