Bellefonte, Pa., April 15, 1927.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The Ladies of the Reformed Variety Shop.

-Greetings to George Washington Rumberger, of Unionville, who will celebrate the ninetieth anniversary of his birth next Wednesday.

-The Knights of Columbus will Monday April 18th, at 8.15 p. m. Public cordially invited. Admission 25

-The residence of Sec. and Mrs. will do the work.

-The funeral of the late Foster Williams was held last Saturday mornthe Union cemetery.

-The ladies of the Lutheran church, Bellefonte, will hold a bake sale on Saturday, April16th, at Hazel's grocery store. All members are kindly requested to respond.

The base ball season will open in Bellefonte tomorrow at 2.30 when the Juniata R. R. Y. M. C. A. will field. Admission 50 cents.

---The Passmore house, in Philipsburg, was sold last week by Josiah Pritchard to George W. Miller, the latter taking possession on Wednesday. The price paid was $40,000.

evening, April 21. Admission 50cts. day to their homes in Altoona. Bridge and five hundred will both be in play.

-Bellefonte police, on Monday, charge of having passed a forged and good as new. worthless check. Details of the circumstance have not been received.

If you want a comfortable and nice looking rocker for your porch this summer all you have to do is buy one hundred dollars worth of merchandise from Bellefonte stores, between now free.

-Francis Crawford is the new commander of Brooks-Doll post of the spoken gentleman of the white beard. American Legion, of Bellefonte, having been elected at a regular meeting last week to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Harry E. Dunlap.

-Tomorrow, Saturday, at 1 o'clock all the household goods and real estate the premises. If you want a nice pression of him was one of an old home in Unionville this might be your chance to get it.

--- Who knows that the sand that was used in the building of the Bush house was mined on Sellers' island below Milesburg and that the bricks ing onto a box car that was to be for it were made at a yard that was operated out where the Sutton Engineering Co's plant is now located.

burg, treasurer of the Farmers' Mutual a retired life for many years.

---The hunting camp of Schoonthe fifth time in five consecutive years etc." that the camp has been robbed, and always about the first week in April.

3rd have been named as the dates for terminal. examination for professional certificates for school teachers. For Centre county examinations will be held in Bellefonte and anyone desiring to take same should consult the county superintendent in connection therewith.

The Senate bill introduced by State Senator Richard S. Quigley, of Lock Haven, to increase the fee for hunters' licenses from $1.25 to $2.00. was killed in the House on Monday night. Representative Holmes, of Centre county, objected to the bill on the grounds that the increase was designed to pay damages for destruction caused by deer.

---The big programs of motion pictures shown at the Scenic naturally attract large crowds to that popular place of amusement every evening in the week, and all those who attend go home feeling that they have gotten, full value for their money. The Scenic is the one place you can always feel sure of seeing something worthwhile, as all the pictures are new and up-to-date.

-The Sunday afternoon services of the International Bible Students will be in charge of David Allison, of Altoona, and will be held at the home of Harper Rice, on Pine street, Sunday, April 17, at 2.15 o'clock. The subject will be: "Where Will You Be in the Resurrection?" Surely everyone is interested in so important a subject and an opportunity to hear it Philipsburg, was totally destroyed by satisfactorily explained should result fire, last Friday morning, entailing a in a good attendance.

AIRPLANE CRASHED UP AT PLEASANT GAP.

But the Two Men in it Escape with Slight Injuries.

for a few seconds, out at Pleasant Gap church will hold their regular Easter about two o'clock on Saturday after- height, are packed in strong boxes, hopelessly paralyzed for life. market, Saturday April 16, at the noon, but came out victors with only a Curtis plane from Jersey Shore to down at Pleasant Gap for gas got of dollars to Pennsylvania forests. too low over the town, hit the top of a pine tree in the yard of Henry Noll hold a card party in their rooms on then caught the telephone wires, pulling down a telephone pole, and landed headon against the corner of the porch of the old Twitmire house occupied by Wade Evey and family, Charles Dorworth, on Linn St., is to knocking off the cornice and the spoutbe remodeled on the exterior during ing. Mr. Evey was in the bathroom the spring. Contractor Benj. Bradley at the time and claims the impact knocked him off his feet.

The machine was one sold some time ago by Henry Noll, of Pleasant ing. Rev. C. C. Shuey had charge of Gap, to H. M. Thompson, of Jersey the services and burial was made in Shore. Mr. Thompson recently purchased a new ship and sold the old one to Mr. Prutzman. The latter took Mr. Little with him to fly the ship home. Henry Noll also flew to Jersey Shore to see that the ship was all right and saw the two men safely in the air. He then took off, himself, and flew to Lock Haven where he made a landing and when he again took to the meet the Academy team on Hughes back, then up Nittany valley to Pleasant Gap. On sighting his home town his attention was attracted by the large crowd of people on the highway and as soon as he landed he made his way to the town and was surprised to find -A card party for the benefit of the wrecked ship. As stated above the Centre County hospital, will be the two men sustained only slight cuts given at the Elks Home, Thursday and bruises, returning later in the

Mr. Noll, with a force of workmen, dismantled the ship and removed it to his airdrome, and while it seemingreceived word that Charles Baney Jr., ly was pretty badly wrecked he says is in the Wilkes-Barre jail on the it can easily be repaired and made

Uncle Jimmy is Well, Despite His 93 and More Years.

As long as we have known anything about the Watchman office the name of James C. Waddle, Lock Haven, Pa., and June 30th, and you can get one has appeared on its mailing list. And from the time of little boyhood we have known the benign looking, soft Memory carries us back nearly fifty years to the time we first saw and knew him. Like most boys of that day we loved to loaf about the railroad tracks and "hop" the trains when the vigilant railroad men were not in "sight. "Uncle Jimmy" conducted the ionville, will be sold at auction, on a white beard then, so that our im- for them. man. The local did all the shifting for stealing rides and all the boys loved "Uncle Jimmy," for, whether he did or didn't, we thought he looked the other way when he saw us crawlshunted "up around the hill." For years after his retirement he came regularly to Bellefonte for a -Jasper R. Brungart, of Rebers- visit with his friends and to pay his subscription. Then his visits in per-Fire Insurance company of Centre son ceased and were made by letter. county, was taken to the Geisinger On the desk before us is a note from hospital, at Danville, last week, for his daughter, Mrs. Adams, saying treatment for a bad case of erysipelas that: "Father is very well despite his on the face. Mr. Brungart is seventy- more than ninety-three years, but it The Legislature Was Good to Our six years of age and has been living is difficult for him to write any more. He must hear the news of his native county. Your paper will likely conover and Erb, at Black Bear, in Rush tinue to be a weekly visitor as long as township, was robbed ten days ago of father lives-not for its politics but most of the furnishings, including five for its news-as everyone of us here army blankets, pillows, a tent, carpen- are Republicans. Wishing you conter tools, dishes, lamps, etc. This was tinuous success, nevertheless, I am if his Secretary of Forests and Waters strain for us because it indicates that local institution. --- County superintendent Glenn F. another of the grand old railroaders of Rogers announces June 1st, 2nd and the early days is approaching the

Centre County Prisoner Believed to be Professional Crook.

Alexander Roch, a prisoner in the Centre county jail on the charge of shooting and wounding Joseph Krupa, during a drinking bout at the home of John Kisinsky, in Rush township, on Sunday night, March 27th, is believed to be a professional crook with a prison record. The county authorities have definitely established the fact that he served a four years term from which he was discharged in 1924. City that Roch is believed to be one of a gang who robbed a bank in that city. When Roch was arrested a map of sion which bore tracings in ink of the the shows to be determined later. locality where the pay truck was bombed and the big robbery of the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal company took place. It is also alleged that of Central and Western Pennsylvania Roch was away from the Philipsburg region for four days at the time of the above holdup and when he returned was said to be quite flush with mon-

When the officers went to arrest attempt to escape and was captured meeting. only after considerable difficulty.

-The Basil Moore garage, at loss of approximately $6,500.

Rockview Nursery.

Thousands of seedling trees, mostthe nursery at the Rockview peniten-John Prutzman, and Max Little, two tiary for reforestration purposes all the Rev. Bergstresser met with an ac-Altoona residents, flirted with death over the State. The seedlings, which cident, Wednesday of last week, that, seven to eight thousand in a box, to few minor injuries to remind them of assure their delivery in good order. their close call. They were flying a They are all healthy, thirfty looking Pine Grove Mills. From there he was Altoona and in attempting to come grow will in due time add thousands over, where they have a $350,000

The penitentiary officials have arranged for the planting of fifty thousand seedlings on Nittany mountain, on crease the value of the forest land

While most of the seedlings in the penitentiary nursery are pine they have started the experiment of growing black walnut seedlings. Several dump cart loads of walnuts were was holding on her lap. planted last fall and the man in charge come up and whether they will grow when transplanted.

Centre County Flier to be Given Promotion.

Jonn E. Bodle, a native of Julian, Centre county, on Saturday, was notified of his appointment as a second lieutenant in the air corps of the regular U. S. army, and will be assigned to duty at Selfridge field, Michigan.

The lieutenant is a graduate of the Bellefonte High school, class of 1923. A year after his graduation he went to Kelly field, Texas, and enlisted for service in the flying corps of the U.S. army. He trained for two years and graduated on September 14th, 1926, He was sent north to Selfridge field and assigned as an enlisted flying cadet in the 27th pursuit squadron.

Shortly after his arrival at Selfridge field he was granted a seventy hour furlough to visit his old home and he made the trip to Bellefonte in a Curtis pursuit plane. In January of this year a special examination was held to fill nineteen vacancies as second lieutenant and cadet Bodle was one of the successful candidates.

Local Auto Dealer Pays Dearly for Town Trout.

George Dunlap, of the firm of Deitrick & Dunlap, automobile salesmen of this place, possibly thought the four coming county, last Saturday, were of the late William A. Peters, of Un- local freight on the Valley and he had terrapin after he got through paying skies.

Game protector, Watson McClarin, of Salladasburg, caught him in the Judge Furst's First Case to be Aphere and there was much opportunity act and Justice of the Peace Crane, of Jersey Shore, did the rest on Monday morning. He made Mr. Dunlap pay fines for fishing without a license and catching four trout out of season. The total amounted to $72.00.

The kick we get out of the gentle-Jersey Shore Herald is true, lies in the statement that Mr. Dunlap caught four trout on four successive casts of a fly. That ladies and gentlemen, is some piscatorial performance for this season of the year.

Hospital.

The bill carrying an appropriation of $18,000 for the Centre County hospital passed the Legislature finally on Tuesday night.

It is now up to Governor Fisher and can persuade him to sign it without It is a gracious note, but has a sad any paring it will be a Godsend to the

> The amount, of course, is for the two year period, or $9,000 each for 1928 and 1929. It is $4000 a year more than the hospital has been getting from the State and every penny of it will be needed to help out with the deficit that will be inevitable in the annual running expenses.

Horse Show Association Organized.

A meeting of representatives of mounted National Guard units from Altoona, Tyrone, Clearfield, Lewistown, Boalsburg, Bellefonte and Lock Haven was held in Altoona, last Saturday, for the purpose of organizing in the federal prison, at Atlanta, Ga., the Central Pennsylvania Horse Show Association. Major H. Laird Curtin, Word has also been received from Oi! of Curtin, was elected president of the asociation, and Lieut. E. R. Griffith. of Lock Haven, secretary. Plans were made to hold five shows during the summer, from May 1st to November Pennsylvania was found in his posses- 15th, the exact dates and places for

-The semi-annual meeting of the allied Commanderies, P. O. S. of A., and Western Maryland, will be held in the P. O. S. A. hall, on west High St., Bellefonte, on Saturday evening, April 16th. A cordial invitation to all Commandery members is extended by the north Lamb street, and erect thereon members of Beaver Commandery, No. a modern double house. Benjamin Roch after the shooting he made an 68. A street parade will precede the Bradley, who recently returned from those toothsome candy Easter eggs other houses in that section. It will schools over there and has succeeded in Oats that Davison makes at his candy store be a decided improvement in that lo- gathering up several hundred volumes of Corn on High street. He puts your name cality and when the building is com- books that will prove interesting and in- Barley on them. too.

Many Seedlings Being Shipped from Former Centre County Minister Suffers Broken Back.

At the zenith of his work in the ly pine, are now being shipped from ministry and with a wife and eleven children depending on him for support are from fifteen to eighteen inches in if he survives at all, will leave him

Rev. Bergstresser, a few years ago, was pastor of the Lutheran church at seedlings and if fifty per cent. of them called to Altoona and thence to Hanchurch edifice and a membership of fourteen hundred.

With his wife and five of the children he had motored to Philadelphia what was at one time cultivated farm to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bergland but which has been lying idle stresser's father. Returning they had since its purchase by the State. The reached a point just three miles east planting of the trees will not only in- of York when his car skidded and in order to avoid striking another motor belonging to the penitentiary but will he ran into a telephone pole. His car improve the water shed which is the was turned over and the minister pinsource of the institution's water sup- ned in the wreckage so that his back was broken between the ninth and tenth vertebrae. Mrs. Bergstresser suffered a dislocated collar bone, but none of the children were hurt, not even the three month's old baby she

The injured minister was taken to of the nursery is now anxiously wait- Westside hospital in York, where it ing to see how many of them will was found they could do nothing for him. Then he was taken to Johns-Hopkins in Baltimore and there too they had to admit the hopelessness of the case.

Miss Ida Greene Deeds Her Home to the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church.

Miss Ida Greene, than whom no church has ever had a more devoted member, surprised a large gathering in the Methodist church on Tuesday evening when J. Kennedy Johnston Esq., announced that she has deeded her home on south Water street to the Ladies Aid society.

It was the occasion of a "Memory Meeting" of the Society which Mrs. Sim Baum, the president, had most successfully planned. Mrs. Charles F. Harrison prepared and read the 'Memory" paper. It was intensely interesting for it was in the nature of a history of the Ladies Aid, with tribute | Linn street. to all of the good women whose pioneering in the organization laid the foundation for the splendid church work it is doing.

There were seventy-five persons present to hear the surprising news that Miss Greene had announced. The deed for the property has been prepared and will be executed soon. The conveyance is to the Ladies Aid Society and it will come into full possession when this good woman who has given her all to the cause so dear to fish he caught in Lawshe run, Ly- her goes to take possession of that other mansion she surely owns in the

pealed.

On Tuesday of last week Judge Jas. C. Furst heard the evidence and argument in the case of the Latrobe Fish-John Decker, jury commissioner, an man's dilemma, if the story of the action in equity to compe! him to execute a deed in the club's favor for 700 acres of land alleged to have been purchased from him under agreement for the sum of $5500. Mr. Decker refused to give the deed because it was his understanding that the price was to have been $6500.

The case goes back to 1920 when was first approached to sell the land, which is located in the mountains in Decker valley. At that time the club was named the Latrobe Fishing and Hunting club. A year later the name was changed to the Commercial Hunting club and in 1925 it became the Latrobe Fishing and Hunting club,

On Wednesday morning Judge Furst filed an opinion and decree in which he found in favor of Mr. Decker. On Saturday the club's attorneys, Messrs. Orvis, Zerby and Dale, filed notice of appeal to the Supreme court, intending to test out the case before the higher

Missionary Society Meeting Held at State College.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Huntingdon Presbytery was held in the Presbyterian church, at State College, on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. this week. Upon leaving Bellefonte early Mrs. Mary W. Newlin, of Franklin- in February Mrs. Steely had been taken ville, president of the organization to Williamsport as a surgical patient, presided, and the address of welcome then later to Camp Devitt, Allenwood, and was made by Mrs. E. W. Runkle, of State College. The program for the surgical treatment. two days was not only lengthy but quite interesting. Included among the officers elected were Miss Anna Mc-Coy, of Bellefonte, as first vicepresident and chairman of home missions, and Miss Mary Hunter Linn as district president for Bellefonte. The -Horatio S. Moore has finally decided to tear down the two old houses on the Longwell property, on Florida, has the contract and according to tentative plans the new build--It is not too late to get one of ing will be erected on a line with the nucleus for libraries for several of the pleted it will likely be in demand.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Walker spent the greater part of the week in New York, having driven over on a business trip.

-Mrs. Winifred B. Meek-Morris will come in from Pittsburgh, today, to spend the Easter week-end at her former home on west High street.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Twitmire will go to Williamsport for Sunday, visiting while there with Mrs. Twitmire's son, John Brachbill and his family.

-John Knox, who is home with his parents, the Rev. Homer C. Knox and Mrs. Knox, arrived here from Harrisburg, Tuesday, to spend the remainder of the week in Bellefonte.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClure and their daughter are expected here from Wayne, Pa., to be Easter guests of Mr. McClure's father, James I. McClure, of south Spring street.

-Miss Mary Shoemaker is home from Trinity college, Washington, D. C., to spend the Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker, at her home on west High street. -Eleanor Gettig and Helen Smith were among those from Bellefonte who were in Altoona, last week, having gone up to spend Thursday and Friday in the shops in anticipation of Easter. -Mrs. Frank McFarlane and Mrs. Hastings will come to Bellefonte to-day, from Harrisburg, where Mrs. McFarlane has been the guest of Mrs. Hastings and her daughters for several weeks. _Mrs. Frank Weaver is again occupying her home on east Bishop street, after three months visit with Mr. and Mrs.

John Herman, in Philadelphia. Mrs. Herman is Mrs. Weaver's daughter. -Charles L. Gates and his daughter, Miss Winifred, were in Johnstown on Wednesday; having gone over to attend the funeral of the former's brother-in-law, the late Hayes C. Dixon, of that city. -Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Brewer and their two children drove to Kirkville, N. Y. yesterday, for an Easter week-end visit with Mrs. Brewer's father and Mr. Brewer's parents, all of whom are residents of Kirk-

-H. E. Van Norman, of Chicago, president of the American Dry Milk Institute. Chicago, was in Bellefonte for several hours, Monday, stopping here on his way to New York from a business trip to State

-Mrs. E. D. Foye and her three children drove up from Williamsport the early part of last week, with Mrs. Foye's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Hunter, remaining here for a visit at the Hunter home, on east

-John Shoemaker is now rapidly recovering from an operation for appendicitis, performed at the Pittsburgh hospital a week ago. His condition is so favorable. that it is hoped he will be able to return to Bellefonte shortly. -John P. Smith, one of the Titan Metal's traveling salesmen, will return to Bellefonte this week to spend Easter Sunday with his wife, on Curtin street. Mr. Smith has been in the west since the beginning of the year, with but one three day visit

-Included among a party of Clarence residents who were in Bellefonte last Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sefchik and little daughter. Mr. Sefehik made a brief visit at the Watchman office then accompanied his wife on a tour of the stores to do some shopping.

-Dr. David Dale drove to Tyrone, Sunday, to meet Dr. John Sebring, who was returning home from Philadelphia where he had been a surgical patient at the Medico-Chi hospital for the past month. ing and Hunting club, limited, against Dr. Sebring is now recovering very rapidly from his operation.

-Mrs. Sudie Wooden returned to Bellefonte a week ago to be with Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Harper, at the Smith home for the summer. Mrs. Wooden had spent the winter with her nieces, Mrs. Seixas, at Germantown, and Mrs. James Harris, at Reading, and at Atlantic City.

-Col. James A. McClain, who is ill at the home of Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler, first visit here in many years and, naturdrove over from Spangler, Saturday, with the club was formed and Mr. Decker Mrs McClain, and after arriving here went or whom he recognized. to the barber shop where he collapsed. Although better, Mr. McClain is still confined to bed. Their daughter, Emily Eliza, joined her parents here and will be with them until they return to Spangler. -Mrs. Jerome Harper expects to leave today to join Mr. Harper in Philadelphia. Easter. Next week they will go to New York, where Mr. Harper will attend the convention of laundry men, and from there Mrs. Harper will go back to Germantown for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. of a big family connection. Seixas, before returning to Bellefonte.

-T. Clayton Brown and Mrs. Charles Noll were guests of Harry J. Walkey on a drive to Clearfield, Thursday afternoon of last week, when Mr. Brown had a preliminary examination by Dr. Waterworth. As a driving guest of Al Rishel Mr. Brown went over again, Monday, to enter the Clearfield hospital, to be under the observation of Dr. Waterworth for an indefinite

-The Rev. Reed O. Steely spent the forepart of the week in Williamsport, having gone down to be with Mrs. Steely during an operation performed on her there is now again in Williamsport for further

-Mrs. W. W. Waddle, who left Bellefonte more than a year ago to make her home on the Pacific coast, and lived at Los Angeles since her arrival there, has now gone to Pasadena, where she will be indefinitely with Mrs. W. F. Reeder, whose health has been considerably impaired of late. Mrs. Reeder was a former resident of meeting next year will be held in Al- Bellefonte and very well known throughout the State of Pennsylvania, both through her own prominence and that of Col. Reeder.

-William Wood, of Osceola Mills, was Bellefonte visitor on Tuesday; having come over to look after a little business for an estate he is settling. Mr. Wood is one of the school directors of his precinct and takes an active interest in school affairs as is the case in everything else he engages to do. Just now he is trying to provide the Wheat structive reading for the scholars.

-Mrs. H. L. Betz came in from Canton. Ohio, Tuesday, to spend Easter with her brother and his wife. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cassidy, at the Garman house.

-Mrs. Van Camp, who had been in Bellefonte for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Evey at their home on east Bishop street, returned to Pittsburgh, Wednesday. -Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Maloy and their children left, yesterday, on a drive to their former home in Philadelphia, expecting to spend several days visiting there with relatives.

-George Wolfe, nearing eighty and looking and acting not more than sixty, came down from Altoona yesterday for the funeral of his sister-in-law, the late Mrs. William Wolfe, of this place.

-Mr. and Mrs. M. Ward Fleming were here within the week on one of their frequent visits with Mr. Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Fleming, having driven over to spend Sunday in Bellefonte.

-Edwin Bullock and his family recently came here from Akron, Ohio, expecting to be in Bellefonte permanently. Mr. Bullock is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Bullock and has lived in Akron for twelve years.

-The Easter guests at the John M. Keichline home will be Miss Helen Shollenberger, of Philadelphia, a class-mate of Miss Anne Keichline, at Cornell, and Miss Daise Keichline, who will be home from Galeton for her spring vacation visit.

-Mr. and Mrs. William Sager, of north Thomas St., with their three children and Mrs. Robert Hassinger as a guest, motored to York last Saturday and remained until Monday for a visit with Mrs. Sager's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jurey, of York.

downe, have been in Bellefonte since the early part of the week, here for an Easter visit with their relatives in Centre county. During their stay they have been house guests of Mrs. Noll's mother, Mrs. Martin Fauble. -J. I. Young, wire chief for the local

-Mr. and Mrs. Irvin O. Noll, of Lands-

Bell telephone, and Mrs. Young, entertained the latter's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, of Danville, last Sunday. The Clarks drove here for a days visit at the Young home on north Thomas street.

-Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Griffith left, Thursday morning, for their spring visit to Philadelphia, Camden and Wildwood, N. J. Their plans are for remaining east until the last of May and during that time they will be guests of Mrs. Griffith's children in the above mentioned places.

-'Squire Irvin J. Dreese, of Lemont, was Bellefonte visitor Monday and when he dropped in here we expected to get a lot more political dope, but there was nothing doing. Irv. says "the young fellows are not interested in politics and we old fellows who are are nearly all dead." -Frank M. Fisher, of Centre Hall, and J. E. Gentzel, of Spring township, were among the members of an entire board of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co., which held their regular meeting in Bellefonte, Monday. Business was the object of a call from both Mr. Fisher and Mr. Gentzel at this office.

-On account of the very critical condition of Mrs. Isaac Thomas, Elmer E. Sager, her son-in-law, came up from Philadelphia, Sunday, to join Mrs. Sager, who had been with her mother at the Thomas home on north Thomas street for three months. Mr. Sager will remain in Belle fonte until Mrs. Sager returns to Philadelphia

-Mrs. William Rowe, who has been under the care of Dr. Waterworth for some time, went over to Clearfield, Monday, to enter the hospital as a surgical patient, but owing to the out-break of an epidemic of grip among the nurses she, with a number of other patients, was obliged to return home until the hospital could resume its normal running condition.

-Lee Adams, who has been with the General Electric Co., at Schenectady, since resigning as an instructor at State in 1900, was in Bellefonte Wednesday. Mr. Adams is a son of the late County Commissioner and Mrs. Frank Adams, former residents of Milesburg and Bellefonte. It was his ally, he found few persons who knew him

-Mrs. Ben Schreyer and her son Allen, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schreyer, of Philadelphia, and Guy Burley, of Atlantic City, drove to Bellefonte, Thursday of last week, with Mrs. Allen S. Garman, of Tyrone, to spend several hours with Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. and William to go from there to Atlantic City to spend Garman, cousins of the Schreyer men. Mrs. Schreyer's husband, the late Ben Schreyer, spent all his boyhood life in Bellefonte and the party was here and at Tyrone visiting for a short time with the few relatives left

> -With the heavy frosts and freezing weather we had Sunday and Monday morning everybody will naturally be wondering if the early fruit may have been damaged. It is hardly likely, however, that such has been the case. There has really not been sufficient warm weather to start the buds, even on early fruit trees, so that there is not much likelihood that any damage has been done.

Easter Food Sale.

St. John's Episcopal church, Bellefonte, will hold a bake sale on Saturday, April 16, beginning at 10 a. m. Cakes, pies, rolls, bread, candies, etc., will be offered.

The sale will be held in the music store in the Richelieu theatre building.

Quality Flowers.

Mrs. Geo. A. Miller will hold her tenth annual flower sale, at Miller's hardware, on Allegheny street, beginning Wednesday, April 13. Only the choicest of potted plants and cut flowers will be offered. 72-13-3t

Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. Buckwheat