WEEK AHEAD PROGRAM

This Friday & Saturday

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

BEBE DANIELS

"RICHARD ARLEN", "JOSEPHINE DUNN", "WM. POWELL".

"She's A Sheik"

A joyous comedy-romance in "Beau Geste" setting! She loved a man who loved another but—she was used to having her own way, so she kidnaps him, takes him out into the desert—and tames him! You'll shriek!

Also a fast moving two reel comedy and Fox News Reel.

Admission 10 and 25c Only.

Next Monday Only

WARNER BROS. PRESENT
"DOLORES COSTELLO"

IN

"A Million Bid"

One of the screen's most beautiful women in another screen classic worth seeing. Warner Oland as the villain also plays a great role. Be sure and see it.

Also a good two reel comedy and Paramount News Reel.

Admission 10 and 25c.

Next Tuesday Only

WARNER BROS. PRESENT

"The Black Diamond Express"

WITH

"MONTE BLUE" AND "EDNA MURPHY"

Here comes that great railroad picture you've been waiting for and one which we can recommend to you as a first class production in every way. Take this one in.

Also a good two reel comedy.

And Only 10 and 25c.

Next Wednesday

"Midnight Thieves"

WITH

"HERBERT RAWLINS" and
"GRACE DARMOND"

Scenic Patrons will be more than pleased when they see this high class crook melodrama coming here very highly recommended.

Also Fox News and Screen Snapshots.

Just 10 and 25c Only.

Next Thursday

"LELLIAN RICH" and "PAT O'MALLEY"

IN

"Woman's Law"

Taking the title of this picture and all of us married men know what this picture is but it has a different angle from the usual trend and you are supposed to see it for your own good.

Also a good added attraction.

Just 10 and 25c.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Mrs. Ira Slagle has returned from a three weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pratt, in Philadelphia.

James E. Peters and son, Harry, and J. N. Everts, made a business trip to Bellefonte last Friday.

William H. Farber, one of the old-time ore miners at Scotia, is quite ill at his home at State College.

Fred Randolph, wife and daughter, motored over from Huntingdon and spent Sunday at the St. Elmo.

The condition of James Reed, a patient in the Centre County hospital, is said to be quite serious.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Meyers had as guests, over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Probst, of Jersey Shore.

The men's Bible class of the Presbyterian Sunday school will give the children a treat on Christmas morning.

Mrs. Margaret Henry motored down from Tyrone and spent Saturday with Frank O. Krebs, on Main street.

Mrs. Ed S. Everts, who was severely burned by an electric toaster several weeks ago, is now very much improved.

Charles Johnstonbaugh, a successful Spring township farmer, spent last Thursday with his friend, W. A. Collins.

George Woodring, of Tyrone, was in town bright and early, on Monday morning, taking orders for Christmas candies.

Mrs. Annie H. Saucerman came down from Altoona to attend the institution of the Lodge of Rebekahs, No. 137.

Milton Carver butchered four hogs which weighed over 1600 pounds. He rendered thirteen cans of lard from the surplus fat.

After a visit of several weeks among friends here, Miss Margaret Robb returned to her home in Howard, on Saturday.

Guy Wieland and sister, Margaret, motored up from Spruce Creek and spent Saturday afternoon at the Milton Wieland home.

Robert Strayer and Cal Eyer, Gatesburg farmers, were in town on Saturday and reported many bucks slain in that section.

Mrs. Susan Goss is planning to close her home and spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Corl, on the old home farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Shadrack Parsons, of Unionville, have closed their home and will spend the winter with their children in this locality.
