be sent without cost to applicants.

The special election for borough officials for the new borough of Port Matilda, last Saturday, developed the fact that party lines are not drawn very tight there when it comes to choosing home rule officials. At the primaries most of the candidates got on three tickets, the Republican, Democratic and Prohibition, but when it came to the election on Saturday there were plenty of independent candidates, and some of them gave the regular candidates a pretty hard chase. The complete returns are as follows:

In fact, at the special election of officers for the new borough of Port Matilda, on Saturday, he was elected justice of the peace, an office he had filled in the township for thirty-five years. He passed away at 11:15 o'clock on Sunday morning.

Mr. Reese was a son of Christian and Elizabeth Reese and was born on the old Reese homestead on the mountain above Filmore on May 3rd, 1848, hence was 78 years and 12 days old. As a boy he was educated in the public schools of his home locality and as a young man taught school several terms. He then went to Pittsburgh and took a course in the Iron City husiness college. Shortly after returning to Centre county he became associated with Hoover, Hughes & Co., lumber manufacturers and dealers, of Philipsburg. Two years later State College, bulls of this type in the firm was dissolved and Mr. Reese then located in Port Matilda. That increased the production of their was fifty-one years ago, when the daughters over their dams 25 per cent. present borough was but a scattering of a few houses, so that he was virtumercantile, etc. In the early days of the town almost every male resident was in Mr. Reese's employ. His John Lyons Killed by Premature motto in business was honesty and integrity, with a square deal for every man with whom he had dealings.

Mr. Reese was a sincere member of attendant until overtaken by physical disability. He was a Thirty-third degree Mason, being a member of Bellefonte Lodge No. 268, and the Bloomsways worked faithfully to that end.

Mr. Reese could trace his ancestry ous back to 1776 when his paternal grandfather came to this country from Germany and fought in the Revolutionary war, doing his part in America's fight for independence. His maternal grandmother also played an important part in the historic struggle, while his mother, the late Mrs. Elizabeth Reese, nee Evans, was a real Daughter of the American Revolution and as such was presented with a solid gold souvenir spoon by the Bellefonte Chapter D. A. R.

On February 19th, 1872, Mr. Reese married Miss Clarissa Hoover, at Unionville, and she survives with six children, namely: Mrs. Ola McNamara, of Rossiter, Pa.; Mrs. Grace Williams, of Port Matildia; Mrs. Kathryn Woodring, of Tyrone; Mrs. Edna leaves one sister and one brother, Mrs. Alice Hoover, on the old homestead, and Joseph, at Maryville, Mo.

Holstein Bull Association Formed at State College.

Dairymen of the State College community have organized Centre countys first bull association. The association is made up of four blocks with three men to a block. The object is to group together and purchase outstanding bulls of the Holstein breed. The requirements for a bull association are bulls from high producing ancestry, from a dam who has made not less than 1000 of butterfat in 365 days, they must also be of good type and more or less conform to one good line of breeding.

This association has purchased three bulls from the Winithur Farms. Wilmington, Delaware, which conform to these requirements. According to S. J. Brownell, dairy specialist of other associations in the State have CIRCUS IS BIGGEST. Ringling Bros. Enlarge Greatest Show On Earth to Dedicate Mammoth New York Edifice.

A circus so big that it requires two added rings, eight stages, a wider hippodrome track and a 700-foot-long big top to display its marvels is now headed this way. It is the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows, to give performances at. Williamsport May 21.

The five rings now used have been made necessary to present the added attractions got together in the spring to celebrate the combined shows first appearance in New York's New Madison Square Garden. This edifice is the biggest ever built for circus purposes. To fittingly dedicate it the Ringling Brothers themselves spent months in Europe mobilizing the biggest circus in history. show that for weeks entertained New York's millions is now on tour under canvas.

The tournament is as brilliant as in. the past but has been enlarged by the addition of such novelties as zebras and llamas broken to harness and hitched to gem-studded floats. Wee baby elephants ride at the tops of allegorical cars. The menagerie of more than a thousand animals embraces such features as thirteen elephant youngsters with the smallest stationed side by side with the biggest pachyderms in captivity. Another importation is the largest and handsomest tiger of which there is record.

Performing horse acts are now presented in quintet—a troupe in each of the five rings. Those elephants who are performers appear in similar formation-five herds at one time. The number of men and women aerialists, bareback riders, gymnasts and highwire performers has been increased to eight hundred. There are three hundred and fifty trained horses, two hundred of which appear in a single display. One hundred double length cars are required to handle this gigantic amusement enterprise.

Christy Bros. Trained Wild Animal Show in Bellefonte May 28th.

For the first time in the history of wild animal training zebras and zebrulas have been taught to perform tricks and obey the will of their trainer. Some fine specimens of these animals are with Christy Bros, trained wild animal show, which will exhibit in Bellefonte on Friday, May 28th. For natural born stubbornness, gen-eral cussedness and total lack of finer feelings, the zebra is in many degrees removed from his distant relative, the American mule, and no more odious comparison to the detriment of the wild ass of Asia could be made. The striped equine has always been the stumbling block in the paths of edu-cators and trainers of beasts and animals. Many of them, after herculean and patient endeavor, have given up The Central Pennsylvania district in disgust and consigned the convict-firemen's association will meet in coated animal to a remote and disa-years concurred in this belief, but heroic perseverance was finally and justly rewarded. These circus kings now have with their great show zefiremen met in Tyrone and naturally bras that give performances which inthey are out to make this year's gath-clude everything done by the best trick horses. Drills and intricate manoeuvers are accomplished with precision and correctness. The aniperfect time with music of the band; they eat at the table, feign death, play clown and perform other numerous and incredible tricks. And to further demonstrate the complete control that is exercised over them, the zestreet parade.

Interesting in this connection is the appearance and presentation at the time of several zebrulas, or equine hybrids, the only ones of their kind, produced by scientific crossing of full-blooded zebras and Kentucky thoroughbred horses.
