FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS

"Midnight Lovers"

WITH

LEWIS STONE

LEWIS STONE and ANN Q. NILSSON
A mile a minute Romance, with the thrills of a wide open. You'll be in a heaven of thrills with the "Midnight Lovers," high-fliers in love, looping through the blue clouds of matrimony into a smashup that sent pieces of gossip showering over London. The good ship "Nuptial Bliss" went on the rocks, but they fell in the snow.
Also a first run two-reel Mack Bennett Comedy, "Be Your Age."

Where do you see them any better?
Matinee at 2 p. m.

Wednesday and Thursday

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

"London"

WITH

DOROTHY GISH

America's Inimitable Comedienne
A unique Cinderella story. Because of the importance of the authentic London scenes amidst which the romance of a little slum girl weaves its adventurous way on her rise to love and riches. Following are some of the scenes of London which you will see:
Tower Bridge on the Thames, The Thames embankment, Limehouse Road home of 1000 ships, Windsor Castle and Buckingham Palace.
Also Fox News and Screen Snapshots.

Matinee Wed. at 2 p. m.

Friday and Saturday

FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS

"The Blond Saint"

WITH

DORIS KENYON

and
LEWIS STONE

Kidnapped on her way to her fiancée, hurried into the dark Mediterranean in the arms of the man she hated above all others, held captive on a wild isle surrounded by rude peasants, half mad with fear. That is the story we offer you for Christmas and it is some Holiday attraction.
Also a first run two-reel Fox Comedy "Babies in the Jungle."

Matinee Xmas. at 2 p. m.
Only 10 and 25 cents.

"The Broadway Gallant"

RICHARD TALMADGE

You can't do much when the Sheriff has you by the arm. Just wait 'til you see this picture. Talk about snappy situation, incidents with a twist, a plot with a punch, quaint Comedy, boisterous burlesque, a regular three alarm riot of laughs, done as only Dick Talmadge can do it. One fine show.
Also a Mack Bennett two-reel Comedy "Get Em Young."

PLEASANT GAP.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stitzer and Mrs. Barlett spent Tuesday in Huntingdon. H. K. Stitzer is a persistent sportsman, but he is still one buck short of his limit.

Miss Bertha Rimmey returned home, Sunday, after visiting several weeks in Altoona with her sister, Mrs. Fred Roush.

Our local hunters have up to now landed nine bucks, mostly in the Greensvalley district. A few, however, were shot on the Nittany mountain.

Mrs. Rachel Noll and Mrs. W. H. Florey will enjoy their usual combination dinner on Christmas day. It will no doubt be a "feast fit for the Gods."

It is rumored that Whiterock will erect several more brick houses in the early spring. We surely need them, as we are still short of about twenty-five houses to fill the demand.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Noll expect to go to Philadelphia for an indefinite visit with their daughter, Miss Jean Noll, who has a very commendable position in one of the leading hospitals in the city and is making good.

We are glad to announce that the venerable Mrs. Bilger is slightly improved. She will have reached her 95th milestone in February next. She has very many good friends who are hoping for her speedy recovery.

Joseph Myers killed a four pronged buck near the top of Nittany mountains, adjacent to the state road, Monday morning. Samuel Weaver trailed a two pronged buck from McBride's Gap over Nittany mountain up to the old Houser farm and after six solid hours landed his limit.

The M. E. church resembles a new structure since the edifice has been repaired, and the subscriptions for the new furnace total something like $250, leaving a balance of fifty dollars more to raise. A little more effort and the total amount required will be reached. The sabbath school classes are to be commended for their untiring efforts in aiding this laudable ambition.

It is a satisfaction to the many friends of Mr. Abner Noll to know that he is recovering from his recent illness. He returned home from the Williamsport hospital a few days ago, and it is to be hoped that he will in the near future fill his place behind the counter of the Noll Bros. store. Abner was surely missed during his brief absence, inasmuch as he was very seldom absent from his duties for over fifty years past.

Floyd Horner shot a fine four pronged buck, on Friday last, within two miles of our post office. Floyd took a short stroll up to the watering trough at the entrance to the Gap, turned to the left, walked up a short distance on the Greensvalley road, met his limit and brought him to the earth. The Horners were mostly raised on the old Horner farm near the top of the mountain, and as a rule are about as familiar among a bunch of deer as a farmer is among his cattle in the barnyard.

HERMAN.—Miss Edith Herman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Herman, passed away last Friday following a lingering illness. She was born at Spring Mills on June 14th, 1883, making her age 43 years, 9 months and 26 days. Funeral services were held at the Herman home at two o'clock on Monday afternoon by Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, and Rev. Charles Risel, of this place, burial being made in the Lutheran cemetery.

In the death of Miss Herman every man, woman and child at Pleasant Gap loses a genuine friend. A woman of high christian character she felt personal interest in the welfare and success of all her neighbors and friends. In her passing away Pleasant Gap loses a woman whose death creates a void but whose memory will be enshrined forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. G. H. Fred Griessing spent a day recently in Clearfield. She accompanied a party of Eastern Star representatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Roush motored to Williamsport, Sunday, to see their son Charles, who is a patient in the hospital in that city.

Charles Acker came in from Akron, where he has been employed for some years, and spent several weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Acker. He left for Akron Tuesday.

Mr. Bower, the Aladdin distributor, has been having remarkable success in this neighborhood during the past week. We notice the beautiful white light shining out from many of the best homes.

Mrs. C. G. Bright accompanied her grand-daughter, Miss Orwig and friend, to Akron, where she expects to be joined soon by Mr. Bright. They expect to spend the winter in that city with relatives.

Two of the Sunday Schools of the town will have special Christmas services. The Lutheran on Wednesday evening, the 22nd. The Reformed, on Sunday morning, the 26th, at 10.30, the regular hour for divine worship.

Mrs. Charles Wolfe has closed her house for the winter and has gone to Woodlawn, where she will spend part of the time with her son, Earl Cummings, and her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Miller. She will also visit another son in Pittsburgh.

Samuel Laidacker, a student at Penn State, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver. He came here expecting to visit his brother, John Laidacker, but found he had gone to his home in Shickshinny over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tubbs, of Spangler, and Mr. and Mrs. Aughbach, of Altoona, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. King. Mr. Tubbs is a brother of Mrs. King. On Saturday Raymond King, accompanied by his father and mother motored to Salona to visit Mr. King's aged father, Abraham King, who is in rapidly failing health.
