Bellefonte, Pa. April 8 1927.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

granted by county treasurer J. O. Heverly.

Edgar Harold Eckley and Anna Louise McMullen, both of Bellefonte.

-- Landlord M. A. Landsy will have no trouble with the ice man the in the courts has been decided. coming summer as he is installing a culinary department.

-We have a very useful Auto-Strop Safety razor all done up in a neat little velvet lined metallic case, to a new subscription to the Watchman.

and vicinity took advantage of the Quaker city.

-- Judge James C. Furst has issued term of court in order to have all bills court convenes in regular session.

The Associated Business Men of Bellefonte are about to launch another sales stimulator. Under the plan in mind every cash purchased of $100 worth of merchandise during the months of April, May and June will receive a handsome porch rocking chair free.

-- In repairing his home from the effects of the disastrous fire, last the entire interior and will cover the cutside with stucco, so that it will seem like a new house when it is finally ready for occupancy, which will not be for a month or six weeks, at least.

-The Bellefonte Community orunder the direction of Mrs. Louis in the court house, Bellefonte, on Friday evening, April 22nd, at eight o'clock. Tickets of admission will be 50 cents and they can be secured from any member of the orchestra or from John Dubbs, treasurer.

-A representative of the Harrisburg Evening News this week deliver- ingness to contribute one year's saved to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Putt, of ing in insurance towards the expense Port Matilda, a check for $1000 cover- of adding the additional fire fighting ing an accident policy their son, the equipment necessary to secure the late Chester Putt, had taken out reduction, and that he intended taking through that paper. It will be re- the matter up at the regular meeting called that Chester Putt was the of the Business Men's association on young man killed in an automobile Tuesday evening. He suggested, howaccident on the state highway, in Bald ever, that the secretary communicate Evening Journal. of Meriden, Conn., meets all the requirements specified. been set for the wedding.

-A man who gave his name as Oliver Sprenkle, of Bellefoute, is in the Blair county jail as the result of a motor accident at Lakemont park, him. Altaona, on Monday evening in which he figured with another man who gave the name of G. H. Denniston, Jersey Shore, and an unknown girl. Sprenkle sustained a twisted knee in the smashup. Denniston, the driver of the machine, is alleged to have been intoxicated which caused him to ditch the

-There is no denying the fact that the pictures shown at the Secnic stand out as the very best that are being produced by the leading film manufacturers in the United States. Their equal cannot be seen anywhere else in Bellefonte. Manager Brown is able to secure these pictures for the reason that he has been doing business with the distributors for a number of years and naturally has first choice of all the pictures produced. The moral is, when you want to see good pictures, go to the Scenic.

-The new dance pavilion Frank Hockman is erecting at Hecla park is then attempted to pull it down with three and four o'clock, the man who now fully under roof and will be block and tackle, but the steel rope did the trick breaking a pane of glass completed in ample time for the open- broke without budging it. ing of the summer season at the park, which is generally on Memorial day. In addition to the pavilion Mr. Hockman will increase his lighting system and by connecting with the Keystone Power circuit will be assured of better in all, at the foundation of the stack. This is the third or fourth time this light than, ever before. Other im- When they were put off the big pile restaurant has been reported robbed. add to the comfort and convenience of hang there for an instant, then Schwab to Attend College Conference. picnickers and dance parties during it crumbled to earth, then almost the approaching season.

the office of general manager of any one desiring them. the Bellefonte plant of the Federal Match company has been abolished, effective April 1st, and Col. W. Fred son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bloom, of for many years has been a trustee of come by way of Europe and expect to Reynolds, who has filled the position | Pine Hall, and Miss Frances M. Buck, the college. A similar conference is reach the States in time to attend the ever since the local plant was absorb- of Warriorsmark, were married at the called each spring by Dean R. L. Sack- June commencement exercises at Syr- er, was in town on Monday morning and ed by the Federal company, has been Lutheraan parsonage, at Pine Grove ett for the purpose of discussing acuse University. Later they will favored this office with a call. Mr. Johnreleased from duty. All his personal Mills, at three o'clock on Wednesday problems of mutual benefit to the in- come to Bellefonte. belongings have been moved into the afternoon, by the pastor, Rev. J. S. dustries of the State and nation and office of the Bellefonte Lumber company to which he will now devote his known in the western end of the counth he main subject will be the selection, local lodge of Elks went down to Wilentire time. No other changes have ty and have many friends who wish placement and development of tech- liamsport, Wednesday afternoon, for a storm and made it too wet. He expressed been made as yet W. Frederick Rey- for them a long and happy wedded life. nically trained college graduates. Mr. the dedication of the magnificent new much regret at the death of his long time Corn on Monday Evening.

Every member of borough council the West ward, was present at the The secretary presented another com--Up to Monday afternoon twelve munication from Harrisburg asking $32.00 of fines collected from automoat Cumberland, Md., on Monday, to Harris and turned over to the borough. Harrisburg wants the money but the borough solicitor has advised withholding payment until a test case now

The Street committee reported recommercial size frigidaire in his pairing south Thomas street and the permit. The committee further reported that the residents of east Burnside street are anxious to have the sewer extension requested constructed give to everyone who sends or brings at once. This brought forth a prolonged discussion on costs, sewer tap -Eighty people from Bellefonte charges, etc., the matter finally being referred to the committee with power excursion to Philadelphia, on Satur- so far as the sewer extension is conday night, to spend Sunday with cerned and also with instructions to friends and taking in the sights of the work out a more equitable system of costs for further extensions, taps, etc. The Water committee reported the an edict requiring grand juries to collection of $86.25 on the 1925 water meet the week prior to the regular duplicate; $513.75 on the 1926; $62.50 from the G. F. Musser Co., rent for of indictment ready for trial when March, and $12.50 in miscellaneous items.

The Finance committee asked for troversy. the renewal of notes aggregating $8,-700 and a new note for $1500, which were authorized.

The Fire and Police committee reported a refund from the Bell Telephone company of $2.26, and that the big stack at the old steam heating plant had been blown down with dynamite on Monday evening. The commitwinter, M. R. Johnson is remodeling foundations and pits should be fenced tee also suggested that several deep in. The matter was referred to the committee and burgess Harris.

The Finance committee reported that according to the borough solicitor council could not do otherwise than grant the request of the Richelieu theatre for a rebate on 1926 taxes, owchestra, a new musical organization ing to the fact that the county commissioners had reduced the valua-Schad, will give its first public concert tion on the theatre, and the committee recommended that the rebate be allowed. It was so ordered. Regarding the movement to secure a reduction of insurance rates in Bellefonte Mr. Emerick stated that he had personally interviewed thirty-four business men who signified their will-last week, of the engagement of At this stage in the proceedings Evelyn Davies Carlson, daughter of Robert F. Hunter and Bent L. Weaver Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Carlson, of made their appearance as members of that city, and Mer's Wetzel, only son a committee appointed by the Kiwanis of Mrs. Oscar Wetzel, of Bellefonte. club to cooperate with council in plac-Merle is with the U. G. I. Co., of ing markers in the important streets Philadelphia, and was located at Nor- of the town. They volunteered all the ristown until transferred to Water- assistance desired so far as cooperabury. Cenn., last July. No date has tion is concerned but nothing financialgentlemen that the question of mark-Reynolds and they could confer with brick stack, was blown down with dynamite, on Monday afternoon, and now all that remains of that one time ers and sisters: Mrs. Fred Weber, A Bellefonte Boy on the Air Regularly. general utility are several deep holes Miss Edna and Harold Shirk, all of in the ground, thousands of very good brick and a few carloads of debris.

Bills totaling $2459.97 were approv-

Old Steam Heating Plant Stack Blown Down with Dynamite.

been under consideration for some time, as it has been deemed a menace to school children and general traffic. The job was undertaken, on Monday, by Nathan Kofman. He put in two in the south and east sides of the stack, about nine feet from the of brick seemed to rise in the air and where it stood. The good brick will,

English. Both young people are well to the engineering faculty. This year been announced.

tional Air Transport, Inc.

The Postoffice Department has an-$1.24 a pound. This is the same combilists for violation of the traffic laws pany that has the contract for carrylas, Texas.

the government.

The protest against awarding the which bid for the airmail contract.

the status of the Bellefonte landing and 4 weasels. field and the personnel of employees will be defined in the near future.

"Y's Krax" from the Bellefonte Y.

bowling tournament has been post-little more than nine dollars. poned for one week and will start on Mr. Zettle's complete list for the Monday, April 18th. All entries for the tournament must be in by Thursday, April 14th.

Arrangements have been completed for the annual Easter flower sale, which will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 14, 15 and 16. Any kind of potted plant or cut flowers desired can be secured at this sale. In the annual election of directors held on Monday, April 4th, the following men were chosen to serve a term of three years: R. L. Mallory, J. O. Stutsman, B. L. Weaver, S. M. Shallcross and H. M. Murtorff. The regular board of directors meeting will be held on Monday evening, April 11th, at which time a reorganization will take place.

In the junior and intermediate boys gym classes four indoor track events! are being held: 20 yard dash, standing broad jump, running broad jump and running high jump. The boys records are scored on a point system, depend-Eagle valley, on the night of Decem- with the Underwriter's Association ing upon age and weight. In the four and get their statement in writing that events a boy with a perfect score could - Announcement was made in the the reduction will be made if council make 40 points. To date Richard Robb registered and 62 came as return is the only one who has a perfect score in any event. He scored ten points in the standing broad jump with a leap of six feet and ten_inches.

Days.

Three members of the David Hertz family-Mrs. Hertz and two childrenly. President Walker informed the died recently at their home in Baltimore as the result of streptacocci iners is now in the hands of councilman fection of the throat. Robert, aged five years, passed away on March 17th, Mrs. Hertz died on March 22nd, and Jean, aged two years and five months, ed for payment after which council died March 25th, all within eight days.

Mr. Hertz was a graduate of State College in the class of 1918, while Mrs. Hertz prior to her marriage was Miss Esther Shirk, of State Callege. The The last monument to the old steam father and one son, David, aged seven, heating plant, the big ninety-six foot survive. Mrs. Hertz also leaves her mother, Mrs. M. C. Shirk, living at State College, and the following broth-State College; A. E. Shirk, of Tyrone; The blowing down of the stack has Sheetz and Ray Shirk, of Laurelton.

Howard Dry's Restaurant Robbed Again.

The quick lunch restaurant of Howshots of two sticks of dynamite each, and Dry, located in the basement room of the Bush Aracade, on south Water street, was robbed again early ground, but the only damage they did last Friday morning, according to Mr. was to blow holes in the stack. They Dry. The robbery took place between in the door through which he was able Then along came William Thomp- to reach and unfasten the lock. Twenson, one of the regular force of blast- ty dollars in silver which Mr. Dry had synagogue in that city. ing men at the American Lime and in a pocketbook secreted in a drawer Stone company, and he placed a of his desk, is alleged to have been double charge of dynamite, six sticks taken, but nothing else was disturbed.

The principal speaker at the an--As a matter of retrenchment of course, be reclaimed and sold to nual industrial conference to be held and Mrs. W. R. North and their son morning bus back, had no nmbrella and Bloom-Buck.-Charles S. Bloom, and 14, will be Charles M. Schwab, who Tuesday. Dr. and Mrs. North will He is an old acquaintance and we found lege gathering.

Borough Council Held Lengthy Session | Airmail Contract Awarded to the Na- Last Winter a Good Season for Fur Bearing Animals.

That pestiferous little animal, the with the exception of Mr. Brouse, of nounced that the contract for carrying lowly skunk, is not only strong on the airmail on the eastern section of the scent, but his pelt is now a staple regular session on Monday evening. the transcontinental route, between line with fur dealers and trappers New York and Chicago, has been generally reap a nice little harvest awarded to the National Air Trans- from him, counting the bounty and Jones, of Youngwood, Westmoreland counhundred fishermen's licenses had been what council has done in the matter of port, Inc., of Chicago, at its bid of pelt together. And according to the ty. records of Jeremiah Zettle, of Spring Mills, leading raw fur dealer in Cen--A marriage license was granted by former burgess Walker and burgess | ing the airmail from Chicago to Dal- tre county, his pelt is not only increasing in popularity and value but the The bid of the North American animal is also increasing in numbers. Airways was one cent below that of Mr. Zettle's business as a fur buyer the National Air Transport, but be- is not confined to Centre county but cause of the fact that government air- the bulk of his product is captured in mail pilots and employees were alleg- Centre county mountains. This year ed to have agreed to take $100,000 he handled 4764 skunk pelts which is collection of ten dollars for a sewer in stock in the company the bid was 715 more than he was able to buy last not awarded to them, it being contend- year. In fact his entire line of pelts ed that it was against the law for showed a marked increase over last government employees to be financial- year, while the value exceeded that of to his farm near Linden Hall. ly interested in any contract work for the 1925 season by over five thousand dollars. All this bears out the statement of bid to the North American Airways game protector Thomas A. Mosier, Seeing some delinquent tax payers was the came from Paul Henderson, now gen- who said that last winter was one of object of Mrs. Finch's visit Wednesday. eral manager of the National Air the best for furs in a number of years. Transport, Inc., but former second as- He estimated the number of foxes sistant postmaster general. Charles captured in the county at close to five Evan Hughes, former Supreme court hundred. Among individual catches justice, maintained that the pilots recorded are those of J. A. Gummo, were within their legal rights in ask- 31 foxes, 20 skunks and 4 minks; Guy ing to take stock in the company Rossman, 28 foxes, 18 skunks, 6 weasels; William Gummo, 30 skunks and but the Postoffice Department evident- 4 minks; Andy Laird, 20 foxes; M. C. ly desired to keep clear of all con- Wieland, 10 skunks, all captured in patient at the Centre County hospital for Ferguson township. Down Bald Ea- almost three months. The contract will go into effect on gle valley Walter Davy, of Blanchard, July first, and it is quite possible that captured 3 wild cats, 11 gray foxes in the class of '27 Penn State, left Tuesday

Outside of bear skins the pelt of the mink is the most valuable of all, being worth about ten dollars in the raw, which, considering its size makes it almost equal with seal. The next Due to the week of April 10 to 17 in value is the red fox, which this being Holy Week the Y. M. C. A. year sold at an average price of a

•	seas	on, with their valuation, i	s as follows
	4764 925	Skunks	. $7744.90
	428	Opossum	. 888.10 . 3176.58
,	2560 267	Muskrat	4735.60
	106	Grey Fox	. 924.00
	519 130	Weasels	. 627.25 . 1360.00
	13	Wolf	. 155.50
	5	Badger	. 31.00 8.50
	10	House Cats	4.25
		Bear	13.00
	9733		$20381.75

The public health nursing service of the Bellefonte chapter of the American Red Cross carried its usual program of instruction during March. friends at Mifflinburg, for eight weeks. Five pre-natal cases were visited, 18 sick persons nursed.

Five sessions of the CHIMIC were held at which 18 new visits were visits for weighing and advice. Four one mother's club meeting.

The Bellefonte chapter was visited Richard. ment of mental hygiene will conduct a mental clinic on April 12 and 13, in the Red Cross rooms, at which Lock Haven. time problem children and children who are to be placed in institutions by at the John P. Lyon home, having been is interested in a special work for the Philadelphia. Children's Aid Society. Most of the patients have been referred by Rev. Steely, who was instrumental in planning this clinic.

Few of those who listen in to the Russell, of Lemont; Mrs. Florence splendid organ programs that are | broadcasted every Monday and Thursday night fom Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, realize that the artist at the organ is a former Bellefonte boy. He is Fred D. Weaver, a son of Mr.

and Mrs. J. C. Weaver, formerly of this place, and while it was generally known here that he had remarkable talent as a boy, the family left Bellefonte before it had developed to the point of lifting him into a position of made their home in Renovo, since leaving prominence in musical circles. He Baltimore several years ago. is organist in first Presbyterian church, Baltimore, also in the Jewish Tune in to Baltimore some Monday or Thursday night and hear for your-

Dr. and Mrs. North Coming Home.

Among the missionaries to China who will sail from Shanghai on April by the School of Engineering at the Billy, according to an announcement it was raining, he ducked in here for Pennsylvania State College, May 13 published in the Williamsport Sun, on awhile and we were right glad to see him.

-Twenty-eight members of the nolds has been designated as tempor- Just where they will reside has not yet Schwab will speak before an all-col- home of the Elks of that city. They friend and neighbor, the late George Muswere royally entertained.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Having spent the winter in Williamsport Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kryder have returned to Centre Hall to open their house there for the summer.

-Mr. and Mrs. F. W. West had as a house guest, at their home on Curtin street last week, Mrs. West's sister, Miss Lydia

-Drs. William S., and Nannie Glenn, who have been spending the winter at West Palm Beach, Florida, expect to return to reopen their home at State College on the 15th.

-Mrs. Rhoades, of east High street, who was the guest of friends in Tyrone and Al- law, Mrs. O. M. Bowersox. toona for an over Sunday visit, consulted medical specialists regarding her health, during her stay in Altoona.

-Commissioner James W. Swabb evidently didn't like town life, for he has sold the home in Milesburg that he bought only a year ago and last week moved back

-Mrs. J. H. Finch, of Unionville, spent Wednesday in Bellefonte in the interest of her work as tax collector at Milesburg,

-Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Landsy, of the Brockerhoff house, were passengers to Philadelphia, on Sunday. Mrs. Landsy going down to consult physicians regarding her health which has not been good for some months.

-William W. Curtin, of Philadelphia, was an over Sunday guest at the Bush house, while here for a visit with his sister, Mrs. George F. Harris, who has been a

-William Troup, a mechanical engineer with a party of twenty-nine engineers, on an eight day inspection trip of some of the big manufacturing plants, in the vicinity of New York and Philadelphia.

-Anne Broderick was down from State College Saturday, for an over night visit with her mother, Mrs. E. M. Broderick, who is here for an indefinite stay with her

-Mrs. Rebecca Decker accompanied by her son, John R. Decker, came in last Joseph Jr., arrived here from Cleveland, week from Detroit, Mich., where Mrs. Ohio, Saturday, Joseph's visit was an over Decker had been for the winter. During night one only, continuing his business her stay there, she was in charge of her trip on to New York Sunday, while Mrs. son's home, while he and Mrs. Decker spent some time abroad.

-Mrs. E. H. Richard and Miss Emma Montgomery, drove to Tyrone, Monday, leaving there by train to go east. Their plans are for spending two months with Mrs. Richard's relatives, at Norristown, home on Reynolds Ave., their guests being, to Bellefonte in June.

-Miss Esther Gray returned to her farm Busy Month for Public Health Nurse. in the Buffalo Run valley Saturday, to open her home there for the summer season. Miss Gray had been with her sister, Mrs. Hartsock, at Binghamton, N. Y., with the Babcock family at Lewisburg and with babies under one year and 31 school Bellefonte, on Saturday, for Greenville, A. Miller, of Bellefonte, has been here with children reached, 10 communicable Pa., their former home, where they will Mrs. Miller during the past week. Mr. and disease cases were investigated and 41 remain until deciding on a permanent place Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Irwin and her son to locate. Their two sons, William and Rash drove up from Mackeyville a week cided to stick to this place for the present. -Mr. and Mrs. William F. Forbes and their son William Jr., stopped in Bellefonte, Monday, for an over night visit with days were given to the American Lime their aunt, Mrs. John A. Woodcock, on family will leave Brooklyn next week, to & Stone company, two baby clinics their way home to Chambersburg, from a being held at their health centre and drive to Williamsport, where they had been spending several days with their son

-- Mrs. Willis Weaver, of Windber, was Red cross field representative, who in Bellefonte between trains Saturday, on comes for periodic inspection of the her way from State College for an over nursing service. The State depart- Sunday visit with friends in Lock Haven. Mrs. Weaver had been with her sister, Mrs. Ertley, at State College, for a week and returned direct to Somerset county from

-R. R. Dobelbower was a recent visitor the Children's Aid Society of Centre there to spend a week with Mrs. Dobelcounty will be given an intelligence bower and their two children, who have rating. Miss Galster, of the bureau of been in Bellefonte since coming north some mental hygiene, and Dr. Wiley, psy- time ago. Mr. Dobelbower is with the chiatrist, will assist Mrs. Adams, who State Highway Department and located at

-Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bradley have returned from Buffalo, N. Y., and at present are located at Mrs. Showers' boarding house, on Spring street, where they will only $4.85. Yeager's Tiny Boot Shop. be until they can decide on a permanent abiding place, as they have decided that old Bellefonte will be good enough for them in the future.

-Mrs. F. A. Fink was in Bellefonte for the greater part of the past week, visiting with Miss Mary Eberhart and other friends having stopped here on her way home to Altoona, from State College, where she had spent the winter. Mrs. Fink will return to open her home in Altoona for the summer early next week.

-Mrs. Sarah Brown left Renovo last week, to join Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wray and their two children, at their new home at Merion, where they moved after Mr. Wray's recent promotion to Philadelphia, by the P. R. R. Co. The Wray family have

-Mr. and Mrs. Carl Quimby, of Arlington Heights, Mass., who spent a part of the past week in Bellefonte, were guests during their stay, of Mr. Quimby's sister, Mrs. Horatio S. Moore and Mr. Moore, at their home on Allegheny street. Mr. and Mrs. Quimby had been in Florida for the winter, their visit here having been made enroute back to Boston.

-John H. Williams, who repairs and makes harness for the farmers in Ferguson township, was down from Pine Grove Mills 13th for the United States will be Dr. on Tuesday. Inasmuch as he missed the much of mutual interest to talk about.

-George Johnson, Boggs township farmson is like every other farmer, fearful lest we are to have a wet spring like that of last year. He said his ground has been in | Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. fine shape for plowing twice, but he scarce-

-Mrs. Oscar Wetzel is arranging to leave Bellefonte the after part of next week, for a months visit with her daughter, Mrs. McCoy, at Ambridge, Pa. -Major H. Laird Curtin and Mrs. Curtin went to Washington, D. C., Sunday, where Major Curtin entered the Walter Reed hospital to be under the observation of specialists. -Miss Lois Foreman has so far recovered from her recent long illness, as to be able to accompany her mother and brother, Mrs. D. R. Foreman and Paul, last week, on a drive to Altoona. -While in attendance at the Missionary convention at State College, during the fore part of the week, Mrs. J. M. Ewing, of Lewistown, was the guest of her sister-in-

-Mrs. Louis Grauer, head of Lyon Co., dry goods store, has returned from a month's visit with her sisters in Philadelphia to resume the management of the business. Mrs. Grauer has been quite a bit benefitted by her rest.

-Samuel Corl and his son Clarence L., both of Ferguson township, were in Bellefonte Tuesday. They had been out to the Davidson sale at Snow Shoe Intersection and stopped here on their way home to look after a little business.

-D. F. Pearce, former sealer of weights and measures for Centre county, and now head of the Pearce Milk Co., of State Colhis eye on one of the court house offices his eye on one of the Court house offices and might finally decide to go after it.

-Hamilton Seibert, of State College, with Mrs. Hamill Goheen, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Mrs. Samuel Corl, of State College, were in Bellefonte Monday afternoon on their way home from attending the funeral of the late George E. Seibert, at Niagara Falls.

-Mrs. William Derstine returned to Bellefonte Sunday after spending the winter with her sons, Jesse and his family at Ambridge, and Frank M. and his family at Juniata. Mrs. Derstine will take her household goods from storage and remain in Bellefonte permanently.

-Mrs. Albert Yougel, formerly Miss Margery Way, has resigned her position with the Bellefonte Hardware Co. to join her husband at State College, where they will immediately go to housekeeping. Miss uncle, Thomas Hamilton. Mr. Hamilton's Alice Owens will succeed Mrs. Yougel as condition has improved during the past book-keeper and stenographer at the hard-

-Mrs. Joseph Ceader and her son, Ceader remained in Bellefonte for an indefinite stay. During her visit she will be a house guest of her nieces, the Misses Cooney, at their home on Bishop street. -Mr. and Mrs. John F. Garthoff entertained a week-end house party at their and at Atlantic City, expecting to return their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hefflefinger, their son Luke and a friend from Reading; their grand son Jack Blackford and Miss Marie Simpson, of Huntingdon. Both parties motored here Saturday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Garthoff until Sunday afternoon.

-Mrs. Robert Irvin, who divides her time between her two daughters, Mrs. W. -Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Mayer left H. Gardner, of Mackeyville, and Mrs. Geo. Albert, remained in Bellefonte, having de- ago, Mrs. Irwin remaining here while the other members of the party returned home the same evening.

-John P. Kottcamp, with the Johns-Manville Co., of New York city, and his make their home at Wankegan, Ill., to which place Mr. Kottcamp has been transferred. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kotteamp are graduates of Penn State, Mrs. Kottcamp being the elder daughter of Dr. William S. Glenn. The greater part of their life since their marriage has been spent in Brooklyn.

-Leslie E. Miller, of Woodlawn, was in Bellefonte yesterday afternoon; having driven up from Aaronsburg to meet some friends at the train here. Mr. and Mrs. Miller drove in from Woodlawn, on Wednesday, because of the serious illness of Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Rebecca Wolf, who is ill at her home in Aaronsburg with pneumonia, so ill that all of the family have been called home. Mr. Miller is now half-owner in the Collins-Miller Motors Co., of Woodlawn, and is not sorry that he quit the insurance business, for he has been prospering wonderfully.

-Hood brand hip fishing boots 72-13-1t

CANTATA.

This Cantata is one of the most Words of Christ," by Dubois, will be sung in St. John's Episcopal church, Good Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The soloists will be Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. Louis Schad (violin), Mr. Cecil Walker, Mr. W. F. Reynolds, Jr. and Mr. Russel Blair. This Cantata is one of the most impressive of the Lenten works and portrays the crucifixion and death of Christ and the grief of his mother

Notice of Adjournment of Receivers Sale.

Notice is hereby given that the Receivers sale of the properties of the Central Refractories Company advertised in the columns of this newspaper to be held Saturday, April the 9th, 1927, at ten a. m., will be adjourned for three weeks to Saturday, April the 30th, 1927 at ten a. m. O. S. KELSEY,

W. D. ZERBY. Federal Receivers.

-We have a very useful Auto-Strop Safety razor all done up in a neat little velvet lined metallic case, to give to everyone who sends or brings a new subscription to the Watchman.

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Buckwheat