CHERRY .- Mrs. Annie M. Cherry, wife of J. Theodore Cherry, died quite suddenly at her home on north Thomas street, at 3.30 a. m., on Monday, as the result of an attack of acute indigestion. Just two weeks ago today Mr. and Mrs. Cherry returned from a seven weeks visit with their daughter, Mrs. Jacob Levi, at Birmingham, Ala. Shortly after their return Mrs. Cherry suffered a bad attack of indigestion, and was quite ill for a day or two. Monday morning's attack occurred about 3 o'clock and was so severe she passed away half an hour later.

She was a daughter of James H. and Margaret Ann Houck and was born at East Stroudsburg on February 4th, 1854, hence had reached the age of 73 years, 7 months and 15 days. Her mother died when she was ten years old and she then went to Philadelphia to make her home with an aunt. As a young woman she frequently visited friends in Sunbury and it was on one of her visits that she met Mr. Cherry. They were married fifty-one years on the first of last May and the first few years of their married life were spent in Sunbury. When the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad was completed through to Bellefonte in 1885 Mr. Cherry's run as an engineer made it most convenient for him to live in Bellefonte and the family moved here and located on Valentine street. A few years later they moved to north Thomas street where

In addition to her husband Mrs Cherry is survived by the following children: Mrs. H. W. Dawson, of Philadelphia; John, of Montgomery and his twin brother Samuel, of Philadelphia; Mrs. J. L. Nichols, of Aspinwall; Mrs. Jacob Levi, of Birmingham, Ala., and Melvin, of Bellefonte A son, William Cherry, was killed in an accident on the Lewisburg railroad in 1904, and two daughters died in childhood. She also leaves one broth er, James Houck, of East Strouds they have lived ever since.

burg. Funeral services were held at her late home at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning by Rev. Homer C. Knox burial being made in the Union ceme

11 KLING.-Elmer E. Kling, a native of Marion township and a retired em ployee of the Pennsylvania railroad died quite suddenly on Saturday evening, while sitting in a chair at hi home in altoona, as the result of a heat stroke sustained while watching a ball game at the Cricket field, Al toona, during the railroad track and field meet.

Mr. Kling was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Kling, and was born in Marion township, Centre county fifty-six years ago. As a young man he went to Altoona and entered the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad where he worked until his retirement He was a member of the Fiftl Avenue Methodist church and the Men's Bible class.

His wife has been dead for some years but surviving him are three children, Foster E. and E. S. Kling of Altoona, and Ethel, at home. H also leaves four sisters and four brothers, namely: Mrs. George Ertley Mrs. Earl Yearick, Mrs. Walter Year ick, Mrs. Blanchard Mattern, J. N. Calvin, O. W. and Samuel Kling, a of Altoona.

Funeral services were held at hi late home on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. C. Wesley Wasson, after which burial was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery, Altoona.

WILLIAMS .- Aquilla S. Williams for many years a resident of Wort township, died at the Philipsburg State hospital, last Friday, following a brief illness with a complication of diseases. He was born near Port Matilda almost 71 years ago and lived there until about ten years ago when he went to Pittsburgh. About a month ago he went to Philipsburg on a visit and while there was taken ill. He was a farmer most of his life. He was a member of the Baptist church at Port Matilda and the Knights of the Golden Eagle.

Mr. Williams was twice married, his Turner, by whom two children sur- hence had reached the age of 58 years, and Samuel T. Williams, of Hollidayswife he married Miss Laura Neil, who also preceded her husband to the grave leaving three children, Robert Williams, of Port Matilda; Mrs. George Sharp, of East McKeesport, and Miss Jennie, of Pittsburgh. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Margaret Spotts, of Port Matilda.

Gray home on Monday afternoon, the remains being taken to Port Matilda Walla Walla, Wash. for burial in the Black Oak cemetery.
