

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., August 6, 1926.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Don't fail to shop in Bellefonte on Opportunity Day.

—The Robert Roan family moved into their new home on west Curtin street on Tuesday.

—The tearing down and removal of the old steam heating plant seems to be a slow process.

—Over $500 worth of valuable gifts given away to those who shop in Bellefonte on August 11.

—Every dollar you spend in Bellefonte on Opportunity Day, August 11, will get you an Opportunity ticket.

—The Undines can have no quarrel with the weather man. He gave them a fine day for their picnic yesterday.

—The big Williams family reunion will be held in the John G. Miles grove, at Martha, on Saturday, August 21st.

—A list of wonderful gifts is that to be given away by the Associated Business Men of Bellefonte on Opportunity Day.

—Up to yesterday at 11 o'clock 686 children had registered for the Elks' "Kiddies Day," at Hecla park, next Thursday.

—R. Gail Mitchell, of this place, has been appointed to succeed the late M. F. Broderick as chief electrician at the new penitentiary.

—Bellefonte paid $4275 for the oil used in repairing its streets this summer, but it is generally conceded that it was money well spent.

—Sheriff E. R. Taylor got nine new boarders Saturday and Sunday which, with the nine already his guests, made eighteen for Sunday dinner.

—Opportunity Day in Bellefonte, August 11, means just what it says. An opportunity to get real bargains on a day set aside by our merchants for that purpose.

—Every store in Bellefonte will offer special bargains on Opportunity Day and, besides, there will be wonderful gifts for those who come in to get the bargains.

—The big festival held at Runville, last Saturday evening, to raise a fund for improvement of the Advent cemetery, proved a success, the net receipts being $250.11.

—Geo. G. Fink, former Centre County treasurer, has retired as an owner of the Phillipsburg Hardware Co., expecting later to devote his time to other business.

—Owing to the low water and over consumption of the wheel the McCoy hydro-electric plant below town is able to operate only about fourteen hours out of twenty-four.

—The Charles Baney family are moving from their present home on Spring creek to a place nearer town. Having purchased the Gettig slaughter house Charles expects to convert it into a dwelling.

—A son, who has been named Samuel Fleming Jr., was born, Sunday, to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fleming, of Harrisburg, at the home of Mrs. Fleming's mother, Mrs. D. H. Hastings, in this place.

—The twelve proposed amendments to the constitution which will be submitted to the voters for their approval, a portion of them at the election in November and the balance in 1928, will be found on the seventh page of today's "Watchman."

—The third torrid spell of the summer occurred on Monday and Tuesday of this week, but thunder storms Tuesday afternoon and evening resulted in lowering the temperature a few degrees. Weather prophets predict one more hot wave.

—Thomas Gussallus, of Lamar, was held up near the Kryder farm at Cedar Springs hill when returning from work at the Lock Haven paper mill, last Thursday evening. The bandit covered him with a revolver and took his pocket book but not his watch.

—The first home-grown corn of the season made its appearance at the curb market on Wednesday morning. Peas, beans, blackberries and huckleberries were still quite plentiful, while a good supply of new apples and some cucumbers were also in evidence.

—E. E. Ardery, one of the veteran mail carriers of Bellefonte, will retire from the service on August 19th, when he will have completed almost thirty-three years of continuous service. He was appointed by postmaster James A. Fiedler on November 30th, 1893, and has been on active duty ever since.

—All the bridges and approaches on the thirty miles of concrete state highway through Bald Eagle valley having been completed Tyrone people are advocating a celebration next Thursday as an official opening of the highway. The approaches to the big bridge at Vail were completed last week.

—The annual county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held August 12th and 13th, at Unionville, in the community house. The speakers are to be Mrs. Lydia Bean, State worker, and Miss Roberta Carnes, national superintendent of scientific instruction. It is hoped there will be a good attendance.

CHECK FORGER CATCHES

BELLEFONTE MERCHANTS.

Passes Four Forged Checks Saturday Afternoon and Escapes Capture.

A slick check forger made a cleanup in Bellefonte, on Saturday afternoon, and got away without any of his victims being able to give a definite description of him. The merchants who were caught were Ad Fauble, A. C. Mingle, Montgomery & Co. and Harry Yeager. Just which one of the stores was visited first is not definitely known, but at each place he made a small purchase and presented in payment a check for $22.50, drawn to the order of F. M. Brown and signed by E. J. Gehret.

The man was dressed the part of an experienced carpenter, wearing a light cap and blue shirt. He was about fifty years old. This naturally did not raise a doubt in the mind of any of the merchants as to the man being other than an employee of Mr. Gehret, and when he presented a check signed by that gentleman it was accepted without hesitation. The swindles would probably not have been discovered until Monday when the merchants went to bank with their checks had it not been for the fact that less than a quarter of an hour after the man visited the Yeager shoe store Mr. Gehret happened along and Mr. Yeager asked him who his new carpenter, F. M. Brown, was. Mr. Gehret told him he had no one in his employ by that name and when Mr. Yeager produced the check he had cashed it was discovered to be a forgery.

The police were promptly notified and other merchants in town notified to be on the watch for the man but he had already completed his swindle and decamped. At Fauble's and Montgomery & Co's he purchased shirts, at Mingles a pair of ladies' shoes and at Yeager's a pair of shoes for himself. As the average of the purchases was only about three dollars he cleaned up close to eighty dollars in cash.

When news of the swindle was noised about it was learned that earlier in the day the man had visited the Gehret home on Bishop street on the pretense of hunting a job. Mr. Gehret was not at home but he asked Mrs. Gehret how he spelled his name. Shortly after 2 o'clock a man walked into Crossley's jewelry store and asked Claude Moore if they did business with the bank across the street (the Bellefonte Trust Co.) On being told that they did he asked if it would be possible to give him a few blank checks, but he was particular to stress the fact that he didn't want checks with Mr. Crossley's name on. Mr. Moore passed him out a check book kept for the accommodation of customers who frequently ask for a blank check, and the man counted and tore out six. His actions attracted no special attention at the time, as Mr. Moore thought the man some one from the country who had come into town, wanted to pay some bills and the bank being closed, just happened to step in there to get the checks. Just how he got hold of Mr. Gehret's signature or how he knew he banked at the Bellefonte Trust Co. have not been divulged.

The fact that the man carried no packages from one store to the other leads to the belief that he either had a confederate to whom the packages were passed, or else was traveling in an automobile and put his purchases in the car as soon as made. Be that as it may, however, he made his cleanup and got away without leaving any tangible clue which might lead to his identity and capture.

It is the theory of officer Dukeman that there were two men working the scheme and that they were traveling in a motor. This is based on the facts that the one who called at Crossley's store for the checks wore a straw hat, while the one who made all the check presentations wore a cap and carried no package from one store to another and it wasn't ten minutes after he left the last place that Mr. Yeager had three officers and two civilians on his trail, but he was nowhere to be seen. The latter makes it appear that he must have gotten away in a car to have vanished so soon.

Evidently the same swindler worked Bloomsburg merchants for $200 on Monday. He operated there exactly on the same plan as that used here Saturday, using the checks of a building contractor, the brother of whom is in business there and cashed one of them.

This makes it very evident that he was traveling in a motor to which he carried each purchase after purchasing it and where he probably had a confederate who was following him with the car so that he could make a quick get-away should it be necessary.

Baby Clinics Resumed.

Miss Berenice Barnhart, the public health nurse, who has succeeded Miss Campbell in this district, is here and will resume the service at once.

The baby clinics, one of the important features of the service, are scheduled for Wednesday afternoons from 2 until 4. The clinics will be held in the room in Petrikin hall and all mothers are urged to take their babies for examination.

—Dr. David Allen Anderson, director of education and psychology at The Pennsylvania State College, has been elected to the presidency of Kent State College, at Kent, Ohio, as successor to Dr. John E. McGilvery, who was ousted in January.

Big Community Sale in Bellefonte on Wednesday, August 11th.

A big Community Sale will be held in Bellefonte on Wednesday of next week, August 11th, at which time many rare bargains will be offered the people of Centre county. The sale has been inaugurated by the Associated Business Men of Bellefonte, and merchants generally have united in the movement to give everybody an opportunity to make some profitable investments that day. It will be a real profit-sharing sale, an occasion for cheap buying that should not be overlooked.

In these days of auto traffic it is only an hour's travel to Bellefonte from most points in Centre county and it will be a paying investment to motor here next Wednesday for the big reduction sale.

There is now on display in a room in the Richelieu theatre over five hundred dollar's worth of beautiful and valuable merchandise that somebody is going to get free next Wednesday evening. Look it over then come to the big sale next Wednesday and share in the benefits of cheap buying.

For full particulars see advertisement published on the 6th page of today's "Watchman." Complete details of the sale will be found there. For special bargains consult individual advertisements.

Boalsburg Electric Co. Will Furnish Light to A. H. Walker.

The Boalsburg Electric company, largely owned and controlled by Col. Theodore Davis Boal, has decided to forego a hearing before the Public Service Commission and furnish light to A. H. Walker and others. The Boalsburg company is an independent organization which purchases its electricity from the Keystone Power corporation and retails it to consumers in Boalsburg and vicinity.

The main feed wire connects with the Keystone corporation's wires at Oak Hall and runs direct to Boal camp, at Boalsburg, without a break. Living along the line are A. H. Walker, R. J. Witmer and John F. Kimport, all of whom wanted light but the Boalsburg Electric company refused for various reasons to give them a tap onto the main line, which was less than one hundred feet from the buildings. The matter was then carried up to the Public Service Commission and a hearing was to have been held this week, but the company on Monday announced that light will be given the above three men.

Instead of tapping the main wire however, which the company claims is a private line, a new line will be erected from the nearest pole in Boalsburg, which is about 2700 feet distant. The line will be built at once.

Electric Light Now Assured for Zion and Hecla Park.

Following several months of investigation and discussion an agreement has finally been concluded between residents of Walker township and the Keystone Power corporation whereby the latter will extend its line down Nittany valley to Hecla park. The line will be built from the new aviation field down the back road and across to Zion, thence down the main highway to Hecla park.

Quite a number of residents of Zion are enrolled among the applicants for electric service, and a number of farmers along the route have signified their desire for current. At the park the Country club will connect with the Keystone Power current and abandon its own plant, and Mr. Hockman will also be a customer for a more adequate lighting of the park.

The Keystone Power is also figuring on a proposition to extend its service through the lower end of Pennsylvania, as far down as Woodward, but no decision has yet been reached on this extension.

Children Urged to Register for "Kiddies Day."

All children in Bellefonte and community who wish to attend the Elks' annual "Kiddies Day" at Hecla park, on Thursday of next week, August 12th, must register in advance at the Elks club and get a tag, otherwise they will not be taken along. Last year a large number of children failed to register then when the time came to go the busses were crowded with children for whom no accommodations had been provided. To avoid a recurrence of such a condition the committee in charge decided to give out tags to the children as they register. This tag provides for free transportation to and from the park, ice cream, peanuts, boat rides and lunch while there, but only those who have the tags will be taken. It is because of this fact that the Elks are urging all children to register and get a tag, which must be worn in plain sight on "Kiddies Day."

A festival for the benefit of the Methodist church at that place will be held on the school lawn at Axe Mann, tomorrow, Saturday evening, August 7. All the festival specialties will be served. Everybody is invited.

—Two cars owned by Milesburg people figured in a sideswipe wreck near the old pipe kilns north of town, on Saturday evening. None of the occupants were hurt and the damage to the cars was inconsequential.

FIREMEN'S INSURANCE DISCUSSED IN COUNCIL.

Other Business Transacted at Monday Night's Meeting.

Insurance agent Harry N. Meyer and Mr. Wian were present at the regular meeting of borough council, on Monday evening, and presented the proposition of personal accident indemnity insurance for Bellefonte firemen. They have two propositions, one for a minimum of twenty-five men which will pay a principal of $2,000 in case of death or total disability and $25 per week for fifty-two weeks for injury or temporary disability; the premium of which is $6.50 per man. Another for a minimum of fifteen men which will pay a principal of $1,000 and $15 per week; the premium of which is $4.50 per man. As the borough is now carrying compensation insurance for the firemen several members of council suggested that that any further insurance should be carried by the Firemen's Relief Association. However, the matter was referred to the Fire and Police committee for investigation and report.

O. J. Morgan submitted a written proposition to council to furnish Mo-shannon coal for the fire company houses for $5.40 per ton. The proposition was referred to the Fire and Police committee.

The secretary presented a written statement from four residents of east Curtin street who agree to pay $180 toward the cost of putting down the new sewer extension.

The Street committee reported minor repairs on various streets and the collection of $208 from the Pennsylvania Railroad company for repairs to the street leading to the freight depot.

The Water committee reported that in connecting up the new electric pump, last Thursday, a flange was broken and it was necessary to get a new one, which has delayed starting the pump, but they hoped to get it connected up and in operation this week. The committee reported the collection of $12.00 from Dr. Irwin for repairs to sewer at his property on Allegheny street and also $12.00 on the 1923 water duplicate.

Mr. Cunningham further reported that the committee had taken up with Mr. Bailey, of the Keystone Power corporation, the question of a new contract for furnishing electricity to pump the water and that gentleman suggested that an accurate record be kept for one week of the operation of the new pump and he would use that as the basis for making a proposition for a new contract.

The Fire and Police committee reported that a new coat of varnish had been applied to both pumps. The committee also reported that the fifteen minute parking signs for in front of the court house have been completed and the new regulations went into effect on Wednesday of this week. The committee recommended that the new ruling be effective all the time and not on Wednesday and Saturday evenings only. Council concurred.

Mr. Cunningham reported that the Civic committee of the Women's club have reported that they have compiled a list of one hundred residents of Bellefonte who will be willing to pay a dollar a month for the removal of ashes and garbage. It was the general opinion of members of council that the number could be doubled if a proper effort is made. In fact to justify a man giving it his entire time and attention would require two hundred or more. While no definite action was taken it was the sentiment of council to co-operate in any way possible.

President Walker stated that Thomas H. Harter had made complaint about the men tearing down the old steam heating plant blocking the alley in the rear of his property to that extent that he does not have access to his garage. The matter was referred to the Street committee and borough manager.

Mr. Cunningham reported relative to the request of residents of Beaver and Hoy row for better fire protection, that there is a fire plug on a three inch line within 250 feet of the houses, and Spring creek is not over 300 feet away, which affords, in his opinion, ample protection.

Mr. Emerick stated that C. M. Parrish had made complaint to him about the defective sewer on Burroughs alley and was informed that iron sewer pipe is now on the way to replace the terra cotta pipe.

Bills were approved to the amount of $6,338.90, after which council adjourned.

The Palace Dining Car Co. Takes Over Bellefonte Property.

Representatives from the Palace Dining Car Co., of Jersey City, were in Bellefonte on Monday and took over the Cohen property, between the Richelieu theatre and the Casebeer building, on High street, on which they had taken an option some six or eight months ago. On Tuesday the unsightly bill board on the front of the property was torn down and removed and men are now engaged in cleaning up the lot. This is an indication that the Palace dining car will be a factor in Bellefonte in the near future.

—The writer had a mess of new golden bantam corn out of his own garden on Sunday, which we naturally consider something to brag about.

Luther, of New Kensington; Lawrence S. Monahan, a prominent attorney, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. N. H. Burke and daughter, Miss Regina Burke, of New York city.

—Frank D. Lee, of Centre Hall, was in town Monday afternoon and made one of his usual pleasant little calls. Notwithstanding the excessive heat he was in his customary good humor, but probably part of that was because he is the proprietor of a new Dodge coupe and a farm, one of the very few in the county, that has turned out crops this year that almost equal any of the past.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Kocher, with Isaac and Katherine Laird as motor guests, drove down from Ferguson township on Tuesday to spend the morning in Bellefonte. Mr. Kocher's time was devoted to business while Mrs. Kocher and the children were shopping and seeing what there was of interest about the town. Mr. and Mrs. Kocher live on the D. G. Meek farm, at Fairbrook.

—Miss Ella Jones came here the early part of last week from Loysville, to spend her vacation with relatives and girlhood friends, as has been her custom since leaving Bellefonte a number of years ago. During the greater part of the time while here she was a house guest of Mrs. Herman Miller, on east High street, and from there visited with other friends. Miss Jones is a matron at the Loysville orphan's home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Emory G. Wolfe and the latter's father, H. C. Weaver, motored here last week for a visit with Mr. Weaver's sisters, the Misses Weaver, of Howard street. Visiting in Bellefonte until Monday morning, they then left for the eastern part of the State, where they will spend the month of August on a Cumberland county farm. Mr. Wolfe being an instructor in the Schenley High school, they will return to their home at Edgewood in time for the opening of the Pittsburgh schools.

—Mrs. Donald Gettig and her two younger children will go to Clarksville, Greene county, today, to join Mr. Gettig for a three week's stay, their elder daughter, Alice Jane, having been with her aunt, Mrs. R. W. Davis, at Washington, Pa., for a month. Mrs. Gettig has been entertaining her cousin, Mrs. P. W. Bennett, and her small son, Bertin, of Altoona, for the past two weeks, and they were joined here yesterday by Mrs. Bennett's mother-in-law, Mrs. D. H. Bennett, all of whom will leave today with Mrs. Gettig, accompanying her as far as Altoona.
