THEATRE

Where the Better-Class Photoplays are Shown
Each Evening at 6.15 o'clock.

Miss Crouse, Organist

Week-Ahead Program

Tomorrow—Saturday

"For Alimony Only"

WITH LEATRICE JOY
Magnetic Cecil B. De Mille Star
Clive Brook Lillian Tashman
A dramatic, humorous, thrilling story of marital life, presenting a tremendously vital sociological problem and a vibrant theme dealing with unloving women who wed for alimony only. Take the tip and see it, for it will only be shown one day only.

As usual, 10 and 25c.

Monday and Tuesday

"The Strong Man"

WITH HARRY LANGDON
The peer of all laugh dispensers, the king of all gloom chasers and the funniest man on the screen. Also Frisella Bonner, Gertrude Astor, Wm. V. Mong and Robert McKim. With a snap of his fingers he breaks the iron band that holds back King Joy from rocking Old Man Gloom to sleep. Seven reels of Langdon laffs.

Also, Alice Day in "Her Actor Friend," a Mack Sennett two reel Comedy.
Only 10 and 15 cents.

Wednesday and Thursday

"The Lilly"

WITH Belle Bennett John Sainpolls
A selfish French court forbids his daughters to wed. Eldest obeys while youngest gets mixed in scandal with a married artist. Both finally find happiness in marriage. It's a dramatic story with French locale, based on David Belasco's stage success.

Also, Screen Snapshots and Fox News.
Only 10 and 25 cents.

Friday and Saturday

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

ADOLPHE MENJOU
Quintessential Figure

And ALICE JOYCE in

"The Ace of Cads"

Menjou, the man who loved with a smile in his eyes, in a brilliant society story by Michael Arlen, the literary lion of the hour, Menjou, as a dashing man about town in the Arenesque world of Pincadilly night clubs, back stage and aristocratic ballrooms. Filled in love he turns gambler, rone and heart plate, until he meets a certain girl. Fascinating entertainment is assured in this one.

Also, a first run two reel comedy. 10 and 25 cents.

Moose Theatre

Where You Always See Good Shows.
Country Store Every Wednesday Night

This
Friday and Saturday

"Pals in Paradise"

Margarite DeLaMotte Rudolph Schildkrant
A good western picture filled from start to finish with rapid fire action, thrills and laughs.

Also, Mabel Normand in "Raggedy Rose, a Mack Sennett two reel Comedy.
Admission - - - 10 and 25c.

Next Friday and Saturday

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

WALLACE BEERY—RAYMOND HATTON

Here is the same pair of screen comedians who made you rock with laughter in "Behind the Front," but when you see them in "We're in the Navy Now" you positively will see the greatest Comedy the screen has ever shown. (We positively guarantee this show to be the ace of all Comedies. Gobs of laughter, screams, yells and oh, what entertainment!)
Admission, 15 and 35 cents.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Butchering is now on in full swing in this section.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss is housed up with an attack of neuritis.

Misses Ada Keeler and Ada Koch spent Monday in Bellefonte.

Roy Henry, of Bellefonte, spent Friday in town with his mother.

Miss Olive Walker and Oka Krape are Williamsport visitors this week.

A tracking snow fell on Tussey mountain on Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Lykens and Mrs. E. T. Parsons are both recovering from illness.

Miss Thelma Barto, of the Branch, spent Sunday at her parental home at Guyer.

Few people in this vicinity feasted on turkey yesterday, as the price was too high.

Miss Catherine Hoy has returned home from a visit with friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Edith Sankey was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Viola Smith, over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Raymond Smith, of Port Matilda, was a Sunday caller at the M. C. Wieland home.

W. R. Port, proprietor of the Russell cafe, spent Friday in Huntingdon on a business trip.

We are sorry to note the serious illness with heart trouble of our old friend, George Kline.

Miss Thelma Kline, daughter of James Kline, is a medical patient in the Centre County hospital.

A. P. Wieland has been discharged from the Oil City hospital and is convalescing nicely at his home.

A. B. Musser and wife and Mrs. J. F. Meyers spent Sunday at the Witmer home on Buffalo Run.

John F. Kimpfort, of Boalsburg, was in town bright and early on Monday morning, on a business mission.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Goss and Mrs. J. H. Kepler spent Friday in Altoona looking over the bargain counters.

Walter Johnson moved to Fairbrook, on Monday, where he will engage in lumbering with E. E. Ellenberger.

Rev. J. G. Rigbee preached the sermon at the union Thanksgiving services in the Presbyterian church.

Prof. W. A. Wright brought home a nice big bear, last Friday, which he bagged on the Allegheny mountains.

Ed Mayes, an attache of the Huntingdon reformatory, spent Friday evening greeting old friends in town.

Editor A. J. Zimmerman, of the State College Times, went to Elmira, N. Y., to spend Thanksgiving with his son.

E. B. Johnson, of Somerset, was here on a visit the latter end of the week, the first in a quarter of a century.

Dr. R. M. Krebs had an attack of uremic trouble on Sunday night and is confined to his home on west Main street.

Road supervisor Samuel M. Hess has been busy repairing the roads and opening the ditches in preparation for winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Elder left for their home in Medina, Ohio, after spending two weeks among Centre county friends.

Frank Albright, steward at the Fairbrook club, fell from a ladder, a few days ago, and sustained a number of severe bruises.

Wilson Cummings, of Tyrone, spent Friday at the E. E. Royer home and took home with him quite a load of supplies for the winter.

Miss Dorothy English, a student at Beckley business college, Harrisburg, spent her Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. English.

A three act play "Between Two Lives," will be put on in the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday evening, December 4th, at 7.30 p. m. Admission, 25 and 35 cents.

Miss Sadie Lasson, an aged lady who lives with the Bert Eves family at Guyer, had a bad fall, last Thursday, fracturing her left arm just below the shoulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Shadrack Parsons have closed their home near Unionville and will spend the winter with their son, E. T. Parsons and family, at Fairbrook.

Col. D. W. Miller, who the past week or so had been quite spry and and was looking forward to the deer hunting season, had another sick spell on Monday and is again confined to his bed.

A. C. Kepler, wife and three children, motored to Lancaster, last Thursday, and spent the latter end of the week with Mrs. Aaron Kepler and daughter.

Mrs. Kepler, by the way, makes frequent visits with relatives in this section.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henszy was robbed of a large quantity of silverware on Wednesday night of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Henszy are both in Europe and their house at State College closed for the time being.

Ed Livingstone has purchased a small farm near Graysville and intends settling down for good. He returned from Florida last spring, after spending several years there, and spent the summer hunting for a place to his liking.

A. C. Kepler got his potato crop out of the ground in the nick of time. The morning after he took in the last of them the mercury was down to 26 degrees above zero. Chappy got 5000 bushels from fifteen acres, mostly of the Russett variety.

Mrs. Daisy Green, of Harrisburg, with her sister, Mrs. Margaret Shaw, of Altoona, spent Saturday with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Everts. It was their first visit here in thirty years and naturally they noticed many changes.

A family gathering was held at the home of A. Stine Walker, last Friday evening, when all the children were at home to help him celebrate his 78th anniversary. A big supper was a feature and Mr. Walker received many useful gifts as well as cards of congratulation.

PLEASANT GAP.

J. T. Noll is convalescing from a case of the grip.

Mrs. Fred Roush and son, of Altoona, visited here last week.

Miss Bertha Rimmey is spending a few days this week in the city of Baltimore.

J. Abner Noll is still quite sick and is giving his family quite a lot of concern over the outcome.

Mrs. Fred A. Clemens is spending some time in Gettysburg with her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Geiselman.

Kermit L. Noll, of Jersey Shore, accompanied by his wife and mother, Mrs. Boyd Noll, were guests of the Noll families in our town.

Millard Schreffler and Miss Margaret Swartz motored to Scranton, Saturday, and were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Robinson.

The ladies of our town met and organized a Civic club. The meeting was held on Tuesday evening in the Sunday school room of the M. E. church.

Mrs. Blanche Fetterhoff left on Monday for Harrisburg and Steelton to call on a number of her friends. She expects to be absent for several weeks.

Guy Kerstetter and family have abandoned their garage and moved into their new home in the new Noll Addition, and are more, apparently happy and contented. Guy says he is through paying rent.

Those from here who took advantage of the Sunday excursion to Philadelphia, Saturday night, were Mrs. John Noll, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bilger, Mr. and Mrs. James Bilger and daughter Sarah, Miss Pearl Irwin and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sommers.

Ralph Anthony and wife, of Pittsburgh, came to the Gap the latter part of the week to accompany Mrs. Katie Hunter, Mrs. Anthony's mother, back to the Smoky city after a two weeks visit among friends here. Mr. Anthony holds a good position in the offices of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad and is a most efficient employee.

Mrs. Ruth Noll, Mrs. Grace Noll and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Noll were guests, last Tuesday evening at the card party at the Nittany Country Club, at Hecla. Bridge and five hundred were in play. Mrs. Beach, of Bellefonte, won the 1st prize at bridge and Mrs. Jack Noll won the prize in five hundred.

The house has been refurbished and papered and presents a most beautiful appearance. There were about 140 in attendance.
