Bellefonte, Pa., November 5, 1926.

NEWS FROM TOWN AND COUNTY.

Remember that the stores in Bellefonte will be closed next Thursday, Armistice day.

The ladies Volunteer Bible class of the Bellefonte Methodist church will hold a bake sale at the Bellefonte Hardware Co., tomorrow, November 6.

The Bellefonte Kiwanis club will give two home talent entertainments of the musical revue, "Cheer Up," in the Richelieu theatre November 18th and 19th, for the benefit of the under privileged child movement.

The Holz sale of household furniture was so large that it was impossible to dispose of all of it on Thursday and it was continued until Friday afternoon when everything was sold. The sale amounted to approximately $1400.

Rev. Knox received a pointer pup, Wednesday night, and an hour or so after its arrival in Bellefonte it escaped. It is black and white and the minister would be very grateful if it should be returned by the finder to his home on Howard St.

Between four and five o'clock, on Monday morning, robbers broke into the P. R. R. station at Howard and attempted to blow the safe, but their efforts proved fruitless and they were evidently frightened away before they could get hold of anything of value.

On Sunday night some unknown individual entered the James Fox garage, on east Bishop street, and stole the automobile of Francis Deckman. On Monday the car was found in Jersey Shore where it had evidently been abandoned by the thief when he ran out of gas.

Russell Blair, chairman of the Red Cross, would like if some good hearted, public spirited person or persons, club, lodge, church or association will kindly donate a typewriter to the Red Cross nursing headquarters. It is greatly needed, and he adds, don't send an old, worn out machine, a new one is needed.

The donation for the Presbyterian home at Hollidaysburg, held at the chapel on Spring street, Bellefonte, recently, netted $89 in cash and almost one hundred dollars' worth of fruit, fresh and canned, vegetables, etc. It was taken to the home the latter part of the week by one of the Bellefonte Hardware company trucks.

The thirty thousand dollar bond issue voted on by residents of State College, on Tuesday, passed by a vote of 612 to 225. The most of the money will be used to pay off an indebtedness incurred in street paving and the balance for new fire fighting apparatus. The increase will make the town's bonded indebtedness $122,500.

Kiyanis is going to go in a body to root for the local Hi team when it plays Lock Haven Hi, the annual game on Thanksgiving day. Members are now learning the Hi yells and have engaged both Wetzler's and the I. O. O. F. bands to accompany the crowd and help with the pep. Of course Bellefonte is going to win this year. The dope is all that way.

H. A. Hartling, of State College, who has been doing such satisfactory work on some of the trees of Bellefonte during the summer, is continuing his work here this month. As fall is the most propitious time for tree pruning, Mr. Hartling is soliciting work from those where trees are in great need of attention. Address Mr. Hartling in care of this office.

The G. F. Musser Co., wholesale grocers, got in fifteen crates of turkeys, last Saturday, but as there was only one turkey in a crate there were but fifteen of the birds, all told. But they were fine, large turkeys and would make a splendid appearance on a Thanksgiving table. But they are not for sale. They were furnished the company by a syrup concern and will be given away as prizes to retail merchants who invest in a certain number of cases of the company's syrup.

The Brooks-Doll post of the American Legion has perfected plans for the proper celebration of Armistice day next Thursday. They provide for the blowing of whistles and ringing of bells at two minutes of eleven o'clock. At eleven o'clock, the zero hour, there will be one minute of silence and immediately following appropriate exercises will be held in the Diamond. All the stores will be closed during the entire day. In the afternoon the Bellefonte High school football team will play the Huntingdon High on Hughes field.

At noon, on Monday, George Williams, a negro prisoner at the Rockview penitentiary, left the prison grounds and invaded the orchard on the Green Heaton farm to get some apples. Miss Annie Noll spied him and going out with a double-barreled shot gun ordered the man from the premises. He made no effort to leave and Miss Noll gave him the contents of one barrel then went closer and threatened to shoot again if he didn't leave. The man beat a hasty retreat and returning to the prison reported at the hospital where the prison physician picked forty-eight small shot from the man's body. He is not seriously hurt, however.

MUCH GAME KILLED ON OPENING DAY.

Squirrels, Rabbits and Pheasants Made Up the Game Bags.

The wet woodlands did not deter hunters from taking advantage of the opening day of the small game season, on Monday, and the result was hundreds of them went out to try their luck. While the luck of some may not have been what they anticipated, others had enough success to justify the assertion that small game is more plentiful in the county this season than it has been for several years, and hunting was not very good on Monday, at that, because of the rain-soaked leaves and underbrush which kept the game pretty much under cover. From the following list of lucky hunters, however, it will be seen that there is still game in the woods of Centre county:

Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, 2 squirrels. Edward Dukeman, 6 squirrels. Hugh Taylor Jr., 1 squirrel. Charles Coder, 1 squirrel and 2 rabbits.

Robert Conder, 2 rabbits. Jack Taylor, 1 rabbit. George Tanner, 5 rabbits and 3 pheasants.

Joe Bauer, 1 squirrel, 5 rabbits and 3 pheasants. Vincent Bauer, 3 squirrel, 2 rabbits and 1 pheasant.

Charles Long, 2 rabbits and a red fox (a red fox pelt now is worth about $12.00).

Charles Martin, 3 rabbits and 1 pheasant. Pete Lyons, 4 squirrels and 5 rabbits.

Richard Taylor, 3 rabbits and a ringneck pheasant. Charles Williams, 6 squirrels.

Ben Beezer and Collins Shoemaker, 5 squirrels and 2 rabbits. Charles Mong, 5 rabbits.

I. R. Baumgardner, 5 rabbits. Robert Fry, 1 rabbit. Paul McGarvey, 1 pheasant.

Harry Dukeman, 4 squirrels. Harry Kelly, 1 squirrel and 1 pheasant.

Earl Schreckengast, 5 rabbits and 3 pheasants. Charles E. Gates, 1 rabbit.

Toner Aikey, 1 ringneck.

BELLEFONTE CROWD BAG MANY RABBITS.

W. F. Lucas, Curt Taylor, Walter and LeRoy Scull and Chas. Kellerman, of this place, and Dean and Raymond Koons, of Eagleville, comprised a party that spent the morning hunting near Fillmore and the afternoon along Muncy mountain near Milesburg. They bagged forty rabbits and three pheasants.

Game must be plentiful up in Ferguson township, according to the Watchman's Pine Grove Mills correspondent, who writes that quite a number of hunters returned home by noon-time, on Monday, with the limit of rabbits and squirrels. Among the successful ones mentioned were the Kepler crowd, who brought home 22 rabbits, the Tate Crowd with 21 rabbits and a bunch of squirrel, Dr. Krebs, who killed two rabbits with one shot, and Royal Kline, who bagged a nice, fat ring-neck.

DEAD DOE FOUND ON PUBLIC ROAD.

On Monday morning a number of High school students of Ferguson township enroute to State College found a dead doe lying by the side of the state highway at the Kepler farm. The animal had evidently broken its neck by running into a wire fence. The carcass was taken to Pine Grove Mills and turned over to game warden G. W. Reed.

Rumor Has the Bush House Block Sold

The announcement that M. B. Runkle will move his drug store from its present location in the Bush house block to the room in the Arcade, formerly occupied by Finklestine's pool room, was made the fore part of the week. The change will be made some time this month.

Since the Bush house was built the Runkle room has been occupied by a drug store, so that the ending of what has been almost a traditional business stand in that location has given rise to many rumors as to the cause of the change. One has it that the building is to be sold and that the purchaser's plans for remodeling it contemplate throwing the Runkle room into the lobby of the replanned hotel.

We know that T. S. Strawn, some time ago, expressed a desire to own a hotel property in Bellefonte. Not to manage it himself, but to convert it into a modern hostelry. In fact he made an offer for the Bush house. Whether this means that his proposal is still under consideration and is likely to go through we are not prepared to say.

The Runkle room is said to be rented, temporarily, to a dry cleaning business that will locate there after his removal.

Just 391 tickets were sold at the Bellefonte depot for the four dollar excursion to Philadelphia, on Saturday night, to see the Sesqui. Tickets were also sold at every station east on the Bald Eagle Valley road to and including Mill Hall, so that the special train of nine coaches was well filled. The weather in Philadelphia, on Sunday, was similar to that in Bellefonte raining most of the time, and while it was not very pleasant the crowd managed to take in most of the big exposition. The return train reached Bellefonte shortly after three o'clock on Monday morning.

Lock Haven Lodge of Moose Raided Friday Night.

Federal prohibition agents from the western part of the State raided the lodge of Moose, at Lock Haven, last Friday night, and unearthed a regular wildcat brewery. They found five 20-gallon and one 10-gallon vats of beer in course of brewing; thirty cases of brewed product, two and a half barrels of real beer that was not made at the plant, and a small quantity of whiskey. The home brewed beer ran about four per cent. alcohol. All the stuff was confiscated and Ira Nestterode, Ward Shank and Peter Johnson placed under arrest. Two of the men are officers of the lodge and the other was acting bartender.

Some Fall Movings.

Ralph Mallory and family moved, on Monday, of last week, from one of the Schad houses, on north Spring street, to the one side of the Misses Parker house, on the same street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Conrad.

Mrs. Julia Hines and family have moved from east Linn street to the Louis Hill house, on east Bishop street, recently vacated by the J. C. Hockman family.

Mrs. Margaret Kane and family moved recently from one of the Albert Schad houses on Lamb street to a house on east Logan street, while the place they vacated has been taken by Andrew Engle and family, who moved there from the Powers house, on north Lamb street.

The Thomas Cairns moved last week, from the Decker garage building to Mrs. Frank Weaver's home on Bishop street. The two families will live together, Mrs. Cairns being Mrs. Weaver's niece. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hoy have taken the apartment vacated by the Cairns.

All Bellefonte Children to Have Diphtheria Immunization.

All Bellefonte children are to be given the opportunity of being inoculated against diphtheria. Arrangements have been completed for giving the treatment to those of school age at the schools and children of preschool age will be immunized at the well baby clinics, in Petriken hall on Wednesday afternoons, November 10, 17 and 24.

It is not compulsory. Parents must give their written consent before it will be done in the schools and they must voluntarily take their small children to the well baby clinic to have it done.

The treatment is practically painless, leaves no bad effects and permanently protects the child against that dread disease, diphtheria. Surely, every parent should take advantage of such an opportunity.

It didn't exactly snow the next day, but it was almost cold enough to.

Picking Huckleberries in October.

John H. Jacobs, of Boalsburg, erstwhile school teacher who has probably played a cornet and paraded with more local bands than any other musician in Centre county, got hungry for huckleberry pie the other day and what do you suppose happened.

John didn't want pie made from canned huckleberries. He wanted a pie baked with berries fresh from the bush and whoever heard of fresh huckleberries on October 25? Few ever heard of such an abnormality, but John knows that strange things happen these days, so with a four quart bucket on his arm he hied away to Tussey mountains and in a very short time had the pail filled with luscious, big berries and came home with the "makins" of fresh huckleberry pie in October.

That's something to remember when you are old and recalling nature's freakishness.

Cash Burned when Home was Destroyed by Fire.

The frame dwelling house owned and occupied by Harry Janet and family, a mile and a half west of Snow Shoe Intersection, in Bald Eagle valley, was entirely destroyed by fire about four o'clock last Saturday morning, and with the house went practically all the furniture and $83.00 in cash which Mr. Janet had placed under his bed pillow for safe keeping and forgot it until it was too late to save the money.

The entire family was asleep when the house caught fire on the attic, presumably from a defective flue. They were awakened by the stifling smoke and had barely time to put on some clothing and make their escape from the burning building. Neighbors formed a bucket brigade and made an attempt to fight the flames but it proved a fruitless effort. The only things saved were a few pieces of kitchen furniture. The house and contents were mostly covered by insurance.

What's Going to Happen to the Potato Crop?

Several weeks ago the potato specialist of Pennsylvania State College, Mr. E. L. Nixon, spread broad cast the fact that several farmers in Ferguson township had graduated into the 400 bushels an acre class as potato growers this year. In fact one farmer's yield was placed at 510 bushels an acre. From various parts of the State records have been sent to the College of 400 bushels to the acre and from that up to over 600.

Out in Illinois and Minnesota and up in Maine shipments have exceeded those of last year by hundreds of carloads, and yet the price this year is higher than it has been any fall in many years. Hereabouts the tubers are retailing at $1.80 a bushel, and the cheapest they have been at any time this fall is $1.50. Of course this is good for the potato grower but it seems like a stiff price to those who have to buy them.

Up to this time very few farmers in Centre county have raised their entire crop, and it is probably the fear of potato rot because of so much wet weather that is keeping the price up. Some of the small growers have their crop out of the ground and found no unusual number of rotting or spotted ones. Others assert that they have found quite a number with brown spots on them, although they have not yet started to rot. But if the rainy weather continues it is highly probable that some of the potatoes will rot in the ground, although even then, there should not be any pronounced shortage in the tuber crop.

In Society.

Ex-Judge and Mrs. Dale were at Harrisburg, Tuesday, guests at a dinner given by Governor and Mrs. Pinchot.

Mrs. E. E. Widdowson was hostess for the Tuesday afternoon bridge club, which she entertained at the Nittany Country club.

Miss Alice Waite entertained a Halloween card party, Thursday night of last week, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Waite, on east High street, five hundred being in play.

A Halloween barn dance was given by the Misses Elizabeth Kline, Sara Carson and Eleanor Hill, in the barn on the Kline property on Bishop St., which was elaborately decorated for the occasion. The guests were all in costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Widdowson, Mr. and Mrs. West, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Murdock and Mr. and Mrs. Herr were the grown-ups who joined the young people at the Sycamore club, Monday night, for a Halloween celebration. The originators of the party were Martha and Kathryn Johnston, Eleanor Barnhart, Pearl Shope, Lucile Smith, Margaret and Katherine Barnhart and Grace Carson.

Mrs. Charles McClellan Jr. entertained with a surprise party for her husband, Friday night, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Welty, on east Howard street.

Scenic Management Boosts Local High School Athletics.

In giving the proceeds of one of the best drawing pictures on the screen to the Bellefonte High school athletic association T. Clayton Brown, lessee of the Scenic and Moose theatres, has shown a spirit of liberality that is certainly to be commended.

The Hi athletic association is not self supporting by long odds. About the only time it makes a drive for public aid is when its "Red and Blue" contest is staged each fall. It is now considerably in debt and Mr. Brown's action is both timely and acceptable.

"The Quarterback" will have its last showing at the Moose tonight and if you want to see a good picture and at the same time help the Hi boys a bit you should go.

State College Girls Have Nine Rifle Matches.

Rifle shooting is the only sport the Penn State women students engage in intercollegiate competition and for the past several years the co-ed sharpshooters have been establishing a most enviable record by their victories over the girls of other institutions. A schedule of nine matches is being arranged for this year. Girls who make the rifle team are awarded five points toward the varsity letter granted by the women's athletic association. It is also proposed to recognize their success in intercollegiate competition by the award of some special insignia.

Now that the election is a thing of the past many people who have heretofore been busy during the evening will naturally look for some other diversion. In Bellefonte the one place where you can go and enjoy yourself is the Scenic. There you will always find a big program of motion pictures which cannot help but entertain and amuse you. And bear in mind the fact that it is only the regulars who see all the good ones.

For Rent.—Two or three rooms for light housekeeping. Light, heat and privilege of bath. No children. Inquire at this office. 43-tf

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Homan, of State College, were in Bellefonte spending the day on Monday. Monday, you will recall, was the opening day of the hunting season and when we expressed surprise that a Homan was looking after business instead of being out with his trusty gun Charley laughed and said: "The game that is in big game is his kind." That meant that today isn't his specialty and we might have known it for the "Homan hunting crowd" up in Ferguson township have been mighty nimrod for years and years and if all the deer his forebears have brought down were strung up today they would make an impressive line.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Dale, of DuBois, were in Bellefonte, on election day, having cast their votes first and then started for a motor trip which will take them to Washington, D. C., where they expect to visit their several weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Edna Corkhill, who lives in one of the suburbs of that city. Being election day Mr. Dale recalled that it was just forty-six years ago that he cast his first ballot. He was then a resident of Benner Twp., this county, and in those days both Benner and Spring townships and all the wards of Bellefonte voted at the court house here. Elections were elections then and if the weather was cold bonfires were built on the court house grounds so that the workers, who had vest pockets full of little ballots tied with white, or pink, or green cord, could keep warm. Some didn't depend on the fires as much as others for they were great coats, bulging at the pockets in such a way that a blind prohibition officer of today would have arrested them on sight. Mr. Dale was celebrating also his retirement from the postal service which happened on Tuesday. With twenty-six years of service behind him he is now on the pension list.
