Terms of Subscription.—Until further actice at the following rates:
Paid strictly in advance - $1.50
Paid before expiration of year - 1.75
Paid after expiration of year - 2.00 Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation. A sample copy of the "Waatchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

Domestic Relations and Pleas of Guilty Court.

Court convened on Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, with the Hon. M. Ward Fleming on the bench. The case against George O'Brien was settled.

Commonwealth vs. William Reed. action for the non support of three dered and directed that the defendant pay the sum of $15.00 per month to Roy Wilkinson, probation and deserprosecution.

elow. Prosecutrix, Virginia Bigelow. day morning he did not feel equal Being for non-support of his wife. to getting up and gradually grew 1927, and Mrs. Keller continued her At the conclusion of the case the court declined to make an order but day evening. Heart trouble was as- before Thanksgiving when she was directed the defendant, William S. signed as the cause. Bigelow, to pay the costs of prosecu-

A number of pleas of guilty were taken as follows:

Samuel Rudy, charged with illegal and was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and $100.00 fine.

John Fedora and Minnie Fedora, indicted for selling intoxicating liquor and for possession of same. This case was from Rush township. The court sentenced John Fedora to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $300.00 and three months in the county jail.

Commonwealth vs. Charles Hampton. Charged with a statutory offense. The case was from Philipsburg. The defendant was sentenced Nittany, which he conducted for some to pay the costs of prosecution and $50.00 fine.

Commonwealth vs. W. I. Dunklebarger, prosecutor, G. A. Reed, as- since. sistant game warden. This case was appealed from the decision of the of the Lutheran church at Snyderjustice of the peace. The defendant town and had been on the official was charged with killing two wild board for many years, being an eldturkeys out of season, on the 26th er at his death. He was superintendday of October, 1927. The case was heard before the court and at the continuous period of thirty-five years, reclusion the court sustained the appeal and discharged the defendant.

The Pennsylvania State College About To Start Big Building Program.

student body. The same company resigned about a year ago.

$64,000 to $90,000 in their fund for C. S. Beck, of Nittany. the erection of a memorial dormitory for girls at the Pennsylvania State his late home at two o'clock on Tues-College, members of the Pennsylvania State College Grange are now working towards a temporary goal of town at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. C. H. $100,000 and the starting of work on Stein, of Lock Haven, was in charge the proposed structure. The fund increase came at the Grange convention in Erie during December, and etery. last week the Penn State Grange at the college added $1,500. Women students at Penn State are now conducting a campaign among themwho has done much for this fund.

meeting in Harrisburg, Monday after- a young man he learned the trade of etery. noon, will doubtless consider revised a carpenter but in 1904 he took over plans for a first unit in a main engin- the Old Fort hotel and conducted it eering building, and it is possible that until the spring of 1916 when he rethis structure will be under way by tired owing to impaired health. He daughter, Mrs. Minnie M. Singler, in summer. The gymnasium, which went to York, Pa., where he remained will seat 5,000 at athletic events, will three years then returned to Centre with bronchial trouble. She was a cost about $500,000 covered by the county and located at State College, daughter of John and Sarah Krebs at his home in Milesburg, Friday of emergency building fund raised sev- where he again took up his trade as eral years ago by alumni and friends a carpenter. of the college.

JOHN HENRY BECK.

Commonwealth vs. William S. Big- ate supper with the family. Thursweaker until the end came on Sun- home at Pleasant Gap until the day

Mr. Beck was a son of Simon and Hannah Kindig Beck and was born Ott. on the homestead farm, at Snyder-town, on February 5th, 1848, herce dren, all of whom survive: Mrs. W. H. possession of intoxicating liquor. The boyhood was spent on the farm and defendant entered a plea of guilty in attending the public schools and make his fortune. Consequently he Ralph W. Noll, of Pleasant Gap, and said goodbye to the home folks and E. Paul Keller, of Philadelphia. went to Iowa but he failed to find the of his youth.

His first business venture was as a merchant in Lock Haven, in connection with his brother-in-law, Samuel Walker. In this he was fairly successful and later opened a store at vears. In the meantime he had become possessed of the homestead Henry Gramley, charged with farm, at Snydertown, where he lived, breaking and entering and larceny in and had purchased another farm near two cases. The defendant was sen- Nittany, so he sold his store in the tenced to pay the costs of prosecu- latter place and devoted his entire tion and imprisonment in the reform- time to looking after his two farms. atory at Huntingdon, according to the But the urge of the store was still and regulations of said institution his veins and in 1906 he opened a

Mr. Beck was a life-long member ent of the Sunday school for a consigning eight years ago in favor of a younger man. He was a stockholder and for many years a director of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company, of Centre county. He was one of the organizers and until its sale a director of the Nittany Tele-With the signing of contracts with builders, work is ready to start on a Democrat of the old school and the erection of two of the three build- while he never held a county office ings planned for erection at the Penn- he had served as school director in sylvania State College this coming his township and was one of the men summer. The H. K. Ferguson com- who took a leading part in the estabpany, general contractors, will erect lishment of the Walker township a new hospital or infirmary at a cost High school. For a number of years of approximately $125,000, fully he was treasurer of the road fund equipped for health service to the for Walker township, a position he will erect the new recreation hall or On January 19th, 1870, he married for a period of seventeen years, was gymnasium at an approximate cost Miss Amanda Reber who survives found dead in bed on Saturday mornof $500,000. Land is already cleared with five children, A. Bertrand Beck, ing. He had been a sufferer for and work is to be started as soon as at home; Mrs. Walter E. Brandt, of weather conditions permit. Both Crafton; Mrs. Percy Miller, of Punx- tism and when he failed to get around war he enlisted for service in Combuildings are to be completed in Sep- sutawney; Mrs. W. B. Plank, of East- at his usual time, Saturday morning, pany C, 208th Pennsylvania volun-Encouraged by an increase from delphia. He also leaves one brother, charge of the hotel, went to his room gallantry. Returning home he locat> cay afternoon, which were continued assisted by Rev. W. H. Shultz. Burial was made in the Snydertown cem-

ROYER .- Edward McClellan Royer died at his home at State College selves, following a visit by Mrs. on January 5th, as the result of an Clara C. Philips, of Washington, Pa., attack of heart failure. He was a college trustee and Grange leader son of John and Harriet Royer and was born at Millheim, October 10th, botel on Tuesday afternoon, burial College trustees at their annual 1865, hence was in his 63rd year. As peing made in the Centre Hall cem-

Mr. Royer was twice married and One of the largest mid-year com- is survived by his second wife, who mencements held in recent years at prior to her marriage was Miss Ella the Pennsylvania State College will Coldren, and a son by his first martake place February 7. The eligible riage, John Sidney Royer, of York. whose home she died. Mr. Morley Blairsville; Lee C. and Roy, at home. list at present includes the names of He also leaves two brothers and a sis- died in 1897 and on May 10th, 1908, 84 young men and women who may ter, William Royer, of Altoona; she married Joshua Burley, who surqualify for graduation, and a number Charles, of Akron, Ohio, and Mrs. vives with no children. Funeral of advanced degrees will be awarded Lottie Reish, of Lock Haven. Burial services were held on Sunday after-eration of the woolen mills but after D. M. Kline. Later they purchased a in his chair. BECK .- In the passing away of farm west of Pleasant Gap where John Henry Beck, at his home in Sny- they lived until retiring to their late dertown, at 350 o'clock on Saturday home at the Gap. Mrs. Keller was a evening, that community and the lifelong member of the Lutheran county in general suffers a distinct church and one of that class of womloss. Mr. Beck was in every way en who today are growing so rare-Prosecutrix, Meda C. Reed. Being an such a worthy citizen that his com- the home-loving woman who gave minor children. The case was heard business dealings could not do other husband and children, but was always and at the conclusion the court or- wise than leave an impress on the ready and willing to respond to a call tion officer, as well as the costs of had been able to be around even 1926, when Mr. and Mrs. Keller celeup to Wednesday evening, when he brated their golden wedding in their comfortable home at Pleasant Gap.

KELLER .- Mrs. Margaret Keller, widow of the late Ephriam Keller, passed away at 3:15 o'clock on Fri-

Mr. Keller passed away, June 1st, brought to Bellefonte and since had been living with her daughter, Mrs.

was almost eighty years old. His Ott and Mrs. D. M. Kline, of Bellefonte; M. M. Keller, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. John W. Garbrick, of Bellefonte; when he grew to manhood he became Mrs. A. D. Smeltzer, of Pleasant Gap; imbued with a desire to go west to D. M. Keller, of Philadelphia; Mrs.

Funeral services were held at the golden opportunity knocking at his Ott home at two o'clock on Monday door and he came back to the home afternoon by Rev. W. J. Wagner, assisted by Rev. C. E. Arnold, burial being made in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

ROMICK .- Mrs. Mary M. Martin Romick, widow of the late Charles Romick, passed away at her home Snydertown at 1:30 o'clock on Monday of last week, following a lingering illness of almost four years. She was a daughter of William and Mary M. Beck Martin and was born and they located on a farm at White in Walker township on July 22nd, Hall where she spent her entire mar-1845, hence had reached the age of husband died in May, 1915, and an onwas a member of the Lutheran church ly daughter, Marian, wife of Rev. mercantile establishment at Snyder-at Snydertown all her life and was Ralph Illingsworth, passed away in one of the best known and most loved October, 1915. Since then she had of women in that section of the coun-ried Charles F. Romick, the officiat- the last of her generation and her oning minister being Rev. L. K. Sechrist. Her husband preceded her to the grave two years ago but surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. Anna M. Frain, at home, and William son, in Ohio. She was the oldest lady Martin Romick, of Philadelphia. She also leaves a foster-daughter, Mrs. Irvin Albright, of Mill Hall; a granddaughter, Mrs. Edward R. Bartley, of Jacksonville, and three great grandsons, as well as one sister, Mrs. John J. McClintick, of Waterford, N. J.

Funeral services were held at her late home in Snydertown, on Thursday of last week, by Rev. C. H. Stein, of Lock Haven, burial being made in the Snydertown cemetery.

FRAZIER.-William Henry Frazier, who has been caretaker and man of all work at the Centre Hall hotel found him dead.

He was a son of Daniel and Eliza ty-second year. He was a bachelor Brethren church. and is survived by three brothers and a sister, James Frazier, of Wellington, Kan.; Jerry, of Sharon; Foster, daughters, Mrs. Mary Lego Collette, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Clara Rimmey, of Pleasant Gap. He also leaves Mrs. J. M. Rorobaugh, both of Tytwo half-brothers and a half-sister, one. He also leaves ten grandchil-Alfred and Charles Frazier, of Stock- dren and seven great grand-children Bellefonte Union cemetery. ton, Ill., and Mrs. David Knepp, of as well as one sister and a brother,

McVeytown. Funeral services were held at the BURLEY.-Mrs. Joshua Burley died, last Friday, at the home of her Tyrone, following three years' illness and was born at Pine Grove Mills on last week, following five years illseventy years old. She was twice alysis, aged 69 years. He is survived had one daughter, Mrs. Singler, at three children, Mrs. Thomas Lucas, of

GOHEEN.-Mrs. Katherine Woods Goheen, wife of the late William M. Goheen, was found cold in death at State College, is no more. He passed day afternoon, at the home of her her home in Boalsburg, on Monday, away at his home in that place on Boyd Spicher, of Pleasant Gap. Burdaughter, Mrs. William Ott, on High at 4 p. m., and the actual hour of street, Bellefonte, following an illness her death will never be known. Mrs. illness following a general collapse. of two months with a complication of Goheen appeared to be in good health and last week enjoyed a day's trip time but it was not until two weeks She was a daughter of Martin and to Lewistown with her son, and al-Catherine Meese and was born near so spent a part of Saturday on a Pleasant Gap on December 2nd, 1848, shopping trip to Bellefonte with her hence was 79 years, 1 month and 11 daughter, attending services in days old. Her girlhood life was spent her home church Sunday afternoon. at Pleasant Gap and it was there she | Monday about 10 o'clock neighbors married Ephriam Keller on March noticed Mrs. Goheen walking in the 16th, 1866. The first few years of yard, and at 4 o'clock her daughter, their married life were spent on what Mrs. Tussey, went to call on her, and is known as the Shugert farm, near on entering the house found the fires the Gap, from where they moved to were out and her mother absent. Go-Potter township, to a farm adjoining ing to the rear porch she was shocked the Rhone farm. Their next move to find her mother lying cold in death, was to Houserville where Mr. Keller the result of a heart attack. Just joined his brother, George, in the op- two months ago, Mrs. Goheen had gone to her daughter's home for a near Axe Mann, now the property of her husband, William Goheen, dead

Katherine Woods Goheen was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Woods and was born at Curwensville, June 6th, 1850. On January 28th, 1875, she was married to William M. Goheen, their entire married life having been spent in the vicinity ranionable character and integrity in most of her time and care to her of Boalsburg, where they had many friends who mourn their passing. Surviving are their two children, mony people with whom he came in for help from a neighbor or friend. Matthew and Margaretta, wife of R. contact. He had not been in good Probably the last time the entire fam- Edwin Tussey; four grand-children, health for several years but of late ily were together was on March 16th, Richard Goheen, William, Mary Helen and Katherine Tussey, and these brothers and sisters: Mrs. M. A. Woods, Boalsburg; Mrs. Alice Mag-offin, of Hollidaysburg; Miss Helen F. Woods, of San Diego, Cal., Dr. George Woods, of Pine Grove Mills, and Hon. Cyrus E. Woods, of Greens- but some years ago had his memberburg. Mrs. Goheen was a member of the Presbyterian church for many lodge. He had a twenty-five year years and her pastor, Rev. J. Max Odd Fellows medal and was entitled Kirkpatrick, officiated at the funeral services, Thursday at 10:30 a. m., it had not yet been awarded. burial being made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

> SNYDER .- Mrs. Celia Snyder, widow of the late Henry M. Snyder, passed away at the old farm home at White Hall, at 1:30 o'clock on Sunday morning, following a brief illness as the result of an attack of pneumonia.

She was a daughter of Elizabeth Archey and was born on ship on the Atlantic ocean, over four-score years ago, during the five weeks trip of her parents from the Emerald Isle to America. The Archeys, shortly after their arrival in this country, came to Centre county and located in Ferguson township, where she had resided ever since. While yet in her teens she married Henry M. Snyder made her home with her grandson, Henry S. Illingsworth, who has On September 18th, 1866, she mar- charge of the old homestead. She was ly survivors are three grand-children, Henry S. Illingsworth, of Ferguson township; Rev. Ralph Illingsworth, of Philipsburg, and Mrs. Ruth Andermember of the Pine Grove Presbyterian church and always a regular attendant as long as her health permit-

> Funeral services were held at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, burial being made in the Pine Grove cemetery.

> NEARHOOF .- Andrew Nearhoof, a lifelong resident of Bald Eagle valley, died at his home in Taylor township, on Tuesday of last week, as the result of general infirmities

A son of Andrew and Mary Kephart Nearhoof, he was born near where he spent his entire life, on December 9th, 1842, hence had reached the age of 85 years, 1 month and 1 some time with dropsy and rheuma- day. At the outbreak of the Civil on, and Mrs. George N. Hoy, of Phila- Miss Laura Runkle, who is now in teers, and served with distinction and door and called to him. Failing to ed near the place of his birth in Brief funeral services were held at get a response she investigated and Taylor township where he had lived ever since. He was a laborer by occupation and a good citizen. For at the Lutheran church in Snyder- Frazier and was born in Gregg town- thirty-five years he had been a memship in 1836, hence was in his seven- ber of the Mount Pleasant United

His wife has been dead for some years but surviving him are three at home; Mrs. M. A. Woomer and Mrs. D. F. McMonigal, of Clearfield, and George Nearhoof, of Taylor township.

Funeral services were held in the Mount Pleasant U. B. church at 2:30 o'clock on Friday, by the pastor, Rev. Ritchey, burial being made in the church cemetery nearby. JONES.-H. Newton Jones, a well known carpenter and contractor, died May 10th, 1858, hence was almost ness as the result of a stroke of parmarried, her first husband having by his wife, who prior to her marbeen Sanford Morley, by whom she riage was Miss Blanche Smith, and He also leaves one brother, Harvey Jones, living in the west. Funeral services, on Monday afternoon, were made in the Curtin cemetery.

Tuesday afternoon after two weeks' He had been quite feeble for some ago that he was compelled to relinquish his customary walk around town and from that day he sank gradually until the end.

He was a son of Piersol and Lydia Johnstonbaugh Lytle and was born on the homestead farm at White Hall, September 28th, 1847, hence was in his 81st year. When but twelve years of age he helped to haul the stone and did other work at the building of "Old Main," for what was then the Farmers' High School, and he thus attained more than a passing interest in the institution which he lived to see grow from one of less a few years they returned to a farm short time and on her return found than a hundred students to the advanced college it is today. It was be-cause of this personal feeling, and his love of athletic sports, that he followed the fortunes of the football Mrs. Gideon C. Payne, who was takteam for more than forty years. He never missed a home game and for a score or more of years he accompanied the team on all its trips away from home. His interest in the colege and the team led the class of by Mrs. Payne, who was acocmpanied 1928, when the boys were Freshmen, four years ago, to elect him as an Grauer, of Philadelphia. Funeral honorary member.

Mr. Lytle lived on the farm at White Hall until ten years ago, when noon, burial being made in the Union he retired and moved into his comfortable home at State College. He was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church and was a charter member of Pennsvalley lodge, No. 276, I. O. O. F., of Pine Grove Mills, to one for fifty year membership, but

He was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Anna Leech. Two daughters survive by this union, Mrs. George Hollabaugh, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Roy Johnson, of Clearfield. Following the death of his first wife he married Miss Margaret Miller, who survives with one daughter, Mrs. Nell Fenstemacher, of Bloomfield, N. J. They had two other daughters who preceded their father to the grave, Mrs. W. J. Rentschler, of Willoughby, Ohio, and Miss Mary. He also leaves one brother, Moses Lytle, of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Funeral services were held at his late home in State College, at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, by his pastor, Rev Samuel Martin, assisted Faxon, for a number of years a well that Miss So-and-so had nearly fallen away on Monday evening, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Warren was in "Bought and Paid For." Most Wood, in Benner township. He had of his later years were given to play plications developed which resulted in "Kongo" and "Tia Juana." His his death.

Martha Reynolds Faxon and was born on the road for ten years. at McVeytown on January 10th, 1853, hence was 75 years and 6 days old. When a boy his parents moved to Milesburg where his father operated a machine shop for a number of years and it was there Mr. Faxon spent his boyhood days and grew to manhood. Forty-four years ago he came to Bellefonte and accepted a position as engineer with the old Bellefonte Electric company, a position he filled for twenty-three years. Twenty-one years ago he resigned his job moving to Rebersburg to become landlord of the hotel at that place. He remained there a number of years then sold out and moved back to Milesburg where he lived until a year ago, when he took up his abode with his son-in-law, Mr. Wood. Fifty-four years ago he married Miss Laura Bullock, who survives with ten children, namely: Mrs. Mary Anderson, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Warren Wood, of Benner township; Mrs. J. Victor Royer, of Woolrich; Mrs. E. S. Bullock and Mrs. C. E. Whipple, of Williamsport; Mrs. M. P. Pitts, of Alexandria, Va., Mrs. H. P. Diehl, of Mifflinburg; Charles Faxon, of Boalsbur; Mrs. D. F. Audsley, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. W. E. Grau, of Williamsport. He also leaves one brother. John D. Faxon, of Alliance, Ohio.

Mr. Faxon was a member of the Baptist church, at Milesburg, but in the absence of a regular pastor the funeral services, held at the Wood home at 10.30 o'clock on Thursday morning, were in charge of Rev. P. M. Osborne, burial being made in the lores Del Rio as the star. There will

PATTERSON.-Mrs. Sarah J. Patterson, widow of the late J. Miles Patterson, died at her home at Nealmont, near Tyrone, on Monday, following six months illness with diabetes. She was a daughter of William and Celia Ellenberger and was tried to make a sensation because Huborn at Gatesburg on January 1st, go Bezdek Jr., son of Hugo M. Bez-1852, hence was 76 years and 15 days old. Her husband died almost four ical education at State College, failed years ago, but surviving her are two brothers and one sister, G. Nelson Ellenberger, of Pittsburgh; William E., of Tyrone, and Mrs. J. H. Kyle, of Nealmont. Burial will be made in the Ross church cemetery, at Marengo, today.

SPICHER .- Mrs. Edna Spicher died on January 5th, at the Lloyd Sampsel home, at Pleasant Gap, of also. All six schools of the college was made at Centre Hall on Sunday, will present candidates for diplomas. January 8th.

Lock Haven. Burial services were held on Sunday afterheld by Rev. R. R. Lehman, assistant an affection of the heart, following an illness of some weeks. She was a languary 8th. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael LYTLE.—Andrew J. Lytle, the Spicher and was 36 years, 9 months mascot of many a football team at and 20 days old. In addition to her father she is survived by one brother, ial was made at Zion on January 7th.

> MMORE.— Mrs. Agnes Barnes Moore, widow of Charles Moore, former residents of Bellefonte, died on Tuesday night at the home of her daughter, in Pittsburgh. She was a daughter of John and Elizabeth Barnes, and was born at Pleasant Gap where all her girlhood life was spent. All her married life was spent in Bellefonte. Her husband died in 1898 and about twenty years ago she went to Pittsburgh to make her home. Her only survivors are her daughter, Mrs. Jack Malin and one brother, William Barnes, of Johnstown. The remains will be brought to Bellefonte on the 1.20 train this afternoon and taken direct to the Union cemetery for burial, Rev. Homer C. Knox officiating.

PAYNE. Mary Matilda Payne, seven months old daughter of Mr. and en to Philadelphia two weeks ago for observation and treatment at the Polyclinic hospital, passed away at that institution on Sunday. The remains were brought home on Monday services were held at the Payne home on High street, on Wednesday after-

An Old Theatrical Favorite in Bellefonte is Dead.

The death of Chester DeVonde. playwright and producer, which occurred in New York city, Tuesday, of last week, will awaken many memories in the minds of those who frequented Garman's opera house in the years immediately following its open-

Chester was a young man then, an unusually handsome chap, and affected the extreme habiliments of the Rialto. At the head of his own repertoire company he visited Bellefonte every season. He had marked talent as a thespian, usually had a good supporting company and was such a pleasing fellow, personally, that his annual visits were hailed as real theatrical and social events.

On one of these occasions some amateurs of the town were in the excitement of rehearsal for a play of their own. Due to the leading lady's ambitions to shine in her role in a love scene she sought instruction from by Rev. Carruthers, burial being enthusiasm he coached her in the ten-Chester. Gallantly and with much der nuances of the part, coached her so well that the community was ter-FAXON.-Matthew Thompson ribly shocked when it became known in love with a traveling actor.

His last appearance on the stage been a sufferer for some years with writing. Melodramas were his forte. diabetes and several months ago com- He wrote "The Old Willow Farm," greatest personal success was in "The He was a son of Myron M. and Ten-Ton Door," in which he starred "Parisian Redheads" Will Feature Cathaum Program.

One of the greatest stage attractions ever presented by the Cathaum theatre, State College, has been announced by the managment for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. "The Parisian Redheads," regarded as America's best girl orchestra, are coming direct from a run of more than a year in the largest cities and theatres of the United States.

There are fourteen artists in this organization, each one of the girls being auburn haired. Their music has startled the entire theatre-going world and they outclass the field of girl musical organizations to rank with such masters of jazz as Vincent Lopez, Waring's Pennsylvanians, and other outstanding orchestras. Their program is novel and distinctive and their singing and dancing numbers are unusually entertaining. Those who want to see just what a group of clever, versatile girls can do in an entertaining line have a treat in store for them when they see the Redheads in action.

On Monday and Tuesday, as a screen offering, the Cathaum will show "Sorrell and Son," from the famous novel by Warwick Deeping which has been one of the most widely read books of the past year. On Wednesday, the picture offering will be "Gateway of the Moon," with Dobe matinees daily at two o'clock and the evening performance will start at ---The Watchman gives all the news while it is news.

-Hanover, N. H. space writers dek, head of the department of physto arrive back at Dartmouth college, where he is a Freshman, after the Christmas holidays. The young man with his mother was visiting in New York and had not been kidnapped or mysteriously made away with as the sensationalists would have had the public believe.

-Electric street lights are now being installed in Blanchard by the West Penn Power company.

-Subscribe for the Watchman.