

Thank You!

I wish to express my sincere N. J. thanks to those whose support and influence made possible my nomination for Judge of the Courts of Centre County on the 20th instant. To those who opposed me I wish also to extend thanks for the courteous treatment accorded me at all immaturity. times during the campaign. With the friendly elimination of the pri- Lock Haven. maries now past, we look ahead to united party success on November Respectfully yours, 8th.

M. WARD FLEMING.

Marriage Licenses.

T. Max Hall, of Neff's Mills, and Helen L. Bechdel, of Blanchard. Samuel M. Roberts and Helen I. Foore, both of Bellefonte.

Carl Olmes and Beatrice Myers both of Altoona. Reuben A. Winters, of Millheim, and Kathryn E. Ripka, of Spring Mills.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

F OR SALE—at a bargain, the finest home in the town of Howard, with all conveniences, large garage and other out buildings. Easy terms to the right buyer. Inquire of JOHN S. GINTER. 72-38-4t Tyrone, Pa.

$ 200.00 TAKES IT.—A 1918, seven pas-senger Cadillac touring, run only 12,000 miles. Body, chassis and en-gine in perfect condition, front fenders badly battered. Top like new. Write or inquire of Geo. R. Meek, Bellefonte, Pa. 72-38-tf trip to Frackville. Mrs. Emma Bathgate is visiting relatives in Altoona.

PINE GROVE MENTION. James Miller is off on a two weeks

Harold Foster is away on a business trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Curley Randolph is visiting her parents at Julian.

D. S. Slagle and son Albert spent the week-end in Altoona.

J. F. Gibbons is back home after a three month's stay in Chicago.

Charles Witmer made a business trip to Huntingdon on Friday.

Miss Lesta Scott is away on a visit in Harrisburg and Atlantic City.

Basil Frank, wife and family spent Sunday with relatives at Guyer. Samuel and Park Homan are confined to their homes with illness. Jack frost was plainly in evidence several mornings during the week. Mrs. W. B. Nissley was recently admitted to the Clearfield hospital. Mrs. Roy Ort, of Lewistown, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Smith.

W. C. Frank and wife have returned from a ten day's visit at Ocean City, Raymond Smith, of Port Matilda, spent Sunday at the M. C. Wieland home.

Mrs. Luther Krebs has gone to the Clearfield hospital for the removal of a goitre.

Many farmers are converting their corn crop into ensilage because of its

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Struble were week-end visitors with friends in Samuel Markle, of State College, spent Sunday with his son and family on Fairbrook. J. H. Bottorf has recovered from his recent illness and is able to be around as usual.

Warren Bailey is spending a few days in Altoona, looking after some business matters.

H. H. Goss and wife, of State Col-lege, were callers on old friends on Sunday afternoon.

A. W. McWilliams, of Fairbrook, spent Sunday with his brother John, on east Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lytle spent the latter end of the week with friends in Bellwood and Altoona.

Dale Slagle has returned from a lengthy visit in Altoona in order to resume his school work.

Mrs. Daniel Weaver had the misfortune to fall, recently, and fracture the bones in her left arm. Mrs. James Waddle has about recovered from her recent illness and is able to be around again. Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Moyer were entertained at dinner, on Sunday, at the J. E. McWilliams home. Eugene Irwin, of Pennsylvania Furnace, will have another sale of choice milk cows tomorrow.

twenty acre field of tubers. Three rows across the field yielded fifty bushels. He has been offered a dollar a bushel for his crop but refused it. Chappie expects to attend a potato growers' convention. in Vermont, next week, and during his absence his brother, J. Will Kepler will have charge of the potato raising.

A group of members of P. O. of A. camp No. 307, motored to Tyrone, last Friday evening, and attended a ban-quet given by Camp 47. In the party were M. C. Wieland, LeRoy Bloom, Mary Port, Sara Wieland, Gertie Davis, Effle Johnson, Carrie Wieland, Melvin and Viola Barto, Sarah Par-Melvin and Viola Barto, Sarah Parsons, John Donley, Viola and Thelma Rossman. Mrs. Carrie Wieland was spokeswoman for the crowd.

Loretta Foster, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. V. Foster, of State College, was walking along the streets of that town with a girl friend, something struck her in one eye, causing a very serious injury. She was taken to a specialist in Philadelphia, who holds out no hope of saving the sight, though it may not be necessary to remove the eyeball. Where the object came from that hit her is still a mystery as no one was nearby at the time

RUNVILLE

Frank Lucas spent Sunday at the William Lucas home, at Monument. Lloyd Smoyer, of Bellefonte, was Sunday guest of Mrs. Alice Rodgers. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Poorman and son spent Sunday with friends in Altoona. Mrs. Erma Furl and daughter Betty, of Harrisburg, are here for a visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lucas, of Plum Grove, were Sunday visitors at the William Walker home.

Samuel and Edward Furl, of Williamsport, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Furl. Clarence Johnson and Miss Fietta

Shaffer, of Bellefonte, were guests at the Frank Bennett home on Sunday. A chicken and waffle supper will be served at the John Furl home tomorrow (Saturday) evening, for the bene-fit of the U. B. church. Everybody invited. Mr. and Mrs. Sidman Homan and children, Junior and Paul, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolford, of Tyrone, visited the E. S. Bennett home on Sunday.

PLEASANT GAP.

J. T. Nolls entertained a car load of friends from Bangor, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ruth Faust and two children, of Bellefonte, spent Friday afternoon at J. T. Nolls.

Camp 229 P. O. of A. entertained thirty members of the Woodward and Aaronsburg camps on Monday evening.

Jean E Noll, who has been visiting for a month with her parents.

Trane house and a frame building used as a Garage. THE SECOND THEREOF, BEGIN-NING at a point 4 feet East of Northeast corner of a Blacksmith Shop located on Railroad Street, said Shop being on the Northeast corner of these premises; thence in a Southern direction for 84 feet to a telephone post on corner of lands of Pot-ter Hoy Hardware Company; thence in a Northwestern direction along property of said Potter Hoy Hardware Company for 108 feet and 2 inches to a point; thence Southeast along property of Potter Hoy Hardware Company for 8 feet 6 inches to a voint five feet six inches North of post on corner of property of Potter Hoy Hardware Company and that of M. D. Kittell; thence West 75 feet 6 inches along centre line of Alley said line being 5½ feet from and parallel to Gar-age building on adjoining property to a post on land of Pennsylvania Railroad

Last Wednesday evening as Miss

The Scenic THEATRE

Where the Better-Class Photoplays are Show Each Evening at 6.15 o'clock.

Miss Crouse at the Robert Morton

Week--Ahead Program

This Friday and Saturday PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

'Swim Girl, Swim'

BEBE DANIELS GERTRUDE EDERLE JAMES HALL

JAMES HALL Never has Miss Daniels had a story any better suited to her talents than any better suited to her talents than this. "The Campus Flirt," you'll the home coming at the old Stone have to admit, was hard to beat but "Swim, Girl, Swim" will run fair to top even that. It is the same type mile a minute. And you know just what Miss Daniels can do with such a vehicle. It is just a "natural."

Also Paramount's Famous News Reel and a great Two Reel Comedy. Think of it, 10 and 25c.

Monday and Tuesday FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS

MILTON SILLS and MOLLY O'DAY The plot has been founded on the cory "Belated Evidence" by Elliot story "Belated White Springs.

Also a Paramount Two Reel Comedy and Paramount News Reel Only 10 and 25 cents.

Wednesday and Thursday FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS "The Poor Nut"

JACK MULHALL CHARLEY MURRAY

He was a speed demon on the track—but awfully slow with the girls. His idea of a good time was bug flew into his cup! A comedy-drama chasing butterflies until the loving of the college slow-poke who dreamed he was a great hero lover and then made his dreams come true!

Also Fox News and Screen Snapshots.

Only 10 and 25 cents.

Prof. and Mrs. Lenhart, State College, were guests of the Dannley sisters, on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. David Ewing spent several days last week with the J. M. Ewing family, at Lewistown. Keep in mind the Southern Chautau-qua which will open tomorrow and continue until Tuesday evening.

Samuel and John Moffat, two State College youngsters, spent the week-end at the home of their uncle, John Gilliland, at Baileyville.

H. B. Ward and daughter Lizzie were among the recent excursionists from Philadelphia to make a brief visit with Centre county friends.

After spending the summer at the McCracken home in the Glades Elmer Bloom and family have taken up their residence with Mrs. Charles Smith. J. F. Musser and family, Mac Fry and family and Mrs. Etta Corl and family spent Sunday at the Modock hunting camp, in the Seven mountains.

Rev. Harry N. Walker, of Bellwood, top even that. It is the same type of story—the college campus, color, laughs and situations that roll off a mile a minute. And you know just

Mrs. W. Scott Bailey, of Altoona, spent the latter end of the week with her father, William Glenn, who re-cently suffered a partial stroke of paralysis but is now improving.

Hon. J. W. Kepler is erecting an up-to-date dairy building adjoining his barn, and also rearranging the stabling for his blooded herd of cows. M. C. Wieland has the contract.

William Dennison had three of his fine Guernsey herd of dairy cows die of bloat during the week. Quite a HardBoiled Haggerty of bloat during the work lost one or more cows from the same trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest McGirk, of Altoona, spent Sunday with their aunt Alice McGirk, at the C. M. Dale home, who left on Monday to return to her home at Lake Worth, Florida. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Anna Dale, who will spend the winter in the South.

There will be big doin's at the Andy Lytle home next Thursday, the 29th. On that day the ex-mascot of the State College football team, in the days when every man in College knew everybody else, will be 80 years old, and his friends are planning to cele-brate the event. Mr. Lytle, by the way, has spent all his life within a radius of a mile and a half of his birth place.

In glancing over the list of surviving Civil war veterans in Centre couning Civil war veterans in Centre coun-ty, recently published in the Watch-man, we noticed the absence of the following names: William Eckley, 45th P. V., Central City; A. T. Boggs, 45th P. V, and W. B. Grafmyer, 7th cavalry, both of Milesburg; George Krape, 12th cavalry, Oak Hall, and Andrew Imell, Co. B, 171st P. V., Spring Mills. Spring Mills.

Our potato wizard, A. C. Kepler, has started work on raising his

Mrs. J. T. Noll, left on Tuesday for a visit in Woodlawn, Beaver county, after which she will visit in Chattanooga, Tennessee, going back to Phil-adelphia November 1st to again take up her duties as a supervisor in the Polyclinic hospital.

Yesterday, being Frances Willard day, several ladies of the Pleasant Gap W. C. T. U. were assigned to the various schools to talk and recite to the pupils. Mrs. Wade Evey and Mrs. Jack Noll visited the higher grades, Mrs. W. D. Herman and Mrs. Mill-ward at the Pike; Mrs. Harry Hile and Mrs. Hockenberry at Horntown.

Our officers are approachable and we urge you to come in, get acquainted, and start an account with us. We will endeavor to show our appreciation by rendering efficient service. H. G. Work, Cashier Reed O. Steely, President W. C. Smeltzer, Vice President W. M. Bottorf, Secretary Directors : J. P. Eckle S. M. Nissley Dr. S. S. McCormick Van S. Jodon A. F. Hockman Reed O. Steely Dr. F. K. White E. F. Garman Jacob H. Weaver, Jr. W. M. Bottorf W. C. Smeltzer W. H. Brouse ill open for business Saturday, October 1, 1927. We will be 9.00 a.m. to 3.00 p.m., except Sundays and Holidays.

Bellefonte, Penna.

We heartily invite the public to visit our institution, and inspect

We ask for a proportionate share of your business and pledge to our facilities. Appropriate souvenirs will be given to each customer

the community faithful and intelligent consideration of every financial problem brought to us, and freely place at its disposal our every facility on the opening day.

open from 9.00 a.m. to 9.00 p.m. on that day. Thereafter

we will observe the banking hours of the community, viz :

age building on adjoining property to Thomas Street: thence North 38 feet to a post on land of Pennsylvania Railroad Company; thence East 137 feet 5 inches along property of Pennsylvania Railroad Co. to the point, the place of beginning: Thereon erected a Blacksmith Shop and frame building formerly used as Carriage Shop, and a third building erected under loage

Shop, and a time building cretter inter-lease. THEMS OF SALE: 10% cash on day of Sale; 40% on confirmation and delivery of deed, and the remainder of 50% payable one year after date of confirmation, same to be secured by Bond and Mortgage on the premises at 6%; Provided, the pur-chaser may pay cash in full upon delivery of deed. GEORGE R. MEEK, Executor.

GEORGE R. MEEK, Executor, Bellefonte,Pa. HOUSE-HOLD GOODS.

At the same time and place all the house-hold goods of Decedent, which in-clude some very excellent pieces of early American furniture, will be offered at pub-tic curry. 72-36-3t

Jewelers . . . Bellefonte, Penna.

Sensible Suit at a Sensible Price

A

All the latest Weaves and Colors. Tailored to your individual measure and style at these popular prices-

$25.00 to $35.00

Stickler & Koons 8 West Bishop Street Bellefonte, Penna. Where the Better-Tailored

Clothes Come From