

Bellefonte, Pa., March 4th, 1927.

-Blustery, variable March is now here and while it didn't come in exactly like a roaring lion, it wasn't on Monday morning with Hon. Harry very lamb-like, either.

-We have been compelled to hold over a lot of news matter and some county correspondence because of a grand jurors was called and excuses last moment tax on our space this noted. John McCabe, a Philipsburg week.

-Dr. M. A. Kirk has purchased a Chevrolet sedan and the hands that clung so long to lines for driving will now have to get accustomed to a wheel.

The Ladies of the Lutheran church, Bellefonte, will have a bakesale every Saturday until Easter at Hazel's grocery store. Sale will start at 10 o'clock.

-Just ninety-four people of Bellefonte and vicinity took advantage of the cheap excursion to New York. on Saturday night, to spend a day in the metropolis.

Manager T. Clayton Brown, of the Scenic, who has been ill for several months, had so far recovered as to be able to attend the Kiwanis luncheon on Tuesday.

--G. Oscar Grav has been considered seriously ill during the past week, suffering from an infection of the jaw. Mr. Gray's condition yesterday was unchanged.

-The Catholic Daughters of America will give a card party in their rooms on March 17th. Bridge and five hundred will be in play. Admission, 50 cents. The public is invited.

the Bellefonte High school have startedswork on their year book, the La-Belle, and are planning to make it equal if not superior to any former effort.

-- The Bellefonte Missionary Union will observe the day of prayer for missions with a service at the Presbyterian chapel Friday, March 4th, at 7.30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

-Among the marriage licenses issued at Cumberland, Md., the latter part of the week were those to James Alexander Davidson and Anna Alberta Lucas, and Charles Wolfe and Pearl Louise Emel, all of Bellefonte.

The Associated business men of Bellefonte have decided to put on another merchandising sale similar to the opportunity day sale of last fall except that the coming one is to cover a period of four days, March 16, 17, 18 and 19.

-Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Shalleross, of Wilmington, Del., with their daughter Catherine, are arranging to move Indicted for removing personal properto Bellefonte this spring in order to ty from the county with the intent to be near their son, Samuel H. Shalleross. They will occupy the cottage adjoining the Shallcross home, on east Curtin street.

-M. R. Johnson is getting the material on the ground to repair his home, on north Spring street, which was so badly damaged in the disastrous fire early in the winter. The building will be repaired and put in the condition it was previous to the his wife, left with their automobile fire and not remodeled.

growing. Charles Tabel, the proprie- day holiday, and the defendant and tor, told us on Wednesday that he has just completed the erection of his second green house and is about to with any intent at defauding and exstart a third. He is determined to supply all demands of this community for cut flowers and potted plants.

-Crowded houses every evening are the result of the wonderful programs of motion pictures being shown at the Scenic night after night. Movie fans who fail to attend every night are missing some good ones, pictures that they will have no other opportunity of seeing, that's why you should be a regular.

-Kryder Rockey, son of Mrs. John Rockey, of east Bishop street, was taken to the Lock Haven hospital, last week, for an operation and when the latter was performed complications were discovered which render the young man's condition quite serious. Mr. Rockey has for some time past been an employee at the Bellefonte freight station.

in the morning. The visitors will re- for a new trial. main in Bellefonte until five o'clock in the evening. In order to have the big dicted for larceny by Bailee. Prosespring looking nice as possible for visitors borough manager J. D. Sei- out of battery not returned to the bert gave it a good cleaning out on owner. It was a short case and tried Wednesday, removing over a truck on Wednesday forenoon; verdict renload of moss.

-Included in the list of changes and promotions announced by the Pennsylvania railroad company, last week, was the transfer of R. W. Wray, at present master mechanic at Renovo. to master mechanic, West Philadelphia, succeeding J. B. Diven. Mr. Wray, it will be recalled, married Miss Bess Brown, a daughter of Mrs. Sarah C. Brown, for many years a resident of Bellefonte.

-Ahong the six pardons recomended by the State Board of Par- the exit for emergency of the prisondons, last week, was the application of Buckley Dalton, of Clinton county, heating plant installed in the jail. serving a two and a half to five year sentence for burglary. The pardon note of the condition of the floors, was recommended at the request of walls, windows and general interior chaplain P. M. Osborne, of Rockview of the court house, and that a genwho stated that Dalton is near death eral cleaning of same should be made.

VARIOUS CASES TRIED

AT FEBRUARY COURT. Nothing Very Grave or Exciting or Criminal List.

The regular session of the February term of court convened at ten o'clock Keller presiding. As the traverse jurors were notified not to appear until Tuesday morning the list of newspaper reporter, was appointed foreman after which the entire jury was sworn, charged as to their duties by the court and retired to the grand juy room to consider the various bills of indictment presented for their consideration by district attorney John G.

The list of constables in the county was called and only three submitted reports. There being nothing ready for action court then adjourned until Tuesday morning.

When court convened on Tuesday morning the list of traverse jurors was called and excuses allowed.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Harry Charles was the first taken up. In fact there were two cases against Mr. Charles, who was indicted on four counts for violating the securities act of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Harry C. Fravel was the prosecutor in one case and William Grebe in the other. At the start counsel for the defendant moved to quash the indictment, which was over-ruled, and the case went to trial. In the testimony it appears that on October 11th, 1924, the defendant sold to Harry C. Fravel a Jacob Dodd Packing company bond in the sum of $1000.00, and on February 11th, 1925, sold to William Grebe a similar bond of the same company. The Commonwealth showed that the defendant was not registered as an agent to sell bonds as required by the Act of Assembly, and at the close of the Commonwealth's evidence counsel for the defendant moved the Court to compel the Commonwealth to elect which case they would go to the jury on. The allegations of the defendant was that he sold his own bonds and was acting neither as principal nor agent in selling the same. When court convened on Tuesday afternoon the court took the cases against Harry Charles from the jury. Commonwealth vs. G. G. Ammer-

man. Indicted for assault and bat-Prosecutrix, Sarah M. Ammer-This case was from Port Matilda and was between husband and wife. After cross-examining the prosecutrix the matter was taken up by attorneys on both sides and the court and a reconciliation effected and the case withdrawn.

Commonwealth vs. G. A. Caddan. prevent the same from being levied upon, there being two cases. Prosecur in one case, L. K. Metzker and in ie other, W. R. Gentzel. These cases were from State College. Judgment was secured against the defendant before 'Squire Carolyn Dale on September 4, 1926, and execution issued and placed in the hands of the constable. On the same day the defendant, with for Scranton, the home of the parents -The Half Moon Gardens are of both parties, to spend the Labor his witness alleged that they had not removed the property from the county pected to return after Labor day to State College, but after they got to Scranton Mr. Caddan became seriously ill and was bedfast for five or six weeks, and that they did not return to State College as they had expected to. But that sometime in November the defendant himself had been in State College, and that during his serious illness had transferred the automobile to raise money for doctor's bills and medicine and that he did not intend to

The case was given to the jury on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning they returned a sealed verdict which they informed the court had been concurred in by seven of the twelve jurymen. The court informed them that a verdict must be the unanimous consent of all jurors and sent them back for further deliberation. Later they returned a verdict of guilty -An excursion train from Phila- on both counts, as indicted, and coundelphia will be run to Bellefonte on sel for the defendant promptly notified Sunday, reaching here at eight o'clock the court that a motion would be filed defraud his creditors.

Commonwealth vs. Clyde Ripka. Incutor, John Bottorf. This case grows dered of not guilty.

The grand jury made its final return late on Tuesday afternoon, reporting that they had passed on 23 bills of indictment, 20 of which were found true bills and three not true

That the exterior of the jail building should be painted, windows painted, puttied and repaired; the lighting system of the jail should be changed so that wires would be concealed and that the construction of ers should be made and a separate

That the commissioners should take should be provided for witnesses to BILLIONAIRE "BUG" appear before the grand jury. That the lavatories in the court house should be generally repaired and cleaned; and extend their compliments to Sheriff Taylor for the cleanliness and tidiness of the jail.

Other cases on the list for the term entire list went over and is not herein repeated, were as follows:

Commonwealth vs. Louis Gianopulos. Charged with maintaining a gambling house. Prosecutor Harold W. Pierce. True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Perry Koonsman. Charged with resisting an officer, and assault. Prosecutor, P. C. Frank. True bill.

Commonwealth vs. Henry Sents, Jr. Charged with involuntary manslaughter, and second charge operating motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor. Prosecutor in both cases, A. E. Yougel. True bills.

Commonwealth vs. Floyd Johnstonbaugh. Charged with statutory crime. Prosecutor, A. C. Rockey. True bill. Commonwealth vs. C. P. Silveus. Charged in four cases with passing worthless checks. Prosecutors, G. E.

Hoffer, Harry Dukeman, Wilbur Baney and C. H. Richelieu. True bills in each case. Centre County Girl Found Penniless in Harrisburg. Last Saturday's Harrisburg Telegaph said: "Penniless, hungry and sleepy, 18-year-old Mary Yoncovich, of Clarence, Centre county, was picked up by police while attempting to enter a vacant building on Chestnut street. When taken to police headquarters on a suspicious person charge the girl first refused to tell her name or why she tried to get into the vacant building. Later, however, she confessed to Mrs. Bergstresser, she police matron, that she had spent all of the ten dollars she had when she arrived in Harrisburg and had no place to sleep. She said that she ran away from the home of her stepfather and had gone to Harrisburg on the hunt

Jacob Smith Home Slightly Damaged by Fire.

A fire on the roof of the Jacob Smith residence, on North Spring street, called out the fire department about 5:30 Wednesday afternoon.

It had gotten pretty well started before Mrs. S. M. Nissley, a neighbor, discovered it and sent in an alarm. The department got there with its usual dispatch and covered the roof so thoroughly that there was no room left for flames so they just naturally had to go out.

No water, only chemicals, were used so that there was little damage exthrough in several places.

The fire is supposed to have caught from a spark falling on the shingles which are very old and were quite Scenic Attractions.

Yes sir! Ask our patrons about the better class photoplays we are showing every day. Pick up any city paper and see what pictures are being shown at the good houses there, then read over our program and be convinced that the Scenic is giving you all the late releases at less than half what city folks are paying to see them.

With such big stars, directors and producers as Paramount, First National, Metro-Goldwyn and Cecil B. De Mille control one could expect to see only the last word in screen entertainment at the Scenic, for it has all of their releases. You know we have the greatest pictures and we know you can't be fooled or misled in anyway whatsoever. Turn to page five of this newspaper and see the program for the coming week. We point to it with pride because we can't conceive of a better one. Can you? THE SCENIC.

His Generosity to Carry On.

The will of the late John G. Anderon, of Tyrone, has been probated and reveals that the generosity that was one of his outstanding virtues in life is to be very fittingly memorialized through time.

To the Howard Gardner Post American Legion of Tyrone be left $25,-000; $10,000 to the Altoona hospital; $10,000 each to Grandview cemetery, Tyrone, and Oak Ridge cemtery, Coshocton, Ohio, his natal home; $10,000 to the Tyrone Boys Scouts. Association and 100 shares of the stock of West Virginia Pulp and Paper Co. the dividends on which are to provide a fund to pay the membership, annually, of three hundred minor children of employees of the company in the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. of Tyrone. Mr. Anderson was the general manager of the company's Tyrone plant.

The residue of his estate goes to his widow and collateral heirs.

-Ferguson township people will be interested in the fact that Rev. Ira E. Fisher, pastor of the Methodist charge at Wallaceton, is a patient in the Clearfield hospital where he recently underwent a very serious operation. His condition is now reported as improving and his ultimate recovery is expected. Rev. Fisher was for several years stationed on the Pine Grove Mills charge and his many friends in that section will be glad VISITS BELLEFONTE. Buys $700 Worth of Clothing and $1300 Worth of Jewelry Before Captured by Sheriff.

Last Saturday morning a big, husky, not including civil cases wherein the athletic looking individual walked into the clothing store of Sim, the Clothier, Bellefonte, and asked to look at a suit of clothes, remarking that he couldn't find a suit in Altoona to fit him. Sim got busy and in the course of twenty minutes or half an hour found a suit that not only fit but which pleased the man and he said he would take it.

> He represented himself as an athlete going to State College to enter training and as a matter of form Sim asked if he didn't want a top coat. The man said probably he'd better have one, so he selected a stylish garment and piled that on the suit. Then Sim suggested an overcoat and he bought one without blinking an eye. By that time he had the buying fever and he said he might as well get a whole outfit while he was at it, and he bought seventeen shirts, three pairs of extra trousers, two sweaters, a slicker, two dozen suits of underwear. half a dozen pajamas, several dozen ties, several dozen hose, half a dozen pair of gloves, an umbrella, two traveling bags, "one for each hand," he said, and a wardrobe trunk. Then he asked for the bill. Sim figured it up and it amounted to $701.35. When told the amount the man sat down on a stool. pulled a mouth organ from his pocket and began to play. Finally he said he'd give a check and when Sim protested against taking a check from an unknown man he said he was worth a billion dollars, that he owned the Mishler theatre, in Altoona, and his check was good at any of the banks in that city. He finally pulled out a check, wrote it out in full and signed 'Ed Cherry, per Jack Dempsy."

He then walked out, saying he'd be back later for his purchases. In the meantime it dawned on Sim that something was wrong with the man and he telephoned to sheriff Taylor. After leaving Sim's the man went into Blair's jewelry store and told Russell he wanted to buy some jewelry.

He selected a dozen ladies rings, eight men's rings, half a dozen diamond rings, a dozen gold pens and pencils, one watch, pocket books by the dozen, portfolios, a dozen traveling cases, half a dozen cigarette cases, a dozen gold cuff links, etc. Then he asked for the bill and when figured up it amounted to $1300. He offered to give a check in payment but Russell demurred so he said he'd go out and get a check cashed and return with ing ground by her family for over two the money.

In the meantime sheriff Taylor had cept to the roof which was burned appeared on the scene but after sizing Miss Horner was the last of her generaup the individual he acted with discretion and sent for policeman Duke-

From Blair's the man went to the Mott drug store and got a drink of cigars and said he'd take a dozen two blank name cards in the show case he asked the price and said he'd take six packs and when they had them printed he would give a check for the entire bill. The clerk demurred, saying he must have the money in advance, so

He then went down to Harold Cowsize, so he left. Going up street he to social and business engagements. noticed a man trying to crank his car over in front of Fauble's and went over there and offered to do the cranking. He did it to perfection, too, but while he was at it the sheriff and Sim's to see if he had gotten away with anything. As they entered the store the man winked at one of the clerks and said, "I guess I am under arrest, but it doesn't matter, as I need the rest, anyway."

The sheriff took him to jail and an the man was Edward Cherry, of Bellwood, who had only recently been discharged from a sanitorium. He had come to Bellefonte on Saturday morning on the Altoona Tribune truck and gone direct to the Brockerhoff house where he registered as "Ed Cherry, per Jack Dempsey." He then inquired for Miss Tillie O'Shell, the head waitress, whose home is in Bellwood, and as soon as she saw him she knew he was again "off in his head," At her request he was given his breakfast and she gave him money to go back to Bellwood on the morning train, but instead of doing so he spent most of the money for cigars and chewing gum then started out on his buying

He was kept in the county jail all night and on Sunday the sheriff and Dukeman took him to Bellwood and turned him over to the local officers who conveyed him to the Blair county jail, and thus ended the "Billionaire Bug."

Big Boxing Exhibition at Moose Theatre.

Bellefonte Academy pugilists will meet the Bucknell Freshmen team in a big boxing exhibition at the Moose theatre this (Friday) evening at 8:15

-Miss Katherine Dale was over from Boalsburg, Tuesday, to spend a part of the day in care of her dentist.

-Miss Elizabeth Cooney has been in New York during the week purchasing the spring stock for The Hat Shop.

-Frank Lyons, a former employee of the up-town Weis store, left on Wednesday to go to Sunbury to locate permanently, having been sent there to take charge of one of the company's stores.

-Arthur H. Sloop, supervising principal of the Bellefonte schools, left the afterpart of last week for Dallas, Texas, where he has been attending the national convention of superintendents of public school

-Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Wagner, of Watsontown, and their small son, William Brachbill Wagner, were here for one of their occasional over Sunday visits with Mrs. Wagner's father, William R. Brachbill, at his home on south Spring street. -Mrs. Jacob Grossman, who with her daughter, Miss Ida, are now making their home at Flemington, spent a part of last week with her friends here. When residents of Bellefonte Mrs. Grossman and her daughter lived on Reynolds avenue. -Mrs. Anna Ferguson and daughter. Mrs. Harry Weaver, of Altoona, came to Bellefonte on Saturday to see Mrs. Ferguson's son, C. A. Ferguson, who has been quite ill the past two weeks but is now improving. They remained until Sunday -Mrs. M. Ward Fleming and her elder daughter, Mary, were here from Philipsburg for several days the afterpart of last week, with Mr. Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming. Mrs. W I. Fleming is now slowly recovering from her recent illness -John Preston Smith, a salesman for the Titan Metal Co., was in Bellefonte from Thursday until Monday, with Mrs. Smith at their home on east Curtin street. Mr. Smith, who upon leaving, went to cover a territory through the middle west, had not been home for two months.

-Mrs. E. E. Sager, of Philadelphia, is in Bellefonte with her mother, Mrs. Isaac Thomas, who is critically ill at her home on north Thomas street. On account of her mother's illness. Mrs. Sager has spent much of the winter here, having been called to Bellefonte six weeks ago by Mrs. Thomas' present attack.

-Mrs. George R. Hedges, of Columbus, Ohio, and her son Hamilton, were in Bellefonte last week, here for a week-end visit with Mrs. Hedges' older son Robert, a student at the Bellefonte Academy. Robert is preparing to enter the University of Ohio in the fall, while Hamilton is a prospective student of the Academy.

-John W. Miller, thresherman in the fall and road builder in the spring and summer, was down from his home near Pine Grove Mills on Wednesday. He had no business, he said: "Just came down to attend court for a few hours," and it was while he was looking on at the proceedings that Judge Keller was stricken.

-Henry S. Linn went to Northampton county Wednesday to attend the funeral of a relative, Miss Jane Horner, whose body was laid in the old graveyard near Northampton, which has been used as a buryhundred years, and near which one of her ancestors had been killed by the Indians.

-'Squire E. R. Hancock, of Philipsburg, who recently announced as a Republican candidate for Prothonotary, was a Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday and naturally was soda water. He then asked for some tighten up his political grip. An old school for a quarter ones. Seeing some and an ardent prohibitionist the 'Squire ought to be sure of a substantial following, to say the least.

W. E. Homan, of Oak Hall, one of the most progressive young farmers of College township, was among the three hundred here Friday of last week for the he gave the cigars back and told him of affairs, that he was obliged to leave Centre county, over three hundred of Beatty dinner. Mr. Homan is such a man Bellefonte early to prepare for an after supper engagement, his time for several her's and asked for a No. 12 shoe but days before, as well as several of those was told that they didn't carry that which followed, being entirely given over

-Among the Philipsburgers in attendance at court this week are H. C. Angell, serving as a juror; Roy Rowles and Paul Gearhart, interested in one of the cases on trial. Mr. Angell continues to hold the office of assessor in his home ward while Dukeman stepped up and the sheriff Mr. Rowles, former postmaster of Philipsinvited him to take a walk with him. burg, is now making good as a traveling The man went along without any salesman. Mr. Gearhart is a carpenter and trouble and the sheriff took him into | contractor and is just as successful in his line as the other two men are in theirs.

-- Dr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Glenn and their daughter Bettie, of Bradford, were at State College last week, having been there for the funeral of Dr. Glenn's brother, the late Reuben G. Glenn. Upon receiving word of his brother's illness, Dr. Glenn accompanied by Mrs. Glenn, left at once investigation revealed the fact that for Borger, Texas, and remaining there until after his death, came back to Pennsylvania with his niece and nephew, Miss Edna and Charles Glenn, who brought their father's body to State College for burial. Miss Glenn and her brother started, Saturday afternoon, on their journey back

> -A Watchman office caller on Monday morning was Mr. Harry T. Frank, of the firm of A. A. Frank & Sons, Millheim. He was in Bellefonte lifting his commission as notary public, having recently been appointed by Governor Fisher for a four year term. Mr. Frank has already served five terms as notary in that town and his new term will make twenty-four consecutive years as such an official. Back in the days when notaries were permitted to take in applications for automobile licenses there was a nice little income from the office but local pickins' have been pared down by the centralization of most everything at Harrisburg so that the office these days is not one of much remuneration.

-Having a little time on his hands, while in town on Tuesday, John C. Mulfinger, of Pleasant Gap, dropped into the Watchman office and replenished our till to the extent of a square meal or two. John is apparently one of those reticent, quiet fellows but there is a quaint drollery about his remeniscences which makes them extremely interesting. Referring to some of the old-time citizens of the Gap he told us of an old blacksmith who sixty years ago lived up in the mountain at the watering trough, and who built himself a two-wheeled countraption like a bicycle on which to o'clock. Seven bouts, or 30 rounds, of ride down the mountain to Pleasant Gap, Corn with an incurable disease and would with an incurable disease and would with an incurable disease and would like to go home to die.

That for the convenience of the but he had no way of propelling it uppublic and the district attorney a room right.

-Clarence Rine has been on a trip east this week, in the interest of the Bellefonte Lumber Co.

-Mrs. Jennie Holter Curtin, of Curtin, is at present completing plans for a trip south later in the month, expecting to go to Texas, where she will visit until May, with her son and his family.

-Norman Rothrock, who returned last week from a business trip to Porto Rico, as a representative of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., has been home this week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rothrock.

-Mrs. Harrison Holmes and her sister Miss Jean Sasserman, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday from Ridgway, where Miss Sasserman had been her sister's guest for some time. Mrs. Holmes was home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sasserman, for the week-end only -Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Fauble and Mr.

and Mrs. George Hazel, have been in New York for the past week, doing some spring buying for the Clothing stores and Hazel & Co., department store. Mr. and Mrs. Hazel left Bellefonte Saturday while Mr. and Mrs. Fauble went east Sunday night.

-W. H. Stover, carpenter and builder of Boalsburg, was in Bellefonte, Wednesday, having come down to see about a bill of lumber needed for a house he is to erect near Lemont in the spring. Mr. Stover also had business with Judge Keller that day, but while enroute here learned of the Judge's unexpected death.

Healthy Increase of Telephones in Centre County.

A growth of 375 telephones in Bellefonte during 1926, bringing the total up to 1,540, has been announced by F. L. Richards, manager for The Bell Telephone company of Pennsylvania. Along with this is a total addition of almost 700 telephones in Centre county for the same period, bringing the county's figure up to 4,083. Although some of the expansion can be accounted for by the taking over of the Penn State Telephone company's lines, the net growth still shows a very healthy condition for the entire county, Mr. Richards stated. As compared with the growth in recent years, a noticeable increase has been made in both Bellefonte and Centre county. In 1924 there were 3,202 telephones in the county, which was a growth of 168 during that year. In 1925, the total had risen to 3,302, making a growth of 100 subscribers for the year.

This steady increase, Mr. Richards thinks, indicates that Centre county is progressing and growing in a sound way. While no phenomenal jump in the number of telephones has been shown, the trend toward more extensive service upholds the assumption that business in the county is maintaining it's upward movement.

Beatty Motor Co. Has Big Fordson Day Gathering.

Last Friday was Fordson tractor day at the Beatty Motor company garage and salesroom and three hundred and seventeen Centre farmers were in attendance. In the morning a motion picture illustrating the making of tractors and their ecodoing a little handshaking in order to nomic value on the farm was shown at the Moose theatre, free to all visitors. teacher, Sunday school and church man, At noon the company gave the farmers a free luncheon and in the afternoon skilled men told the farmers how to use and take proper care of their tractor. Mr. Beatty had on exhibition in his show room a large map of Centre county on which was marked in them.

> Kocher-Randolph.-Guy Alexander Kocher and Miss Gladys Catherine Randolph, both well known young people of Ferguson township, went to Cumberland, Md., on Tuesday, where they were united in marriage, returning home the same evening to enjoy a wedding supper served at the St. Elmo, in Pine Grove Mills. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reed R. Randolph, of Pine Grove Mills, and just last week resigned her position as teacher of the primary school at Pine Grove Mills. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kocher, of Graysville and is holding down a good job in the Pennsy shops, at Altoona. The young couple will make their home in Altoona.

-In a parley recently held between the Bellefonte clerks association and the associated business men the matter of the Thursday half-holiday was under consideration. It was decided to make the custom permanent for five months each year. Beginning with May stores will be closed every Thursday afternoon until the 1st of October.

Sale Register.

March 14, Monday, at the residence of Frank Donovan, 1 mile east of Axe Mann, a full line of farm implements, 4 horses, 20 cows, 22 head young cattle, 40 shoats and pigs. 18 head of cattle are grade Guernseys. Sale starts at 10 a. m. sharp. L. F. Mayes, auctioneer. L. F. Mayes, auctioneer.

March 21—Monday—on the Dr. L. E. Kidder farm, 2 miles east of Boalsburg, W. E. Kline will sell farm implements, 6 horses, 1 colt, 17 cows, 18 head cattle, 22 sheep, 30 hogs, chickens, house hold goods, etc. A clean up sale. Cattle are t. b. tested. Sale starts at 10 a. m. L. F. Mayes, auctioneer. auctioneer.

Saturday, March 26.—At residence of Elmet E. Rider, Gatesburg, 8 miles east of Warriorsmark, 2 horses, 3 mules, 9 cows, 3 sows, 11 shoats and full line of farm implements. Sale at 10 a. m. Lester Harpster, Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Cerrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. Wheat - -Rye .90 .75 Barley Buckwheat