"Casey at the Bat"

WITH

WALLACE BEERY FORD STERLING

Another screaming success with Wallace Beery as "Casey."
This show is being put in for the benefit of the

BELLEFONTE BASE BALL ASSOCIATION and a special orchestra will furnish snappy music.

A Special Children's Matinee will be given Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. All children 10c. The first 500 boys to get there will receive a souvenir bat.

Admission 25 and 50c.

Admission for the children's Matinee only 10 cents.

Wallace Beery's "Casey" Hilarious Sports Comedy.

In Paramount's hilarious comedy, "Casey at the Bat," which comes to the Moose theatre next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Wallace Beery signs a contract to play baseball for the old New York Giants and almost wrecks the entire league with his escapades.

Hailed as a "find," Beery, a small town junk dealer, enters the "big-time." So popular does the red-headed Irishman become that he soon emerges as the Babe Ruth of 1901. Funny as Beery was in "Behind the Front" and "We're in the Navy Now," he's even more humorous as baseball's famous "Casey."

Casey proves himself a home run hitter by knocking a four-bagger with a bat in one hand and a stein of beer in the other. Vamped by several members of the Floradora Sextette, he almost stops the show by crashing into the orchestra pit while climbing on the stage for a personal appearance. Above all, Beery's ability to appear hopelessly foolish makes the picture uproariously entertaining.

The entire cast contributes much to the film's success. Ford Sterling gives a sterling characterization as a big league scout. Zasu Pitts, the home town girl, is at her best and Sterling Holloway does his crafty plotting humorously. If "blues-chasing" ribbons are being distributed director Monte Brice gets a handful.

"Casey at the Bat" is being shown for the benefit of the Bellefonte base ball club. A special orchestra will furnish the music. Admission, children 25c, adults 50c. A special children's matinee will be held on Saturday morning, March 12th. Admission 10c. to all children.

The church is beautiful on the exterior and more beautiful in the interior. The pastor, Rev. G. H. Fred Griesing and his people are to be highly commended for their noble work. His wife and eight children preceded him to the grave but surviving him are three daughters, all in the west, and one sister, Mrs. Sarah Ann Neidigh, of Pine Hall. Burial was made at Edgely, North Dakota.

A triple birthday anniversary was celebrated at the W. C. Frank home, east of town, last Thursday evening, it being Mr. Frank's 51st anniversary, his son Basil's 25th, and his grandson Basil's 5th. The affair was in the nature of a surprise to the senior Frank who had just settled down in his cosy chair for an evening with his favorite paper when a knock at the door was answered by Mrs. Frank. A large number of friends came trooping in, all laden with baskets of refreshments for the evening as well as kindly remembrances for the three Franks. The senior Frank was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frank and was born at Baileyville. On March 2nd, 1895, he and Miss Emigh journeyed to Bellefonte where they were united in marriage by Dr. Laurie. ### Disturbed Sleep.

Caused From Bladder Irritation is Nature's Signal of "Danger Ahead."

Joseph Dow, R. 55, Trenton, N. J. says: "My rest at night was disturbed 10 to 20 times. Labeled Buchu has reduced this and entirely relieved me of that terrible burning and smarting. I was told there was no help for me. I want others to know and will tell or write my experience." Labeled Buchu is not a patent medicine. The formula is on the package. It acts on the bladder as upon salts do on the bowels. Drives out abnormal deposits, lessens excessive acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes "disturbed sleep." Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Sold at C. M. Parrish Drug Store.
