Young Men Captured Who Robbed The Port Tailor Shop.

On Sunday evening chief of police Harry Dukeman arrested W. A. Slick and Wilbur Stover, two young men of Centre Hall, on the charge of robbing the tailor shop of Blaine Port, in the Bellefonte Hardware company building, on the night of January 6th, and carrying away a large quantity of cleaned clothing, and as evidence that he got the right parties is the fact that a portion of the stolen goods was found in the possession of both of the young men, and it was recovered.

The two arrested implicated a third man, Melvin Scott, but he is away on a visit now and has not yet been apprehended. Chief Dukeman had worked the case up to that point where he felt confident that the robbers were the Centre Hall gang, and had made his arrangements to go there on Monday and make the arrests. On Sunday evening, however, he saw Slick basking in the light in front of the Richelieu theatre and calling him out of a crowd of young men he placed him under arrest and told him that he wanted his portion of the stolen clothing. After a little grilling Slick admitted his guilt and declared his willingness to surrender the clothes. He also told who his partners were in the robbery.

On being notified of the arrest of Slick, Blaine Port got his car out and took Dukeman and Slick to the latter's home at Centre Hall to get the two suits of clothing he admitted he had in his possession.

On entering the Slick home the young man got a screw driver and going to a victrola took out the four bolts which held the motor in position. He then lifted out the motor and from the cavity underneath it pulled out the two suits of clothes, which Port had no difficulty in recognizing as a portion of the stolen goods. Slick also surrendered the clothes hangers.

From the Slick home the party went to the Stover home and placed Wilbur under arrest securing two more suits of clothing, a coat and a pair of knickers, also the hangers. Stover had made no effort to secrete his portion of the plunder, as it was all found hanging in his room upstairs. The young men were then brought to Bellefonte and placed in the Centre county jail.

All the young men implicated are about twenty years of age and are thought to be members of a gang which has pulled off a number of robberies in Centre Hall and vicinity. Scott returned from his visit on Wednesday and that afternoon chief Dukeman went to Centre Hall and placed him under arrest also securing his share of the plunder. With the arrest of the three young men every piece of the stolen clothing, hangers and all, have been recovered. The young men have signified their intention to plead guilty to the robbery and accept such punishment as the court may see fit to impose.

Bellefonte Had Two Small Fires.

Just before noon, last Saturday, the sand house of the P. R. R. Co., a small frame building near the engine house, was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was sounded and the fire companies were soon on the ground, but the fire had gained such headway that the building was half burned before the flames were extinguished.

About five o'clock last Sunday evening one of the Bellefonte Academy students smelled smoke in the corridor of the main building near his own room. Tracing it to the room of one of his fellow students the door was broken in and the bureau was found to be enveloped in flames, which were spreading rapidly. The prompt response of the fire department and their chemical apparatus put an end to the conflagration before it had done more than destroy the bureau and its contents and scorch the paint and paper badly.

It is thought that the fire originated from an electric stove left burning on the bureau.

Bishop Dunlap to Visit Bellefonte.

Bishop J. F. Dunlap, D. D. one of the very eminent prelates of the Evangelical church will be in Bellefonte next Sunday to fill the pulpit of the Rev. Reed O. Steely.

POWERS.—Miss Annie Powers passed away at her home on east Lamb street, at four o'clock on Tuesday morning, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. She was first stricken six years ago while on her way home from a trip down town and was found on the street in a semi-conscious condition. She was taken to her home but had been an invalid ever since. For the past two years she had been confined to her bed and was faithfully cared for by her sister, Miss Eva.

She was a daughter of Bernard and Susan McCafferty Powers and was born in the house in which she spent her entire life and finally passed away. As a young girl she entered the Republican office and learned the art of setting type and at different periods worked in the Gazette office, at the Centre Democrat and in the Watchman office, spending about twelve years at this place. She was a faithful and conscientious employe at all times. She was a member of St. John's Catholic church all her life and a regular and devout attendant.

Her only survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Powers Massey, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Miss Eva, at home. One sister, Julia, died just about a year ago.

The funeral will take place at ten o'clock this (Friday) morning. Services will be held in St. John's Catholic church and burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

MCCLOSKEY.—Mrs. Clara D. McCloskey, of Beech Creek, died suddenly on Wednesday last week, as the result of an attack of angina pectoris, while she and her husband were at the home of their son, Glenn McCloskey, who with his wife was attending the State farm products show in Harrisburg. Mrs. McCloskey had apparently been in good health when she suffered the attack and died within fifteen minutes.

Her maiden name was Clara Gephart and she was born at Zion on July 1st, 1867, hence was in her 61st year. She married Mr. McCloskey in 1890, and they took up their residence near Beech Creek where they have lived ever since. She was a member of the Methodist church, the Pomona Grange and the P. O. of A. In addition to her husband she is survived by two sons, Glenn, mentioned above, and Rev. Nevin G. McCloskey, of Enola. She also leaves one brother and a sister, Edwin Gephart, of Bellwood, and Mrs. J. C. Showers, of Pleasant Gap. Funeral services were held on Saturday afternoon, burial being made at Beech Creek.

PETERS.—Oscar Peters, who a number of years ago was a resident of Bellefonte, died on January 12th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. M. German, in Pittsburgh, following an illness of some months. He was a son of Lewis and Beulah Peters and was born at Unionville, where the early part of his life was spent. Later he located in Bellefonte, moving from here to Lancaster and finally going to Pittsburgh.

He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. Ernest R. Bigger, of Niagara Falls; Mrs. Clarence Fromm, of Tyrone, and Mrs. German, of Pittsburgh. He also leaves one sister and four brothers, Mrs. Adaine Smith, of Bellefonte; Joseph Peters, of Pleasant Gap; William, of Milesburg; Edward, of Unionville, and Alfred, of Ligonier. Burial was made at Pittsburgh on January 14th.

FISHER.—John W. Fisher, a native of Centre county, but for many years one of the leading merchants of Tyrone, died in an Altoona hospital, on Monday morning, as the result of a stroke of paralysis. He was a son of Jacob and Sarah Fisher and was born near Boalsburg on June 17th, 1848, hence was in his eightieth year. On leaving the parental home Mr. Fisher went to Huntingdon county and after a few years spent there located in Tyrone and embarked in the mercantile business. He is survived by two sons and three daughters. Burial was made in Tyrone on Wednesday afternoon.

YOUNG.—Joseph Homer Young, nine months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Young, of Logan street, died at the Centre County hospital, on Wednesday of last week. Burial was made in the Union cemetery Friday afternoon. The parents hereby express their appreciation for the kindness extended them by friends and neighbors during their bereavement.

Lock Haven Woman Awarded Large Verdict.

On January 10th, 1927, Dr. Graydon D. Mervine and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Moquin and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wright, were on their way home from attending a meeting of the district officers of the Kwanian club, in Pittsburgh, and going down Nittany valley the car owned and driven by Dr. Mervine, skidded on the ice covered road at Hubbleburg and crashed into a shed. Mr. Moquin was so badly injured that he died shortly after being removed to the Lock Haven hospital while Mrs. Mervine also died within thirty-six hours.

As a sequel to the tragic trip Mrs. Moquin brought suit against Dr. Mervine for damages for the death of her husband. The case was tried in the Clinton county court, last week, and on Saturday morning the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $11,250. Attorneys for the defendant promptly gave notice that a motion for a new trial would be filed.

Bellefonte Camp P. O. S. of A. Holds Open Meeting.

Bellefonte camp No. 557, P. O. S. of A., held an open meeting in the G. A. R. hall, Friday evening, January 20, with a good attendance and an excellent program which was enjoyed by all.

The music was furnished by the P. O. S. of A. orchestra, which is a credit to the organization and one that anticipates soon being invited to participate on programs in some of our larger towns and cities. The Rev. Robert Thoma, pastor of the Bellefonte reformed church, delivered the invocation and address of welcome which was followed by Dr. A. D. Miller, of Lewisburg, field representative, who spoke on the different activities and accomplishments of the order through legislation, both at Washington and Harrisburg, after which the Hon. William H. Long, of Hanover, who succeeded Albert W. Johnson as State president, delivered a very eloquent address on the relation of the order to our church, our country and our public schools.

He explained the principles on which the organization was founded and the progress made during the eighty years of its existence until today it is one of the strongest of its kind in the country, with approximately 125,000 members in Pennsylvania, alone, all laboring in the one direction, that of bettering the conditions of the human race, through legislation.

He also explained our present immigration laws, which were fostered by the order and which forbids undesirable foreigners to enter the United States and which upholds the law of deporting those already here, who will not abide by the laws laid down by our forefathers; thereby protecting the laboring people and the country in general.

Mr. Long, a man of 76 years of age but full of vim and vigor, is sponsoring a campaign for new members, known as the "Bill Long campaign," with the goal at 150,000, and from all reports this number will be reached long before this year expires. The order is very fortunate in having elected a man of his ability and untiring efforts as its standard bearer for the year 1928.

Women Best Sky Travelers.

Women are the best sky travelers, according to officials at the Crocydon air port, the famous English aerial terminal. They have accustomed themselves to the new mode of travel much more readily than men, in the opinion of these experts.

Men, they state, are generally stricken into silence by the sensation of air travel, whereas women board the air liners with as great an air of confidence as if they were stepping into a car to go on a shopping expedition.

"Men seem to be able to express the charms and sensations of flying only in stammering, ineffective words," said an airline official, "but women gaze about with the utmost self-possession and are eloquent in their delight."

Running the World is Indeed a Big Job.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 16, '28. To the Democratic Watchman:

Congratulations on the Watchman reportorial style describing recent electrocutions at Rockview. The discerning reader may judge for himself. There is no argument. The story is told right—not a word too few, or many.

One of the cases does not seem to indicate premeditation. The other is a circumstantial evidence case. Never have I heard stronger denunciation of the use of circumstantial evidence in basing decisions in murder trials than that of a former president of Penn State, the late George W. Atherton.

It is said that the first woman punished by death in the State of New York was a negro girl accused of burning a house, and that she denied guilt to the last; being harried to extremes in unavailing efforts to make her confess. In a recent case in the same State there was much talk of burning oil and other forms of torture to fit the case. Yet in one of the victims a diseased gland was found and the bungling manner in which the murder was carried out indicated unsoundness of health or mind or both.

Crime and punishment are too deep subjects for the illy informed. So is "court procedure" which can rob people of their labor, their rights and their property very easily and very quickly because, as the Dean in one of the best law schools in the country remarked to me not long since, it "is quite two hundred years behind the times."

How to run this world right is a much bigger job than most are willing to admit.

G. R. WIELAND.

Love's Labor Lost.

Washington, D. C., January 14, '28. "The Democratic Watchman" I embrace the opportunity of letting you know how much I truly enjoy your paper.

As you know, Washington was the scene of the recent Jackson Dinner, Democracy's renowned rally, and due to the stimulus which this supplied to enthusiastic partisans here of my acquaintance, I have been assailed incessantly with arguments purporting to set forth virtues of the Democratic party and its inherent, vast, and obvious superiority over its chief opposing political party in this country. As a result of this experience, coupled with an avid reading of all and sundry political comment appearing in "The Watchman" (wherein, I confess, lies the paper's chief charm to me), a defense mechanism has been set up within me that should serve to keep me a staunch Republican for the rest of my life, for all of which, of course, I am properly grateful. I am glad therefore to "give credit where credit is due."

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM H. KELLER 2nd.

Like Old Wine, It Improves with Age.

DuBois, Pa., Jan. 14, '28. It is with increasing interest as the years come and go, to look forward to the weekly visits of the Watchman. I could hardly know how to get along without it.

Yours sincerely,

S. J. DALE.

Jerry Sends Help and Hope.

Curtin, Pa., Jan. 14, '28 Dear sir: Mark me up for 1928. Trust your "seat" holds out until you collect enough to buy a new one. J. GLENN.

Centre county motorists paid to the State, during the year 1927, for the privilege of operating pleasure automobiles, trucks, etc., the sum of $149,232.47. This included licenses on 9639 cars and 20452 truck and operators license cards.

Mrs. William Larimer, who had been a patient in the Centre county hospital and had been discharged, was taken back last week for further observation.

RUNVILLE.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. J. P. Strunk is recovering. Mrs. Fyetta Spicer is on the sick list. We wish her a speedy recovery. Morris Shutt, of Milesburg, visited his brother, Mr. Clyde Shutt, last Friday.

Mrs. Edward Burd, of Moose Run, visited her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Bennett.

Miss Louise Reese is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Hackenbarger, at Snow Shoe.

Mrs. Claude Confer was taken to the hospital last week, and the stork also left them a big girl. Richard Gunsallus, of Lewisburg, visited his lady friend, Miss Marie Bennett, at the home of J. P. Strunk. Mr. Toner, of Nittany, was also a caller at the Strunk home.

The stork has been very busy at this place this last week, leaving a big baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett, and a big girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bennett. Both mothers and babies are getting along nicely.

Leon Scovern, of Shamokin, Electro-cuted at Rockview.

Leon Scovern, the Polish youth, of Shamokin, who over two years ago shot and killed his sweetheart's brother, Joseph Baranoskie, was electrocuted at Rockview on Monday morning. Robert Elliott, who pulled the switch at the Snyder and Gray electrocutions in New York, officiated in a like capacity on Monday morning. Before leaving his cell, on Monday morning, Scovern gave his spiritual advisor, Rev. Father Gregory Zaplanski, a farewell kiss but did not speak a word as he was taken into the death chamber and placed in the chair. One contact was made and Scovern was pronounced dead in four minutes. His body was taken back to Shamokin for burial.

Scovern, whose crime was committed January 3rd, 1926, had been forbidden to pay further attention to seventeen-year-old Mary Baranoskie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Baranoski. He armed himself with a revolver and meeting the Baranoski family on their way home from church drew his gun and opened fire, shooting the father, his sweetheart and her brothers, John and Joseph. The latter died but the others recovered. Scovern was eighteen years old at the time and efforts were made to save him from the chair because of his youth and mental condition but the courts and board of pardons refused to interfere.
