THE CINEMIRACLE MARVEL MOVIE

"Metropolis"

"Metropolis" pictures a city a thousand years from now. The rich people live on top of the earth while the workers' homes are deep down in the bowels. The master mind of Metropolis has a soulless automaton made and tells it to preach contentment to the workmen. Instead, it advises them to leave their machines and revolt.

Remember, this attraction is wholly different from anything you have ever seen. If you never expect to see another film don't miss this one.

Also Paramount News Reel and a screaming two-reel Comedy.

Matinee Monday at 2 p. m.

Admission 15 and 35 cts.

Wednesday and Thursday

FIRST NATIONAL PRESENTS

"The Stolen Bride"

WITH

BILLIE DOVE

AND

LOYD HUGHES

She had promised to wait for him—now she was the bride of another! Was he too poor? Was she too rich? Must love be sacrificed on the altar of aristocracy? The law of royalty said "Yes." He said "No"—and risked his life to steal her from the man everybody feared!

Could you imagine a sweeter picture to go along with "Metropolis" in our 100% week's program? We couldn't.

Also Fox News and Screen Snap-Shots.

Admission 15 and 35c

LEWIS STONE PRISCILLA BONNER

AND E. J. RATCLIFFE LILYAN TASHMAN

New York and the Ritz-rych on New Year's Eve—gaily—glitter—gladness—gold-diggers and a boy who fell hard for them all. But into the turmoil stepped the prince of head-waiters. And the hand that ushered others into the naughty night life was thrust out to protect this boy from it! WHY?

This attraction will conclude our 100% program for the week. Look it over and if you don't think it is 100% good call us on the phone.

Also a two-reel Comedy and Paramount News Reel.

Admission 15 and 35 cts.
