

To Correspondents .- No communications published unless accompanied by the real ame of the writer.

Terms of Subscription .--- Until further notice at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance -$1.50

Paid before expiration of year - 1.75 - -2.00 Paid after expiration of year Published weekly, every Friday morning.

Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter.

It is important that the publisher be nodiscontinued. In all such cases the sub- First National bank. In 1903 he was ecribtion must be paid up to date of cancellation

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

PRESIDENT JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce that W. Harrison Walker, of Bellefonte, is a can-didate for nomination on the Democratic ticket for the office of President Judge of the courts of Centre county; subject to the decision of the voters of the county as ex-pressed at the primaries to be held on September 20th, 1927.

To Democratic Voters of Centre County :---I am a candidate for the office of judge of your courts, subject to your decision at the primarics September 20, 1927. building of Philipsburg but never be-came entangled in any enterprise that

Sincerely yours, W. D. ZERBY

BIG DAIRY EVENTS AT STATE COLLEGE.

A gathering that will rival dairy meetings and exhibits at the annual Farm Show at Harrisburg will take place this week-end at the Pennsylvania State College. It will be the occasion of the annual spring meeting of the Pennsylvania Dairymens' Association on Friday evening, May 6, and the student's annual dairy exposition on Saturday closing with a banquet that evening.

President Ralph D. Hetzel, of the college, will address the gatherings on both Friday and Saturday evenings. It will be his first appearance before a farm audience since the tutions in Central Pennsylvania and opening convocation at the Harrisburg show last winter.

State Secretary of Agriculture C. G. Jordan is to attend and speak at the dairy student banquet at the clear, cool mind and warm heart were Centre Hills Country club on Satur- such valuable assets to Philipsburg day evening. Profesor E. B. Fitts, and her people that memory will ever dairy extension specialist at the col- write his name, side by side, with lege, is president of the Dairymen's Association and will have charge of town that is in mourning today. the Friday evening meeting. Other Watts, of the Penn State agricultural around the world; M. T. Phillips,

FRYBERGER .-- John Edgar Fryberger, a native of Bellefonte and president of the First National bank, her home in Tyrone, last Thursday of Philipsburg, passed away at 8:30 had not been in good health for some weeks. years but the day previous to his death was apparently no worse than usual. But on Friday night he showed evidences of weakening and gradually grew worse until the end. He was a son of Capt. Charles T.

months and 23 days old. When a boy the family moved to Philipsburg and auxiliaries in connection therewith. years of theatrical work throughout it was there he was educated in the In ordering change of address always public schools. When but seventeen daughter and three sons, Pauline, wellknown Victor recording artists given the old as well as the new address. years old, or in 1887, he accepted a Guyer, Donald and Richard, all at and more recently have been making clerkship in the old Moshannon Bank- home. She also leaves the following numbers for the Vitaphone. They tified when a subscriber wishes the paper ing company which later became the brothers and sisters :-- Mrs. Edward invade musical comedy for the first promoted to the position of cashier and on the retirement of L. W. Nuttall as president, in 1925, Mr. Fryberger was chosen to succeed him. In Boob, of Snow Shoe Intersection. a great measure he possessed the two particular traits which make for a good, safe bank official, sound business judgment and proper discrimina- Piper, burial being made in the Stov- Penn State boys, will appear at the tion. He was a man whose opinion was frequently sought in financial dealings and always cheerfully given.

every movement that meant the upcame entangled in any enterprise that previous. might in any way compromise his position in the bank.

been elected a vestryman. He was a member of Moshannon Lodge No. 391 Free and Accepted Masons, the Knights Templar, Williamsport Consinstory and Zembo Shrine. He belonged to the Philipsburg club, the Philipsburg Country club and the Reliance Fire company, serving as treasurer of the Fireman's Relief Association.

Philipsburg has suffered a very great loss in the passing of Mr. Fryberger. From boyhood he had lived there, known her people, her civic and business life and was helpfully inter-Harris, of Tyrone; William, of Bald business life and was helpfully interested in it all. Though sheer force of character he won his way to the head of one of the strongest banking insti- Mrs. Emma Derr, of Juniata. to the esteem and confidence of everyone who came in contact with him. His was not a forward nature. He shrank from ostentation, but his those who have done most for the On June 27th, 1900, he married tre county, eighty-nine years ago. are initial letters on the revolver. speakers will include Dean R. L. Miss Caroline Chase McGaffey who He was active in the ministry for The body was found just east of the watts, of the Penn State agricultural school, who will tell of dairy condi-tions he found on his recent trin tions he found on his recent trip student at Princeton; Misses Mary on Saturday, burial being made at ing an investigation. president of the State Federation of both students at Smith College, in Louise and Alice Nuttall Fryberger, Canoe Creek, Blair county. father, Capt. C. T. Fryberger; his step-mother and the following step- erly of Pine Grove Mills, died in the brothers and sisters; Mahlon Fyberger, of Detroit, Mich.; William, of Baltimore, Md., on Sunday, as the Cleveland, Ohio; Philip, of German- result of a broken back sustained in town, Pa.; Mrs. W. D. Twitmire, of an automobile accident near York, on Lancaster; Mrs. A. F. Tydeman, of LaGrange, Ill.; and Mrs. Fred Hoffer, wife of Raymond R. Fisher, died at afternoon, as the result of a cerebral o'clock last Saturday morning. He abscess, following an illness of four mous concert and dance orchestra,

Elizabeth Boob and was born at next week, in what will make their Eagleville on November 12th, 1890, farewell tour previous to their beginhence was in her 37th year. On Sep-tember 28th, 1908, she married Mr. musical comedy "East Side-West Fisher, at Milesburg, and for a num- Side," under the direction of Charles and Mary Brachbill Fryberger and ber of years past they have made B. Dillingham. was born in Bellefonte on February their home in Tyrone. She was a They have recently concluded a six-7th, 1870, hence was 56 years, 2 member of the First Methodist weeks concert and dance tour of players. church, of that place, and the various Pennsylvania cities, following four

> Bavarr, Snow Shoe Intersection; Mrs. time in the new Dillingham produc-Oscar Aikey, of Milesburg; Clair tion. Boob, of Northwood; Mrs. John Livingston, Lock Haven, and Miss Grace

> The remains were taken to Unionville where funeral services were held tion-including Fred Waring, direcon Sunday afternoon by Rev. M. C. tor, and Tom Waring, soloist-are er cemeterv.

In addition to his banking activi-ties he took an active interest in Tuesday evening at his home in management of the theatre has an-Brownsville as the result of a stroke nounced that a new picture program of paralysis sustained about a week and an entire change in the musical

He was a son of Frank and Sarah day of the engagement. Ingram and was born on Dix Run | There are eighteen musicians in the He was a member of St. Paul's about 38 years ago. As a young man organization and the programs they Episcopal church and had recently he entered the employ of the Penn- have arranged will include a wide sylvania Railroad company as freight variety of musical entertainment. brakeman and was employed on the Those who have previously heard Tyrone division. He eventually was them will realize what a treat there is promoted to conductor and several in store for local music lovers next held in Philadelphia, on Monday. He ville.

> wife having been Miss Anna Watson, varied that it is possible to hear them of Union township. Following her over and over again, each time with death he married a woman of added enjoyment. Brownsville who survives. He also leaves five children and the following brothers and sister: George Ingram, Eagle; Mrs. Nora Pringle and Mrs. Teressa McDonnell, of Derry, and

> The body will be brought to Centre county on the Pennsylvania-Lehigh last Saturday afternoon when the train this afternoon for burial in the body of an unidentified man was Alexander cemetery, near Unionville. found in the woods near Hairy John's

> MATTERN.-Rev. William H. Mat- and there was also a bullet hole in tern, a retired minister of the United the head. A revolver was found lying Brethren church, died at his home in beside the body. No papers were Altoona, on Wednesday of last week, found in the pockets of the man's as the result of general debility. He clothing and the only thing that may was born in Halfmoon township, Cen- eventually help with his identification

FISHER .- Mrs. Elsie May Fisher, WARING'S PENNSYLVANIANS IN FAREWELL CONCERT.

"Warings' Pennsylvanians," fawill play a two-day engagement at She was a daughter of Daniel and the Cathaum theatre, State College,

Surviving her are her husband, one the entire United States. They are

The popular "Pennsylvanians," well-known to local theatre-goers and of much local interest because a number of the members of the organiza-Cathaum on Monday and Tesday, afternoon and evening. Matinees will INGRAM .- Alexander Ingram, a start at two o'clock and the evening numbers will take place on the second years ago was transferred to Browns- week, for "Warings" are recognized as one of the best orchestras in the He was twice married, his first United States. Their repertoire is so

-Sift Vici Kid oxfords for wo-

park. The man's throat had been cut 72-18-3t

Convoy Will Show Epic Naval Battles

Dorothy Mackaill, First National featured player, and Lawrence Gray have the leads in "Convoy," the current feature, which will be shown at the Scenic next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with an impressive supporting cast headed by Lowell Sherman, Buster Collier, Ian Keith, Gail Kane, and Vincent Serrano. Eddie Gribbon and Jack Ackroyd have the comedy roles with Ione Holmes also featured in the list of supporting

The picture is based on a short story by John Tainter Foote, and deals with the Navy's service in the world war.

Several exteriors for the film were made in Washington and during the stay in the capital, the picture unit was presented to President Coolidge. Dealing also with the German system of espionage in the United States in 1917, the special made by Robert Kane for First National release will bid for front rank in the epics of the Great War, on the strength of some remarkable sequences of the Navy's history making role in the conflict. The Navy Department co-operated with Mr. Kane on the picture and several sensational scenes of actual naval battles have been included. Prices, 15 and 35 cents.

-Men's tan calf dress shoes, $2.85, Yeager's Tiny Boot Shop. 18-1t

-Thomes D. Geohegan, of Washington, D. C., was elected a director of the Bellefonte Central R. R., at the annual meeting of the company succeeds Theodore M. Etting on the board.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MENDMENT OF CHARTER.—In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Pa., No. 175 May Term, A

Man Found with Throat Cut. The usually quiet town of Wood-ward had somewhat of a sensation last Saturday afternoon when the body of an unidentified man was found in the woods near Hairy John's Far County, Pa., No. 175 May Term, 1927. Notice is hereby given that an applica-tion will be made to the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Pa., in the above Pleas of Centre County, Pa., in the above the matter on the seventh day of June, 1927. At ten o'clock A. M., or as soon there-proval and granting of an amendment to the charter of THE UNIVERSITY CLUB, as set forth in the petition therefor filed in the said Court to the above mentioned umber and term, agreeably to the pro-visions of the "Corporation Act of 1874", and its supplements. BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD

BLANCHARD & BLANCHARD,

JAMES S. WOODS, Solicitor; Huntingdon, Pa.

by Ault-William-

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT AN Application will be made to the Governor of the State of Penn-sylvania, on Tuesday, the 31st day of May, 1927, under the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, en-titled "An Act to provide for the Incor-porations," approved April 29th, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation to be called "EAGLE SUPPLY COMPANY", the char-acter and object of which is conducting a general mercantile retail business, and for these purposes to have, possess, and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privienjoy all the rights, benefits and privi-leges of the said Act of Assembly and its supplements.

FOR WOMEN

son and sold at Yeager's for $4.85

YEAGER'S TINY BOOT SHOP

BELLEFONTE, PA

Manufactured

Guaranteed to give comfort.

The Scenic

THEATRE

Dorothy Mackaill Lowell Sherman

Dewey captured Manilla, Farragut took Mobile, Paul Jones swept the sea and 'Convoy' will take America by storm. Dreadnaught of Drama, a Gem of the Occan. Battle formation, clear the decks, the big guns roar for its our own U. S. Navy in actual combat, fighting its great-est battle over there. Taken from "The Song of the Dragon." Admission, 15 and 35 cents.

Agricultural Organizations; and A. Massachusetts. He also leaves his A. Borland, head of the dairy department.

Students are busy preparing 42 head of college dairy cattle for the exposition which will be conducted all day Saturday. Judging, fitting and showing prizes will be awarded.

Mississippi Relief Contributions Still of Philipsburg. Needed.

Notwithstanding the fact that Bellefonte has exceeded its original by Rev. F. T. Eastment, burial being quota for Mississippi relief by over there hundred dollars contributions will still be received, as the President has doubled the quota and placed Bellefonte's share at $2,000. Charles home at Yarnell on April 21st, as the McCurdy is the treasurer of the re- result of dropsy and heart trouble. lief fund and all contributions should She was a daughter of George and home. be made to him or the county chair- Catherine Mann and was born in Curman of the Red Cross, Hard P. Har- tin township on May 12th, 1867, hence ris. For the benefit of the fund a was in her 60th year. In November, ing to press with this edition. picture will be shown at the Scenic 1884, she married William Quay who Thursday evening of next week, and died several months ago, but survivprobably one the week after at the ing her are the following children: Richelieu.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company Maude Wilson, of Friendship, N. Y.; announces that it will carry free all Mrs. R. J. Schenck, of Renovo; Mrs. contributions of clothing, material, L. W. Brungard and Mrs. F. R. Heichetc., made for the benefit of the flood el, of Howard, and Miss Charlotte, sufferers.

Boy's Week to be Observed Here.

At a meeting held on Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. temporary the Summit Hill cemetery, in Curtin plans were laid to promote a Boy's township, on April 24th. Week in Bellefonte. The program for the week May 29 to June 4th, is now being arranged and will be announced next week. There will be Wednesday of last week, as the reevents for the boys and girls during sult of tuberculosis, believed to have in Shiloh cemetery. the entire week. Some of the events been caused by being gassed while to be put on are a marble champion- serving in France during the world ship, track and field meet, horseshoe pitching championship, hopscotch and Eliza Gunsallus and was born in jacks championships, relay race, and many other interesting events. Watch though most of his life had been next week's papers for the full de- spent in Altoona. He served during tails.

-The annual commencement exercises of the Centre County hospital vived by his father, eight brothers training school for nurses will be held and sisters and many Centre county in the court house, on Friday even- relatives. Burial was made in Rose ing, May 13, at 8:15 o'clock. A re- Hill cemetery, Altoona, on Sunday ception at the nurse's home will fol- afternoon. low. The class comprises only three young ladies this year. They are the Misses Helen Julia Bohn, of Centre his home in Long Beach, California, Hall; Margaret Reynolds Longwell, of on April 15, after an illness of con-Bellefonte, R. F. D., and Bessie Mc-Donald, of Curwensville.

long enough to make indoor entertainment enjoyable and there is one visits back home. place in Bellefonte where you can always find something worthwhile, and the following brothers and sisters: A. that the Scenic. The best motion pic- G. Osmer, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miles, tures made can be seen there any of Oberlin, Ohio; Clarence, of Clevemovie fan the Scenic is the place to liams and Mrs. A. Hibler, of Bellego. Be a regular and see them all. fonte.

Funeral services were held at St. at 3:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

QUAY .-- Mrs. Clara Belle Quay, widow of William Quay, died at her A. E. Quay, of Hornell, N. Y.; Mrs. at home She also leaves two brothers and one sister, George Mann, of Howard; Mrs. Catherine Chapman, of Media, and Charles Mann, of Green Bank, W. Va. Burial was made in GUNSALLUS .- Harry W. Gunsallus died at his home in Altoona, on ty. Her husband and eight children war. He was a son of Jerry and Snow Shoe twenty-seven years ago, the world war as a member of Company G, and was in the thick of the action all along the front. He is sur-

OSMER .- John J. Osmer died at siderable duration.

He was the eldest son of the late E. G. and Mrs. L. A. Osmer and was -The evenings are still cool and born in this county. He went west when a boy and had made only rare

He is survived by his widow and night in the week, and if you are a land, and Charles, Mrs. Della Wil- ready to occupy.

Bergstresser, of Hanover, but forminfirmary of the Lutheran home, in April 6th, when he and his family were on their way home from a motor trip to Philadelphia. He was 40 years old and is survived by his wife Paul's Episcopal church, Philipsburg, and eleven children. Burial was made at Hanover yesterday.

> FULTON .- Mrs. Fulton, widow of the late William Fulton, died very suddenly at her home in Milesburg at midnight Wednesday.

> She is survived by her son Claude and daughter, Miss Elvina, both at

Arrangements for the funeral had not been completed at the time of go-

HUNT .- Dr. Thomas F. Hunt, who was dean of the school of agriculture at the Pennsylvania State College from 1907 to 1912, and has since been located at the University of California, died on board ship as he was returning to California from attending the Pan-Pacific conference in Hawaii. He was 65 years old and leaves a wife, one son and a daughter.

WILLIAMS .- Mrs. Anna R. Williams, wife of John W. Williams, died at her home in Altoona last Thursday, following an illness of some weeks. She was sixty-four years old and was born at Lemont, Centre counsurvive. Burial was made on Monday

-Mrs. Elizabeth Olewine, of Bellefonte, vice president of the student mothers' association, at State College, will preside at the meeting to be held there tomorrow morning in connection with the annual Mothers' day exercises. Preparations are being made at the College to entertain upwards of one thousand mothers of students.

For Sale .- A Lasfargue player piano, mahogony case, 36 records. Inquire of Miss Emily Parker, corner of Spring and Howard St. Bellefonte. 72-15-2t

-California privet, the best hedge plant. Will close out the supply at $6.00 per hundred and 7 cts. for a single plant. Half Moon Gar-72-18-1t dens.

-The A. J. Cook family arrived in Bellefonte the early part of the week and have been at the Brockerhoff house while getting their home

-Subscribe for the Watchman.

For Sale.- A gray baby stroller, in BERGSTRESSER.-Rev. Ralph H. perfect condition. Inquire of Mrs. 72-18-4t Edward Houser, telephone No. 323-W

> -Included in the class of seven Constant Comfort Shoes young women who will graduate at the Lock Haven hospital training school for nurses, on May 25th, are three from Centre county, Miss Miriam Johnson and Miss Mary Waite, of Blanchard, and Miss LaFern Stover, of Millheim.

OPENING Saturday May 7th

OUR POLICY.

This store will be conducted with the established purpose of offering you the finest merchandise on a correct representation. There will be a complete line of Drugs and Medicines and an unusually extensive assortment of the Finest Toilet Articles and sundries.

We will have a newly equipped Soda Fountain with the latest and most sanitary service.

PRESCRIPTIONS ACCURATELY COMPOUNDED.

When your prescription bears our label you may feel assured that it has been compounded exactly as prescribed by your physician and that it contains drugs of the finest obtainable quality.

Souvenirs for All

GROSS PHARMACY

Phone 214 Quality	Successors to The Mott Drug			Prompt Delivery
	-	Service	-	Satisfaction
~~~~~~	$\sim$		~~~

Here is a rip-roaring western epic. A rousing romance of the Oklahoma Oif Rush, with Monty Blue at his rough-rid-ing best. It sure is good. Also a great two reel Comedy. Think of it, 10 and 25c.

Giant Specials on the Way

Billie Dove and Ben Lyon in "The Yender Hour" Rod La Roque and Dolores Del Rio in 'Resurrection''. Charley Murray and George Sidney in 'Lost at the Front". John Barrymore in "Don Juan" Sid Chaplin in "The Better 'Ole' Norma Talmadge in "Camille" Edmund Lowe in "What Price Glory" John Barrymore in 'When a Man Loves'

'Beau Geste' and 'Old Ironsides' are advertised for showing at another theatre in town but don't let them kid you. Paramount made them both and you know we will run them. However, we don't mind their advertising these shows for us. It. all helps.