WEEK AHEAD PROGRAM

Friday and Saturday

(This Week)

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

The Telephone Girl

WITH

"MADGE BELLAMY", "WARNER BAXTER", "HOLBROOK BLINN", "MAY ALLISON", "LAWRENCE", "LAWRENCE GRAY"
A melodrama with a political campaign as a background. A woman's reputation hangs in the balance and a young telephone girl outwits the schemes at the crucial moment. A show worth while plugging in on.
Also a screaming two reel comedy called "Fast Company" with the famous "Our Gang" crowd.
Matinee Saturday at 2 P. M.
Admission 15 and 35c.

Monday and Tuesday

FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS

"LEWIS STONE" and "BARBARA BEDFORD" IN

The Notorious Lady

Her first lover he killed—the second he saved from death—why? She had sacrificed her life to save him and he called her "fickle"! Would she ever know how that word tore his heart? Would he ever learn that she was innocent? You have to come and see the great love drama.
Also a first run two reel Mack Sennett Comedy called "Pass The Dumps" in.
Only 10 and 25c.

Wednesday Only

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

Afraid to Love

WITH

"FLORENCE VIDOR", "OLIVE BROOK", "NORMA TREVOR"

Here is a riotous comedy concerning a beautiful girl who made herself up as a dowd and married a man to save him from a scheming adventuress. A scrambled honeymoon that comes out right after any number of hilarious misadventures.
Also Fox News, and Screen Snapshots. 10 and 25c.

Thurs., Friday & Satur.

Cecil de Mille's Corp. Present
"WM BOYD" and "ELINOR FAIR" IN

THE YANKEE CLIPPER

Meeting on the High Seas! A fierce battle of strong men for life, honor, flag, country, love. A thrilling race for glory and the command of the supremacy of America on the ocean. An epochal picture of the era when romance and adventure rode high in the rigging of the white-winged grey hounds of the deep—teeming with romance, action and the thrill of mighty achievements. We personally guarantee it to give 100 per cent. satisfaction.
Also a great two reel comedy called "Are Brunettes Safe?"
Matinee Saturday Only.
Admission 15 and 35c.

Moose Theatre

Where You Always See a Good Show

THIS FRIDAY & SATUR.

"TOM MIX" and "TONY" IN

"THE LAST TRAIL"

Taken from Zane Grey's great story of the plains. Tom's latest and greatest starring picture and he sure is red hot. Also a good two reel comedy and Pathe Review.
10 and 25c.

NEXT FRIDAY & SATUR.

"KEN MAYNARD" IN

SOMEWHERE IN SONORA

Another great western show with the peer of all western stars. When it comes to western pictures you will find nothing but the best at the Moose.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Lester Corl and wife are visiting friends in Milton.
Spring colds and the grip are quite prevalent in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Charles spent last week on a trip to Oswego, N. Y.

Mrs. Cyrus Goss has been confined to her room several weeks with illness.

Miss Charlotte Hoy went over to Lewistown, last Friday, for a week's visit.

Miss Nannie Bailey, who has been quite ill for some time, is now improving slowly.

Prof. S. C. Miller, of Chester, was here on a business trip the latter end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carper, of Millbrook, spent Easter at the W. E. Johnson home.

Farmer C. M. Trostle lost one of his best horses last week, the second one to die this spring.

The many friends of Mrs. Harry N. Walker will be glad to know that she has somewhat recovered from a stroke of paralysis sustained at her home at Bellwood several weeks ago.

The first meeting of the P. O. of A. was held in the Odd Fellows hall last Friday evening. Twenty-one members took the first degree and officers were elected. Another meeting will be held this evening when the list of membership is expected to total thirty-five.

Easter Sunday was a big day for the congregation of the Presbyterian church, the occasion being the rededication services at 7:30 p. m. The church was filled to standing room. Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, the pastor, was in charge, with Mrs. Kirkpatrick presiding at the organ. Rev. W. K. Harnish, a former pastor, led the devotional exercises which were followed with a duet by Mrs. Sarah Goodhart and Mrs. Potter. Rev. Harnish preached the sermon, which was beautiful and impressive. The church was originally built in 1856-7, and has since been used as a house of worship ever since. It has now been thoroughly overhauled and mostly refurbished and presents the appearance of a new church. The members of the congregation are to be commended for their interest in the Lord's work.
