

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Two big floodlights are now being experimented with at Bellefonte's big spring to see what improvement can be made on the surroundings at night.

The Bellefonte camp, P. O. S. of A. will hold a big festival at the old fair grounds tomorrow (Saturday) evening, with a band concert as a drawing attraction.

Don't forget that tomorrow will be the day of Miss Marshall's sale on Spring street. And don't forget that many very old articles of furniture in splendid condition are to be offered.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sunday have announced the engagement of their daughter Magdalene and George Porter Lyon. The wedding as arranged, will take place some time next month.

The condition of Miss Celia Haupt, who had been ill at her home on south Allegheny street for some time, became so serious within the week that it was necessary to take her to the hospital Wednesday.

G. Edward Haupt has torn down the house and barn on his farm on the top of Purdue mountain and is moving them to his place along the highway below town, where he is preparing to erect a double bungalow.

A big Ku Klux picnic will be held on the public school grounds at Howard tomorrow, the first Klan gathering to be held in Centre county this summer. Arrangements are being made to entertain many visitors from nearby counties as well as those in this section.

Shingletown, ordinarily a quiet, peaceful village, has a sensation. Some six months ago a married woman ran away and going to Oklahoma spent six months. Recently she returned and her husband took her back. On Monday night she again left home, taking with her a number of her husband's private papers. Where she is bound for this time is unknown.

The Coburn minstrels that will appear at the Moose next Monday night built their reputation on the quality of their solo voices. We have heard all the big minstrel aggregations and Coburns, when here last, had better solo and ensemble voices than any minstrel traveling and that goes for everything on the road from the time of Thatcher, Primrose and West, Al Fields, I. W. Baird, Hi Henry and all the rest of them.

Opportunity day, last week, was a big one in Bellefonte, but opportunity is always open to the people of Bellefonte and vicinity to see the best motion pictures made, which are shown at the scenic every week-day evening. And if you fail to see them when opportunity offers you'll never have another chance as no old and out-of-date pictures are shown at this popular place of amusement. Get the movie habit and see all of them.

The "Watchman" last week stated that 1410 children had registered in Bellefonte for the annual kiddies picnic given by the Elks club at Hecla park, on Thursday, but children attending from other places ran the total to 1800, by far the largest crowd of youngsters ever gathered together in one place in Centre county. Not an accident occurred during the day but the rain in the afternoon was an unpleasant feature and some of the kiddies got pretty wet before they reached their homes.

Twenty-five cars, trucks and wagons lined up at the Bellefonte curb market on Saturday. Blackberries and huckleberries are still quite plentiful. Sweet corn is now coming in in abundance with a good supply of early apples. Cucumbers are also very plentiful. Two men came in on Saturday with about three bushels each, and both admitted having one acre of pickle makers. When they are at their best they anticipate being able to pick from ten to twelve bushels twice a week. Their market for the cucumbers is Bellefonte and State College.

Mrs. George T. Brew, of Indiana, Pa. has announced the marriage of her daughter, Janet Jackson and Guy Victor Potter, of Johnstown, which took place in the Trinity Episcopal church at Williamsport, on Saturday, July 10th. Mrs. Potter, who is a grand daughter of the late George W. Jackson, a former prominent banker of Centre county, graduated from Penn State in the August class in the Household Arts department. Leaving here Sunday to go to Indiana, Mrs. Potter will be with her mother until Mr. Potter finishes at Penn State in February.

As recognition of splendid service through half a century the Hartford Fire Insurance Co. tendered a banquet to William B. Rankin, of this place, at the Nittany Country club last Thursday evening. On August 12th, 1876, Mr. Rankin became an agent of the Hartford and from that day to this has been untiring in writing business for it. Several of the general agents of the company, all of the Bellefonte insurance men and a few of the personal friends of Mr. Rankin gathered about the banquet tables to enjoy the feast and express their felicitations in brief post-prandial talks. The company also presented its veteran representative with a gold medal.

SEWER CONNECTIONS DENIED OUTSIDERS.

Miscellaneous Business Transacted by Bellefonte Council.

John Lambert appeared before borough council, at its regular meeting on Monday evening, and asked what action council intended taking in regard to his request some time ago for water and sewer connections to a new house he is erecting on south Allegheny street, outside the borough limits. He also gave council a letter from Centre county health officer J. L. Tressell regarding the sewer proposition. Mr. Cunningham informed council that the Water committee had explained to Mr. Lambert that he could have the water on the same conditions that everybody else outside the borough got it. He will have to lay his own service pipe from the borough line to his home and then pay the same rate charged all out of the borough users. Regarding the sewer connection council had a communication from N. J. Barrick, district engineer of the State Board of Health, in which he said that he was unable to see why Mr. Lambert should not put down a cesspool at his new building, as most of the houses in that section have cesspools instead of sewer connection, and one more will hardly matter.

John Weber, of south Allegheny street, also asked for sewer connection. He lives within the borough and was informed that it is customary where a sewer extension is asked for property owners to contribute a proportion of the expense, which Mr. Weber protested against doing. He also asked that south Allegheny street be put in good repair from Logan street to the top of the hill. Both matters were referred to the Street committee.

T. R. Hamilton was present and made complaint about the condition of Pike alley and was informed that a new sewer is to be put down there and as soon as that work is done the alley will be fixed.

John Lambert asked that a fireplug be placed on south Spring street and was informed that the Water committee intend placing one there in the near future.

A representative of a "stop and go" traffic signal was present and presented a proposition to install his system in Bellefonte, but as council was not much interested the matter was referred to the Fire and Police committee.

A communication was received from the Undine fire company expressing the members' appreciation of council's donation of fifty dollars toward the company's expense of attending the firemen's convention in Tyrone.

A communication was received from borough engineer H. B. Shattuck stating that he had given a street line for the new wall to be erected along the Catholic cemetery, and defining the location of the line.

A communication was received from the Signal Automatic company relative to its Sunbeam traffic signals, and the same was referred to the Fire and Police committee.

The Street committee reported digging a ditch for new sewer on Curtin and Armor streets.

The Water committee reported the collection of $21.20 for the installation of a meter at the Charles Tabel nursery on Halfmoon hill; $19.27 from Caldwell & Son for sewer connection and repairs and $12.00 on 1924 water tax.

The Finance committee asked for the renewal of a note for $3,000 and a new note for $1,000 to meet current bills.

Mr. Cunningham stated that he had consulted with Mr. Bailey, of the Keystone Power corporation, regarding a new contract for electricity for pumping water and said that that gentleman suggested entering into an agreement for one year which would give council an opportunity to know just what the cost for pumping will be under the revised charges. While it is apparently evident that it will be higher than under the old agreement, with the new pump throwing 225 gallons a minute more than the old, the apparent difference is not going to be very great, but a year's test should be made before a long contract is entered into. The matter was referred back to the Water committee to have the agreement put into concrete form for presentation at the next meeting of council.

Bills aggregating $904.45 were approved for payment after which council adjourned.

Daley Justice Died Suddenly at Centre County Hospital Yesterday.

John Daley Justice, who last week fell at the Logan's camp up Spring creek and broke his left leg, died very suddenly and unexpectedly at the Centre County hospital about 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Dr. Galbraith, a bone specialist of Altoona, came to Bellefonte to assist in reducing the fracture and while he and local physicians were manipulating the limb prior to setting the bone he expired. The cause was probably a released embolism. He was about 50 years old, a son of Lowery Justice, of Coleville.

He is survived by his father and the following brothers and sisters: Dewey, of Coleville; Miss Mary, of Bellefonte, and Edward, of Altoona. The body has been taken to the home of his brother Dewey, but no arrangements for the funeral have been made, as yet.

Rattlesnakes a Daily Menace to State Highway Engineers.

The work of the Bellefonte corps of State highway engineers in surveying the route for the proposed highway from Lock Haven to Renovo is not performed on a bed of roses, by any means. The corps is in charge of engineer Nye Mains, and one of its members is Herbert Bilger, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bilger, of Bellefonte. As the course of the new highway will deviate considerably from the route of the present road the men are literally pioneers through one of the wildest and rockiest sections of the Allegheny mountains.

And one of the worst things they have to contend with is rattlesnakes. An item going the rounds of the press last week relative to the annual feast of fricasseed rattlesnake enjoyed by State College foresters in camp on Cherry run above Lamar, stated that the students had a difficult time this year finding enough snakes for the feast. If they are still hungering for snake meat they might send a delegation to trail the highway engineers who, in the course of a day's work, kill four or more of the big rattlers. Sometimes they will capture one alive and keep it a day or so, but usually the snakes are dispatched forthwith.

The men all wear heavy leather leggings and exercise every possible precaution, and so far none of them have been bitten but they have had plenty of thrills from the venomous reptiles.

Charley Reese Plays Host at a Great Dinner.

Their name was legion. People from everywhere gathered at the old Reese place at "the watering trough," on the top of Snow Shoe mountain, on Sunday, to enjoy the dinner that Chas. P. Reese and his family provided and prepared. All of the Reese connection and their friends gathered for the spread. They were there from as far away as Johnstown and Altoona. Bellefonte contributed many and all the surrounding communities were well represented.

The dinner was in the nature of a harvest home affair because it celebrated the completion of the picking of the berry crops on Mr. Reese's fruit farm further south on the mountain.

And such food! They had roasted whole lambs, pigs, chickens and hams in the old "out-oven." All were brown and crisp as a nut with the juices that had been held in them by quick searing. Every vegetable, salad and chow-chow known of was on the tables and then there was watermelon, ice cream and fruits. The tables groaned at first because they were so full and the diners, afterwards, for the same reason.

Mrs. Ralph Edmiston, of this place, whom everybody seemed to know as "Nell," was the deft mangress for her father and mother and that kept things moving so pleasantly that it was a day of days for all those fortunate enough to have been there.

Five Men Have Narrow Escape in Truck Runaway.

Shortly after the noon hour, on Tuesday, five men in the employ of Humphrey Bros., contracting plasterers of Altoona, completed a job at Clarence and left for their home in a big White truck. Coming down the mountain the driver threw the machine out of gear and coasted down the concrete highway, but the road was slippery from the hard rain and the heavy truck gradually increased its speed until it got beyond the driver's control.

The driver, however, stuck to the wheel and applied the brakes, but the latter would not hold and the heavy truck swayed from one side of the road to the other until just above the Dim Lantern when it struck one of the guard posts headon. Two of the men were thrown fully fifty feet over into a field, while the other men stuck to the truck. The men thrown were naturally bruised and pretty badly shaken up but suffered no broken bones and apparently no serious injuries. The Emerick Motor Bus Co. pulled the truck into their garage in Bellefonte for repairs.

Sim Baum Family Have Miraculous Escape in Auto Accident.

Driving toward Bellefonte on the Bald Eagle highway about noon, on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Baum, with their daughter Mary, met with an accident that might have cost them all their lives.

They had reached a point about a mile east of Port Matilda when a car directly in front of them stopped suddenly in the middle of the road. Mr. Baum was traveling rather fast and it took quick thinking to see a way out of smashing into the stopped car. The only way to avert this was to try to get past, which he did. His Franklin ran off the concrete into the soft earth, careened against a bank and turned, wheels up, in a field.

The daughter was first to crawl from the wreck. She was unhurt. Mr. and Mrs. Baum were both scratched a bit, but suffered no serious injuries. Their car was badly wrecked.

The thirty-five fresh air children who spent two weeks in Bellefonte and vicinity left for their home in New York city last Friday morning. A young lady welfare worker came to Bellefonte from New York on Thursday and was in charge of the youngsters on the homeward journey.

Nine companies were in the line of parade and the same number of bands took part in the contest.

At the business meeting the secretary reported that the association now includes forty-four fire companies, while the report of the treasurer showed a comfortable balance in his hands.

On motion the law committee was instructed to present a bill at the next session of the Legislature providing that all automobiles transporting explosives, such as gasoline, kerosene, etc., must be equipped with some device for fire protection.

The board of control was empowered to select the place for holding the convention next year; the sentiment of the convention being in favor of Johnstown, which place will probably be selected.
