Dr. Ralph Hetzel Elected President of State College.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of The Pennsylvania State College, last Friday, Dr. Ralph D. Hetzel, for nine years president of the University of New Hampshire, was elected president of the College to fill the place made vacant over a year ago by the resignation of Dr. John M. Thomas, who resigned to become head of Rutgers University, in New Jersey.

Dr. Hetzel is a lawyer by training and graduated in 1906 from the University of Wisconsin. From 1913 to 1917 he was director of agricultural extension service at the Oregon State College and it was because of his success there that nine years ago he was called to the presidency of the University of New Hampshire, where his record has been regarded as phenomenal.

Dr. Hetzel will not come to the College until the first of the year and until that time the administrative affairs will be continued in the hands of the special committee which has had charge during the past year.

Mann's Axe Factory at Mill Hall Destroyed by Fire.

The old-established plant of the Mann Edge Tool company, at Mill Hall, was entirely destroyed by fire, last Thursday, with a loss of $200,000, partially covered by insurance. It is hardly likely that the plant will be rebuilt.

The first axe factory established by the Manns was at Axe Mann in Centre county in 1827. It was built by William Mann who later was joined by his brother, Harvey Mann. Nine years later Robert Mann built the plant at Mill Hall. Some years later another plant was established at Lewistown. The Axe Mann plant was operated until probably twenty-five years ago when the Mann Edge Tool company was organized. Then the Axe Mann plant was abandoned and all the manufacturing was done in the plants at Lewistown and Mill Hall. The latter plant was destroyed by fire in 1877 but was promptly rebuilt. But now that it has again been completely destroyed it is very unlikely that it will be rebuilt, but that everything will be consolidated in the plant at Lewistown.

Dads to Have Day at State College.

The week-end of October 8, 9 and 10 has been set for the annual observance of Father's day by students at the Pennsylvania State College. The big day will be Saturday, the 9th, which will start with a meeting of the association of parents at Penn State in the morning, two football games in the afternoon and a smoker in the armory in the evening.

A student committee is also arranging for a mass meeting to be held Friday evening, when prominent fathers and faculty members will speak. Girls are arranging a Saturday afternoon tea for mothers who will accompany the dads, and a special dinner in the evening. At least 1000 parents of students are expected. Fathers' day was observed previously in May, and was changed to a fall date so that football could be made a feature. The varsity will meet Marietta college and the Freshmen eleven will open its season with Bellefonte Academy.

Philadelphia Nationals to Play in Phillipsburg Next Wednesday.

Baseball fans hereabouts are placing a red circle around the date of Wednesday, October 6th, because of that date the Philadelphia National league team will be the attraction at Scott field, and it will mark the first time that any major league team has made its appearance in Phillipsburg, although the game has been played on an extensive basis there ever since it was introduced some sixty years ago.

The Phillies started on a barnstorming trip Wednesday which will carry them through the entire month of October. Some of the greatest hitters in the National league will be in the Phillies' lineup: Wilson and Henline, Friberg, second base; Huber, third base; Sand, shortstop; Leach, left field; Mogan, centre field; Cy Williams, right field; Nixon, utility, and Carlson, Dean and Ulrich, pitchers. This is the same group of tossers who put the skids under Cincinnati's pennant aspirations in the closing days of the National league race.

Williams, Henline, Wilson, Mogan, Leach and Wrightstone are hitters extraordinary, as their records show. Heine Sand is the shortstop for whom the Phillies paid Salt Lake City $40,000 some four years ago. In Carlson, the fans will have an opportunity of seeing in action one of the greatest pitchers in the country, he has pitched and won nearly one-third of the games won by his team all year, usually being matched against the strongest of the opposition.

The Phillipsburg team will be made up of players from the Clearfield-Centre league. Those members of the 1926 variety of Phillipsburg's entry in the league who are still available will have a chance to show their stuff, but their ranks will be augmented by the addition of Lex McCloskey and Sol Robison, of Clearfield, Steve Shiock and Rube Haggerty, of Skyesville, and last but not least, the redoubtable "Lefty" Vaughn, of Sandy Ridge, the 19 year old phenom, who has been making the "old apple" do some peculiar stunts during the past season. Vaughn hurt his arm at Clearfield a couple of weeks ago, but he is now in good shape once more.

Potato Growers Have Day at State College.

"Potato day" will be observed at the Pennsylvania State College on Wednesday, October 13th. The scene of the day's activities will be the 40-acre potato field on the college farm.

Plans for the program include demonstrations of the potato harvesting methods peculiar to different sections of the country, comparisons of the efficiency and economy of handling potatoes in baskets, crates, bags, barrels, and loose on the wagon in the harvesting process, and exhibits and demonstrations of various kinds and types of labor-saving potato machinery.

Results of the experimental plots in which imported disease-free seed has been compared with Pennsylvania grown seed will be shown and explained. There will be an inspection of the modern potato storage house erected at the college two years ago.

It is planned to serve at noon a free lunch composed of products grown on the college farm. For recreation there will be several contests in all of which potatoes will be the bone of contention.

County agents are taking the names of all who expect to attend so that the college can be informed as to the number to be entertained.

Cider Making Time and Regulations.

Sweet cider making time is at hand. With apples plentiful in all parts of the county, many wish to squeeze the juice out of part of their crops. The making of unfermented apple juice is very simple, declares R. S. Snyder, fruit extension specialist of the Pennsylvania State College. If sound, well-matured, properly ripened fruit is used for cider, the quality of the resulting product will be higher than that which comes from insect-eaten and disease-smitten windfalls.

According to Snyder very complete information on the subject of blending ciders and the methods and regulations concerning the manufacture of cider can be obtained in farmer's bulletin, No. 1264, issued by the United States Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C. The question "May I make cider or vinegar for my own use and what are the government regulations about it?" is often asked. Snyder states that Regulation 60 obtainable from the prohibition director at the State capitol or from the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue answers all the questions and gives the information needed for compliance with the law.

Death of Senator T. Larry Eyre.

T. Lawrence Eyre, State Senator from Chester county, died at his home in West Chester early Monday morning, following a protracted illness, aged 64 years. Senator Eyre, who was serving his third term as State Senator, had been a leader in Republican politics in Chester county for more than a quarter of a century. He was regarded as the Beau Brummel of the Senate. For a number of years Mr. Eyre was associated with the late Thomas A. Shoemaker, of Bellefonte, in the contracting business under the name of Eyre and Shoemaker.

Let Us Send a Real Representative to Harrisburg-

ANDREW CURTIN THOMPSON

Andrew Curtin Thompson, the Democratic and Prohibition candidate for the General Assembly from Centre County, was born at Stormstown, in Halfmoon valley. He is a typical product of one of Centre county's oldest and most substantial families. His ancestors lived in Centre county for a number of generations preceding his birth. Mr. Thompson's great grandfather moved from Lancaster county into Centre, and settled upon a farm just outside of Stormstown early in the nineteenth century, and the Thompson family have been residents of the county for the past one hundred years.

His family has always been active in the public affairs of our county. His grandfather was Sheriff of the county from 1840 to 1844, and was an intimate acquaintance and associate of Andrew Curtin, our famous Civil War Governor and Statesman, and for whom Mr. Thompson was named.

He has lived practically all his life in this county. He was educated at the old Quaker Grammar school connected with the Halfmoon Quaker meeting, and at Pine Grove Mills Academy. When but a youth, he began his career as a school teacher, teaching near Unionville, Halfmoon township, and at Cold Stream. For a number of years he was principal of the schools at Snow Shoe and about twenty-five years ago gave up his position as an educator and entered into the wholesale hardware business, which he has followed ever since.

Mr. Thompson has always been active in the affairs of the community in which he lives, and in matters of general interest to the county. For the past twelve years he has been actively identified with the work of the Centre County Sabbath School Association, and at the present time is the superintendent of his own Sabbath school at Phillipsburg. He has always been one of our county's most sincere and enthusiastic supporters of high educational standards and a leader in work among young people.

With a career of honest, intelligent and patriotic citizenship behind him, Mr. Thompson is an ideal choice to represent our county in Harrisburg. He is not blinded by the sectional interests of one particular district, but can and will represent the entire county. Of broad mind and scholarly habits, he is well equipped mentally for the position. Progressive in thought and vigorous in activity, he is remarkably well qualified for the task. Raised upon a Centre county farm, and schooled in a regimen of hard work, the interests of all the people and the body politic have been cultivated in him.

Centre county should send to Harrisburg a man who can be relied upon to play an active part in overthrowing the despoiling of our State by machine-nurtured politics. Present conditions can only be remedied by the intelligent ballot of the country districts. The substantial disfranchising of the electorate in our cities calls for an awakened and continued interest from districts such as Centre county. To maintain the dignity of our Commonwealth we must put men in office who are reliably honest, sincere, and not the servants of a small minority of political profiteers.

Possessing a personal history that is beyond reproach, the people of Centre county can, with confidence, vote for Mr. Thompson, as their contribution to the regeneration of Pennsylvania's government.

Frank M. Crawford Heads Centre County Drive for Susquehanna University.

Leading Lutheran church members and alumni from Centre county are among the members of the general committee of two hundred which met yesterday at Selingsgrove to work out details of Susquehanna University's $450,000 program of development.

Centre county is in Zone No. 3, which is headed by Sterling R. Decker, Montgomery, as chairman. The county district chairman is Frank M. Crawford, of this place.

Members of the Centre county committee include: Rev. Clarence E. Arnold, Bellefonte; Lewis H. Beck, Nittany; Lester Condo, Spring Mills; Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck, Aaronsburg; H. L. Ebricht, Centre Hall; W. J. Emeric, Bellefonte; Rev. J. S. English, Pine Grove Mills; Dr. G. S. Frank, Millheim; A. E. Garbrick, Bellefonte R. D.; C. L. Gramley, Rebersburg; S. Ward Gramley, Millheim; Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, Centre Hall; Rev. John F. Harkins, State College; E. M. Huyett, Centre Hall; W. H. Haney, Spring Mills; Ezra Harter, Spring Mills; Wallace Ilgen, Centre Hall; Mrs. J. M. Riden, Bellefonte; Harry Royal, Rebersburg; L. E. Stover; Millheim; Rev. Stephen Traver, Rebersburg; Rev. W. W. Wagner, Boalsburg; D. S. Wert, Centre Hall; H. S. Winklebleck, Aaronsburg; John Zerby, Spring Mills.

Clearfield County Boy Killed by "Hit and Run" Car.

Maynard Morgan, seventeen year old son of Richard Morgan, who lives just over the line in Clearfield county not far from Phillipsburg, was instantly killed by a "hit and run" automobile, near Oak Grove, last Wednesday evening. Morgan and Joseph Pope were on their way to Oak Grove to meet Robert Barger, of Winburne, who was due on the 7:30 trolley car, the three young men having planned to attend a corn roast during the evening.

Not far from Oak Grove a large touring car traveling at high speed and with only one light, hit both Morgan and Pope. The former, who weighed 160 pounds, was thrown thirty feet and was dead when picked up. Pope was only hit a glancing blow and sustained an injury to his right leg and shock. The driver of the car did not stop and is therefore unknown. Morgan is survived by his father and two brothers, George and Richard.

Motor Wrecks High Street Porch.

Undertaking to park at the curb in front of the William Ott house, on High street, last Thursday evening Doyle Gearhart, of State College, must have stepped on the gas instead of the brake. His car shot up over the curb and across the pavement until it crashed into the corner of the Ott porch. There it stopped, but not before having completely demolished the steps and pushed the entire porch about eight inches down the street.

In the mix-up the rear of the Gearhart car got so badly tangled up with a Ford coupe, also parked there, that it had to be lifted off before the car could be turned around and run down the pavement to the crossing where it got back onto the roadway. Strange, the Ford showed no signs of damage. Ott's porch was a partial wreck and Mr. Gearhart will have a new bumper to buy because the porch didn't yield without first breaking his.

Levi A. Miller and the Atchinson family, of Pleasant Gap, who had anticipated taking the Mrs. J. Will Conley home, on Logan street, for the winter have been compelled to change their plans owing to the sudden and unexpected illness of Mrs. Atchinson. Mr. Miller will probably spend the winter at the Garman house here while the Atchinsons are without definite plans owing to Mrs. Atchinson's condition.

STOVER.—Jacob Stover died last Saturday at the home of his son George, at Woodward, as the result of a stroke of paralysis.

He was a retired farmer and was 78 years, 1 month and 4 days old. His wife died two years ago but surviving him are the following children: Howard Stover, of Lake Worth, Fla.; George, of Woodward; Boyd and Herbert, of Coburn; James, of Northumberland; John, of Sunbury; Mrs. J. J. Breen, of Antes Fort, and Mrs. C. R. Burkholder, of Coburn. He also leaves three brothers, Philip and Leonard, of Coburn, and Ellis, of Woodward. Burial was made in the Fairview cemetery, Millheim, on Tuesday afternoon.

BRUNGARD.—Mrs. Mary Catherine Brungard, widow of Samuel Brungard, lifelong residents of Nittany valley, died on Sunday at the home of her son, G. B. M. Brungard, at Mill Hall, following a general breakdown, aged 84 years. Her husband has been dead a number of years but surviving her are six children, G. B. M. Brungard, of Mill Hall; Fred, of Rosecrans; Newton, of Rote; Mrs. Charles Hollenback, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Herman Walizer, of Mackeyville, and Mrs. Nelson Light, of New York city. Burial was made in the Cedar Hill cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

WOLFE.—Anthony Wolfe, a native of Centre county, died in the Altoona hospital last Thursday morning, following an illness of some weeks. He was a moulder by occupation and had lived in Altoona and vicinity for many years. He was seventy-seven years old and his only survivor is one son, J. A. Wolfe, of Altoona. The remains were taken to Hubersburg, Centre county, where burial was made on Sunday.

SPELA.—Andrew Spela, of Snow Shoe township, died at the Centre County hospital on Monday afternoon, following two weeks illness with typhoid fever. He was thirty-three years old and is survived by his wife and five young children. Burial was made at Snow Shoe yesterday morning.

Football Game at Hughes Field This Friday Afternoon.

The All Scholastic football team, of Irwin, Pa., will play the Bellefonte Academy eleven on Hughes field this afternoon at three o'clock. It is not a professional team but is made up of ex-High school players who have won renown at their various schools and is considered one of the best amateur teams in the western part of the State. Because of this fact a good game is assured.

The Academy defeated the Gettysburg College Freshmen, on Saturday, by the score of 18 to 0, but it should have been at least double that. The game was played in a downpour of rain, on a very slippery field, and the Academy players simply could not get going. Several touch-downs were made which looked all right to the crowd on the side lines but were not allowed by the referee. Hood, one of the best of the Academy players, had two toes injured during the game and was taken to the Centre county hospital for treatment. Just how serious the injury is, or how long it will keep him out of the game is not yet known.

Bellefonte Trust Company to Entertain School Teachers.

In accordance with a custom inaugurated several years ago the Bellefonte Trust Company will be host to the school teachers of Bellefonte, Milesburg and Unionville boroughs, Benser, Boggs, Huston, Marion, Patton, Spring, Union and Walker townships, at a luncheon to be served at the Bush house at noon tomorrow. The purpose of the meeting is to explain to and impress upon the teachers the value of teaching thrift to the pupils and to establish banking in all of the schools within the above district where the banking system has not already been installed.

In these days when there are so many ways for the children to spend money the teaching of thrift and savings is a commendable study in all public schools.

Memorial to Former Superintendent of Bellefonte Schools.

Mrs. David O. Ethers, of State College, has presented to the library of the Bellefonte High school a valuable collection of reference books from the library of her late husband.

It is to be a memorial to David O. Ethers, former county superintendent of schools, who was principal of the High school here from 1884 to 1890 and superintendent of all our schools from 1892 to 1905.

In the collection are Gibbon's "Rome," Grote's "History of Greece" and Chambers' "Encyclopaedia of English Literature."

Thelma Williams on the Stage in Pittsburgh.

Miss Thelma Williams, of Port Matilda, the girl who was selected as "Miss Pittsburgh" in the national beauty show at Atlantic City several weeks ago, has been appearing in a small part on the stage of Pittsburgh theatres this week, both at the Davis and Olympic. She is in the Keith-Albee vaudeville company and in addition to appearing in the regular vaudeville program makes a brief address from the stage.

Florida Recovering from Recent Disaster.

Lake Worth, Florida, Sept. 26, '26. Dear friends:— Here I am, sitting at my desk with four windows open and enjoying the delightful breeze coming through. It is a beautiful day. The sun is shining, birds are singing, automobiles rolling by and trains moving as usual. One can scarcely realize that we have just passed through one of the greatest storms ever experienced in this section. But at that, we feel pretty lucky for it did little damage here as compared with the awful destruction in other sections of the State.

To look our city over now you would not know that we had been in the storm's path at all. The nice weather of the week has been taken advantage of to fix up shattered roofs and clean up the debris scattered about by the gale. Lake Worth is one of the nicest cities on the east coast. It is growing rapidly and will eventually become an important industrial as well as pleasure centre. The railroads sense that, for the East Coast line has put in a big yard and is building a $45,000 freight station here, while the Seaboard Air Line is built through here to Miami. Also, they are developing the lake so that we may have the advantage of shipping by water. With all the hard luck the future of Florida looks good to me.

Postal work in Florida is very fascinating. Always, one is seeing new faces and making new friends. Strangers seem to be coming here almost as fast as ever, notwithstanding the temporary alarm that might have been spread throughout the country by the news of our great storm. It looks as though work for mechanics of all kinds will be plentiful here this winter as more substantial buildings are to replace those destroyed.

Hoping that this finds everyone happy and successful in old Centre county, I am Your friend, C. C. KEICHLINE.

A Few Fall Movings.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hartranft have bought the Al Heverly brick house, on Logan street, and will move there from the mill property on north Thomas street, recently purchased by the P. R. R. Co. Mr. and Mrs. Hartranft expect to take possession of their new home as soon as possible so that the R. R. Co., can make the changes they planned when buying the property.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Craft will move to Pleasant Gap this fall, arranging to go just as soon as their house is ready for occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Conradi vacated the Parker house, on Wednesday, and moved back to Sunbury by motor truck. The house vacated by them will be taken on the first of November by Ralph Mallory and family.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Anna Sweeney is ill with rheumatism. Miss Elizabeth Meyer, of Mifflinville, spent Sunday in town.

Mrs. C. H. Boyer is nursing a broken arm, the result of a fall.

Mrs. Wm. Meyer, Mrs. Sarah Sweet and son Perry, and S. R. Rishel made a trip to Lock Haven on Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner returned home on Thursday from attending the 100th anniversary of the Gettysburg Theological Seminary.

Miss Ruth Taylor, of Carlisle, was an over Sunday visitor with Miss Dorothy Lonbarger. Both ladies are teaching in the High school at Hubersburg.

Mrs. John Wright accompanied a party of friends to State College, Saturday afternoon, and while walking across College avenue was run down by a passing auto, suffering severe injuries to her knee and ankle.

A festival and bake sale will be held by the ladies Bible class of the Boalsburg Reformed church Sunday school, on the church lawn, tomorrow, Saturday, October 2, afternoon and evening. The committee in charge cordially invites everyone to attend.

The eightieth annual institute of the public school teachers of Centre county will be held in the court house, the week beginning October 25.
