Bellefonte, Pa., January 21, 1927. NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

----Miss Margaret Stewart was hostess yesterday at a dinner of twelve covers, given at noon at her home on west Linn street.

The Associated Business Men of Bellefonte will hold their annual meeting and be served with supper at the Brockerhoff house, Monday evening, January 24.

-----The third division of the Ladies volunteer bible class of the Methodist church, will hold a bake sale on Saturday Jan. 22., at the Bellefonte Hardware store.

-Lyman H. Smith, of Centre Hall, who missed election as county treasurer by only 373 votes, four years ago, has announced his intention of trying again next fall.

-Herbert M. Beezer, formerly local editor of the Regublican in this place and for the past two years connected with the staff of the New Era, at Lancaster, has returned to Bellefonte to assume the management of the Republican during the absence of Secretary Charles E. Dorworth in Harrisburg.

-That western blizzard got reaching here on Friday afternoon and by Saturday morning zero weather again prevailed. It was cold all day on Saturday and Saturday night and while it moderated some on Sunday it was not enough to relieve the chilliness in the atmosphere.

-The New York Times, last week, contained a notice of the announcement of the engagement of Miss Gwenyth Ver Planck Bruyere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bruyere Jr., of Red Bank, N. J., to John I. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. last year. George B. Thompson, of Bellefonte. No date was given for the wedding.

-Millheim has a housing problem that the Journal of that place says is likely to become acute by April 1st. The town is growing so rapidly in business opportunity that its housing facilities have not kept apace and, already, a number of workers there are compelled to live in nearby places and commute to their employment daily.

-At the annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Pennsylvania State College, held in Harrisburg on Monday evening, Judge H. Walton Mitchell, of Pittsburgh, was re-elected president; J. G. Just six members were present at the regular meeting of borough council, on Monday evening, the absentees being Mr. Brouse, who was ill at home. and Mr. Badger, away on business.

There were no verbal communications and secretary Kelly presented the following six names submitted by the Logan fire company as members available for drivers for the pumper: J. T. Storch, Ellis Hines, G. Max Gamble, Robert M. Garman, Fred Love and Arthur Boob. The secretary also read an application from Harry Dukeman for the appointment as chief of police for the ensuing year.

The report of fire marshall Robert E. Kline for the year 1926 was submitted and read by the secretary, as follows:

To the Citizens, Fire and Police Com mittees, and Borough Council. Sirs:

I wish to submit to you the following report of the Fire Department of Bellefonte for the year 1926:

During the year the Department responded to sixty (60) alarms (which is quite a coincidence as it was the same number of alarms as in 1925). They were divided in two classes,

In arriving at the above figures of losses we only consider calls in which we had to actually use either chemicals or water to extinguish. Contents are not included, and does not include out of Borough calls. The Department used over 600 gallons of Chemicals, laid 11,350 feet of hose, and aised 428 feet of ladders.

The main factors in keeping the losses down to a minimum are an efficient and prompt Department, and I do not hesitate to state that the efficiency and promptness of Bellefonte's Fire Department is a thing we can all feel proud of. Where is there more loyal, efficient, courageous and self sacrificing body of men? There are none, and I feel proud to be their Marshall. Regardless of weather condition, day or night, they are always ready to respond to a call for assistance, and their promptness is

The committee also recommended the re-election of Robert E. Kline as fire marshall. There being no other names presented he was elected.

Regarding the application of Harry Dukeman for election as chief of police for the ensuing year the Fire and Police committee reported that when the police were elected a year ago it was for as long as their services proved satisfactory and it was not deemed necessary to re-elect again this year.

On motion the president of council, Mr. John S. Walker, Mr. Reynolds, burgess Hard P. Harris and the borough solicitor were designated as delegates to attend the annual convention of the Association of Boroughs to be held in Harrisburg on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week

It was at this juncture that Charles F. Beatty made his appearance and stated to council that upon the recommendation of most of the members of council who had witnessed a demonstration given by him some weeks ago of a snow scraper he had gone ahead and ordered one. He now had it on hand and desired to know if council was going to take it. Mr. Emerick, who was the only member of the Street committee present, stated that at the time of the demonstration every member of council who witnessed it gave Mr. Beatty assurance that they would favor purchasing a scraper and authorized him to order one. Mr. Cunningham stated that in justice to himself he wanted to say that he had not joined in the authorization, but that he had said if the Street committee would come before council with a recommendation that a scraper be purchased he would not oppose it. President Walker asked what the scraper would cost and was told a little more than two thousand dollars. He then stated that he had heard the proposition discussed by a number of property owners who were opposed to the scraper because it would pile the snow along the sides of the streets and in the gutters, and he suggested holding the matter over until a full meeting of council was present. Mr. Emerick stated that he would be away during the next two meetings of council and favored settling the matter at once. He further stated that the entire Street committee was in favor of he purchase and he then made a motion that the scraper be bought. The mo- that all the money must be returned. Fauble. It was put to a vote and carried by a Man Who Planned Escape Given Long Term in Penitentiary.

A proposed jail delivery planned for the Centre county jail, on Sunday afternoon, was nipped in the bud by sheriff E. R. Taylor, who confronted the ringleader, Oscar Lucas, on Saturday evening, with facts in his possession and the latter finally owned up and confessed the plot.

Ever since Lucas' arrest in December on the charge of robbing two taxi drivers he has been kept locked up in a cell by himself, only being given the run of the jail corridors on Sunday afternoons for exercise. Last week the sheriff learned through underground channels in the jail that a plot had been hatched by Lucas to pull off a general jail delivery on Sunday afternoon, so taking time by the forelock he went to Lucas' cell on Saturday evening and accused him of the conspiracy. The latter at first denied the accusation but after the sheriff convinced him that he knew what he day. was talking about he broke down and confessed. According to Lucas' statement the delivery was to have been pulled off late Sunday afternoon when the sheriff went into the jail to lock him in his cell. He had planned to hit the sheriff on the head with a cake of soap knock him out with the first blow. Then he was to take the keys, release arily located. any other prisoners who wanted to go along and make a getaway. The soap possession and were confiscated by the sheriff.

Lucas also told the sheriff that most of the money he had stolen in his taxi holdups and in the robbery of the Potter-Hoy hardware store he had left about $20, having bought a pair of galoshas for his sweetheart, a pair of as neckties, etc. On Sunday morning the sherff went to the home of Lucas' mother and demanded the money but she denied having it. Later, however, a sister of Lucas went to the jail and turned over $60 which she claimed to have found hidden behind a picture

Annual Meeting of Bellefonte Trust Co. Held on Tueday.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bellefonte Trust company was held on Tuesday. The present members of the board of directors were re-elected, namely: Col. J. L. Spangler, A. C. Mingle, A. R. McNitt, C. Y. Wagner, J. L. Seibert, W. J. Emerick, F. L. Wetzler, L. H. Mc-Mullen and N. E. Robb.

The board of directors organized by electing Col. J. L. Spangler, president; A. C. Mingle, vice president; N. E. Robb, secretary, treasurer and trust officer; Earl S. Orr, assistant secretary and treasurer, and Helen R. Williams, assistant treasurer.

The report of the auditors for the year ending December 31, 1926, was read by M. L. Altenderfer and unanimously approved.

A special report of the board of directors was read by N. E. Robb, treasurer. This report was read at this time to show what has been accomplished, under the present management, since January 1, 1919, to January 1, 1927. The trust department shows a rapid growth. It is evident that individuals are making their wills and naming the Bellefonte Trust company their executors to settle their estates. The individual executor, administrator, guardian, etc., is rapidly being replaced by trust companies.

The savings department also shows a marked increase, which is an indication that the people of this community are a thrifty, conservative class of citizens.

It is Mr. Hughes' "first love," and will continue under his direction just the same.

-----Wednesday's steady rain resulted in the customary January breakup and a good portion of the snow in the valleys and on the mountains turned to water with the result that the streams in the county are all well filled, although so far there has been no real danger of a serious flood. But if all the rain which fell on Wednesday had been snow the street committee of Bellefonte would have had an opportunity to try out that two thousand dollar scraper purchased by borough council on Monday night.

-In a talk at Pittsburgh, last week, Dr. Ellen Potter, secretary of public welfare under Governor Pinchot, and who is a candidate for reappointment under the incoming administration, stated that every penitentiary building in Pennsylvania, including those at Rockview, are obsolete. Just what kind of mansions Dr. Ellen would like to see for housing the State's criminals she failed to state, but we do know that many an honest, hard working man, who is paying taxes to help keep the law violators, are not nearly so well and comfortably housed as the 669 inmates at Rockview penitentiary, all of whom day and a well-heated, well-ventilated Hines, Robert Garman and Arthur place in which to sleep and pass the Boob. time when not at work.

The Water committee reported the completion of the water line extension fire hydrant at corner of Spring and Howard streets, and the collection of $49.50 on the 1924 water duplicate; $459.00 on the 1925 and $2491.50 on call any afternoon or evening next the 1926, a total of $3000.

The Finance committee reported that the borough treasurer has a balance on hand of $5436.38, and also asked for the renewal of notes totaling $9,300, which was authorized.

The Fire and Police committee reported a fire at the Frank P. Blair property, on Spring street, on January 13th, at which the firemen did splendid work.

Edward C. Cooke made his appearance at this stage of the proceedings and asked for a rebate on water taxes on his building on Bishop street by reason of the fact that two flats have been unoccupied for about seven months. He was informed that council recently passed a resolution that no rebate was allowed for less than a year because of the fact that buildings always have fire protection.

Mr. Cunningham reported that borough engineer H. B. Shattuck would make a survey of the Phoenix mill property in the near future and definitely establish the lines of the tract. Mr. Cunningham also reported that the Logan fire company would like to have some repairs made to the public building in the shape of paint and papering and he suggested that the council chamber also be freshened up. The matter was referred to the Fire and Police committee with power.

The Fire and Police committee recommended the election of the following men as drivers for the two pumpare assured of three square meals a ers: The Logans-J. T. Storch, Ellis The Undines-Walter V.

Miss Anderson is here now instructing a few assistants and next Monday afternoon will welcome you at the City bakery. Every afternoon and evening during the week she will continue the demonstration.

Practical articles such as lamp shades, hats, caps and dresses can be made from crepe paper when you know how. And there are so many unique and pleasing decorative designs for church sociables, parties, picnics and other social functions that can be made from it that you should not fail to take advantage of the free opportunity to learn how that the City bakery will extend to you next week. There will be no charge and the invitation is extended to every body to week.

Alleged Murderer Removed from Jail to Hospital.

George Kosut, alleged murderer of Peter Jeiz, in a drinking bout near Philipsbug on New Year's day, was removed from the Centre county jail, on Saturday morning, and taken to the Centre County hospital by order of the court for treatment for a badly infected thumb. It will be recalled from the article published in the Watchman two weeks ago that in the altercation between Kosut and Jeiz the latter bit Kosut's thumb, which was the latter's excuse for hitting him on the head with an axe inflicting an injury which caused his death.

Since his arrest and incarceration in the Centre county jail Kosut's thumb has become badly infected and his arm considerably swollen, and in order that he might have the proper treatment Judge Keller, on Saturday, made an order transfering him to the hospital where he will be a patient at the expense of the county, and under constant guard by men selected for that purpose by the sheriff, until such time as his thumb heals to that extent that he can be returned to jail.

It is understood that Kosut is willing to plead guilty to voluntary manslaughter, and his plea will likely be accepted when he is able to appear in court.
