

Bellefonte, Pa., January 27, 1928.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—Thursday of next week will be groundhog day.

—A brief session of argument court was held, on Tuesday, but no cases of importance were argued.

—J. Earl Harvey, a former guard at Rockview penitentiary, has been appointed chief of police of Lock Haven.

—Howard Holzworth was this week appointed a member of the board of road and bridge viewers in place of John W. Eby, resigned.

—The new board of county commissioners, at a meeting on Tuesday, decided to increase the millage for 1928 from six to eight mills.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's club of Bellefonte will be held Monday evening, January 30, at 7.30 in the High school building.

—Robert P. Campbell, of Pennsylvania Furnace, reached the finals in the Sophomore oratorical contest at the Pennsylvania State College. Although he did not win the prize it was a great honor to come so close to it.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Gilliland, of State College, on Tuesday, celebrated their golden wedding. A big dinner was a feature and the venerable couple were presented with a $50 gold purse from their nine children.

—Just to prove that winter is still with us the weather man gave us several very cold and disagreeable days, the latter part of last week, when the mercury went down to within ten degrees of zero and high winds prevailed for two days.

—One State College young man, Wells H. Denny, is included among 127 young men from civilian life who have qualified as flying cadets in the U. S. Army air corps, according to an announcement made by officials of the War Department, on Saturday.

—David Sidera, a 34 year-old Finlander employed in the mine of the American Lime and Stone company, was injured by a falling stone, on Tuesday morning. He was taken to the Centre County hospital where it is reported that he will recover.

—Those who anticipate going to hear Paul Whiteman's orchestra at the Cathaum theatre, State College, next week should keep in mind the fact that all seats will be reserved. They can be secured, however, by application either personally or by mail.

—The annual mid-winter dinner and dance of the Centre County Association of Philadelphia will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford, in that city on Thursday night, February 9. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock at $3.00 per cover. All Centre Counties are invited.

—For the success, both financially and socially, of the recent card party given by the Eastern Star in the club rooms of the L. O. O. F., credit is due the very efficient committee, who worked with Mrs. Schaeffer and Mrs. Earl Hoffer so faithfully, to make it the social event it proved to be.

—Announcement has been made by Samuel Mossell, of east High street, of the marriage of his daughter, Helen Sarah and Dr. Harry W. Lee, which took place in New York city on Saturday, December 31st. Dr. and Mrs. Lee will be at home at 213 Clements Bridge Road, Barrington, N. Y.

—An interesting program has been arranged for the Christian Endeavor at the United Brethren church Sunday evening, 6:30 o'clock. This service will be under the leadership of Mrs. R. R. Davidson, and will consist of ten minute song service, ukulele selections, prayers, and discussion of the topic "The Church at Work." "Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

—It is not often that a man voluntarily gives up a job paying over three thousand dollars a year, but Harry A. Thompson, of Tyrone, is an exception. He has sent in his resignation as postmaster at Tyrone because of the work conflicts with his other business interests. Mr. Thompson succeeded Allan S. Garman in January, 1924, and could probably have had another term if he so desired.

—Some comment is being made by Bellefonte attorneys over the delay in appointing a referee in bankruptcy for Centre county as successor to Judge Fleming. There is one case, at least, that has been held up for almost a month for lack of a referee. The appointment will be made by federal judge Albert W. Johnson, and as the available candidates are limited to a very few attorneys there ought to be little trouble in making a selection.

—The very excellent programs now being shown at the Scenic theatre for the popular price of 10 and 15 cents are, singularly appreciated by the many patrons of that popular place of amusement. The reduction in price was made in the interest of the general public and not because of a lower standard of pictures. Of course all super-features will be shown at the remodeled State theatre when it is completed and open for amusement. Manager Fretz has mapped out a program which he feels certain will give the people of Bellefonte a class of entertainment superior to anything known here in the past.

THE HIGH COST OF ESCAPING CONVICTS.

Expenses Paid by the Counties from Which Prisoners Belong.

When a convict breaks his parole of honor, escapes from Rockview penitentiary, is later captured, taken before the Centre county court and sentenced for escaping, and then conveyed to the western penitentiary, at Pittsburgh, by the sheriff of Centre county, the general public naturally supposes that that is the end of the case, and it is so far as the convict is concerned; but it is only the beginning in the matter of the expense connected with putting the convict through the necessary legal requirements to land him back in the penitentiary at Pittsburgh.

First, there are the regular court fees in Centre county and then the sheriff must be paid for the man's keep while he is in the Centre county jail and finally be paid for conveying him back to Pittsburgh.

When the law was passed providing for the erection of a new western penitentiary in Centre county no provision was made for covering the costs of escaping prisoners. But at a later session of the Legislature a bill was passed providing that all court costs should be paid by the counties from which prisoners had been originally sentenced, but this bill was defective inasmuch as it did not provide for the costs of transporting prisoners back to Pittsburgh, so that it was left for the next Legislature to amend the bill to include such costs, and it was not until 1919 that the full burden of all the costs was thrown upon the various home counties of the prisoners.

Since that time up to the beginning of this year records in the commissioners' office show that 111 prisoners who escaped from Rockview have been captured, sentenced and returned to the western penitentiary, and the entire cost has aggregated $11,022.35. Most of this amount, naturally, went into the pockets of the sheriffs of Centre county for maintenance of the prisoners and expenses in transporting them back to Pittsburgh.

The above number of prisoners came from 34 of the 67 counties in the State. Allegheny county led with 23 escaped prisoners, at a total expense of $2357.10. Philadelphia had 14 for whom she paid $1283.11. The smallest cost attached to any one escaped prisoner was one from Perry county, $57.90, while the largest costs attached to one from Northumberland county, $148.67. The difference in the costs is accounted for by the length of time they were kept in the Centre county jail and whether they plead guilty or stood trial at court. The average cost, however, has been in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars. Notwithstanding the big bill of costs all the counties are now quite prompt in paying the amount over to Centre county, so that considerable less than one thousand dollars is now due the county. The complete list of counties from which escaping prisoners have gone through the Centre county court, with the number and costs, is as follows:

Bellefonte Soldier Boy Killed in Texas.

Herbert Auman, on Sunday evening, received a telegram from El Paso, Texas, announcing the death of his nephew, Francis Auman, who died in a hospital at Beaumont, at eleven o'clock that morning, as the result of a fractured skull sustained in being thrown from a horse. The young soldier belonged to the mounted engineers and was stationed at Fort Rest, near Beaumont. How the accident occurred which resulted in his death has not been learned.

The young man's parents are dead and for a number of years he had made his home with his uncle and aunt. He was about twenty years old and fifteen months ago enlisted for service in the army, having been sent to El Paso and assigned to the mounted engineers.

The remains were shipped from El Paso, Texas, on Wednesday afternoon and should arrive in Bellefonte tomorrow. If they do so the funeral will be held on Sunday. Rev. William Fear, of the Episcopal church, will officiate and military honors will be paid the young soldier at his burial in the Union cemetery.

A few less than one hundred were at the Nittany country club benefit card party, given at the club Tuesday evening. Eight tables of five hundred and twelve tables of bridge were in play.

Paul Whiteman to Feature Cathaum Theatre Program Next Thursday.

The highest priced attraction ever offered in a theatre will be brought to theatre-goers of this section next week when Paul Whiteman (himself) and his famous concert orchestra will be a stage attraction at the Cathaum theatre, State College. The celebrated "Jazz King's" appearance will be for one day only, Thursday, February 2.

Whiteman is now completing the first lap of his farewell American tour, which carries the record-breaking contract involving more than $500,000 in salary for approximately forty weeks' work. Early next fall, the orchestra will start on a world tour which will last thirty months. Many brand-new tunes will be found in the Whiteman repertoire as well as the favorite concert pieces which are ever in demand. Changes and additions in the instrumentation will also be noted, all making for the newest novelties in modern American music, of which Whiteman is the world's greatest exponent.

It is very unusual for Whiteman and his orchestra to appear in any except the largest cities and the Cathaum is to be congratulated on securing such an outstanding attraction for this section. Many have probably enjoyed Whiteman over the radio or through phonograph records, but they will now have the opportunity to see and hear him in person. We know there is a rare treat in store for all music lovers, particularly since the price of admission has been brought within the reach of all, and we predict a capacity turn-out from all parts of the county for each of Whiteman's appearances next Thursday.

The Cathaum management has announced that there will be three complete shows, starting at 2:30, 6:00 and 8:30 respectively. The program will include an hour of music by Whiteman and the photoplay "Baby Mine," featuring Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, who rocked the world with mirth in "Bookies." All seats will be reserved and the advance sale will start on Saturday, January 28, the hours being from 2:00 to 4:00 and from 6:30 to 8:30 daily at the box office. Mail orders will be filled as received.

P. R. R. Has Not Yet Surrendered the Fairbrook Branch.

While the Pennsylvania Railroad company has given notice, through the means of its printed schedules, that it will cease to operate trains on the Fairbrook branch, from Fairbrook to Stover Station, effective Sunday, it has not yet formally accepted the bid of the Bellefonte Central Railroad company for the purchase of the proposed abandoned line.

Officials of the two roads had a meeting in Philadelphia, last Friday, but nothing definite developed. When the Public Service Commission issued its order on December 8th it was stated definitely that the Pennsylvania "shall" accept the bid of any railroad company which will undertake to operate the branch, within thirty days from the date of the order. The Bellefonte Central was the only bidder, and that company offered one dollar more than the price fixed by the Commission.

While the Pennsylvania has not intimated an intention of disobeying the ruling of the Commission to the extent of refusing to surrender the branch in question, the officials are probably holding the matter up to delay as long as possible the proposed developments of the Bellefonte Central.

Those interested in the extensions met in Philadelphia last week to go further into the plans. It developed there, however, that the P. R. R. is opposed to the project; especially to that part of it that contemplates building an extension from Fairbrook into State College. The situation is rather an awkward one and might require some time to adjust. There is likely to be a contest over it. That was indicated by the action of the stock of the Bellefonte Central on the Philadelphia market. It dropped four points on the announcement that the Pennsy does not look with favor on the new movement.

Methodist Conference to Meet in Altoona, March 14th.

The sixtieth annual session of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet in the First church, Altoona, on March 14th, to continue until the 19th. Bishop Thomas Nicholson, of Detroit, Mich., will preside. The lay electoral conference for the election of delegates to represent central Pennsylvania in the general Methodist conference at Kansas City, Mo., in May, will be held on Friday, March 16th. More than three hundred ministers are now on active duty in the Central Pennsylvania conference.

Wednesday's High Wind Created Havoc at State College.

The high wind of Tuesday night and Wednesday did considerable damage at State College and vicinity. Telephone service was entirely disrupted by the blowing down of several poles as well as trees across the wires. The frame work of a new house being erected by Robert T. Hafer, at the College, was blown down, while at Lemont the roof was torn off the barn on the John Shuey farm.

EASTERN DIVISION WINS PRIZE MONEY.

$500 Distributed Among West Penn Power Employees in Bellefonte and at State College.

Nineteen officials and employees of the West Penn Power company in Bellefonte and at State College motored to Ridgway, on Wednesday, for the third annual banquet of the Keystone Power Club, comprised of local clubs at Ridgway, Kane and Bellefonte, which was held in the Masonic temple at that place at seven o'clock Wednesday evening.

The local delegation included Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Musser, Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Baumgardner, J. Harris Holmes, Gilbert S. Morgan, Raymond N. Brooks, R. R. Herman, Misses Winifred M. Gates and Doretha Bierly, Paul R. Immel, Joseph M. Herman, Earl H. Dubbs and Joseph W. Forster, of Bellefonte; Francis A. Miller, Lorin J. Elder, Mrs. Ruth Dreihelbis and Misses Emma B. and Grace Smull, of State College.

The total number in attendance at the banquet was about two hundred, including W. S. Finley, Jr., president of the West Penn Electric company; G. M. Gadsby, president of the West Penn Power company, and Senator John M. Flynn, of Ridgway. While the banquet was supposed to be the main feature it was only secondary in importance to the officials and employees of the eastern division, comprised of Bellefonte and State College. In March, 1927, officials of the West Penn Power company offered a first prize of $500 to the district which showed the greatest gain in kilowatt hour consumption during the year, and the prize was easily won by the eastern division, Ridgway winning second prize of $250.

During the banquet the higher officials of the company, Messrs. Finley and Gadsby, and general manager P. H. Powers, complimented the employees of Bellefonte and State College on the good work done during the past year and urged them to make a try for another prize which will be given this year. At the close of the banquet the checks were distributed among the various persons entitled to a portion of the prize, and in addition a check for $250 was presented to superintendent E. C. Musser for his diligent work in keeping his employees at high tension in their efforts to win the money.

Those who shared in the prize with the number of points made and the amount of money received are as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Points, Award. Herman Everts 30900, $37.58; P. I. Holt 28445, $3.14; J. Harris Holmes 610, .75; Paul Forster 21225, 26.68; F. A. Miller 200, 1.15; R. R. Herman 900, 1.15; Claude Showers 20, .11; Wilbur Weller 140, .80.

Centre County Boys and Girls Place Well at Farm Products Show.

Centre county was well represented at the State farm products show, in Harrisburg, last week. Approximately one hundred and fifty farmers and members of their families were in attendance, and all agreed that it was by far the largest and best show ever held.

One of the main features was the boys and girls 4H club exhibits of baby beaves, lambs and dairy calves. Nine boys and girls out of the fifteen in the Centre county lamb feeding club exhibited their lambs in the State-wide contest. In face of keen competition Centre county lambs placed as follows, according to breeds:

Southdowns—1st, Jane Vial, State College; 2nd, Donald Campbell, Pennsylvania Furnace; 3rd, Alice Faust, Centre Hall; 4th, Ray Homan, State College.

Hampshires—1st, Clarence Hooy, Bellefonte; 2nd, Joseph Whiting, Susquehanna county; 3rd, James Campbell, Pennsylvania Furnace; 4th, Floyd Weight, Bellefonte; 5th, Charles Harter, Nittany.

In addition to the above Fred Lose, Centre Hall, won second in the Shropshire class in competition with several pens from Washington county. The pen of Southdowns exhibited by Jane Vial, of State College, also won reserve grand champion.

The Centre county club exhibits won $118.00 in prize money. The lambs were sold by pens at auction after they were judged for an average of 16.3 cents per pound. The Centre county lambs averaged 16.6 per pound. The six pens that were not taken to Harrisburg sold locally for 14 cents a pound. The lambs made an average gain of approximately 30 pounds apiece, and were bought at the start of the feeding period for 12 cents a pound, thus making a nice profit to the members of the club.

H. E. Hennigh, of Spring Mills, was a successful exhibitor of White-rock chickens, winning third and fourth on pullets, and third and fifth on cockerels. There were a large number of entries in the White-rock show and competition was very keen.

"Mlle Modiste" Likely to Open the New State Theatre.

The management of the new State theatre has announced that in all probability the house will be ready in the very near future and that, from the present outlook, the Bellefonte High school glee club may be able to present Mlle. Modiste Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, February 14th and 15th. It is very important that the play be given during the week of the 12th in order to avoid the Lenten season and also the payment of extra royalty charges.

Never has the glee club done finer work than it is doing now. It is almost unbelievable that a group of such very young folks can so admirably handle the very difficult and marvellously beautiful music of Victor Herbert's "Mlle. Modiste." Without any hesitation or feeling about for tones, the opening chorus of twenty voices modulates from one key to another in a manner that would do credit to an adult group of trained singers and those who have listened in on rehearsals have remarked on the beautiful work done by the "shop girls."

This same chorus in Act II is the finest dancing chorus the High school has ever trained and the public will, after seeing them perform in the "Glow-Worm" specialty, endorse the statement, while the principals are finer than ever.

Costumes, made in the school, of gold and silver cloth and other expensive materials direct from a well-known textile corporation on Broadway, together with rented costumes from Boston, will lend color to the production.

The soldier girls and officers constitute another spectacular and beautiful chorus, and Act II opens with a "sparkle" of sixty-five colorful and radiant costumes. Never has the club dressed a show as gorgeously as this one is being dressed.

Beautiful specialties by little folks as pansies, powder puffs and butter-flies, are interpolated and are high spots in the show. "Farina" of the Hal Roach gang plays a "return engagement" and the "Duncan Sisters"—Topsy and Eva, will also be there.

These are just a few of the fine things promised the public in the High school production of Victor Herbert's "Mlle. Modiste."

Although expenses on the show are higher than on any previous offering, the price of 75 cents will continue to be the cost of High school productions. A matinee for children only will be given on the first day at a special reduced price. The exact date of the show will be announced next week and tickets will be on sale about February 3rd.

Bellefonte D. A. R. Entertained at State College.

Not alone from the group of hostesses for the January meeting of the Bellefonte chapter D. A. R., Mrs. E. H. Lederer, Mrs. H. W. Thurston Jr., Mrs. T. B. Charles, Mrs. L. S. Rhodes, Mrs. O. A. Knight, was there a unanimous vote of thanks to the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity of Pennsylvania State College for its hospitality in permitting the use of its elegantly furnished, spacious club room the evening of January 5th.

There the aesthetic good was at least three-fold; the very instructive and interesting talk of Mrs. W. W. Braman, on "Early American Furniture," was illustrated by slides from the Metropolitan museum of art, shown by Professor W. A. Broyles, auditorially, the pleasure and uplift came by well rendered musical numbers (the piano-playing of Miss Jane Cowell, the violin solos by Miss Keppel, and the singing of Mrs. Cloetingle, were enthusiastically encoored, and then in the refreshments the guests found not alone satisfaction for the palate, but, in their color scheme, a patriotic suggestion.

Kulp—Musser.—C. Harlan Kulp, son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles F. Kulp, of Phillipsburg, and Miss Mary Louise Musser, of State College, were married on Saturday evening, January 14th, at the Baptist parsonage in Phillipsburg, by the bride-groom's father, Rev. Kulp. The bride is a teacher in one of the College township schools while the bridegroom is engaged in experimental work in the agricultural department at the College. The young couple were both back on their jobs on the morning of the 16th.
