WEEK AHEAD PROGRAM

Friday and Saturday

(This Week)

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

LOIS WILSON
Paramount Pictures

"Ricardo Cortez", "Estelle Taylor", "Wm. Powell" and "Norman Trevor".

"New York"

An east side trap drummer rises to the love of a society girl. They are about to marry when a succession of fast moving events, typical of a big city, intervene. It's a thrilling melodrama in which the city itself plays the leading role. You simply have to like it. Matinee on Saturday at 2 P. M.

Also a First Run Two Reel Comedy Called "Big Business". Admission 10 and 35c.

Monday and Tuesday

FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS

RICHARD BARTHELMESS

And Patsy Ruth Miller

"The White Black Sheep"

You'll sit spellbound as Dick builds this picture into one solid hour of slashing action. His masterfilm. From drawing room to desert—from boulevard to beggars tent. Outcast from society, then outwitted by the sheiks. But what a glorious comeback he staged when the love of a dancing girl restores his faith in women which a white girl has killed.

Also a Mack Sennett two reel comedy "Mabel Norman" in "ANYTHING ONCE". Matinee Monday at 2 P. M. 10 and 25c.

Wednesday & Thursday

DE MILLE PICTURE CORP. PRESENTS

"Fighting Love"

WITH

"Jetta Goudal", "Victor Varconi", "Henry B. Walthall". Some cast, some show, something worth coming miles to see. One of the best shows of the week. Look who presents it. We couldn't find a smoother one in our group.

Also Fox News, Screen Snapshots. Matinee Wednesday at 2 P. M. Admission 10 and 25c.

Friday & Saturday

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

ADOLPHE MENJOU
Paramount Pictures

AND "GRETA NISSEN"

"Blonde or Brunette"

A hilarious French farce comedy "The Eternal Triangle". Sex treated with humor. The story of a man who couldn't decide between a blonde and a brunette until he married them both. Laughs—the kind that Menjou knows how to win.

Also a first run two reel comedy "MOTOR BOAT DEMON". 10 and 25c. Matinee Saturday at 2 P. M.

Lloyd Houtz, who has been a patient in the Altoona hospital, is reported as being very much improved.

Samuel Everhart and Samuel Wason, of the Branch, spent Monday evening at the M. C. Wieland home.

John C. Dunlap, a busy man of affairs, spent Monday at State College, mixing business with pleasure.

Major Philip Foster, after being confined to his home by illness for several weeks, is now able to be about.

Prof. Norman Dale, county agent of Monroe county, is spending the week among Centre county relatives.

Mrs. A. P. Wieland has been discharged from the Geisinger hospital at Danville, and is able to take daily strolls.

Samuel Markle, who submitted to a surgical operation, in the Centre County hospital last week, is now convalescing.

Wilson Henry, of Graysville, accompanied by his sister Frances and Miss Elsie Gorman, spent Sunday at the Wilbur Dodd home.

Dr. Geo. B. Goheen, of Coalport, spent several days the middle of the week at his parental home, J. B. Goheen's at Baileyville.

Robert W. Reed, of Rock Springs, is installing a new water system. Plumber Shellenberg, of Williamsburg, has the contract.

Chester Behrer, in his new Hudson sedan, accompanied by Oscar Gilliland motored to Harrisburg to mingle with the crowd on Tuesday.

James Foust will be the tenant farmer on the Jacob Reish farm, at Rock Springs. The boys are scanning register Rossman's list.

Dr. Robert M. Krebs is a medical patient in the Johns Hopkins hospital, in Baltimore. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

In our last items we noted the Gates-Bressler wedding, which was premature and we are always ready and willing to make amends.

Mrs. Nannie Bailey, Mrs. Mary Glenn and Mrs. J. H. Bailey spent Saturday afternoon with the Goheen sisters, at Rock Springs.

After spending the Yuletide season among his many friends in and out of town, John Johnson left for his home in Philadelphia, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Rupp motored to Altoona, Monday, and visited Miss Mary Sellers, at the hospital, and departed her improving nicely.

William Cole has purchased the Will Stewart farm and will take possession April 1st. Just where Mr. Stewart will reside is not yet known.

Russell Shirk and wife, and Will Glenn and wife, of Lemont, motored over in their Hudson Six sedan and spent Friday evening with relatives and neighbors, making short calls.

Mrs. Edward Isenberg, who submitted to a serious operation, in the Altoona hospital, has been discharged and is spending some time with her sister in Altoona, where she is convalescing rapidly.

Adam Garner, son of Fred Garner, while coasting with two others, jammed against a tree, splitting one arm and injuring the other. His face and head were also badly hurt but he is getting along as well as can be expected.

While motoring in the vicinity of Williamsburg, last Wednesday, U. S. Reish, of Rock Springs, lost control of his car, crashing against a telephone pole. While the car was badly damaged Mr. Reish and his wife escaped with scalp wounds.

W. R. Dale, who spent the last two years in Lakewood, Florida, as a contractor and builder, is spending this week at his parental home on the Branch. He will make an effort to see as many of his old cronies as possible. He reports that they have recovered from their recent blow and tourists coming in scarcely notice the damage done during the storm.

A jolly bunch of youngsters met at the Wieland home to make merry on the birthday anniversary of M. C. Wieland, Jr. His sister Sarah baked the cake and the youngsters were happy in snuffing the four sperm candles. The evening was spent in playing games and music.

The newly elected officers of Washington Grange P. O. H., at Pine Hall, were installed for the ensuing term with P. M. Corl as master and a full corps. A banquet followed the exercises. Master of State Grange, Mr. Devey, was the principal speaker, being followed by a number of others.

The supper consisted of such a feed as only farmers wives and their daughters can produce. Washington Grange was instituted in 1872 and is one of the most flourishing in the county, having but recently infused a lot of new blood.

A very pretty church wedding took place Saturday evening at twilight in the Lutheran church of Pine Grove Mills. Prof. Millard P. Bunnell, of Stroudsburg, and Miss Mildred Musser, of State College, were united in marriage by the Rev. John S. English, pastor. They were attended by Prof. and Mrs. Carnell, and the ring ceremony was used. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Musser, a splendid young lady, formerly a clerk in the First National Bank of State College. The groom is a graduate of State College, class of 1926, and is professor in the engineering department of State College. They immediately went to housekeeping in their furnished rooms at the College.

The installation of officers of Washington Camp P. O. S. of A., No. 620, took place in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening. After the regular routine of business was concluded district deputy Frank Coble took firm hold and with the assistance of Grover Cleveland Corl, as marshal, dispatched the business of the evening, installing the following officers: Past president, Alfred Albright; president, J. F. Musser; vice president, Paul Sunday; recording secretary, Harry Musser; financial secretary, Gilbert Fleming; treasurer, John Neidigh; conductor, Hugh Fry; inner guard, Maurice Homan; outside guard, Earl Harper; trustee, A. L. Albright; chaplain, J. A. Gummo; assistant secretary, H. D. Albright; R. sentinel, Charles Koontz; L. sentinel, Norman Corl. At the close of the exercises several snappy speeches were pulled off during the banquet. Although being in operation but one year No. 620 is rated as one of the banner camps in the county.

Refreshments were served full and plenty, consisting of ham sandwiches, cake, ice cream and hot java.

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Stover spent Monday afternoon in Millheim, where she transacted business.

Frank Burd had been housed up with the gripp and is again out and about his duties.
