"Pure" Cider Vinegar Brings Heavy Fine.
 Two merchants in western Pennsylvania were recently prosecuted and heavily fined for selling artificially colored and distilled vinegar as "pure cider vinegar," according to an announcement made by Dr. James W. Kellogg, director, Bureau of Foods and Chemistry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.
 "The State vinegar law prohibits the sale of any vinegar as pure apple or cider vinegar, which is not the legitimate product of pure apple juice and which does not contain at least 4 per cent. of acetic acid," Dr. Kellogg explains. "All other vinegars which are not pure cider vinegar but which are made by distilling grains are required to be labelled 'distilled vinegar' in which case artificial colors are prohibited."

Too Much "Acid?"
 Excess Uric Acid Gives Rise to Many Unpleasant Troubles.
 AUTHORITIES agree that an excess of uric acid is primarily due to faulty kidney action. Retention of this toxic material often makes its presence felt by sore, painful joints, a tired, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backache and headache. That the kidneys are not functioning right is often shown by scanty or burning passage of secretions. Thousands assist their kidneys at such times by the use of Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. Doan's are recommended by many local people. Ask your neighbor!

Experiments at the Pennsylvania State College show that it requires considerably more feed to produce gains on lousy hogs than on swine free from lice. Crowd the hogs in a small pen and sprinkle crude oil or crankcase drainings on them with a sprinkling can or with an old broom dipped in the oil. Leave the pigs in the pen until they have rubbed against each other and their bodies are covered with the oil.
 After standing one week as the State heavyweight record, the 2875-pound pull made at the McKean county fair was broken on the last day of the Cambria county fair at Ebensburg. "Harry" and "Jim" are the new champions. They are grade Percherons, 8 and 6 years old respectively and weigh 3317 pounds as a team. When they had already captured first place in competition with several other teams, Ralph McCoy, Ebensburg, the owner and driver, decided to try for the State record. The team pulled 2750 easily and after a short rest moved off with the 2900-pound tractor pull as the crowd of spectators cheered lustily.

 "Queen" and "Lady," grade Percherons weighing 1975 pounds, owned by M. J. Gibson, Sharpville, missed by only two feet in breaking the lightweight record at the Stoneboro fair. They pulled the dynamometer set at 2750 pounds for 25 1/2 feet before stopping. The State record is 2725 pounds the full distance of 27 1/2 feet.

New England Atmosphere
 With 1926 Improvements

ANY one who has ever motored through the quaint sleepy towns of New England has fallen in love with the small houses that abound in that section of the country—neat, white, unpretentious and with a touch of reserve about them. Just such a house is the one pictured here. It is equally adaptable for town or country, and by merely shifting the living and entrance porches around can be built on a wide or narrow lot without spoiling its architectural style.
 The house is sturdily built and has an exterior of wood siding except for the unusual stucco panels that start at the level of the second floor windows. The roof is of stained shingles, preferably moss green, in keeping with the window shutters. A house of this compact style is very easy to heat, especially when the specifications call for insulation throughout with celotex, which prevents heat leakage, and keeps the house cool in the summer.
 The living and dining rooms are here combined into one large room flooded with light by windows on three sides. The two bedrooms on the second floor each have double exposure and an extra large closet in which a window may be placed.
