For her, always for her! Half flying over the gridiron—half dying over there!
Whether it was in front of cheering thousands, or under the roar of big guns, he could hear her half-whispered promise, "I'm yours—for now and forever." A promise tangled in the skeins of war madness. Don't let any one spoof you on this picture for it is entertainment for all.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. Frank Kanarr has been quite ill with LaGrippe the past few days.

Harry McClincy left on Tuesday for an indefinite visit with his daughter, Mrs. Jacob Corman, of Coraopolis.

Mrs. Theodore Ramsey, of Harrisburg, visited here last week among her three brothers and their families.

We were sorry to hear of the death of little Pauline Mong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Mong, Sunday afternoon.

Class No. 3 of the M. E. Sunday school will be entertained this (Friday) evening at the home of Mrs. George Gettig.

Guard Clemmens, of Rockview, moved into the new and attractive bungalow recently completed by Henry Ford Noll. It is a model structure.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kerstetter and Mrs. Guy Kerstetter returned home on Sunday, after spending Thanksgiving with the former's daughter in Linesville.

Mrs. Bender and daughter Mary, of Lancaster, were here over the weekend for a visit with Mrs. Bender's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bilger, who has been quite ill for the past week.

Our good neighbor, Abner Noll, of Noll Bros., has been sick for the past ten days. After a doctor's consultation it was decided to send him to the Williamsport hospital, where he now is, and it is hoped that he may speedily recover. He stood the trip in good shape and recent reports are encouraging.

The Lutheran Thanksgiving dinner proved a decided success. Everybody seemed delighted. The eats were abundant and palatable. Chicken and noodles disappeared like the dew before a morning's sun, and it is reported that the congregation netted quite a sum from their well managed feast.

The M. E. church is being repainted and almost resembles a new structure, although seventy-five years old. Unfortunately the furnace is burned out and is absolutely worthless, so that the congregation is facing another outlay of at least $300. That, in connection with the painting, is a severe blow to the congregation. It is to be hoped that the contributors will respond liberally, as the church must have a place of worship.

A number of our Nittany valley farmers are complaining that in consequence of the frequent rains and unseasonable weather they have been unable to raise their crop of potatoes. They should consult the Rockview penitentiary management, who might give them valuable tips in reference to how it is done. Rockview had a very commendable crop of marketable tubers, and it must be said to their credit that the entire crop of over 11000 bushels is stored in the cellars and ready for the winter's consumption.

The Pleasant Gap Hunters Club left for their camp in the Seven mountains on Tuesday morning. The bunch consists of twenty-one enthusiastic sportsmen, and in addition to the regular quota, they took with them four or five outside guests who will share the hilarities of camp life. As an illustration, to give an idea to the outside world how plentiful the deer have become, will point to the fact that William Kerstetter and his estimable better half took a run over to their camp in the Seven mountains on Monday last. When within a quarter of a mile of their goal they halted their auto and walked to the camp. In going to and returning they saw twenty-five deer. They allege that the bucks and does were so tame and unconcerned that they expected to enjoy the right of way, and appeared to be monarch of all the surroundings. The Gap also has half a dozen of independent hunters who will scour Greensvalley and the Nittany mountains, and it goes without saying that they will land some of the horny tribe as a number of them are old, experienced hunters.

AARONSBURG.

W. E. Orwig came up from Allentown, last week, on one of his frequent visits with his family in town.

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Fred Griesing spent Tuesday in Howard, where Rev. Griesing filled the pulpit for Rev. O. P. Moyer, of the Reformed church.

Dr. Stork paid a recent visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bame and left them a wee daughter, who is a welcome, permanent guest, and who will bear the name of her paternal grand-mother, Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller, motored over from Williamsport recently and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Musser. Mrs. Musser and Mrs. Miller are sisters.

John Bright came in from Akron, Ohio, to be on hand, Wednesday morning for the opening of the deer season. We trust he may be as fortunate this year as he was last season when he took home with him a beautiful deer-head.

Recently Mrs. N. H. Phillips was hostess at a six o'clock dinner to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Bower and Mrs. Anna Stover. Mrs. Phillips served one of her famous dinners to which full justice was done.

Sunday, the 28th, the Evangelical Sunday school and congregation combined observed "Rally Day" services morning and evening both being well attended. At that time they raised their quota on the new parsonage built in Millheim. The money has all been raised to meet their obligations on the whole charge. The pastor, Rev. H. C. Kleffel, and his parishioners are to be highly commended.

Fred Daubenspeck, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Daubenspeck, was brought home on Friday, from the Mary M. Packer hospital, Sunbury, where he was an operative patient for mastoids. Monday he was taken back for observation. Mrs. J. F. Krape and daughter Catherine accompanied him down for the purpose of having Dr. Wentzel again treat the child's ear for abscesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hackenberg, of Rebersburg, motored to town the day before Thanksgiving, taking with them Mr. Hackenberg's mother, Mrs. Robert Hackenberg, to Gettysburg, where they were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Catherman; Mrs. Catherman being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hackenberg.
