Presenting the Better Class Photoplays

Each Evening at 6:15 P. M.

Matinees Monday, Wednesday, Saturday at 2 P. M.

MISS CROUSE Organist

WEEK AHEAD PROGRAM

Friday and Saturday

(This Week)

WARNER BROS. PRESENT ONE OF THEIR NEW 1927 SPECIALS.

"Private Izzy Murphy"

"George Jesse" with "Patsy Ruth Miller," "Vera Gordon," "Nat Carr".

A comedy drama of Izzy's Irish Woes as he climbed from Ghetto to Glory in a fighting Irish Regiment. A story to make your sides shake and your heart ache. It's more than a great laugh show—much more! You'll laugh until you cry—and cry until you laugh. It's a genuine natural. By all means see it.

Also a great Our Gang Comedy called "Thundering Flees".

Matinee Saturday 2 P. M.
Admission 15 and 35c.

Monday and Tuesday

FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS

CONSTANCE TALMADGE ANTONIO MORENO

This Venus has two good arms—and how she uses them! If they aren't around some fellow's neck, they're in his pocket—and when she makes her gondola getaway, she has all the traffic cops of Venice swimming around in circles. A great comedy drama. We know you would not think of missing it.

Also a great two reel Mack Sennett comedy called "A Small Town Princess".

Matinee Monday at 2 P. M.
Admission 15 and 35c.

You'll love it.

Wednesday & Thursday

WM. FOX PRESENTS ONE OF HIS GREAT SPECIALS

"One Increasing Purpose"

WITH "EDMUND LOWE"

"Lila Lee", "May Allison", "Holmes Herbert", "Huntley Gordon", "Jane Novak".

The theme of this mighty screen entertainment answers one of the most vital problems in life—the object of one daily ambition; what we are seeking in the mad scramble to reach the top of the ladder. Story by A. S. M. Hutchinson, who wrote "If Winter Comes". It's a guaranteed attraction, so be sure and see it.

Matinee Wednesday at 2 P. M.
Admission 15 and 35c.

Friday & Saturday

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS ELLI NOR GLYN'S GREAT STORY

"Ritz"

"Betty Bronson", "James Hall". A wonderful story from one of the screen's greatest writers. Made by Paramount in their own special way. Two great well known stars make it one sweet photoplay. Be sure and take it in.

Matinee Saturday 2 P. M.
Only 10 and 25c.

Moose Theatre

Where You Always See a Good Show

This Saturday Only

FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS

"High Hat"

"Ben Lyon", "Mary Bryan". Exposing the inner workings of Hollywood's biggest movie studio. It's the comedy that High Hats 'em all.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. C. L. Goodling spent Friday in the Mountain city.

The E. C. Martz store is now illuminated with electric light.

Mrs. Clyde Cornan spent Sunday with her parents in Bellefonte.

April 1st was an ideal day for movings, but the next day it snowed.

Miss Mary Cook, of Altoona, spent last week at the C. W. Stoddard home.

Mrs. Mary Lockard spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Walker, near Zion.

Miss Louise McDowell, a Senior at Wilson college, is at home on a brief vacation.

Earl L. Moffet and son John spent Sunday at the Joe Gilliland home, at Baileyville.

Mrs. Maude Fry, of Rock Springs, spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Albert Corl.

Albert Wilson Fry, of Rock Springs, spent Saturday morning at the M. C. Wieland home.

H. L. Dale, of Mifflinburg, spent the latter end of the week among Centre county friends.

Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, was here on Wednesday looking after his insurance interests.

George C. Burwell is now the agent for the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company in this section.

Dr. E. C. Meyers, of Harrisburg, spent the latter end of the week with friends in the valley.

Rev. C. W. Rishell, our new Methodist minister, was greeted with a capacity congregation on Sunday.

J. B. Gallagher has moved onto the Gordon E. Harper farm, at White Hall, which he recently purchased.

Mrs. Sallie Kemp, with her son and wife, of Lock Haven, were Sunday visitors at the Mrs. Charles Smith home.

Ephriam Dodd, who recently moved to our town, has leased the Everts shop and will follow his trade as a blacksmith.

Recent rains have stopped spring ploughing and farmers are wondering if this season will be a repetition of last spring.

The installation of the new officers of Penns Valley lodge, I. O. O. F., will take place next Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. J. O. C. McCracken and wife motored down from Juniata and spent Friday at the old McCracken home in the Glades.

Walter Woods, wife and daughter Virginia, motored up from Washington and are guests at the Dr. G. H. Woods home.

J. W. Kepler Jr., and sister, Mrs. Mary Coombs, motored in from Johnstown and spent Sunday at their parental home here.

Miss Sarah Wieland is at Birmingham assisting Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Rigby in getting comfortably settled in their new home.

The interior of the Presbyterian church is being freshened up with new paint, new carpet, etc. It will be completed in time to reopen on Easter day.

James Holmes and wife and H. C. Holmes and wife motored to Tyrone, on Wednesday, to look after some business matters and do a little shopping.

The new arrival at the Roy Wieland home, on Sunday, was a twelve pound boy, but unfortunately it died on Wednesday and was buried in the Seven Stars cemetery.

Rev. J. F. Harkins was a Harrisburg visitor last week and attended a meeting in the interest of the Lutheran Boy Scouts camp to be held at Selinsgrove in June.

Mrs. I. M. Harvey gave a farewell party, last Friday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cook Leathers and family, who departed on Monday for their new home in Kentucky.

W. S. Ward, wife and daughter Anna motored to Hollidaysburg, on Sunday, and visited Miss Mary McWilliams at the Presbyterian home. They also visited their former pastor, Rev. R. M. Campbell, in Altoona.

The J. M. Corl public sale, last Wednesday, was the last one in this section and naturally was attended by a large crowd. The best team of horses brought $595, and the high priced cow was knocked down at $177. The sale amounted to $6000.

PLEASANT GAP.

Mrs. Ed. Dugan, who has been in the hospital for over a week, is reported as improving slowly.

The Sam Weaver family moved from the Noll Bros. double house to a double house on Bishop street, Bellefonte, owned by A. C. Mingle.

Mrs. Jack Noll entertained with 500, on Friday evening. Miss Helen Noll, of this place, and Blaine Mabius, of Bellefonte, were the prize winners.

The Civic club met on Tuesday evening, April 5th, in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church. Miss McCauley, Bellefonte's community nurse, spoke on health and nursing.

The Mowery family, of Centre Hall, who operate the gas station and restaurant near the Pleasant Gap station, have moved into the W. I. Dunkleberger house, recently vacated by Blair Rice.

The people of the Methodist church, who have been putting on the play, "The School at Blueberry Corner," are elated over their success. On Friday evening they presented it to a large audience in the Methodist church in Bellefonte. Receipts of the evening were almost seventy-four dollars.

The county W. C. T. U. convention held in the Methodist church, on Wednesday last, was attended by over one hundred members of the different Unions. It surely was a very inspiring meeting and should have been better attended by the fathers and mothers of our own town. What the people need is a more thorough knowledge of the good the W. C. T. U. is doing. The temperance question is one that should appear very strongly to the fathers and mothers of the boys and girls of today. Not only temperance is stressed but the promotion of world peace. The Centre Hall Y. P. B., under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Frank Goodhart, ably presented a playlet on "Alcohol in Medicine." At the noon hour all adjourned to the lower room where lunch was prepared. All join in the verdict that this was one of the most inspiring conventions held in a long while.

JACKSONVILLE.

Willard Weaver spent Sunday at Beech Creek.

Miss Josephine Dietz visited in Howard last Saturday.

Walter Daily, of Altoona, spent over Sunday at the George Ertley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hoy and Willard Hoy visited at Curtin on Saturday.

Misses Helen and Sarah Vonada were Sunday callers at the E. R. Lucas home.

Miles Bartley and Philip Neff were Saturday callers at the Joseph Neff home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swope, of near Mill Hall, visited among friends here last Wednesday.

George Ertley's farm sale proceeds netted three thousand dollars. James Bartley's sale netted $4700.00.

Miss Geraldine Shope, of Howard, was a guest of her friend, Miss Mildred Aley, on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Emily Hull and Kate Bitner, of Beech Creek, were the guests of Mrs. Mary Dietz on Wednesday afternoon.

Read this Advertisement! Cut it Out—It is Worth 25c. in Cash
Prices Less than the Mail Order House

YEAGERS TINY BOOT SHOP can truthfully guarantee to the shoe buyers of Centre County that they are in position to sell good quality shoes at prices less than any Shoe Store or Mail Order House in the United States.

This is a very broad assertion and if it were not true it would be very foolish on our part to make such a statement. Fraudulent advertising never pays as the public will soon find it out and brand you as a fraud. Our prices are made possible by the fact that the cost of operating our store is just about one cent on the dollar and it will cost the large shoe store twenty five times that much.

We are very anxious to know if you read honest advertisements and give them thought. This advertisement is worth 25 c. in cash. Read it and cut it out and bring it to our store any time up until Saturday April 16th and we will give you credit for it of 25c. on the purchase of any pair of shoes. Note, just one credit to each pair of shoes.
