NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-The new State theatre will open Wednesday, February 15.

-You will miss something if you miss the opening of the new State theatre next Wednesday night, February 15th.

-William Groh Runkle Esq., of Bellefonte, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the federal court for the middle district of Penn-

-Ash Wednesday, this year, falls 8th of April. This should presage an early spring.

no damage was done.

-The Mingle shoe store and the business places that are being brightened up on the interior by painters. paper hangers and carpenters.

-Hear the sweetest toned pipe organ in the theatre with the best ac- tion. coustics in Central Pennsylvania. In other words go to the opening of the new State theatre next Wednesday night.

—John Unick, of North Philipsburg, February 16th. was brought to the Centre county jail, on Monday, to await trial on the charges of assault and threats against

-Miss Lillian A Reese, who won first prize of $500 in the Philadelphia Public Ledger's pot of gold contest, last week, was formerly a resident of and also submitted the report of W. Philipsburg, but is now a teacher in the public schools at Cynwyd, near work done on the streets during the Philadelphia.

There are just a few of those good $16.50 boys' suits left at Fauble's store. If you want one of them for $7.50 you will have to get it today or tomorrow because the offer holds good only until then. It is not often that you have an opportunity to the contract with the Pennsylvania buy a real good suit at less than half Railroad company granting council its regular price.

-Within ten days from the date on which he purchased the J. T. Storch property, on west Linn street, C. Edward Robb sold it to Col. W. Fred Reynolds at an advance of fifteen hundred dollars. It is understood that the place will be used as a summer home by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reynolds, of Lancaster.

-In order to assist those desiring aid in making out their income tax reports Toner A. Hugg, deputy collector for this district, will be at the Moshannon bank building, in Philips burg, on February 23 and 24, at the er works. He explained that secreruary 25 and at the court house in looked over the work being done at that place. They were also entertained at luncheon by warden Stanley P. Ashe, at his residence. Members that the matter of the increase in the a year old idol of the "Hillcrest" ardent enthusiast of a number of out-

-The remains of the late James Clark arrived in Bellefonte last Thursday evening and were taken to power. his late home, on Allegheny street, where they reposed until the funeral on Saturday afternoon. The services were held at two o'clock and were in charge of Rev. W. C. Thompson, of

-Word has recently been received in Bellefonte of the death of Harvey Yarrington, who died on December 10 at his home in Richmond, Va. Mr. Yarrington's wife was a native of the town, being the only daughter of the late Senator and Mrs. Cyrus T. Alexander, and it was through their many known in this locality. He is survived by Mrs. Yarrington, a daughter, Mrs. Oliver, and two sons, Alexander and Grayson.

-A habeas corpus hearing was held before Judge Fleming, on Tues- thousand dollars were approved for the Pitt team and a former Academy Guimerz for release from the Rock- journed. view penitentiary. The man was convicted in Clearfield county for a fraudulent action and sentenced to one and a half, to three years in the western penitentiary. After serving a portion of his sentence he was transferred to Rockview. In his petition for a habeas corpus hearing Mr. Guimerz enlarged to include the following: and as they are regular toe ticklers sent to the penitentiary, as the crime K. Keller, A. H. Spayd, G. W. Ral- having an enjoyable evening. of which he was convicted was only a jail offence.

-Announcement of the consolidation of the business of the W. B. Weaver Engineering Corp., of Buffalo, with that of P. H. Keays, of Houtz, Lemont; R. C. Blaney, Belle- its sitting in Philadelphia on Monday, Toronto, Can., has been made as of fonte; R. L. Watts, Margaret Geary had promptly dismissed the two ap-January 1, 1928. Hereafter it will and T. I. Mairs, State College. Prof. peals in the Spring township school be conducted under the name of Keays-Weaver, Inc. The business is the installation of the "Norm" method of wage payment in large industrial and business enterprises. Some Bellefonters will be interested in the announcement because Charles G. Valentine, formerly a resident of this place, was vice president and general sales manager of the Weaver Co. He will retain the same position in the consolidated company.

GAS PLANT FRANCHISE

ASKED OF COUNCIL

Plant, Piping and Equipment to Cost Almost Half a Million Dollars.

cil, on Monday evening, to ask for a the operetta "Mlle. Modiste." penitentiary, Lemont and State Col- firm for the necessary equipment. on Washington's birthday, February it. He assured council that he has week, and was given a thorough test -The Bellefonte fire department as the necessary franchises can be se- er the acoustic properties of the old was called out, on Monday morning, cured. An ordinance was presented theatre would be damaged by the proby a flue fire at the home of Frank to council providing for the franchise nounced changes made on the inter-Deitrick, on east Bishop street, but and read for the first time. It had ior of the building, but those who West furniture store are two local had the approval of the borough solic- as ever.

A Mr. Snodgrass was present and lighting effects. wanted to sell council a supply of gas his mother and brother, Mrs. Julia the police. The matter was referred masks and gas bombs for the use of to the Fire and Police committee.

The Street committee reported the collection by Mr. Seibert of $145.09 for sewer extensions and connections, upbuilding of Christian citizenship, F. Hurley, street commissioner, of past three weeks.

Seibert, which showed the collection plans. of $45.25 on the 1926 water duplicate, $2854.75 on the 1927 and $10 garage rent. The committee also presented permission to lay a water line under its tracks on west Lamb street, and a president and secretary of council to execute the contract.

Mr. Cunningham stated to council that the Water committee would like authority to have Mr. Seibert make a house to house inspection in order also stated that the committee con-Dix, state secretary of the Y. M. C. turned over to a mini-to prepare for burial. have the water duplicate and meter bills made out in the office at the wattary Kelly has been doing this work Bellefonte on February 27, 28 and 29. but it can be done in the water works -The recently appointed prison office without any cost, whatever. He for the group of half a dozen Penn up until three years ago. He had -Mrs. George Hockenberry was down given an increase in salary to make of the second semester. up for it. Mr. Emerick suggested It was because Harold, the less than county commissioners. He was an ticipates spending a part of the summer secretary's salary be held over until practice house, the baby that rules door sports, principally baseball, next meeting night, and the other over 30 "foster mothers" who give dren are going to and from school. provide for it, completes the home. The matter was referred to the committee for investigation.

visits to them and friends here, that Harry Haag was caused by several outside toilets, and stated that the only way to overcome it was for council to put down a short sewer ex- Bellefonte Academy will be held at tension. The matter was referred to the Brockerhoff house tomorrow (Sat-

the Street committee.

Grange Encampment Committee Has' Been Enlarged.

Grange encampment committee was State College, will furnish the music, ston and Clyde Dutrow, of Centre Hall; C. H. Eungard, Spring Mills; Spring Township Case Not Dismissed. F. P. Keller, Pleasant Gap; John Furl, Milesburg; Elmer Hosband, Fleming; Curtis Watts, of the Spring Mills vo- case, but such, according to one of State College and Unionville and at cational school, has been named a the appellants, was not the case. The present living at Merion, Penna., member to serve in an advisory ca- Supreme court sent it back to the pacity on Grange play activities.

to 31st, inclusive.

was one of the eight second honor in their hall in this place. Refreshmen of the mid-year graduates at ments will be served and an admission just as soon as he can secure a house much of New York and eastern Canada Penn State on Tuesday night.

New State Theatre Planning to Open H. W. IRWIN KILLED February 18th.

From present indications the new Heavy Milk Truck Skidded Into Fish-State theatre will be opened to the public on Wednesday evening, Feb. 15th, with a big movie picture production, to be followed on Monday Robert F. Hunter appeared before and Tuesday evening by the High franchise for furnishing Bellefonte The delay in the opening has been below Mackeyville about 6:45 o'clock college men home for the mid-winter vawith gas from a plant to be erected caused by the failure of the company on Wednesday morning. on a proposed site near the railroad with whom the original order was station at Pleasant Gap. Mr. Hunter placed to supply the stage hangings explained that the plant would be and drapes. In fact it was necessary erected to furnish gas to residents of for Mr. Fretz to make a trip to Phil- and of late had been working with Bellefonte, Pleasant Gap, Rockview adelphia and arrange with another H. L. Griffith, an electrician, in wiring lege, as well as all persons living The pipe organ was moved from secured the necessary financial back- by Miss Bernice Crouse. There had ing, and that every arrangement has been some speculation, during the rebeen made to begin work just as soon modeling of the theatre, as to whethcapitalists backing the project and last week, aver that they are as good franchise for a period of fifty years. front of the theatre, covering the en- ride by the truck driver. Walizer got It will be taken up at the next meet- trance and extending out over the into the cab with the driver; Griffith ing of council for further considera- pavement to the street, arrived in stood on the running board on one Thomas Morgan, president of the are now engaged in putting it in place. running board of the opposite which Logan Fire company, was present and When it has been put up the false happened to be the one next to Fishextended an invitation to members of front to the entrance will be torn council to attend the annual banquet away disclosing for the first time the of the company on Thursday evening, real beauty of the lobby with its four sets of double doors and splendid

> The Y. M. C. A. Will Broaden Its Activities in Centre County.

The Y. M. C. A., consistently nonsectarian and wholly devoted to the launched a broadening campaign here last Monday evening.

The call to action was sounded in The Water committee presented the hotel where sixty or more men and the dining room of the Brockerhoff report of water superintendent J. D. women had gathered to hear the Briefly, they are going to organize the entire county through the various townships and town high schools. There is no thought of erecting buildings or anything like that in com munities that would be too small to motion was passed authorizing the them afterwards. The hope is to orundertake such work or to maintain ganize groups of young men who will pledge themselves to clean living and clean thinking and by their example influence others to join them.

The speakers were James B. Grato bring the water register up to date Co., Williamsport; Vincent B. Fisk, and also see that water is not being Y. secretary for the north central distice Baby.

commission, of which W. E. Wright further stated that it was not the State home economics co-eds when filled various clerkship positions dursecretary of the money he received dence in the homemaking practice he was clerk for the draft board of ing here overnight with her daughter, Mrs. for this work and he suggested he be house on the campus with the opening Centre county and later served sever-suggestions of Mr. Cunningham were him every attention during the year, organized and coached a team at ton Smith, was her aunt, Mrs. Martin referred to the Water committee with had declared a holiday by developing Mackeyville which proved to be the Burton, Mrs. Arthur Richard and Mrs. a ticklish throat and an inclination to champions of that section. The Finance committee presented spend a week in the college infirmary. the report of borough treasurer Harold's cold permitted his return George Carpeneto showing a balance to the practice house and his six "new on hand of $10,049.03. The commit-mothers" Wednesday, and the co-ed tee also asked for the renewal of cottage got into its usual routine and Mrs. George Miller, of Bellefonte. the Presbyterian church. The re- notes aggregating $14,300 which was which always includes the care of an Brief funeral services will be held at infant. The girls are seniors in home the Gardner home at 7:30 o'clock to-The Fire and Police committee re- economics, and before they graduate morrow (Saturday) morning by Rev. ported that complaints have been made all such students have opportunity to of the lack of a watchman at the inter- learn the scientific management of a lowing which the remains will be section of Allegheny and Bishop home. A baby from an orphanage or brought to Bellefonte and taken to streets during the hours that the chil- one borrowed from parents unable to the Irwin home on north Spring Needless to say, Harold had a fine

Annual Football Banquet and Dance.

The annual football banquet of the urday) evening. The guest of honor Bills totaling approximately two will be Gibby Welch, 1927 captain of payment after which council ad-player. A number of enthusiastic supporters of the Academy team have also been bidden to the feast.

On Friday night of next week the annual football dance will be given in the new pavilion, at Hecla park. This At a meeting of the Centre County dance will be open to the public gen-Jacob Sharer, Edith M. Sankey, D. all who attend can feel assured of

Word was brought to Bellefonte —Robert Wray, well known here, at case, but such, according to one of the appellants, was not the case. The Supreme court sent it back to the lower court for a decision first. The lower court for a decision first. The matter will now he taken up before the solution of the street was very jet and as they were the street was very jet and the st The date for the 1928 fair and en- matter will now be taken up before > -This evening Rebekah lodge, I. of 50 cents charged.

IN TRUCK ACCIDENT. ing Creek, Pinning Him Underneath It.

known among his associates in Bellethe regular meeting of borough counschool glee club in their rendition of fonte as "Rash" or Dick, was probably killed instantly in a truck accident

For several years past Dick had been making his home with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Gardner, at Mackeyville, houses and business places in that locality in anticipation of the extenalong the line who may desire to use the Scenic to the State theatre, last sion of the West Penn electric service to Mackeyville. The two men left Mackeyville early Wednesday morning to walk to the country home of Sheridan Gummo, where they were to

They had not gone far when the only for a short visit. milk delivery truck of the Kyle Bros., been prepared by attorneys for the heard the tryout of the pipe organ, driven by Fred Kyle, on its way to Lock Haven with a load of milk, came visit with friends in Clearfield, before goalong, and the road being icy and itor. The ordinance provided for a The marquee which will adorn the sloppy the three men were offered a Bellefonte on Tuesday and workmen side of the truck and Irwin on the ing creek.

The truck had reached a point near "the blue hole," below the Creighton farm about midway between Mackeyville and Cedar Springs, when it skidded on the ice. The rear end sloughed around and struck a telephone pole which threw Griffith from the running board to the roadway. The impact with the pole sent the truck spinning in the opposite direction and before the driver had an opportunity to control it it tumbled ovwater and the heavy truck fell upon friends. him, pinning him to the bed of the creek in two feet and a half of water. across his abdomen, and it was probably the crushing force and not drowning which caused his death.

In the meantime Kyle and Walizer, both cut and bruised, managed to break the glass in the door of the truck cab and crawl out of their wet prison. Griffith was cut and bruised but not seriously hurt. The three men looked for Irwin but unable to locate him decided he must be under the truck, but it was almost an hour the scene of the tragedy to lift the truck and get the body of Mr. Irwin from beneath it. The body was turned over to a Mill Hall undertaker ing his life. During the world war her occasional visits back home remain-

His father died about two years ago but surviving him are his mother, living in Bellefonte, and two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Gardner, of Mackeyville, street, where final services will be held at two o'clock in the afternoon lunch and a hearty welcome when he by Rev. W. C. Thompson. Burial will The Sanitary committee stated that returned to Hillcrest on Wednesday. be made in the Union cemetery.

Catholic Ladies will Hold Big Bazaar.

For the past month the ladies of St. John's Catholic parish have been preparing for what they consider will be the greatest bazaar ever held in Bellefonte. Over on hundred ladies have been devoting their time to this worthy cause. The result is that an may be secured there. Fancy work of all kinds may be had. Home made cakes, by the best bakers in town. Pomona Grange, on January 28th, the erally. Johnny Buck's orchestra, of will be there in abundance. As all articles have been donated the prices will be fixed to fit every pocketbook. No special sale can compete with the prices at this bazaar. Music and amusements will entertain and excellent refreshments may be had. This bazaar will be held in the Knights of Columbus hall, Feb. 16th, 17th, and N. I. Wilson, Stormstown; William last week that the Supreme court, at 18th. Make a note of it if you wish to secure a bargain in almost any line.

The date for the 1928 fair and encampment was fixed for August 25th Judge Fleming, according to reports. sylvania railroad, has received a fine promotion. He has been made the western division of the P. R. R., -Robert J. Way, of State College, O. O. F., will give a public card party and with Mrs. Wray and their chilthere.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Hard P. Harris is in Harrisburg, on business trip of several days. -Mrs. Harry Curtin, of Curtin, is in

New York City, for a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Geo. Spencer. -Rev. Reed O. Steely has been up in conference on probation and parole. -Nevin Jodon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jodon, of Water street, was among the cation

-Mrs. Hogentogler spent the week-end with her husband in Clearfield, her first visit over since the moving of the State Highway offices

-Edward Butts, who had expected to go to New York on business a month ago, but deferred the trip, went over last Thursday night. -Mrs. Claude Cook and her daughter, Miss Grace, left for Atlantic City, N. J., on Tuesday morning; expecting to be at the Shore indefinitely. -Mrs. John Payne accompanied Mr.

-Miss Anne McCauley, Bellefonte's com ing to her home in Virginia.

-Mrs. James Clark is arranging to accompany her sister home to Williamsport, where she will visit for several weeks, or until deciding on definite plans as to the

-Mr. and Mrs. Butterworth drove in from Wilkinsburg the afterpart of last week, for an over Sunday visit with Mrs. Butterworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Knisely.

-Mrs. Richard Herman has come to Bellefonte from Lock Haven, to join her husband, both of whom will make their home for the present, with Mr. Herman's parents on Curtin street.

-Walter Rankin was a week-end guest at the Rankin home on east Curtin street, having come up from Harrisburg, for one of his frequent visits home, with his father, William B. Rankin and the family.

-Mrs. R. D. Foreman has as a house er the bank into Fishing creek. As Miss Boring had been visiting her form-Irwin was standing on the creek side er home in Philipsburg, where Mrs. Forehe was thrown backward into the man and Miss Boring originally became -The Misses Emily and Elizabeth Parker closed their house this week and left The edge of the running board was Wednesday for Atlantic City, where they will be until spring. It has been their custom for several years, to spend the late winter at the shore.

-Mrs. Charles McGirk, of Philipsburg, and Mrs. Frank Gardner, of State College, were the out-of-town members of the Mothers' Assistance board, in Bellefonte Wednesday morning for the regular meeting held at McCalmont & Co.'s office, on north Water street.

-Miss Virginia Hughes and a college mate, Miss Kay Deiffendorf, of Beaver College, Germantown, will arrive in Bellebefore they could get men enough to fonte to day, for a week-end visit with Virginia's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes, and to attend the annual athletic banquet, to be given at the Academy tomorrow night.

-Mrs. H. B. Shattuck, her sister, Mrs. The unfortunate young man was a of Robert H. and Laura Irwin and of Berwick, who has been visiting with son of Robert H. and Laura Irwin and Mrs. Shattuck and Mrs. Gilliland, were was born in Bellefonte on October down from State College, Tuesday, lunch-20th, 1881, hence was 46 years, 3 eon guests of Mrs. John I. Olewine and months and 19 days old. Practically her daughter, Miss Adaline, at their home

Andrew Thal and with one at Axe Mann.

Lewis Rennington, of Philadelphia; Irving Stewart and his son, Walter, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baird, of Osceola Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Kessner, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. Kramer, of Lock Haven. -Mrs. Matthew W. Swabb, coroner of Cambria county, her son, Thomas and her sister, Mrs. Mary Blough, drove over from Johnstown Sunday, for an overnight visit with Mrs. Ebon Bower and Mrs. Burd, at the Bower home on Howard street. Mrs. Burd accompanied them on their return home, expecting to remain in Johnstown

-Two prominent lady visitors in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, were Mrs. Ella J. Mountz, of Smith's Mills, Clearfield county, and Mrs. Levy, Democratic district chairman of women at Houtzdale. The fact that they were traveling together is evidence that their trip had nothing to do with politics, notwithstanding the fact that both have established reputations as party leaders in their home localities.

-Mrs. Winters, of Annapolis, wife of Commander L. H. Winters, and her son, Hughes Jr., is visiting at the Academy immense number of articles will be to Seattle, Wash., to join Commander Winfor a week, having stopped here enroute on display. No matter what may ters, who is there on land duty for three be desired, from a radio to a cake, years, and where they will make their home during that time. Mrs. Winters is a niece of James R. and Charles S. Hughes, whose families she is now visiting.

-J. G. Dauberman, of Centre Hall, was in town part of Monday and found time to make a call at this office. We got to discussing things as they were when we were boys and as they appear to us now and as we both seemed to have the same viewpoint we couldn't get up an argument, nohow. However, we had a delight ful chat and if everything were run just the way we concluded it should be, no doubt there'd be a revolution in the social, educational and industrial life of the street was very icy and as they were about to descend to Bishop they discov-Superintendent of Motive Power for to the gutters and with rare presence of mind headed out Logan. Miss Maude is the chauffeur of the family and she must be a good one for last summer she toured much of New York and eastern Canada and had no trouble, whatever. mind headed out Logan. Miss Maude is dren will move to Cleveland, Ohio, be a good one for last summer she toured

-J. Christy Smith has resigned his position in a music store in Lock Haven and has returned to Bellefonte, to be associated with the Harter music store on Allegheny street. -A bunch of Williamsport commercial college girls who returned to their work Monday, included, Grace Carson and Ger-Horatio W. Irwin, more familiarly Scranton, this week, attending the State trude Osman, of Bellefonte; Louise Smith and Edith Moltz, of Centre Hall, and Violet Zong, of Oak Hall.

> Altoona Boosters to Entertain Central Pennsylvania Business Men.

The Altoona Booster Association will hold a meeting of its members in the Penn Alto hotel on Wednesday, February 15th, at 6 o'clock, during which an interesting program of entertainment will be provided members and guests.

The principal speaker of the evening will be Mr. F. McL. Radford, of Seattle, Washington, a business man of national reputation, who will give work that day. They were accompanied by Paul Walizer.

Payne on a business trip to Pittsburgh the forepart of the week, remaining there that will be of interest and value to the forepart of the week, remaining there that will be of interest and value to every business man. Because of the unusual importance of the speaker munity nurse, left Tuesday morning for a and his message the Booster Association extends an invitation to business men of Central Pennsylvania to attend the meeting and pront by the message Mr. Radford will bring. There will be no admission charge other than the price of the luncheon served in connection with the meeting. The committee on entertainment has provided an interesting program including a sketch by the Penn Central trio, vocal selections by Miss Evelyn Anspach, contralto; A. W. Weidner, baritone; Howard W. Lindaman, tenor, who will also appear on the program as song leader, and Byron R. Miller, pianist.

Whitney-Ishler.-Jesse A. Whitney, of Corry, Pa., and Miss Verna Ruth Ishler, daughter of Mrs. Mollie Ishler, of State College, were married at the home of the bride's mother, last Thursday evening, by Rev. W. W. Moyer, of Boalsburg, the ring ceremony being used. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rosella Ishler, while the best man was Oscar R. Sherman, of Mansfield, Ohio. Miss Della Ishler, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. Sixty or more guests were present. The bride is a charming young woman and quite popular among the younger set at State College, while the bridegroom is a Senior at the college. The young couple took a brief wedding trip to Erie and Corry.

Rider-Kane.-Announcement has just been made of the marriage of Miss Katherine Kane and Russel S. Rider which was solemnized at Elmira, N. Y., on the 16th of November, Both are well known young people of Bellefonte. The bride is ter of Mrs. James Kane and has been connected with the office force of the Federal Match Co., here for some years. The groom is a pharmacist in the Runkle drug store.

They will go to house keeping in the Cadillac apartments on April 1.

Centre County Farmers Organizing Cooperative Associations.

For the purpose of their own protection in the marketing of their crops as well as in the purchase of stock and farm machinery many Centre county farmers are organizing cooperative associations, known as the Dairyman's League Co-operative association. One such organization has been perfected at Spring Mills, another is being launched at Rebersburg and farmers in Nittany valley have made application to the Secretary of the Commonwealth for a similar charter.

-On Wednesday afternoon Howard Johnstonbaugh, sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Price Johnfor a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Blanchard, was on his way home from stonbaugh living on a farm near a motor trip to Howard, when his car skidded and ran into a tree. Almost on the instant the car was enveloped in flames and before the lad could jump out he was painfully burned on the face, neck and hands. The car was almost ruined.

> -Miss Lois Foreman, who has been undergoing treatment at a sanitorium in Georgia since early last summer, contemplates returning home just as soon as the weather becomes sufficiently settled in the spring that it will be deemed safe for her to come north. She has improved to that extent that she is able to get around quite easily and care for herself generally.

> > Annual February Sale.

20% discount on all cash purchases of furniture, rugs and linoleums, except kitchen cabinets. Free delivery within a radius of 50 miles. Phone 3-R-11

S. M. CAMPBELL 73-4-4t Millheim, Pa

SALE REGISTER.

Bellefonte Grain Markets. Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co.