PINE GROVE MENTION.

Miss Mary Adams has gone to Houtzdale to spend the summer months.

Henry Clay Musser, of Detroit, Mich., has been here visiting friends of former years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goss have returned from a two weeks trip to Philadelphia and Scranton.

Mrs. Sadie Everts is out at Pitearn adding her blessing to the new arrival at the Paul Rupp home.

Prof. J. M. Rice was up at Bethlehem, last week, attending a reunion of his class at Lehigh University.

The Ferguson township auxiliary of the Centre county hospital now has ninety-six members, and holds regular monthly meetings.

Miss Eleanor Musser, a student at the Ithaca, N. Y., conservatory of music, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Musser.

Rev. J. F. Harkins, of State College, has been down at Selinsgrove the past two weeks, where he is in charge of a boy's camp.

C. G. Aikens was out at Denver, Col., last week attending the national convention of Rotarians, as a delegate from the State College club.

Hugh L. Dale, wife and two sons, Joseph and Charles, of Mifflinburg, spent several days last week at Mr. Dale's parental home on the Branch.

Miss Retta Ward, for the past five years teacher of the seventh grade school at Juniata, will spend her vacation with her father, W. B. Ward, whose health is none of the best.

We are greatly indebted to J. Herbert Ward, a former Pine Grove Mills boy, for showing us around during a brief visit to Philadelphia two weeks ago. A visit to the Sesqui showed but few buildings completed and it looks as if it will be several months before the big show will be in place.

The writer has attended most of the State encampments of the G. A. R. and of them all I think the one at Bethlehem two weeks ago was one of the best. Unusual hospitality was shown the visitors by officials and the public generally in that city. The ladies of the G. A. R. voted the sum of $1,216 for distribution among various G. A. R. posts. It was decided to hold next year's encampment at Uniontown.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. Fred Lose was a visitor last week with friends in Tyrone.

Miss Mary Hile, who has been teaching school in Kane, has returned home for the summer.

Miss Mary Boyles, of Milesburg, was a week-end visitor with her friend, Miss Nellie Peters.

Paul Reishell and family, of Worcester, Mass., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reishell.

Doc Stover is about completing a very desirable home in the vicinity of the cross roads. The same will be offered for sale or rent.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Noll, Mr. and Mrs. John Noll and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Noll were among those who attended the wedding of their nephew, Kermit Noll, of Zion.

Our-up-to-date post-mistress has inaugurated a very desirable and satisfactory change. Instead of going to her home and closing her office for dinner, she now brings her lunch basket to the office, the same as do our quarry-men. The office is now open during the entire day, from 7 a. m. until 5 p.m. Her many patrons are delighted with the desirable change.

Mr. Wm. Kerstetter, contractor, is about completing his new home in the Noll Bros. new addition. It will be a model home, and will be occupied by one of the Whitlock officials at an early date. Mr. Kerstetter is now the owner of four very desirable homes at the Gap. It is to be hoped that others of our capitalists will follow suit, as we need the houses badly.

Game Season Changes Given by Commission.

Under the county closing law of 1915, many counties have been closed each year to game of various kinds upon petition to the board. This law was originally intended to protect game in newly stocked counties, but the practice of filing petitions to close to game of various sorts became so general that during the last few years almost half the counties in the State have been closed to one or more species.

This action has always crowded hunters into neighboring counties, and it was frequently necessary to close such neighboring counties the following year to overcome the handicap thus imposed upon the game of these counties.

Much ill-feeling among sportsmen of neighboring counties resulted, and in many instances, sportsmen with the best intentions, who did not know the county lines, killed game in closed counties and were fined. Last year, in an effort to acquaint all sportsmen of the State with the counties closed and prevent violations, every license was supplied with a complete list of the counties affected.

This spring prior to May 31 petitions were received from about half the counties asking the board to either close entirely for one or more years, or shorten the season decided upon on such game as wild turkeys, ruffed grouse, ringneck pheasants, quail and rabbits.

Sentiment generally was in favor of closing the entire State to the newly stocked Hungarian quail, and most sportsmen favored protecting turkeys for one year. Many desired large portions of the State closed entirely to ruffed grouse in an effort to increase the king of game birds. Others asked to have the season on ringneck pheasants reduced to but a few days, and a large majority of the sportsmen requested that the season for upland small game be closed before the large game season opens. By such action they hoped to save many more native rabbits for breeding purposes, as they are always easily killed on tracking snows during December, and to reduce the number of hunting accidents that are bound to occur where both large and small game hunters cover the same territory simultaneously.

After making a careful study of the entire situation throughout the State, the board under authority of 1925 legislation, decided that in fairness to the sportsmen from all parts of the State, as well as to the game, closing individual counties should be done only where new game is being stocked in a restricted area, and for 1926 it was decided to close seasons and reduce bag limits throughout the entire State as follows:

- Wild Turkeys—Season closed entirely.
  - Ruffed Grouse—Season reduced to November 1 to November 13, inclusive, Sunday excepted, and a season bag limit of ten instead of fifteen birds.
  - Male Ringneck Pheasants—Season reduced to November 1 to November 13, inclusive, Sunday excepted.
  - Hungarian Partridges—Season is closed entirely.
  - Rabbits and Hare—Season reduced to November 1 to November 30 inclusive, Sundays excepted.
- The seasons and bag limits as they will appear in the summary on the back of the 1926 hunters' licenses are in accord with the above action.
- Present indications are that no individual counties will be closed to game of any kind this year, except as a further protection to grouse certain sections may be closed to the hunting of woodcock during the month of October, or following the close of the grouse season. If such further action is taken, ample notice will be given early in July.

Unightly Hot Dog Stand Target for Auto Association.

The American Automobile Association of more than 200,000 members is clamoring for the death knell of a great American institution—the hot dog stand.

When nature painted the scenic beauties through which the American highways wind, the association feels, it was not her intention that the grandeur be shared with a dazzling array of gaudy signs cautioning motorists to "detour a mile ahead for refreshments."

A resolution was adopted by delegates at the annual convention condemning the practice of promiscuously granting concessions to unsightly refreshment stands, whose signs clutter up the landscape.

The resolution was the first step to clean up the highways and prevent the fragrant hot dog stands from spoiling the beauties which motorists travel hundreds of miles to see. The association will send out appeals for aid in their campaign to Federal authorities including the National Park Service, State Highway Departments and County and municipal governments.

"Of course we do not want to eliminate the refreshment stands entirely," said Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, who sponsored the resolution.

"Our purpose is simply to regulate their location and appearance so they will not be a blight to the beautiful country that motorists can still enjoy in its natural state. The enterprising vendor of hot dog and soda pop has invaded every part of the country open to motorists and in his wake has left a trail of bottles and papers that are disgusting.

"Many of the most beautiful spots in the country's forest preserves have been spoiled by these stands many of which could be located without loss

The enrollment this summer is expected to be about 2000, and may exceed recent records because of the special attractions arranged in the form of specialized educational projects. Feature courses in rural education, physical education, health education, nature study and others are arousing more than ordinary interest among public school teachers this year.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JUNE 25 AND 26:
"SANDY," with MADGE BELLAMY and HARRISON FORD. Sandy is a late 1926 model super flapper. She has physical charms of Cleopatra at seventeen, the fire of Vesuvius, the stability of a humming bird and the conscience of a taxi meter. Conventions are annual affairs with her and she strings along with Patrick Henry in the matter of liberty or what have you. Sandy is, in brief, a sort of animated declaration of independence, Madam DuBarry T. N. T. cocktail and Florida sunrise, all rolled into one. Will tell you and you'll tell the world that Sandy sure is a knockout. See it by all means, folks. Added on Friday night, 5th chapter of the "Bar C. Mystery" serial, and on Saturday a first run two reel comedy.

MONDAY, JUNE 28:
"A TRIP TO CHINATOWN," with EARL FOX, MARGARET LIVINGSTON and U. FARRELL McDONALD. Here is a farce comedy. It's a story of a young millionaire believing he will die in six months, joins his gay uncle in San Francisco and at a Chinatown party, given by the latter, he meets a charming widow, gets involved into exciting troubles which help to cure him. He finally wins the widow and oh, what a scream! See it; it's good. Also, Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and a single reel comedy.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29 AND 30:
"IT'S THE OLD ARMY GAME," with W. C. FIELDS, the funny comedian, and LOUISE BROOKS. Here is another farce comedy. Putting reverse English on the real estate boom, selling New York lots in Florida, and Fields as the drug store proprietor, whose shop is a rendezvous for persons who do everything but buy drugs. His scenes with the baby are exceptionally screaming and we advise you to stay at home if you can't have a good, hearty laugh. Also, a first run two reel Mack Sennett comedy, "Hot Cakes for Two."

THURSDAY, JULY 1:
"THE SECRET SPRING," with HUGETTE DUFFLOS, the most beautiful woman in France. It is a modern mystery melodrama. Ever keen, ever watchful; the spring bride knows that America is now discovering its own American period. Early American is the dominating note in furniture, furnishings—and now, in solid silver.

The first design to express this first purely American awakening is MINUET. MINUET. What pictures of lovely grace that name awakens! And how delightfully the design carries out the grace of America's most graceful period.

We believe MINUET the design of the hour and of America's decorative future.
