Chester Putt, of Port Matilda, Killed in Auto Accident.

Going home from Bellefonte with some Christmas purchases on the night of December 23rd, Chester Putt, sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Putt, of Port Matilda, drove his automobile headon into a team of Matinee Every Mon. Wed. and Sat. horses and wagon sustaining injuries which resulted in his death at the Centre County hospital the following day. Putt was accompanied on his trip to Bellefonte by Theodore Engler, aged Milton. 20, son of Rev. and Mrs. Engler, of Port Matilda, and Raymond Smith, aged 18. Along in the vicinity of the John Q. Miles farm the automobile crashed into a team of horses, hitched to a heavy wagon, and being driven by Plummer Hoar, of Centre Hall, who with Domer C. Ishler, had taken a load of Christmas trees to Tyrone THE FOUR and were on their way home. That the car was driven head-on into the team was evident from the fact that the tongue of the wagon not only punctured the radiator of the car but days with Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Haffley on striking the motor was deflected upwards ran through the windshield and struck young Putt on the head, inflicting the injury which caused his death. Engler was sitting alongside of Putt and he sustained a blow on the head as well as a gash which required seven stitches to close. Smith was in the rear seat and asleep at the RUDOLPH VALENTINO ALICE TERRY time of the accident, and he was not seriously hurt.

> The automobile hit the horses with sufficient impact as to break their legs and both had to be shot. The injured young men were brought to the Centre County hospital where Putt died at 9:10 o'clock on Friday morning. Smith was able to return home within twelve hours but Engler was a patient at the institution over a week. Mr. Hoar, the driver of the team, received a slight cut on the head while Ishler was uninjured.

sisters and a brother, Helen, Minnie and Wilbur Putt. Funeral services for the youth were held in the Methodist church, at Port Matilda, on Monday afternoon of last week, by Rev. Engler, burial being made in the Port | was the great attraction. Matilda cemetery.

Bank Thieves Carry Millheim Auto Man's License Tags.

On Monday three armed and masked men held up and robbed the First National bank of Elysburg, Northumberland county, of a sum of money estimated at $1500. They traveled in a Hudson sedan and the license tags were No. 303-619, those issued to Harry S. Neese, an employee at the Millheim Motor company garage, at Millheim. A State policeman visited Millheim on Tuesday to investigate the tag end of the robbery but Mr. Neese had no trouble convincing the officer that he was not one of the bank robbers, but that his tags had been stolen out of his car Thursday night or Friday.
