

PINE GROVE MILLS.

Robert W. Reed is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Myrtle Ash is visiting Miss Elsie Ash, at Benton, Pa.

S. A. Homan has recovered from his recent serious illness.

Mrs. Daniel H. Ewing spent last week with relatives in Philadelphia.

Dr. G. C. Glenn and wife spent the latter end of the week in Philadelphia.

Fred Bottorf Goss and wife spent Sunday with friends in Indiana, Pa.

Comrade D. W. Miller was able to go out on a short auto drive, on Sunday.

Mrs. S. E. Goss, of Reading, spent Sunday with grandmother Goss, in this place.

W. K. Goss and wife, of Tyrone, spent the latter end of the week with Mr. Goss' mother.

William Dennis Jr., has returned from a Philadelphia hospital much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. William Murtorff spent the latter end of the week in eastern Pennsylvania.

Samuel Markle, of State College, spent Sunday with his son, W. S. Markle, near Meek's church.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dreese, of Beaver Springs, spent the latter end of the week as guests at the Howard Goss home.

Samuel Grove is having the interior of his home remodeled. George E. Meyers has the job in hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sager, of Lewistown, spent the early part of the week among relatives here.

Miss Maud Hoy departed, last Thursday, for a visit with her cousin, H. V. Hoy and family, in Philadelphia.

Robert Everhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Everhart, is an appendicitis patient in the Centre County hospital.

George Bell and wife, of Spruce Creek, and L. D. Musser and wife, of Pine Grove Mills, spent Sunday with friends at McAlevy's Fort.

Mrs. Maggie Meek, who has been quite ill in Altoona, is now on a fair way to recovery. She is a native of this section and is past 86 years of age.

Frank Krebs spent Sunday in Tyrone with his wife, who has been taking care of her niece, Mrs. Henry, during her illness. She is now improving.

Mrs. Kate Shawley, of Harrisburg, and her son George, of Altoona, spent Sunday at the M. C. Wieland home. This was Mrs. Shawley's first visit here in eighteen years.

A Hallowe'en celebration will be given in the I. O. O. F. hall tomorrow evening. Prizes will be awarded for best costumes. The proceeds will go to the Methodist church.

Mrs. W. H. Fry Jr., who spent the past two months among friends in the New England States and Pennsylvania, departed for her home in Tacoma, Wash., last Friday.

Ralph Thomas, a member of the crack pitching staff of the New York Americans, with his wife, is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Thomas, on the Branch.

Raymond Davis and family flitted from Water Street to State College, last Friday. Their son Elmer was taken to the Centre County hospital on Monday and underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Dr. Harry Patterson, a graduate of State College and who has been connected with the University of Maryland for forty years, is entitled to our sincere thanks for courtesies shown during a brief visit to that institution last week. Dr. DeVoe Meade, also a graduate of Penn State, is in charge of the animal husbandry department at the University. Mrs. Meade was, prior to her marriage, Miss Florence Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, and we are indebted to her for an auto ride through the charming countryside.

Rev. William Gemmill, a retired minister who now makes his home with his son, Dr. Gemmill, at Bellefonte, Pa., spent a portion of last week here looking up old friends and school mates at the old Pine Grove Academy. Rev. Gemmill enlisted for service in the Civil war as a member of Company D, 148th regiment, in August, 1862. He was seriously wounded at the battle of Chancellorsville in May, 1863, and was later discharged from service. He is now 88 years old and still enjoys good health.
