

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., July 2, 1926.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Wheat is down to $1.35.

—Eleven trucks and one wagon were lined up at the curb market, last Saturday morning, and practically everything was sold that was brought in.

—Stearl Gunsallus and Miss Pearl Adella Leathers, both of Bellefonte, were granted a marriage license at Cumberland, Md., last Thursday.

—The Half Moon Gardens are already in the market with choice plants and are offering some beautiful Boston ferns. See advertisement on page 5.

—Mrs. James B. Lane was hostess at a dinner Wednesday evening, given in compliment to Mrs. E. H. Richard and her cousin, Miss Hibbs, of Norristown.

—The members of St. Mary's Guild of the Bellefonte Episcopal church, will hold a bake sale at the Variety shop, on Allegheny St., on Saturday, July 3rd.

—Edward Whitmer, grand-son of Edward Whitmer, of Bush Addition, left Bellefonte last week to join a carnival Co., with which he will ride a motor cycle in a motor-drome.

—If you want to puzzle over something for a few minutes lay ten coins, or checkers in a row and try to crown five of them by jumping over two of them each move you make.

—Often a little soap and water proves a splendid substitute for gailons of paint. Look at the front of the Colonial restaurant. No, it hasn't been painted recently; merely scrubbed.

—A hot box on the locomotive hauling the passenger train on the Lewisburg branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, Tuesday morning, resulted in its being over an hour late in arriving in Bellefonte.

—J. D. Wilkie, proprietor of the Model laundry, is able to be out again after an illness that has lasted since early in February. Mr. Wilkie is still badly crippled but is in high hope that his trouble will gradually clear up.

—Two colored men, inmates of Rockview penitentiary, got a free ride to Pittsburgh and return last week, having been taken to the Smoky city to appear as witnesses in a case being tried in the quarter sessions court. They were returned to Rockview on Friday.

—Herbert G. McCracken, head football coach at Lafayette college, was married on Saturday to Miss Helen Leis Kohl, of Ben Avon. They will spend the summer at State College where Mr. McCracken will assist coach Hugo Bezdek at the summer football training camp.

—That the fish in Spring creek are a very rare attraction was proven to us on Sunday afternoon when a gentleman who had a party of eight in his car said they had driven all the way from Altoona "just to have a look at these fish that so many people up our way are talking about."

—The Pennsylvania Railroad company has filed a complaint with the Public Service Commission against Charles H. Tressler, of State College, alleging failure to stop busses at grade crossings and also for operating busses after his certificates of public convenience expired on June first.

—Preliminary work on the proposed remodeling of the Moose theatre is going on and it is thought that actual reconstruction can be gotten under way shortly. Bids for the work have been received, but as one of them was not in proper form it may be necessary to have a reletting. However this is only a matter of conjecture.

—Next Monday will be celebrated as the Fourth of July but the Seem celebrates every evening in the week by showing the best motion pictures made. Every movie fan wants to see the latest and best and the one place in Bellefonte where such pictures are always shown is at the Seenic. If you want to see them all you should be a regular.

—While driving across the mountain from Port Matilda to Stormstown, two weeks ago today, assistant county superintendent H. C. Rothrock suffered a stroke of paralysis. His son Harry was with him and he took him home as quickly as possible. He is now slowly improving under the care of his daughter, Miss Rachel, a professional nurse.

—The executive committee of the Republican county committee held a meeting at the Centre Hills Country club, on Wednesday, and enjoyed one of the steward's appetizing dinners. Just thirteen sat at the table and now we will have a chance to see whether the unlucky number means disaster for the Republicans in their campaign in Centre county this fall.

—Clearfield county sportsmen are circulating petitions to be presented to the State game commission requesting the closing of the headwaters of all streams in the State as a better protection to young trout. Their petition has reference only to the small mountain streams which are the feeders of the larger streams and where the young trout can find a safe retreat from fishermen.

Story of Auto Accident in which Two Were Killed.

A brief item in last week's Watchman told of two people being killed on the concrete highway between Sandy Ridge and Bald Eagle, last Wednesday night, particulars of which are as follows:

Following a birthday celebration in Tyrone Charles Miller, Mrs. Emma Rose Kniper, Paul Miles, Miss Mary Smith, Clarence Parsons and Mrs. Paul Miles left Tyrone about eleven o'clock at night to take a drive in a big Oldsmobile. They went to Hi-Vue, on the top of the mountain, where they turned around and started on the homeward drive. Now it just happened that Prof. John Bracken, of the landscape gathering department, of Pennsylvania State College, was on his way to Clearfield in a Ford car, and not far from the foot of the mountain he saw the big car coming down the highway at a pretty high speed and as a matter of safety for himself he pulled as far to the side of the road as he could.

But the big car sideswiped the Ford car, and not far from the foot it plunged over the embankment, striking a pine tree with force enough to snap it off at the ground and hurl it fifteen feet away. The big car then struck another pine tree, turned completely over and landed right side up, a mass of wreckage. The six occupants of the car were thrown out, the driver, Charles Miller, and Mrs. Kniper, being caught beneath the car and instantly killed. Miller's skull was fractured and Mrs. Kniper's head split open. Miss Mary Smith sustained bad cuts on the face and injuries on the back and legs; Paul Miles, was slightly bruised and cut; Clarence Parsons had cuts on the arms and legs while Mrs. Paul Miles was uninjured. Prof. Bracken escaped injuries but his car was damaged. Passing motorists took the dead and injured to Tyrone. Miller, one of the killed, was 41 years old and a native of Bald Eagle. Mrs. Kniper was only 23 years old.

Westmoreland County Man Dies in Electric Chair.

Angelo Cicere, of Westmoreland county, was electrocuted at Rockview penitentiary on Monday morning for the murder of Earl Shoup on July 4th, 1922. Cicere, who was forty years old, was a shoemaker in Loyahanna. On the evening of the day of the murder he started out to celebrate the Fourth. He had some drinks and finally drifted into the Atlantic club, where he got into an altercation. Earl Shoup, president of the club, intervened and Cicere drew his revolver and shot him dead. His only defense was that he had been celebrating the Fourth and that he thought Shoup had a gun and he shot in self-defense. After his first conviction an appeal was taken to the Supreme court which granted a new trial and Cicere was again convicted of first degree murder. His case was before the Supreme court twice, the Board of Pardons four times and he had been granted six respites. The first date for his electrocution was June 29th, 1925, and the Saturday previous he was brought to the death house by Sheriff Fighner. Just as the sheriff and his prisoner arrived there a message was received from Harrisburg that Cicere had been granted a respite and was to be taken back to Westmoreland county. His second trial followed.

From the time Cicere was brought to the death house last Saturday until he was taken to the electric chair he was in a dazed condition, eating little and sleeping little. He was attended to the chair by Father O'Hanlon, of State College. The body was unclaimed and was buried in the penitentiary cemetery.

Bellefonte Down to Third Place.

By losing an eleven inning game to Jersey Shore, last Thursday, Bellefonte dropped back to third place in the Susquehanna league. It was a hard game to lose and for several days after the catastrophe fans were playing the game over just to show how it could have been avoided, but that didn't count in the score. Both teams played good ball but the breaks favored the visitors and they were able to take advantage of every one. This is evident from the fact that Jersey Shore had five errors while Bellefonte had but two, but those two proved costly ones for the home team.

On Saturday Bellefonte journeyed to Lock Haven but rain put an end to the game after two innings had been played. The standing of the clubs to date is as follows:

| | W. | L. | Pc. |
|-----------------------|----|----|------|
| Jersey Shore | 5 | 1 | .833 |
| Mill Hall | 5 | 2 | .714 |
| Bellefonte | 5 | 3 | .625 |
| Kew-Bees | 3 | 7 | .300 |
| Williamsport P. R. R. | 3 | 7 | .300 |
| Renovo | 3 | 7 | .300 |

Improving Bald Eagle Valley Road.

State highway workmen are now improving that stretch of the Bald Eagle valley road lying between Howard and the Boggs township line. It is also the intention to rebuild the road between Beech Creek and the Marsh Creek bridge, west of Blanchard. When these two stretches are completed it will give the residents of lower Bald Eagle valley an improved roadway from Milesburg to Lock Haven.

—Farmers in need of harness or saddlery repairs will find a great two-week bargain opportunity awaiting them at Schofields, on Spring street. Reference to the advertisement on page 5 will disclose some of the bargains.

—Alvie J. Confer, who has been acting postmaster at Orviston since the resignation of Richard A. Bolo-pue, was last week given the permanent appointment. Miss Maude E. Northamer was also appointed post-mistress at Kylertown to take the place of Mrs. Myrtle B. Devinney, resigned.

—Miss Defoe, of New York city, field secretary for the inauguration of fresh air work, has been in Bellefonte and State College this week, in the interest of the return of the children, for their two weeks in the country. Miss Defoe had no trouble in organizing her committee, which will represent the different churches of the town, and feels greatly encouraged as to the outcome of the project.

—All of the eighteen bids submitted for the erection of the New Spring township consolidated school building, at Pleasant Gap, having been considerably in excess of the $60,000.00 authorized for the building project, no award was made by the board at its meeting last week. It met again Tuesday night to consider certain revisions of the plan that might possibly bring the cost within the budget.

—About nine o'clock Monday evening Paul Young was driving up High street in a Ford runabout. Just as he was crossing Spring street a car came out from the north on that thoroughfare and hit him a wallop that sent the Ford spinning half-way across High street. The offending car never stopped. Paul did, however. His right rear wheel was knocked clear off and his car otherwise battered by the impact which sounded like the explosion of a big gun.

—Willis, the sixteen year old son of the Rev. Wardner Willard and Mrs. Willard, of Avis, who graduated with the class of '26 from Dickinson seminary, Williamsport, has left school pre-eminently the honor man of the year, having won the Dickinson college scholarship, was valedictorian of his class, won the prize for general excellency, for Greek work in his Senior year and had held the prize for spelling during his three years work. Willis will enter Dickinson college in the fall.

—Miss Mary Katz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Katz, of this place, one of the most popular girls at the Sargent school for physical education, at Cambridge, Mass., where she is a member of the Senior class, has distinguished herself for excellence in athletics and class work. At Peterborough, N. H., where the early summer session of the Sargent camp was held, she took a prominent part in the annual school track meet. She won first place for her class in the 50-yard dash covering the distance in 63 seconds.

—Fish commissioner N. R. Buller has approved the plans of the State Centre Game, Fish and Forestry Association, of Phillipsburg, for the construction of a big fish dam on the Black Moshannon, and now all that is necessary to assure the building of the dam is the raising of about two thousand dollars to bear the expense of same. But this should be a mere bagatelle to the enthusiastic sportsmen over the mountain and we anticipate hearing in the near future that the money has been raised and work on the dam started.

—Corinne Griffith and Norman Kerry in "Mademoiselle Modiste," a Fourth of July special, at the Seenic next Monday and Tuesday. 27-1t

—Because July 4th falls on Sunday next Monday will be celebrated as the legal holiday; and the big picnic of the Logan fire company, at Hecla park, will be the only celebration in this vicinity. Bellefonters, naturally, will flock to the park; as it is an ideal place to spend a day and in addition the Logans deserve the patronage of every Bellefonte resident. They are always ready to respond to every call for help and now when there is a chance to help them it should be done. One of the big attractions will be the ball game in the afternoon between Bellefonte and the Williamsport P. R. R., of the Susquehanna league.

—The screen's most beautiful star, Corinne Griffith, in "Mademoiselle Modiste," at the Seenic next Monday and Tuesday. 27-1t

Do Your Trees Need Trimming?

Henry A. Hartling, with twelve years practical experience and four years technical training in tree culture, is in Bellefonte doing some tree surgery.

If any of the trees in front of your residence or on your lawn need dressing up or attention to preserve them now would be a good opportunity to have it done as Mr. Hartling has his equipment here and can be communicated with through this office.

His prices are very reasonable and he guarantees satisfaction with each job.

Mr. Spigelmyer Retires from Membership in The Variety Shop.

Effective yesterday the firm of G. R. Spigelmyer & Co., proprietors of The Variety Shop, in Crider's Exchange, was dissolved, Mr. Spigelmyer retiring and in the future the business will be conducted by Homer P. Barnes. Mr. Spigelmyer, who has attained his four score years, is one of the oldest merchants in Centre county. As a young man he engaged in business at Hartleton and later at Spring Mills and following a successful career there came to Bellefonte and on January 1st, 1889, opened up The Racket store in Crider's Exchange. It was a strictly one price, cash store and the business grew rapidly until it took up three rooms in the Exchange building, with a rear ware room and basements.

In fact it grew beyond Mr. Spigelmyer's resources and he closed out and started The Variety Shop which he has conducted quite successfully ever since. Thirty-five years ago, or in 1891, Homer P. Barnes, then a boy in his teens, went into the store as a clerk and continued in that capacity until 1910 when he was made a junior partner. His close and strict attention to the details of the business has been rewarded by his becoming the sole proprietor.

Mr. Spigelmyer's retirement does not mean that he intends leaving Bellefonte or retiring to a quiet life. He will still be seen around The Variety Shop, where for a time, at least, he will look after the books and help out in any way he can.

All Night Parking Prohibited.

All night parking will hereafter be prohibited in the central zone of Bellefonte, as follows:

- On Allegheny street from Lamb to Logan.
- On Spring street from Lamb street to Pine and out Pine street to the borough line.
- On Water street from Lamb to the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad.
- On Bishop street from Spring to Penn.
- On High street from Thomas to Penn.
- On Howard street from Spring to Penn.

All cars found within the prohibited zone after one o'clock a. m. will be tagged and subject to a fine of $2.00.
