

BIG VICTORY FOR VARE PREDICTED IN COLLIER'S.
Weekly's Observer Thinks Pinchot
Votes Will go Democratic in Case of Defeat.

New York, May 10.—Vare will win in the Pennsylvania Republican Senatorial primary on May 18, Walter Davenport, of Collier's Weekly, declares in the current issue.

Mr. Davenport makes his prediction following an intensive survey of the primary contest in Pennsylvania and interviews with scores of supporters of the three candidates, Senator Pepper, Governor Pinchot and Congressman Vare, as well as first-hand investigation in the various voting strongholds.

Winning of the Senatorial nomination, he reports, is an incident in the larger fight for control of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, Vare's attack on the Mellon political interests being an attempt to maintain Philadelphia control against the gravitation of political supremacy to Pittsburgh. He points to Senator Pepper's defeat by 50,000 votes in Allegheny county in 1924 as significant, as also the indorsement of Beidleman, Vare's candidate for Governor against Fisher, the Mellon candidate, by such politicians as Joseph N. Mackrell, Allegheny County Register of Wills, as an indication of the trend among politicians in the congested cities.

His final conclusion is that the mass vote will swing to the wet margin, the World Court and similar issues having no large mass appeal in face of sentiment for modification of the Volstead act.

Boalsburg Stricken With Measles.

A general epidemic of measles has broken out at Boalsburg and everybody seems to be catching them— young and old alike.

Last week both the primary and grammar schools had to be closed on account of the epidemic and so many of the High school students have been infected or quarantined that there has been talk of closing it also.

A glance at the Scenic program published in the Watchman will convince you that manager T. Clayton Brown is showing some wonderful pictures at that popular place of amusement. Pictures the like of which cannot be seen anywhere else in Bellefonte. If you are a movie fan make the Scenic your regular place of entertainment as you are always sure to see something good.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAYS
Week-Ahead Program

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 14 AND 15:
"THAT'S MY BABY," with DOUGLAS McLEAN and MARGARIT MORRIS. Here we have Doug's latest and greatest picture, packed full of laughs and screams, and plenty of action all the way through. Bound to please all who see it. Added on Friday night, No. 9 of "CASEY OF THE COAST GUARD," and on Saturday a first run two reel comedy "TOO MANY RELATIONS."

MONDAY, MAY 17:
"THE UNKNOWN LOVER," headed by ELSIE FERGUSON and FRANK MAYO. The story of a wife who succeeds so well in goading her husband to business success that he keeps going on in a frenzy to get rich, even when the doctors have warned him that his health is being wrecked. The wife finds herself in a position where she can wreck his business and save his health. Would a woman choose for her man certain wealth or uncertain health? Come and see it. Also, Path News, Aceo's Fables and a single reel comedy.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY MAY 18 AND 19:
"THE GREATER GLORY," with CONWAY TEARLE and ANNA Q. NILSSON. Now the story can be told—the heart cry of millions drowned out by the drama of war—the drama of an embattled people feeling the steel ring of defeat closing in—the death chamber of a nation turned into a gilded hall of Bacchus; and through it all the golden glory of a woman unbowed to defeat. Now it can be told—and is told—in measures of drama and beauty that are amazing in their greatness. And played only as Conway Tearle and Anna Q. Nilsson could do it. Also, a brand new two reel comedy, "PAPA BE GOOD."

THURSDAY, MAY 20:
"A SOCIAL CELEBRITY," headed by ADOLPHE MENJOU and LOUISE BROOKS. An hilarious funny screen romance of a small town barber who goes to take New York and runs into riotous adventure and delightful romances. Not high hat entertainment but down to earth jolly good fun. Also, Path News and Pathe Review.

FRIDAY, MAY 21:
"THE MAN FOUR SQUARE," with BUCK JONES. Here is Buck in another one of those strong, western pictures and all the gang in waiting to get a shot at him, but Buck plays square and has all the chance in the world to get his man in the end. Also the final chapter of the great serial, "CASEY OF THE COAST GUARD."

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

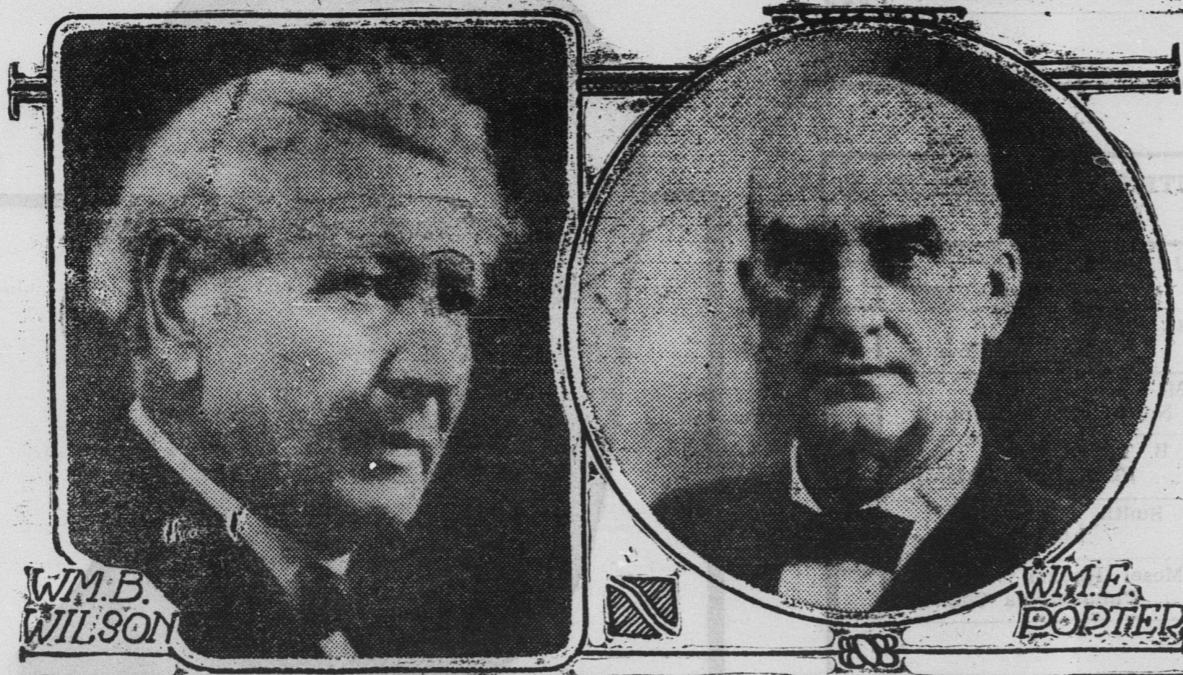

THIS FRIDAY.
"THE BLUE STREAK," with RICHARD TALMADGE in high gear. Here is Dick in his usual fast moving action picture with more athletic stunts than ever before. Also, a first run two reel comedy, "Your Husband's Past," and Mr. Mervin, the world's greatest piano-accompanist, in person, playing all the latest and best selections. Admission, 10 and 25.

THIS SATURDAY.
"RAFFLES," with HOUSE PETERS, in a powerful western crook melodrama. Also, a good two reel comedy and Mr. Mervin, the crack piano-accompanist in person.

NEXT FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.
"FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE," with HAROLD LLOYD in his latest and greatest success. Whatever you do next week For Heaven's Sake don't dare miss this one. Also, a first run two reel comedy, "TRIMMED IN GOLD."

WILSON and PORTER

For United States Senator For Governor

Secretary Wilson says:
"I am campaigning with Judge Porter because he comes nearest the ideal for Governor of any of the candidates with whom I have been in contact in this campaign,"—Bellefonte, April 28, 1926.

The Pittsburgh Post, April 20, 1926, said "the high purpose for the upbuilding of the party" is shown by Mr. Wilson's touring the State with Judge Porter "to impress upon Democrats the great opportunity and duty that have been presented them this year."

The Harrisburg Patriot, May 6, said that the demand of Democrats for a strong party is not strange "in view of the fact that for two years the party has been without State headquarters" and that the party in numerous districts will be without congressional and legislative candidates in the primaries. "For the public that is a deplorable situation; for aggressive, genuine Democrats, it is intolerable."
