

ADAM Y. WAGNER.

WAGNER.—In the passing away of Adam Yeager Wagner, at his home on Willowbank street at 5:30 o'clock on Sunday morning, Bellefonte loses another of its well known men.

A son of Jacob and Sabina Yeager Wagner he was born in Lebanon county on March 7th, 1843, hence had attained the age of 83 years, 1 month and 26 days.

He was compelled to resign his pastorate there on account of ill health, then moved to Frederick, Md., where he lived until last fall, when he went to Harrisburg.

Dr. Robb was president of the West Susquehanna Classis in 1892, president of the Potomac Synod in 1900 and the Pittsburgh Synod in 1909. He filled many positions of trust in the Reformed church and its allied institutions, all of which were discharged with the utmost fidelity.

In January, 1894, he married Miss Anna Dieffenbacher, of Turbotville, who survives with two daughters, Mrs. David Dunn, of Harrisburg, and Miss Dorothy M. Robb, a member of the faculty of the Taneytown High school.

Funeral services were held in Harrisburg at eleven o'clock, on Monday morning, the remains being taken to Turbotville for burial.

HOUTZ.—Mrs. Lillie May Houtz, widow of Chalmers Houtz, of College township, died last Thursday afternoon at the home of her son Edward, at Oak Hall, following an illness of several months.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sunday and was born at Milroy fifty-six years ago. All of her married life was spent in Centre county. Her husband died four years ago but surviving her are the following sons and daughters:

WALTER HOUTZ, of Pleasant Gap; Edward, of Oak Hall; George, of Detroit, Mich.; William, of Shiloh; Mary, of Detroit; Roy, Helen, Pearl and Clara, at home.

She also leaves two brothers and one sister, Arthur Sunday, of Lewistown; Harry, in North Dakota, and Mrs. Clara Williams, of Burnham. Rev. Smith, of the Evangelical church, had charge of the funeral services which were held at ten o'clock on Saturday morning, burial being made in the Shiloh cemetery.

HUTCHISON.—Word has been received in Bellefonte of the death on April 28th, of Woods Thomas Hutchison, at his home in Los Angeles, Cal., in his 78th year.

He was a son of Thomas and Maria Barber Hutchison, and was born on the old Hutchison homestead in Gregg township, Centre county. His mother was a daughter of John Barber, first associate judge of Centre county.

Mr. Hutchison was the last member of a family of four sons and four daughters. He was a brother of the late Dr. James F. Hutchison, of Harrisburg, and Capt. A. Boyd Hutchison, a former member of the Centre county bar. He is survived by two sons and one daughter.

BARNARD.—Rev. Joseph H. Barnard, father of George Grey Barnard America's most noted sculptor, died at Madison, Indiana, Sunday afternoon, April 25th. Deceased was 88 years old.

brother and a sister, William and Sarah Wolfe, both of Bellefonte. Rev. J. A. Mills, of the United Brethren church, had charge of the funeral services which were held at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

ROBB.—Rev. Dr. Lewis Robb, a widely known minister in the Reformed church, died last Thursday afternoon, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. David Dunn, in Harrisburg, after an illness of eight years as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

He was a son of Peter and Maria Gath Robb, and was born in Howard township, Centre county, on May 17th, 1860, hence was not quite 66 years old. As a boy he attended the public school at Marsh Creek and later took a course at the Penn Hall Academy under the late Dr. D. M. Wolf. He taught school several years then entered Franklin and Marshall college, at Lancaster, where he graduated in 1883.

Returning from college he taught one year at the Spring Mills Academy then was elected principal of the Mifflintown High school. He resigned that position to enter the Eastern Theological Seminary, at Lancaster, but two years later left college to become professor of mathematics and science in Palatinate College, at Myerstown.

In 1889 he was licensed to preach in the Reformed church by the West Susquehanna Classis and began his pastoral work in the Reformed church, at Williamsport. In 1893 he accepted a call to the Trinity Reformed church, Altoona, where he remained twelve years. From 1905 to 1919 he was pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, at Wilkensburg, the largest church in the Pittsburgh district.

He was compelled to resign his pastorate there on account of ill health, then moved to Frederick, Md., where he lived until last fall, when he went to Harrisburg.

Dr. Robb was president of the West Susquehanna Classis in 1892, president of the Potomac Synod in 1900 and the Pittsburgh Synod in 1909. He filled many positions of trust in the Reformed church and its allied institutions, all of which were discharged with the utmost fidelity.

Scenic Theatre PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAYS Week-Ahead Program FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 7 AND 8: "LET'S GET MARRIED, featuring RICHARD DIX and LOIS WILSON. Here is a fast farce comedy drama with Dix at his best. It's packed with laughs and romance, and it's sure to please any one who's said "lets get married." Not forgetting the family, you wouldn't think of passing up a farce comedy built around these most fatal words in the English language. Added on Friday night, 8th chapter of "CASEY OF THE COAST GUARD." On Saturday a brand new two reel comedy, "THE MAD RACER." MONDAY AND TUESDAY, MAY 10 AND 11: "THE BLIND GODDESS," with JACK HOLT, ERNEST TORRENCE, ESTHER RALSTON, LOUISE DRESSER and WARD CRANE. A smashing, dramatic romance staged against the sombre back-ground of New York's criminal courts, and centering around the character of a brilliant young lawyer who becomes a public prosecutor and is forced to choose between his idea of duty and the girl he loves, under extraordinary circumstances. Here is a marvelous story with the most sensational murder trial the screen has ever known as a smashing climax. Also, Mack Sennett two reel scream, "BETTER MOVIES." WEDNESDAY, MAY 12: "TWO MUCH MONEY," with LEWIS STONE and ANNA I. NILSSON. Here's a mildy of the millions, reaching to the moans of golden saxophones, with a fleet of motor cars to defy time, scattering priceless pearls in her dizzy race, only to find each pearl a tear in the end. But love makes the drama of life and money makes the wheels go round. Place 'em together and make the players such big ones as Lewis Stone and Anna Nilsson. Also, a Mack Sennett two reel comedy full of laughs. THURSDAY, MAY 13: "THE RUNAWAY," with CLARA BOW, WARNER BAXTER, GEORGE BANCROFT and WILLIAM POWELL. Directed by Mr. DeMille. This picture is a hop, skip and jump ahead of anything Mr. DeMille has ever done. A true life romantic drama of a "bright lights" Miss in the back hills county of Kentucky. A fiery love scene. A shot. A sickening thud, and then "The Runaway." Also, Pathe News and Pathe Review. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 14 AND 15: "THAT'S MY BABY," with none other than DOUGLAS McLEAN. A rollicking, rip-roaring farce comedy romance, that generates laughs and thrills with the rapid fire precision of a machine gun. Yes, sir; "That's My Baby," "Doug's best—and we don't mean maybe. Some title, some picture some gags, some laughs. Yes, sir; we've decided. No, mam; we won't hide it. "That's My Baby" is some show. Come prepared to have a thousand good, hearty laughs, 1000. Added on Friday, No 9 "Casey of the Coast Guard." Saturday, a red hot two reel comedy. MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE. THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, "RAINBOW RILEY," with that funny fellow, JOHNNY HINES. The biggest comedy Johnny ever made. Gallons of giggles. Cascades of comedy. And more laughs than the rainbow has colors. Hot dawg, what a comedy! FRIDAY, MAY 14: "THE BLUE STREAK," with RICHARD TALMADGE. Here is the fastest and greatest picture he ever made. No kiddin'. SATURDAY, MAY 15: "RAFFLES," with HOUSE PETERS and Miss DUPONT. A powerful western melodrama with a great cast.
