

Bellefonte, Pa., November 18, 1927.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

-Up to this time there has been no improvement in the condition of Mrs. Reed O. Steely, who is critically ill in the Williamsport hospital.

-The union Thanksgiving services will be held his year in the Bellefonte Methodist church, ten to eleven o'clock in the morning. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. William Snyder, of the United Brethren

-Any school or individual desiring plaster casts for use as models in charcoal drawing, or designs for use in painting, can have same by communicating or calling at this office. The casts include two blocks, a hand, a foot and two heads.

-At a recent meeting of the board of Bishops of the Methodist church, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, of Detroit, Mich., was assigned to preside at the annual sessions of the Central Pennsylvania Methodist conference which will be held in Altoona the week of March 14th, 1928.

-Health officer George E. Glenn, on Saturday morning, placed a quarantine card on the Taylor property, on Spring street, in which H. C. Mc-Kinley, 36 years old, a Pennsylvania railroad brakeman, is ill with diphtheria. The case is a little unusual. as it is very seldom that a person of that age contracts that disease.

-Mr. and Mrs. Forrest L. Bullock called off their public sale yesterday and cancelled their trip to the Pacific ed from any member of the executive coast. Almost at the last minute certain contingencies developed which influenced them to a decision to remain in Bellefonte, hence they will contine to make their home here, and Mr. Bullock will operate his shop, as us-

-Harry A. Rossman was the guest of honor at a wild turkey dinner given at the home of his parents. Mr. and Mrs. McClellan Rossman, in Tyrone, on the evening of November 9th. The elder Rossman, on election day, bagged a fifteen pound bird and the dinner was in the nature of a celebration of his son's victory at the polls on election day.

-Thirty or more ladies invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Rossman, on Bishop street, last Thursday evening, and gave a farewell party to Mrs. Rossman, prior to the family's leaving Bellefonte for their newhome in Milesburg. Mr. Rossman, several months ago, bought the Harry A. Mann home, in Milesburg, and moved his family there on Wednesday of this week.

renew her subscription Mrs. E. E. Bucher says: "I have seen a reader of this jaunt to Paris and the invasion of the Watchman ever since I was a France by the American soldiers in young girl and that is quite a long 1918 when they went as friendly emtime ago, as I am now seventy-six issaries in the great world war. He years old. I was born and raised in told of the happy welcome extended Pine Grove Mills and the Watchman the visiting Legionaires and payed comes to me every week as a letter a glowing tribute to Col. Lindbergh's of news from my old home town and flight, which was a topic on which all Centre county. I couldn't think of Frenchmen and French women were doing without it, no matter how you pile it un."

Thanksgiving day but in the mean- tor's meeting will be held next Montime Bellefonte's leading movie show, the Scenic, continues showing the best nedy Johnston, and that Tuesday class of motion pictures put out by the evening, November 29th will be ladies leading studios in the United States night under the direction of the Ocand abroad. Big specials are being tober and November birthday combooked by manager Leo Toner right mittees. along so that patrons of this popular place of amusement are always sure Ellis Keller in Field Work for Travelof seeing the finest and most interesting pictures made. Get the movie habit and be a regular.

Ernest Leach and Clarence Newberry, both of Lock Haven, are in the Centre county jail on a commitment from justice of the peace Cyrus Brungard, of Centre Hall, on the charge of stealing one hundred chickens from William Stoner, of Centre Hall. The chickens were sold to Adam Kline, of Howard, who shipped them to a commission house in Philadelphia. Leach and Newberry admitted their guilt at a hearing before 'Squire Brungard last week. In looking over the district returns of last week's election we made the discovery that the women were Keller returned to Bellefonte and for not as successful in being elected to the next four years taught history office as they were in 1925. In that and social science in the local High year twenty-eight women were can-school. He resigned as an assistant didates for various offices in the different districts, fifteen of whom were elected and thirteen defeated. At last State College in June, 1927, to become Tuesday's election there were twentyfour women candidates, only six of whom were elected and eighteen aefeated. Those elected include two judges of election, one inspector, two township auditors and one school director. -The announcement, last week, of the removal of the district state highway offices from Bellefonte to Clearfield the first of the year created considerable consternation among the various office employees, all of whom realize that if they want to hold their jobs it will mean flitting to are urged to take advantage of it. Clearfield. This will not be a very difficult undertaking for the unmarried members of the force, or those and next Wednesday, the day before married ones who do not own property in Bellefonte, but for those who have homes here it will mean both a mental that festal occasion. and physical wrench of no small proportion. And a state employee's job

Hold Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Centre county Agricultural Extension Association will be held at Bellefonte on Saturday, November 26th. A feature of the program will be a talk by R. G. Bressler, deputy Secretary of Agriculture of the State of Pennsylvania. a dinner at the Y. M. C. A. Other main features will be the business session for men in the main court 10 a. m. and continue until noon.

Free movies in the Scenic theatre show will consist of films from the good shape. Department of Agriculture at Washest to all.

reports of the work conducted by Miss worker for Centre county, and R. C. ber 30th. Blaney, agricultural extension representative. This program will also include the finanical report, election of work for next year.

Miss Madge Brumgart, in charge of the ladies meeting on some phase of home economics. Dinner will be served at the Y. M. C. A. by the Ladies Auxiliary for 50 cents per plate. In order that the necessary guarantee can be made to the dinner committee, it is desirable that as many as can get their tickets before November 23rd, or notify the county agent's office in Bellefonte before that date. Tickets can be securcommittee or from the office at Belle-

Congressman Chase Addressed the

Kiwanians at Tuesday Luncheon. At the weekly luncheon of the Bellefonte Kiwanis club, at the Brockschool athletic association was given a boost by a substantial contribution to the red and blue contest fund. The club also gave partial assurance that either the Odd Fellows band or the American Legion bugle and drum its dignified, well ordered self. corps will be sent with the football team to Lock Haven for the Thanksgiving day game.

Primary ballots were cast for the year, and the result will be announced at next week's luncheon.

Hon. J. Mitchell Chase, Congressman from this district, was introduced as the club members for their activity in Howard writes. various public affairs acceded to a request and gave a glowing account of the American Legion convention in -Writing from Akron, Ohio, to Paris, in September. He painted a ready to enthuse.

Before leaving the luncheon table -Only one more week until announcement was made that a direcday evening at the home of J. Ken-ers Insurance Company.

E. O. Keller, formerly of Bellefonte, has just completed a four weeks training course in life, accident and group insurance at the home office of the Travelers Insurance Company, at Williamsport, Pa. Mr. Keller was born in Bellefonte and his family on both sides have lived here for a number of generations. He was graduated from Pennsylvania State College in 1919, with the B. S. degree in industrial engineering. He served a year and a half in the army during the World War. After graduation from college he spent a number of years in Pittsburgn and Detroit in industrial work and in 1922 Mr. professor in the Department of Engineering Extension at Pennsylvania connected with The Travelers.

The Exchange at the Hat Shop.

The exchange which Miss Cooney is conducting at the Hat Shop is proving quite an advantageous medium for persons having articles for sale. Purchasers have been found for many things that could only have been sold otherwise at considerable investment of time and in advertising.

The exchange serves a very useful purpose in a convenient way and all Remember, that Wednesdays are set aside for the sale of food stuffs Thanksgiving, there will be special foods for the proper celebration of

is one of the kind that has always and steel fabricating plant, near use does a structure take its place a degree of uncertainty attached to it. Pleasant View, for the winter.

Agricultural Extension Association to Bird Season Closed Tuesday, Bear Bellefonte High Defeats Lewistown Season Opened Wednesday.

Tuesday marked the end of this year's hunting season for pheasants and wild turkeys and the kill of both kind of birds was the best in some years. Wild turkeys were fairly plentiful in all mountainous sections and while it is impossible to give an This talk will be in connection with accurate number of the turkeys killed, it is estimated that more than one hundred of the big birds were brought in by fortunate hunters. And, accordroom. The meetings will convene at ing to reports, there are still many classy game with the result that their turkeys in the woods, an ample supply for hatching purposes next spring will be the afternoon program. The providing they weather the winter in

Pheasants, too, were more plentiington, on agriculture and country ful this year than for some time, and life. This program will be of inter- a few hunters were fortunate enough to bag their season's limit, while oth-The business session will consist of ers got enough for a mess. Squirrel and rabbits are still lawful game and Mary Reynolds, home economics will continue in season until Novem-

Bear season opened on Wednesday and several hunting parties went to the woods on the trail of bruin, as a offices for next year and discussion of number of bear have been seen during the past two weeks by small game hunters. It is said that quite a large home economics extension for the specimen has a den in the Black Hawk State of Pennsylvania, will address region, on Nittany mountain, and a party of Centre Hall hunters will attempt to bag the brute.

Paul E. Miller, of the West Penn Power company, went up to Ridgway to join a bear hunting party in the wilds of Elk county, an annual event for the company employees.

It Made One Sick, the Other Well.

The Hon. Clinton N. Howard, who "Law Enforcement," in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, last Monday night, was not a stranger here.

His visit carried us back to 1884 when the electoral vote of the State of New York was the deciding factor as to whether Grover Cleveland or New York University Tied by Penn eroff house on Tuesday, the High James G. Blaine would be the next President of the United States.

It was given to Cleveland and that Friday morning the front page of the Watchman looked more like an ad-

Mr. Howard was in Bellefonte visiting the late Gen. James A. Beaver at nomination of officers for the ensuing writes that he "took one to Beaver sent to his father-in-law, who happened to be one of Pennsylvania's few Democratic Senators and was ill at > Philipsburg Man Commits Suicide on Sunday Night.

> William P. Hudson, a fifty-four year old carpenter of Philipsburg, committed suicide on Sunday night by shooting himself twice, the first time through the left lung and the second time in the forehead. Financial difficulties is assigned as the

> He shot himself with the revolver of his son, Paul Hudson. He went there at six o'clock in the evening and borrowed the son's revolver on the pretense of wanting to shoot a dog that had attacked one of his Mrs. Hudson and children went to a neighbor's Mr. Hudson went to the body when she returned home.

> > Solts' Rheumatism Cure.

James Solt, formerly a resident of Bellefonte and now living in Willumbago, and neuritis.

In the most severe cases, he says, a fect surprising results, as it cures very quickly.

It is applied externally, night and morning, and dissipates pain and soreness almost like magic.

You can get two bottles in a nice box for one dollar if you write James Solt, 726 Main street, South Williamsport, Pa.

Highway Patrol After Bad Brakes.

This week the state highway patrolmen are paying special attention to the brakes on motor cars. Three extra officers are on duty here and all cars are being stopped for inspection.

Both the foot and emergency brakes are being examined and if either are found to be extremely bad the owner is reported. In cases where they are only moderately efficient the owner is given opportunity to have them adjusted and report to the nearest substation for re-examination.

-A handsomely illustrated folder that has reached this desk from Seattle, Washington, shows recent work by the Beezer Brothers, architects of that city and San Francisco. Many striking buildings are shown and it would seem that the former Bellefonte boys are building monuments to themselves all along the Pacific coast. Certainly many of the exhibits exemplify their thought that it is "only when -H. S. Moore has closed his iron the idea of beauty is added to that of High 21 to 0.

Backed by several hundred boosters the Lewistown High school football team came to Bellefonte last Friday for an Armistice day game with Bellefonte High. Because of it being a holiday one of the largest crowds ever assembled on Hughes field was in evidence, and the local fans got the worth of their money, as Bellefonte came off victorious by the score of 21 to 0. The Bellefonte team put up a goal line was never seriously threat-

Early in the game Heverly made the first touchdown for Bellefonte which resulted in a stiffening of the Lewistown defense and there was no more scoring during the first half. In the third period both Crust and Moerschbacher went over for touchdowns. Harnish kicked the three goals which accounted for the 21 Miss Mary H. Linn during her over night points. In the fourth period more stay. At the supper served between the than half of Bellefonte's players were second string men, who were also able to hold the Lewistown team from scoring.

During the game Bellefonte made fifteen first downs to three for Lewistown. Spectacular features of the game were two runs by Heverly, one for 45 yards and one for 40. Crust and Confer also starred for Belle-E. C. Musser, Chas. Kellerman and fonte while the team work of every player was commendable. The Lewistown backfield put up a good game but were outclassed by Bellefonte.

Bellefonte has played six games so far, winning five of them by decisive scores and playing a no score game with Tyrone. So far they have tallied 152 points to 30 against them. Tomorrow afternoon Juniata High will delivered that remarkable lecture on which will be the last game before be their opponents on Hughes field, the contest with Lock Haven on Thanksgiving day, a game the supporters of the Bellefonte High want to see them win.

State.

One of the most spectacular football games ever played on Beaver field, State College, was that on Satvertisement for a poultry farm than urday with the New York University, which resulted in a 13 to 13 tie score. Twelve thousand Pennsylvania day visitors and football fans were in atthe time. He procured two copies of tendance, the crowd including many the Watchman that morning and New York University students who came by train, motor bus and autoand it made him sick." The other he mobile. Included among the number was the University band of forty pieces. Those who saw the game agree that in good, straight football the speaker, and after complimenting the time. "It made him well," Mr. the University team had the edge on Penn State, but the latter displayed more versatility than the New York-

> Two special trains, one with rooters, left Saturday evening for New week, with Mrs. Woodcock before she York but the band, which came up in motor busses, came to Bellefonte and spent the night at the Brockerhoff house. Before leaving for New York on Sunday morning, they played two to be a Thanksgiving guest of her other pieces in front of the court house then and gave a little concert.

in Bellefonte.

All business places in Bellefonte were closed, last Friday, in celebrachildren. Later in the evening, when tion of Armistice day, the ninth anniversary of the ending of the great world war. The program, as publishsecond floor of his home and took his ed in the Watchman last week, was life. Mrs. Hudson found the dead carried out in detail by the Brooks-Doll post of the American Legion. It Legion's new bugle and drum corps and the twenty or more members, in their natty blue uniforms, not only made a splendid appearance but liamsport, has patented a compound played remarkably well and were which he claims will either cure or complimented with vociferous aprelieve many cases of rheumatism, plause by the crowds on the streets. The musicians and the Legion led the parade of High school students to few week's use of his remedy will ef- Hughes field, in the afternoon, for the tifut up there that they come right into football game with Lewistown High

> M. C. Walk, of Port Matilda, Killed in Auto Accident.

Michael C. Walk, an aged retired farmer of Port Matilda, was so badly injured in an automobile accident at Dix, in Bald Eagle valley, on Saturday afternoon, that he died in the Mercy hospital, Altoona, at 1:25 'clock on Sunday morning. Mr. Walk had started to walk to Dix on a visit to his son Frank, and along the way was picked up by a motorist going in the same direction and conveyed to Dix. The driver stopped in front of the son's house, but on the opposite side of the road, and as Mr. Walk got out and started across the road he | Co's plant at Everett. Mrs. Isett had acwas hit by another automobile and knocked down.

He suffered a possible fracture of broken right forearm. The driver of the car stopped and assisted in picking up the injured man, had him put in his car and took him to the hospital in Altoona, but in the excitement attending the accident his name was not learned, though it is believed he is a resident of Jersey Shore.

-Marriage licenses granted at Cumberland, Md., during the week included those to Gerald Franklin Little, of Bellefonte, and Leah Isabelle Wetzler, of Milesburg; and Willis Reynolds Neff, of Curtin, and Dorothy Fay Davidson, of Milesburg.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL

-Mrs. Elsie Rankin Helliwell, who has lived for the past number of years at Atlantic City, working at her profession as a nurse, left there last week to go to the Pacific coast intending to locate in Los

-Mrs. Oscar Wetzel has closed her home on Willowbank street and gone to Ambridge. Pa., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. McCoy. Mrs. McCoy drove in in her car, on Friday, and with her mother left for Ambridge on Monday morning.

-Taking advantage of the Armistice anniversary holiday, last Friday, Miss Mary Rankin, Miss Winifred M. Gates, Miss Anne Straub, Mrs. Jack Guldin and Mrs. O. B. Malin motored over to Huntingdon, in Miss Rankin's car, and spent the day as guests of Mrs. A. B. Suther-

-Miss Helen Kittridge, of New York, who was in Bellefonte Monday, addressing the Sunday school children of the Presbyterian church, was a house guest of two sessions of the meeting, fifty two children were guests of the women of the

-Mrs. Mary K. Harris and her daughter, Mrs. Snyder, were among the excursionists here from Philadelphia, Sunday, having come up for the day with the McDermott family. Mrs. Harris will return on the 27th to spend several weeks in Bellefonte. while John McDermott will go to Phitadelphia on the same day, to be with Mrs. Snyder during Mrs. Harris' visit in Bellefonte.

-George Ruhl, of Altoona, and his daughter, Mrs. Turner, of Port Matilda, were among the Armistice Day visitors to Bellefonte Friday. After spending the greater part of the day calling on some of Mr. Ruhl's friends here, they left to go to Port Matilda, where Mr. Ruhl expected to stop for a time with his two daughters, Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Willis Woodring

-Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shields and heir two children drove over from Reading for the game Saturday, and to spend short time with the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shields and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galbraith, the former of whom accompanied them back to Reading. Mr. and Mrs. Shields expect to visit with their son and his family in Reading for an indefinite time.

-Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eldridge and Mr. and Mrs. Jay McCray, drove up from Cape May, Friday, remaining here until Sunday, to visit with friends in Bellefonte. Mr. Eldridge and Mr. McCray were both former Academy students, while Mrs. Eldridge, as Miss Jessie Laurie, spent all her girlhood life here. This visit, however, was the first she had made back home since the death of her mother, Mrs. William Laurie, fourteen years ago.

-Mrs. John A. Woodcock will leave, Monday, for Philadelphia to enter the Howard hospital, where she will be under the care of eye specialists. She is now closing her house expecting to go from Philadelphia to Scranton, then to Syracuse, her plans bringing her back to Bellefonte late in the winter. Dr Lee B. Woodcock and his cousin, Byron Woodcock, have been here from Scranton for several days of the leaves for Philadelphia.

-Mrs. E. H. B. Callaway, now with her daughter, Mrs. Garber, at Flushing, L. I., will make her first visit home next week. since her arrival from Europe, expecting daughter, Mrs. George B. Thompson. The marched to the Bellefonte Academy Thompson's house party at that time will include their eldest son, John I. Thompson 11, Mrs. Thompson and their young son, who will be here for several days. Armistice Day, Last Friday, Observed Mrs. Callaway's plans for her stay in Bellefonte are indefinite.

-Mrs. Harry Keller closed her house on east Linn street ten days or more ago and went to the Landsy Annex, to be there until leaving Bellefonte for the winter. Mrs Keller will probably go to Lancaster this week, for a visit with Judge William H. Keller and his family, from there to Wyncote, to spend some time with her sisters, Mrs. Canfield and Mrs. Stoddart and from Wyncote, Mrs. Keller will go to New was the first public appearance of the Branswick, N. J., to visit with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keller.

-Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Strayer and their son Melvin motored down to Bellefonte from their home at Warriorsmark, on Tuesday morning. Their mission was one of both business and pleasure and surely the trip on such a day as Tuesday was must have been enjoyable. The Strayers farm near the Gatesburg ridge and Mr. Strayer informed us that deer are so plentheir orchard, near the house, to pasture. However, he says they rarely get a glimpse of a buck.

-Mrs. Thomas Jenks and her niece Elizabeth Labe, came up from Philadelphia, Sunday, Mrs. Jenks for a short visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. George Lose and Mrs. Boyer, while Elizabeth was returning home from a month's stay in Philadelphia. The month spent in the city, Elizabeth devoted to her art work, which includes the making of flowers, favors of all kinds and for all occasions, linen embroideries,, lamp shades, everything in the line of artistic needle work that could be used as gifts.

-Mr. and Mrs. James H. Isett, of Ever ett, spent the week in Bellefonte and at State College. Mr. Isett was here watching the installing of the hydrating plant at the Chemical Lime quarries, in view of having one put in at the Saxon Everett companied him to Centre county to visit a part of the time with friends, she as Miss Mary Young, having been a native the skull, lacerated forehead and a of Ferguson township, where she spent her childhood going from there with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Young, to Everett.

> -Mrs. Edward Moeslein, of New York City, and her two children, Sara Frances and Enid North, arrived in Bellefonte, Sunday, to be here with Mrs. Moeslein's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Undercoffer for the greater part of the winter. Mrs. Moeslein's visit home was made at this time that she might take charge of the Undercoffer house, until Mrs. Undercoffer has recovered sufficiently to look after it herself. Mrs. Undercoffer, who had been a patient in the Centre county hospital since her fall fifteen weeks ago, was discharged from the hospital Monday and is able to walk about on crutches.

-Mrs. Helen Ceader Gamble is here from Cleveland visiting with her many friends

-Mrs. Fred Craft is preparing to leave Fleasant Gap, in anticipation of joining Mr. Craft in Buffalo, N. Y., where he is now located.

-Miss Ethel Dale is back from a month's stay in Philadelphia, and will be in Bellefonte for the present, with her mother, Mrs. Clement Dale.

-Jesse K. Derstine and his two daughters came in from Ambridge Friday, remaining in Bellefonte with Mr. Derstine's mother, Mrs. Wm. Derstine, until Sunday. -Gilbert Waite, of the Jersey Shore bank, spent Armistice day in Bellefonte with his mother, Mrs. George Waite and the family, at the Waite home on Phoenix avenue. -Mrs Charles Kurtz, her daughter Lois and Mrs. A. G. Morris Jr., motored to Wilkes-Barre, Friday, for a visit with Mrs. Kurtz's son, Fred, a student at Wyoming Seminary.

-Harry Hoy, of Wilkinsburg, and Miles Hoy, of Tyrone, were among the Armistice day vacation visitors home, having been here for an over Sunday visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hoy.

-Mrs. Jennie Black, who had been a guest of her sister and niece, Mrs. John Klinger and Miss Ida, at their home on Lamb street, since late summer, returned Wednesday to her home at Emporium. -Mr. and Mrs. Hassel Montgomery are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Don Wallace of Akron, who motored in for a visit of several days with some of Mr. Wallace's friends. Their return trip to Ohio will be made Sunday.

-Miss Elizabeth Hazel has returned to State College from Johnstown, where she had been teaching for fifteen weeks, her senior requirement of practical work at State. Miss Hazel is a daughter of M. F. Hazel, of Bellefonte.

-Charles E. and Miss Winifred M. Gates, and Mrs. Lawrence Jones and little daughter, Frances, motored to Altoona, yesterday, to attend the funeral of their cousin, David Sylvester Musser, who died in that place on Monday.

-Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bullock's guests during the week, included, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Entriken, of Belleville, N. J. and Mrs. Birckhead Rouse, of Baltimore, the women having come to help their parents with the sale, which has now been called

-Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Landsy went down to Philadelphia early in the week to attend the funeral, on Wednesday, of Mrs. Landsy's brother-in-law, M. Geis, who died at his apartments in the Touraine following a week's illness. Mr. Geiss has frequently visited in Bellefonte as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Landsy.

-Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kline, of Bishop street, drove over to Clearfield, on Monday. They went to consult Dr. Waterworth concerning Mrs. Kline's health. Badly infected tensils are thought to be the cause of her recent indisposition so she remained for a few days for observation and the councilman-elect returned home the same evening. -The Hon. John Francies, having just been elected treasurer of Allegheny county, is in retreat at his country place in Benner township. Mr. Francies had only nominal opposition in his campaign, but politics is politics and he took no chances, so that after the excitement of it all the only place that looked really restful was the farm that he keeps "bachelor's hall" on so frequently. -Mrs. Eben Bower has had as guests, this week, her aunt, Mrs. Celia Stambach, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Matthew W. Swabb and the latter's son, Tom, all of Johnstown. In addition to their visit here, they have been with relatives at Aaronsburg and Millheim. Mrs. Swabb is coroner of Cambria county and the only woman in Pennsylvania to hold that position. At the time of Mr. Swabb's death, eighteen months ago, she was appointed to succeed her husband, then elected to the office at the recent election.

-Congressman J. Mitchell Chase, of Clearfield, paid Bellefonte another visit on Tuesday. He came over to speak to Kiwanians during their Tuesday Inneheon. The timeliness of his talk made it specially interesting. It was an interesting and gracefully put story of his visit to Parts with the American Legion and as our Congressman had much to do with getting the Clearfield Legion band abroad as the musical organization for the Pennsylvania contingent his contacts were very close-up and correspondingly illuminative.

Dunlap-Sayler. Announcement was made this week of the marriage, last February, of Harry E. Dunlap and Miss Elizabeth Saylor, both of Bellefonte, the wedding having taken place at the parochial residence of St. John's Catholic church, Rev. Father Downes performing the ceremony. As an extra precaution towards keeping their marriage a secret at the time Mr. Dunlap and Miss Saylor motored to Lock Haven to procure the necessary license. Their attendants at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Carpeneto, who also gave them a wedding dinner.

The announcement this week comes as a climax to Mr. Dunlap's election as sheriff of Centre county by a large majority last week. His bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Saylor and of late has been the office attendant in Dr. Kilpatrick's dental office. They will go to housekeeping in the sheriff's residence adjoining the jail when Mr. Dunlap is sworn into office on January 2nd.

---The Brockerhoff house will serve a special Thanksgiving turkey dinner next Thursday from 12 to 2

-Don't borrow your neighbor's paper to see what is going on. Subscribe for the Watchman.

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. Oate Barley Buckwheat