Usual admission, 10 and 25c.

Friday and Saturday

METRO-GOLDEN PRESENTS

ALICE TERRY
IN ANTONIO MORENO
REX INGRAM'S PRODUCTION

"Mare Nostrum"

Here is one of the few pictures that thrilled Broadway for many months. It is the thrill marvel of them all, a screen play of power and beauty. More than a year in the making, with a cast of thousands and filmed on actual locations in Europe. You'll never forget such moments as the sinking of the submarine; the beauty facing the firing squad; the revelation of the spy system and a thousand other thrills that Broadway paid $2.00 admission to see. Positively the greatest picture ever offered you for 15c and 35c. A massive production in 10 reels. See it, whatever you do.

We guarantee this picture as advertised.
Admission, 15 and 35 cents.
Matinee Saturday at 2

Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Fluke motored here from Berks county, on Friday, for a several days visit. Mrs. Fluke, prior to her marriage, was Miss Viola Burwell, one of our well known school teachers.

Mrs. Alvin Breon was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Breon, of Struble, on a motor trip to Huntingdon, the latter part of the week, to visit her husband, who is a patient in the hospital at that place. Mr. Breon is now improving nicely.

Rev. Joseph G. Rigby left on Tuesday morning for Lock Haven to attend the annual sessions of the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference. He went prepared to report a one hundred per cent. budget, which should assure his return for another year.

It is with regret that we note the death of Ner Goss, at his home in Lewistown last Thursday, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. He was a brother of Howard Goss, of Ferguson township, and was 56 years old. Burial was made on Saturday at Lewistown.

A children's party was given at the J. I. Reed home, Saturday evening, in honor of the sixth anniversary of little Roselia. Quite a number of her young friends were present and there was a big birthday cake with ice cream and other good things. The little girl received many nice presents.

Washington Camp No. 620 P. O. S. of A. held their second annual banquet in the I. O. O. F. hall last Friday evening. Covers were laid for 130 and chicken and oysters and all the side dishes constituted the main part of the menu, which was topped with ice cream, cake and coffee. Music was furnished by the Odd Fellows orchestra. D. S. Peterson officiated as toast-master and the speakers of the evening included Hon. J. Laird Holmes, Rev. F. C. Norris and others. Well deserved compliments were paid the ladies who prepared and served the feast, namely, Mrs. H. M. Krebs, Mrs. J. D. Tanyer and Mrs. Clara Ward.

Public sales are now all the go in this section. At the A. C. Rockey sale horses sold up to $180 and cows $170. The sale footed up to a little over four thousand dollars. Mr. Rockey expects to go to Bellefonte to make his home. At the W. A. Reish sale the highest priced horse also brought $180, and the sale totaled $1200. The personal effects of the late J. E. Reed, at Saturday's sale, brought $670, and the best bid for the home was $1850, so it was not sold.
