William Fetters in Jail Charged with Stealing Eighty Dollars.

On Saturday night Herman Hareu and several kindred spirits went to the home of William Fetters, on Half-moon hill, for a friendly game of poker. In due course of time Hareu, who is a native of Finland, succumbed in the arms Morpheus and laid down on a cot to sleep. When he awoke eight $10 bills had disappeared from his pocket. The result was he had Fetters arrested on a charge of stealing his money.

At a hearing before Squire Woodring, on Tuesday morning, George Ansinen, who was also present at the party, testified that while Hareu was asleep on the cot Fetters sat down alongside of him and he saw him stick his hand in Hareu's pocket and pull out something and put it in his own pocket. While he did not see the money he heard what he believed was the rustle of paper bills as the transfer was being made. Fetters was held in $700 bail for trial at court, and in lieu of a bond was sent to jail.

If there is anything in cool, wet weather being ideal for grass there will surely be a big hay crop this year.

Results of Hospital Drive to Date.

Gregg township is the only place in Centre county that so far has reported a one hundred per cent. contribution in the drive being made for funds for the Centre County hospital. They report a total of 141 voters in the district and returned $141. Unless the people generally contribute more liberally than they have so far done the drive will fall far short of the amount of money anticipated and needed. In fact as it looks now the total will not exceed $3,000.

This is based on reports made at a meeting of the hospital Auxiliary on Tuesday afternoon. At that time Bellefonte reported a little over $1,200; Unionville $90; Centre Hall $81; Snow Shoe $58; Millheim in excess of $100; Ferguson township $275; State College over $300; Halfmoon $108; Gregg township $141, and Coleville $75; a total of almost $2500. When the campaign was started it was the hope that ten thousand dollars could be raised by dollar contributions, but the fund so far is only one-fourth that amount.
