Passing tourists saved the A. C.

Kepler manse in the Glades from going up in smoke Sunday night. Fire had started on the porch roof, evidently from a cigarette stump carelessly tossed out of a window. The family had retired but the cry of "Fire!" routed them out in time to save the building from ruins.

Eugene Snyder, with several youths, were out for a spin on the pike on Sunday and came to grief on a curve below town when they crashed into a bank and almost upset in the ditch. A wheel was entirely smashed, but fortunately no one was injured and as they got a new wheel they got on their way to Half Moon only a little late for milking.

Rev. John S. English, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran church, has been singularly honored. Although a member of the Central Penna. Lutheran conference less than four years he was chosen to deliver the ordination sermon, an honor seldom falling to a new member. He preached it as his regular sermon last Sunday morning and it proved very inspiring.

On Ascension day morning a group of ladies wended their way to the Sam'l McW. Hess home on the Branch, where Mrs. Mariah Reed took her first lessons in housekeeping fifty-seven years ago. It was also her birthday. She was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Sam'l Hess Jr. Mrs. Minnie Hess helped out by serving a delicious birth-day dinner to which only a few special friends were invited. The afternoon was spent pleasantly. She was the recipient of many gifts and congratulatory cards.

PRESENTING THE BETTER CLASS PHOTOPLAYS
Week-Ahead Program

SATURDAY, MAY 22:

"THE FAR CRY," with BLANCHE SWEET, JACK MULHALL, MYRTLE STEADMAN and HOBART BOSWORTH. It's a far cry from a homing husband in New York to a roaming wife in Paris. A cry of longing that rises overall distance and tugs at old hearts until it finds just the one. Only those who have heard the love whisper can tell. With a cast like this and the scenes in a Continental hall and the moon and surf dance filmed in natural colors, who would think of missing it? Also, a brand new two reel comedy, "A SOCIAL TRIANGLE."

MONDAY, MAY 24:

"I'LL SHOW YOU THE TOWN," with REGINAL DENNY. Here is a romantic comedy of a youth who is entertaining three women, none of whom know the identity of the two others, and finds himself on the brink of scandal. But as usual this clever fellow works his way out of a peculiar circumstance and with the aid of Cassy Fitzgerald makes the whole picture a continuous scream from beginning to end. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and a single reel comedy, "CANARY ISLAND."

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, MAY 25 AND 26:

"THE UNTAMED LADY," with GLORIA SWANSON and LAWRENCE GRAY. A luxurious society comedy—romance with dramatic trimmings. The heroine, a girl with twenty millions and unchangeable temper falls in love with a man who tries to break her but he only succeeds when, after he is injured, his weakness conquers where his strength had failed. Come and find out how you would tame an Untamed Lady. Also, a Mack Sennett two reel laugh riot, "WANDERING PAPAS."

THURSDAY, MAY 27:

"FLAMES," with VIRGINIA VALLI and EUGENE O'BRIEN. Here is a very clever love story from the beginning to the end and has quite a lot of action, especially the necktie partnership is a big surprise. The hero and heroine have quite a battle, but only the brave deserve the fair. Also, Pathe News and Review.

FRIDAY, MAY 28:

"THE DEMOND," featuring JACK HOXIE. Another Hoxie picture just packed full of action and extraordinary thrills. Also, a two reel comedy, "TAKE YOUR TIME," and first episode of the new serial, "BAR C. MYSTERY."

MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE.

THIS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

"FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE," with none other than HAROLD LLOYD, the world's greatest comedian. This is his latest and greatest picture and has all the laughs any one could desire. The admission for this picture will be children, 25 cents; adults, 50. A special children's matinee will be held at the scenic Saturday afternoon at 2.30 p. m. Admission for the children 15 cents and 25 for adults. Also, a first run two reel Mack Sennett comedy, "TRIMMED IN GOLD."

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 28 AND 29:

"DESERT GOLD," a Zane Grey story written especially for the screen, with Neil Hamilton, Shirley Mason and William Powell. A genuine western picture.
