AARONSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese and small son, and a party of friends from Danville, motored to town, spending the day with Mrs. Reese's mother, Mrs. A. J. Irey.

George Kreighbaum, his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Eddy and small son Robert, of Avis, were guests, Sunday, at the C. S. Bower home.

Mrs. George Bright has been a pa-tient in the Geissinger hospital, awaiting an operation for goiter. We trust she may soon recover her former good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Witmeyer and two daughters of Akron, Ohio, were supper guests, Tuesday, of Mr. Witmeyer's grand-mother, Mrs. Jacob Harter, on North 2nd St.

Mrs. Chas. Mowery, who has for some weeks been a surgical patient in the Lewistown hospital, arrived home, Saturday. We wish for her a speedy recovery to health.

Mrs. W. M. Stover, son Eugene and family, of this place, and Mrs. Stov-er's daughter, Mrs. Mary Guisewite, of Akron, left for Niagara Falls and Akron, where they will leave Mrs. Guisewite.

Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Griesing returned home Friday from Lancaster, where they attended the summer school of theology being conducted by the Eastern Theological Seminary of the Reformed church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grove and two small daughters, of Williamsport, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Auman and three children, of Youngstown, Ohio, have been guests of their mother, Mrs. J. G. Eisenhauer, on Main St.

While on a business trip to Altoona J. P. Condo, when coming down stairs at his hotel, had a bad fall, his heel having caught throwing him. His right hand was pretty badly hurt and a nasty cut on his head which required several stitches. We trust he may soon fully recover from the injuries and shock

Bright Orwig, of Allentown, spent several days recently with his par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Orwig. Olive Orwig returned home on Friday from Hartleton, where she visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Orwig. Another son, Kermit Orwig, who some time ago went to Akron, where he expects to find employment, on Thursday had his tonsils removed and some attention given one of his ears. May he soon recover his full vigor.

Mrs. Luther Kurtz, with her son Newton, son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Glover, of Mifflinburg, and another daughter, Mrs. Hare, of Altoona, wife of Judge Thomas Hare, of Blair county, spent a day recently in Centre county on a motor trip. While in town they were guests of Mrs. T. E. Stover. Friday evening the same party, including Mrs. Stov-er and Mrs. C. G. Bright, all had supper at the homestead tea room conducted by Mrs. John M. Otto.

Presenting the Better Class Photoplays Dreese, of Beaver Springs, were

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. H. N. Walker, of Bellwood, is visiting friends hereabouts. Warren Bailey had a bad fall, last veek, fracturing several ribs.

Mrs. W. E. Johnson is visiting relatives in the Buckeye State.

Tiring of city life in Altoona Guy Kocher has returned to the farm.

Frank Smith and two sons, Murray and Paul, are visiting friends in town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noll and son Charles spent last week at Cresson. Mrs. Frank Krebs, a patient in the Huntingdon hospital, is now able to sit up. Miss Grace Melvin is spending the with relatives on Long summer

Island. Miss Margaret Candy, of Pittsvisiting Centre county burgh, is friends.

Members of Washington Grange will picnic in the Holmes grove tonorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, of Spruce Creek, spent the Sabbath at the J. W. Sunday home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Meek are visitng their daughter, Mrs. Frank Hill, at Nanticoke.

Miss Verna Peters, of Bellefonte, spent the week-end with her brother, Elwood Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tate, of Pittsburgh, are visiting Mrs. A. J. Tate, at State College.

George O'Bryan and two children, of Axe Mann, spent Sunday here with mother O'Bryan.

Miss Miriam Isenberg, who has been very ill for several weeks, is now on the way to recovery.

The many friends of L. D. Fye will be glad to know that he is improving in the Clearfield hospital.

C. D. Moore, of Millheim, is making farewell visits here before leaving on an extended western trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wieland are visiting relatives at Mount Union and fishing for bass on the Juniata. The Mt. Union Niggers met defeat at the hands of our ball team, last Saturday, by the score of 21 to 3. Edward Witmer ran a pitchfork in his arm a few days ago while making hay and will be off duty for some days. Rev. J. O. C. McCracken, of Jun-iata, is on the old home farm helping with the haymaking and harvest. Mrs. J. Herman Kauzer, of Tionesta, spent a portion of Saturday with friends here, enroute to Harrisburg. Miss Edith Spahr, a nurse in the Roaring Springs hospital, is a guest of the Burwell family, in this place. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller, with Mr. Keller's mother, of Milesburg, were entertained at the J. H. Miller nome on Sunday.

A card received here announced the safe arrival of Rev. W. C. Dunlap and party, in London, last Saturday, after rough sea voyage.

While cutting wheat with a bind-er, the other day Harry McCormick cut both front legs of a faun that was in hiding in the wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stamm, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. James Sunday callers on friends in town.

Mrs. Rambo are twin daughters of Mrs. Gibbs.

Mr. M. L. Emerick returned to his home, early last week, after treatment in the Centre County hospital over a period of five weeks, during which time he partly regained his normal condition.

T. L. Moore drove to Lewisburg where he spent the Fourth with his son, Rev. J. F. Moore, who is located there, and his wife and daughter, who had been visting there, for a month. On his return home he was accompanied by his wife and daughter.

The families of D. A. Boozer, J. S. Boozer, William Bradford, Frank Fisher, and J. V. Goodhart, and Miss Verna Rowe and Mrs. Frank Bradford; and Rev. and Mrs. Roy Corman of Sunbury, enjoyed a few days mo-tor trip to Washington, D. C., Vir-ginia and West Virginia.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Dorothy Lonbarger is visitng at Salona.

Ralph Rockey recently purchased a new Ĥudson car. Miss Louise Fisher visited friends at State College, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. John Stover, of Altoona, were visitors in town on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxey, of Al-toona, spent the week-end with their parents.

Mrs. Lida Leech, of Shingletown, spent Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stuart.

Miss Madeline Markle has returned home after a two week's visit with friends in Tyrone.

Messrs Albert Meyer and Wm. R. Ishler, of Pittsburgh, visited with their parents recently.

Miss Daisy Rowe is spending her vacation with friends in Altoona, Wiliamsport and Harrisburg.

Miss Marjorie Slagle, of Altoona, was an over Sunday guest of her grandfather, D. W. Meyer.

A number of neighbors and friends were invited to spend the evening at the home of Charles Corl, in honor of Mrs. Corl's birthday anniversary.

Misses Alberta and Marjorie Mc-Girk, of Altoona, returned to their home on Saturday after a week's visit with their aunt, Miss Anna Dale.

Perry Sweet, a student in a busi-ness school at Warren, arrived in town Saturday, to spend the remainder of his vacation among friends and relatives.

Dr. W. W. Woods, accompanied by his mother and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Go-heen, motored to Bradford and enjoyed a week's visit at the home of Dr. Thos. Glenn and wife.

Mrs. Mildred Gingrich Smeltzer and Mrs. Anna Houser Dreiblibeis, June brides, were honor guests at a party given by the young ladies of the Reformed Sunday School, members of the class of the honor guests, on Tuesday evening.

We Are Busy Beyond Belief pense is very low we are in position to In spite of all the fake sales going on. give you this great value for $4.85. Values That Count Not Bluff. GARMAN'S

LUMBER? W.R. Shope Lumber Co. Lumber, Sash, Doors, Millwork and Roofing

Oh, Yes! Call Bellefonte 432

Each Evening at 6:15

WEEK AHEAD PROGRAM

THIS FRIDAY & SATUR.

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

"ED WYNN" AND "CHESTER CONKLIN"

IN

"RUBBER HEELS"

Ed Wynn is one of the cleverest comics on the stage today and-he's equally as funny in pictures. The star of "The Ed Wynn Carnival," "The Perfect Fool" and "The Grab Bag" is known from coast to coast. His trick inventions are as famous as ham's eggs or pork's beans. A distinct per-sonality Wynn's first film looks like a certain "smash"

Also a great Mack Sennett Two Reel Comedy with Mae Busch called "Love 'Em and Weep".

Reduced Admission of 10 and 25c Only

NEXT MON. & TUES.

A treat for both sex. "MRS. WALLACE REID" AND

"THEODORE VON ELTZ" IN

"THE RED KIMONO"

This picture comes here very highly recommended having been acclaimed by press and public as a screen gem. Dr. Daniel J. Dweer, the noted lec-turer on Social Hygiene will appear at each performance. MONDAY NIGHT-FOR LADIES

ONLY TUESDAY NIGHT-FOR MEN ONLY

NO CHILDREN ADMITTED.

Also "Our Gang" Comedy called "TIRED BUSINESS MAN".

Admission 35c.

WEDNES. & THURS.

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

"LOIS MORAN" AND "DONALD KEITH'

IN

"THE WHIRLWIND OF

The tender story of a beautiful girl who is seized by the consuming fer-vor of a Great Love only to have it shattered and reach a happy conclu-ing hackground. sion against the World War's sweep-ing background.

Also Fox News and Screen Snapshots.

10 and 25c

Grace Barto, of Guyer, George Dreiblebis, of State College, and Ralph Thomas, of the Branch, are all surgical patients in the Centre County hosvital.

G. W. Ward motored in from Pittsburgh, during the week, for a fort-nights stay. He will be joined later by his brother, H. B. Ward for a trip to Gettysburg.

Misses Jean and Josephine Dunlap, daughters of Randall H. Dunlap, of Cherry Tree, are making their sum-mer visit with their grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Dunlap.

The venerable J. D. Neidigh spent last week in Juniata with his four daughters, Mrs. John Lytle, Mrs. John Huey, Mrs. Curtin Cronemiller and Mrs. Clyde Fishburn.

After a month's visit in the Sunflower State Mrs. Ada Krebs has re-turned home. Mrs. Edna Ward and Mrs. Annie Saucerman continued their journey to the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Maggie Meek was an arrival, Saturday, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Susan Goss, where she will spend some time. Though past 85 years of age she still enjoys good health.

The reopening of the Bethel Re-formed church took place on Sunday evening. Rev. W. W. Moyer, the pastor, was in charge, and the sermon was preached by Rev. Fred Griesing.

CENTRE HALL.

Miss Edith Sankey is spending a few days in our midst.

Miss Grace Smith was a visitor in State College on Wednesday of last week

Miss Edith Boozer is spending her vacation at the home of her father, D. A. Boozer.

A son, Taylor McWilliams, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter on the first of July.

Measles have broken out among the children again, and a number of quarantine signs are visible.

Miss Pauline Renner, of Lewisburg, is enjoying her vacation at the home of Mrs. Emma Emerick.

"Jack" Smiths are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter, the second in the family, on Sunday, July 3rd.

Mrs. Ciena Beichler, of Philadelphia, spent week before last at the Bartholomew home. She is spending this week at the T. M. Gramley home, in Millheim.

Mrs. Roxanna Robertson, who has been visiting her father, B. D. Bris-

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reesman and son Andy, of Camden, and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Rambo, and Mrs. Josephine Gibbs of Thorofare, N. J., spent their Fourth of July vacation at the Centre Hall hotel. Mrs. Reesman and

V¹⁰LIN INSTRUCTION.—A teacher in violin instruction will be in Belie-fonte one day each week. Begin-ners and advanced pupils accepted. Write to C. A. Bollinger care of this office or to 634 West 15th. St., Tyrone, Pa. 72-25-6t

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testa-mentary on the estate of Jeremiah Donovan, late of Spring township Centre county, Penna, having been grant-ed the undersigned all parties knowing themselves indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate pay-ment of said indebtedness and those hav-ing claims should present them, properly authenticated, for payment, to FRANK M. DONOVAN, Executor. Gettig and Bower, Atty. 72-24-6t

Gettig and Bower, Atty. 72-24-6t

EXECUTRIXS NOTICE.—Letters testa-EXECUTRIXS NOTICE.—Letters testa-mentary upon the estate of Louise G. Noonan, late of Bellefonte borough, de-ceased, having been granted to the un-dersigned, all persons knowing themselves indebted to same are requested to make prompt payment, and those having claims against said estate must present them properly antheuticated, for settlement. MARGARET GERALDINE NOONAN, GERALDINE MARY NOONAN, Executrixes.

Executrixes, Bellefonte, Pa. 72-27-6t. W. Harrison Walker, Attorney.

EALED PROPOSALS.—Sealed bids will be accepted by the Commis-sioners of Centre County at their office, up to and including July 19th, 1927, for the cleaning and painting of the ceil-ngs, walls and wood work of the interior of the Court House. These bids will be on file in the Commis-sioner's office after July 9th. The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids. CENTRE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS Attest.— Unclude 20.07 th

Attest S. Claude Herr, Clerk. 72-27-1t

A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Estate of Laura Johnson, late of Haines Township, deceased. Letters of Administration upon the above named Estate having been granted by the Register of Wills for Centre county. Pa., to the undersigned, all persons having claims or demands against the said Estate are requested to make them known, and all persons indebted to the said decendent are requested to make payment thereof without delay, to DOSEPH C. JOHNSON.

JOSEPH C. JOHNSON, Blanchard & Blanchard, Administrator. Attorneys, 2029 East Wilmot Street, Bellefonte, Pa. Frankford, Philadelphia, 72-25-6t

More of the Dainty Dress Goods, now so much in vogue. Count on us for the latest in everything besides at a most reasonable price.

Monday wash day, Tuesday you iron. Ladies, washing and ironing can be made a pleasure in place of drudgery if you will wear Ault-Williamson Constant Com-fort Shoes. Only $4.85 per pair.

Yeager's Tiny Boot Shop

72-28-3t

STATE COLLEGE, PA. Matinees daily at 2 Evenings starting at 6 First Showing at these Prices Children 25 c. Adults 50 c. Come to the "Watchman" office for High Class Job work. BELLEFONTE Dr. Dwyer lectures at 7-30 and 9.30 p.m. Mon.-Tues., July 25,-26 Mrs. Wallace Reid's Startling Story of the Sisterhood of Sorrow The "Red Kimono What Becomes of the Girls who Disappear Are They Always wilfully Wicked Can They Ever Come Back Fathers, Mothers, You Must See This Picture The Most Sensational, Startling, Amazing Film Production of the Year. A Colossal Drama of Social Conditions the World Over. Stop and Think. Who's Next? Your Daughter or Mine? EXTRA ADDED ATTRACTION Personal appearance at each performance of the World's most Noted Lecturer on Social Hygiene, Dr. Daniel J. Dwyer Educational Director of the American Institute of Social Hygiene, in Startling Talks showing the Results of Ignorance and False Modesty Tuesday for Men ONLY

GARMAN'S

BELLEFONTE PA