Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice at the following rates:
Paid strictly in advance - $1.50
Paid before expiration of year - 2.00 Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Waatchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS. DEMOCRATIC

CONGRESS. We are authorized to announce that T. E. Costello, of Bradford, McKean county, is a candidate for nomination for Congress on the Democratic ticket, subject to the decision of the voters of the Twenty-third Congressional district as recorded at the primaries to be held April 24, 1928.

LEGISLATURE

We are authorized to announce that Andrew Curtin Thompson, of Philipsburg, Pa., is a candidate for nomination on the Democratic ticket for Representative in the General Assembly at Harrisburg. Subject to the decision of the Democratic voters of the county as expressed at the primaries to be held on Tuesday, April 24, 1928.

FOR NATIONAL DELEGATE TO DEMO-CRATIC CONVENTION.

I hereby announce my candidacy for delegate to the Democratic National Convention from the Twenty-third Congressional District, subject to the decision of the Democratic voters at the primaries, to be held on April 24, 1928. JAMES KERR, Clearfield, Pa.

REPUBLICAN.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN To All Centre County Republicans:

I have been urged by Republicans representative of all elements in our party in recent contests in Centre county, to become a candidate for Chairman of the Republican County committee. In the hope and belief that I will be able to accomplish much toward re-uniting the party, I have agreed to the use of my name for County Chairman on the ballot at the primaries on April 24th, 1928. My policy will be a square deal to all Republicans, irrespective of past differences a mong them, and my one aim will be to achieve Republican victory in the county. Upon this basis, I respectfully ask the support of all Republican voters. To All Centre County Republicans:

PHILIP D. FOSTER State College, Pa.

Many Daughters at Kiwanians Dine on Tuesday.

womanhood were guests of their fathers on that occasion.

in the chair and kept things on the College, Bellefonte and other places. move during the short time allotted Academy. The prize winners were Virginia Cliff, Louise Meyer, Betty Casebeer, Louise Musser and Kiwanian Ivan Walker.

Kiwanians Knox, Arnold and Thena were named as a committee to draft suitable resolutions on the departure of Kiwanian Steely to another field of labor. President Walker was unanimously elected the representative of the Bellefonte Kiwanis club to the International convention which will be held at Seattle, Wash., between June 17th and 21st, 1928. Bent L. Weaver was elected as alternate representative.

Wm. P. Seig telegraphed from Pittsfield, Mass., that he was in attendance at the Kiwanis luncheon in that city Tuesday.

The attendance contest for March four members were present at Tuesday's meeting.

The following daughters were present:

Florence Mary Barr, Nancy Jane Stein, Peggy Richelieu, Blanche Locke, It was her kind that inspire confi-Aileen Rossman, Mary Catherine Walker, Virginia Hughes Cliff, Jane Beatty, Dorothy Runkle, Helen L. Mallory, Frances Hazel, Mabel Musser, Barbara Sloop, Irma Schlow, Isabel Jodon, Mary Louise Walker, Virginia Richelieu, Irma Sloop, Wilma Heineman, Clara Bingaman, Carolyn Curtin, Virginia Beatty, Margaret Hansen, Clare Beatty, Thelma Hazel Kline, Eleanor Gettig, Sarah Bullock. Alice A. Owens, Mrs. F. W. Tanner, Mrs. H. J. Hartranft, Hazel W. Johnson, Margaret W. Widdowson, Anna Eckel, Henrietta Hunter, Betty Casebeer, Dorothy Rossman, Jennie Knox, Eleanor Murtorff, Jane Curtin, Charlotte, Walker, Martha Morris, Dorothy Richelieu, Mary Louise Toner, Eleanor Wion, Elizabeth Herr, Martha Johnston, Louise Musser, Louise Meyer, Alberta Krader, Miss Marion J. Harm, Miss Esther Hines.

Seven of the daughters were under six years of age, 28 between 6 and 16 years, and 19 over 16 years.

-With a Presidential campaign impending the big corporations are humping themselves to improve industrial conditions and we all hope they will achieve the improvement.

-When a candidate begins to denounce the newspapers en masse, he board. This is a tip to Senator Willis. of Ohio.

urday Specials-F. W. West Co.

BRUGGER .- John Peters Brugger, member of an old and well known three years.

He was a son of Samuel and Marwas educated in the schools of Un- expected. ionville and as a young man embarked in the life as a traveling salesman. Later he located in Johnstown where for more than twenty years he reprefailed to save his life.

late Thomas E. Morgan.

Mr. Brugger was twice married, E. Brugger, of Unionville; Mrs. Car- away of her father's family. rie A. Rumberger, of DuBois, and en, Fla. Mrs. Barnes, of Landsdowne, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Brugger, was brought to Centre county on March 3rd and taken to Unionville where funeral services were held in the Methodist church at 10 o'clock a. m., March 4th. The pastor, Rev. R. R. Lehman was in charge. Members of the Lumen lodge I. O. O. F. conducted that organization's ritual service in the church and at the grave. Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jones, accompanied by Miss G. Mabel Davis, sang three of the favorite hymns of the deceased, "The Touch of His Hand on Mine," "Lead Me Gently Home" and "Sweeter as the Years Go By." Interment was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery near Unionville. Mr. Brugger, during his residence in Johnstown, was a member of the Westmont Presbyterian church and the following attended his funeral: Tuesday was daughter's day at the Mr. and Mrs. Evan D. Jones, Thomas noon luncheon of the Bellefonte Ki- R. Jenkins and son, Emrys, J. Price wanis club, and fifty flowers of young Davis, Miss G. Mabel Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Seward D. Davis. Friends were also present from Philadelphia. President W. Harrison Walker was Cannonsburg, DuBois, Tyrone, State for the meeting. There was no set MEYER. A brief notice in last home in Clearfield, on Saturday mornprogram and the time was taken up in week's Watchman told of the death of ing, at 9 o'clock, after which the revocal solos by Florence Mary Barr, Mrs. Martha Jane Meyer, widow of mains were brought to Bellefonte by Peggy Richelieu and Mrs. Alberta the late Prof. Henry Meyer, at her motor hearse. Final services were Krader; toe dancing by Virginia Rich- home in Rebersburg on March 6th, held at the William Rhinesmith home, elieu, and an entertainment by Messrs. following an illness of some weeks. Riggs and Frakutt, students at the She was a daughter of Thomas J. and burial was made in the Union ceme-Sara Taylor and was born at Rock tery. Forge on April 25th, 1850, hence had reached the age of 77 years, 10 months and 11 days.

ried life of almost fifty-four years. to Philipsburg. Both Mr. and Mrs. Meyer assisted materially in organizing the Evangel-1874, and both became members of dence in the integrity of the home and the sanctity of Christian womanhood. Her husband passed away over two years ago but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. S. M. Weber, of Washington, D. C.; Henry T, of Lewisburg; Mrs. Mary Abbott, of Rebersburg; Mrs. William C. Kelly, of State College; and Robert W., of Rebersburg. She also leaves six grandchildren, and two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Elias Hancock, of Runville; Mrs. Clara Leathers, of Unionville, and G. W. Taylor, of Saxton, Pa. Funeral services were held at Rebersburg at 10.30 o'clock on Saturday morning, burial being made in the Evangelical church cemetery.

Thompson, wife of A. C. Thompson, of Philipsburg, passed away, last Friday morning, as the result of a complication of diseases with which she had suffered for several years.

She was a daughter of Joseph and Eller Denning and was born at Kying her age 66 years, 1 month and 23 after which burial was made in the days. When she was yet a child her Alto Reste cemetery, in Altoona. parents moved to Philipsburg and there she was educated and grew to is preparing himself for the sliding brothers, Harry M. Denning, of Phil- and Mrs. Edward M. Griest, of Phil- for Hoover before the convention as for John Martin who then lived on cemetery.

DORWORTH .- Mrs. Hannah Jen-Centre county family, passed away Dr. E. S. Dorworth, passed away at daughter, Mrs. Christian Reese, in in a Philadelphia hospital, on March her home on east Curtin street, Belle- Philipsburg, following a lingering ill-1st, following a lingering illness of fonte, at nine o'clock on Tuesday ness with myocarditis. morning. She had been in feeble garet Brugger and was born at Un- weeks ago her condition became such at Centre Line, Centre county, on May ionville on March 14th, 1865, hence that it was evident that the end was 4th, 1844, hence was in his eightywas not quite 63 years of age. He near, so that her death was not un- fourth year. He was a veteran of on July 21st, 1845, hence was in her lowing children: Mrs. Christian Reese, sented the H. J. Heinz Co. In 1927 83rd year. She came to this country of Philipsburg; E. B. Melcher, of he moved to Philadelphia but failing in 1852 with her father, an iron man- Altoona; Mrs. L. H. Albert, of Elizahealth finally necessitated his enter- ufacturer of his native country, who beth; Mrs. C. W. Crain, Port Matiling a hospital for treatment, which located at Howard and was engaged da, and Chester Melcher, of Tyrone. Mr. Brugger was a member of Lu- there until his death in 1886. It was brother, Mrs. G. W. Woodring, of men lodge No. 639, I. O. O. F., of at Howard that Mrs. Dorworth was Savannah, Ga.; Mrs. Jennie Merri-Unionville, and the United Commer- educated in the public schools and man, of Wilkinsburg; Mrs. Leah I had not heard of him for some time. terms are gone and the posterity of cial Travelers of Johnstown. A num- grew to womanhood. In the latter Brown, of Akron, Ohio, and L. L. ber of years ago he was a member of sixties she married Dr. Dorworth, at Melcher, of Wilkinsburg. the Cymric Society chorus under the that time a practicing physician in direction of Iorwerth W. Prosser, of Bellefonte, and this had been her burial to be made in the Mount Pleas-Chicago, and was a charter member home ever since. She was a member ant cemetery in Taylor township. of the Gwents, under the direction of of the Disciple church for many years Joseph Harris. At different times he but later affiliated with the Presbyterwas a member of mixed choruses in ian church, of Bellefonte. She was McCaleb, wife of S. R. McCaleb, a Johnstown under the direction of the a woman who was assiduous in her lifelong resident of Nittany valley, devotion to her home and her family. died on Monday evening, at her home his first wife having been Miss Eva ber of years ago but surviving her illness. She was 74 years old and Thompson, of Unionville, who passed are four children, Mrs. Arthur H. lived at Nittany most of her life, away a number of years ago. In Sloop, of Bellefonte; Miss Alice, at moving to Clintondale a year ago. 1923 he married Miss Alice Given, of home; Charles E. Dorworth, of Belle- Burial was made in the Cedar Hill Philadelphia, who survives with the fonte, and William J., of Phil-cemetery yesterday afternoon. following brother and sisters: Joseph adelphia. She was the last to pass

Funeral services were held at her Mrs. Elizabeth James, of Lake Hel- late home, on east Curtin street, at The body, accompanied by Miss Rev. Homer C. Knox, of the Method- the faculty of the coming "Floating Flora Brugger, a niece, and Mr. and ist church, burial being made in the University" which will leave New remember the witty remark once Union cemetery.

> smith, a native of Centre county, died at his home in Clearfield, on Wednesday morning of last week, following several years ilness with heart trou-

He was a son of Daniel and Mary J. Rhinesmith and was born at Earlystown, near Centre Hall, seventy-three years ago. When a boy his parents moved from Pennsvalley and settled on a farm in Benner township, south of Bellefonte, where he grew to manhood. He lived near Bellefonte until about thirty years ago when he went to Clearfield county as manager of the James Mitchell farm. Ten years ago he retired from the farm and moved into a home in Clearfield.

On March 7th, 1888, he married Miss Carrie Musser, of near Bellefonte, who survives with two daughters, Mrs. Mary McCorkle, of Akron, Ohio. leaves one brother and a sister, William Rhinesmith, of Bellefonte, and Miss Elizabeth, of Clearfield. Brief funeral services were held at his late home in Clearfield, on Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock, after which the re-

NOLAN.-Simon Nolan, a native of Centre county, died at the home of Most of her girlhood life was spent his daughter, at Woodland, Clearfield at Unionville and Milesburg, where county, on Sunday morning, following do she was educated in the public schools an illness of some years as the relater taking a course in the Rebers- sult of a general breakdown. He was burg Normal school, being one of the born on Halfmoon Hill, near Bellefew survivors of the students at that fonte, on July 12th, 1855, hence was institution. As a young woman she taught school several terms and on taught school several terms and taught school several terms are taught school several terms and taught school several terms are taught school several terms and taught school several terms are taught school several terms and taught school several terms are taught school several terms and taught school several terms are taught school several terms are taught school several terms are taught school several terms and taught school several terms are taught school several ter institution. As a young woman she in his 73rd year. In 1880 he located Meyer, of Rebersburg. They went to posing of that he went to Pittsburgh housekeeping in the home at Rebers- and worked for some time at the West-

In 1879 he married Mrs. Jennie Cowher, of Buffalo Run valley, who ical Sunday school, at Rebersburg in survives with one son and three welfare life of the students must not daughters, Gray Nolan, at home; Mrs. is still waxing strong and all but that church. Mrs. Meyer was repre-Mrs. W. C. Lansberry, of Woodland, main interests center around their and Miss Sarah, at home. One son, home, their children and their church. Edwin Nolan, died in service during She was a woman of simple tastes the World war. He also leaves one but staunch and lasting friendships. brother, James Nolan, of Washington, > Funeral services were held at one o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. S. B. Evans, burial being made in the Philipsburg cemetery.

CRONISTER.-Kenneth Cronister, son of ex-sheriff and Mrs. W. M. Cronister, of Llyswen, Blair county, but former residents at Martha Furnace, passed away on Monday of last week, at the State sanitorium, at tre last Friday night, five bouts to tion tag on the Kelleyville battlefield. of some months.

He was born at Martha Furnace on March 13th, 1905, hence was almost 23 years old. Most of his life had been spent in Centre county but of late years the family had lived at nical knockout. THOMPSON.-Mrs. Bertha Ellen Llyswen, near Altoona. In addition to his parents he is survived by two brothers and two sisters, C. G. Cronister, of Pittsburgh; Ray, of Cleveland; Mrs. J. H. Yoder, of Altoona, and Mrs. L. A. Hutchinson, of Cleveland, Ohio. Funeral services were held at his late home in Llyswen at lertown on January 15th, 1862, mak- two o'clock last Wednesday afternoon,

GRIEST .- Mrs. May Griest, wife knockout. womanhood. In August, 1899, she of Dr. Andrew Griest, of Steelton, married Mr. Thompson, who survives died in a Harrisburg hospital, on with one son, Edward J. Thompson, Tuesday morning, following a brief Esq., at home. She also leaves two illness. Dr. Griest is a son of Mr. ipsburg, and Edward G., of St. Louis, ipsburg, but at one time residents of well as after in the event of Hoover's Mo. Funeral services were held at Bellefonte. Mrs. Griest, before her 2.30 o'clock on Monday afternoon, marriage, was Miss May Garman, of -See them in our window-Sat- burial being made in the Philipsburg Harrisburg. She leaves three small

MELCHER.-Henry Melcher died kins Dorworth, widow of the late on Wednesday, at the home of his

He was a son of John and Chrishealth for some time and several tine McMonigal Melcher and was born the Civil war, having served in the Mrs. Dorworth was a daughter of 201st Pennsylvania volunteers. He Mr. and Mrs. William Reese Jenkins married Miss Nancy Jane Merriman and was born in Blania, South Wales, in 1922, but surviving him are the folin the iron manufacturing business He also leaves three sisters and a

The funeral will be held tomorrow,

McCALEB .- Mrs. Rachel Brownlee Dr. Dorworth passed away a num- at Clintondale, following a lingering

A University Afloat.

Professor J. Ben Hill, of the Penn two o'clock yesterday afternoon, by State College, will be a member of RHINESMITH.—Daniel Rhine turning to New York in June, 1929. There will be a faculty on board the vessel of fifty, selected from the prominent colleges of the United States. post-graduate courses. Credits for courses of study can be arranged for at most of the American colleges. It is open to men and women students, and about one hundred older people will be taken.

Professor Hill is interested in developing a group of students from his

by Mrs. Hill who will act as chaperon for the group of women students from Pennsylvania.

The visits to the foreign countries will not be like a tourist trip but will be sponsored largely by the educabe sponsored largely by the educabe sponsored largely by the educabe a nuisance to reini state, (uoit in but had not gone far when there was a whoof, whoof, and a rush and a good sized black bear squeezed out modern vessels, oil-burning with all lyhoos. She's in trouble with her own veniences. The itinerary provides for serious illness of ex-Governor Sproul on Saturday afternoon, after which extensive trips ashore in each of the has prevented him from hearing a foreign countries and arrangements statement that would make some of educational men from the foreign —if they ever are capable of thinking at all. Some of us doubt it." countries to come on board two weeks in advance of the arrival at each country in order to acquaint the students with what they should see and

In organizing the project, great care has been taken on the subject of health. There will be a staff of seven in the medical division which have a staff of six. The departments real "honest to goodness" statesman of dramatics and social affairs are from the land of "must be shown," burg where she spent her entire mar- inghouse plant, eventually returning very comprehensive library will be on among the prominent divisions. A for President.

board. a complete social unit in which the only be uppermost but also be one of lion coming west. If the British win a liberal education in itself. It should son administration, starved the Unitlay the foundation for experiencing ed States and finished the job Heinz co-operation and forming habits that began by freezing us. Thank the will enable young people to take their Lord and the Democratic farmers, place in the world as it is today.

It is an opportunity for the young people to take a wonderful trip under we forget. We still had rye bread and honey and Hoover didn't get it all. How soon the safest conditions.

Freshmen.

Without the assistance of Captain Ducanis, the Bellefonte Academy box- lished a clipping from Girard's ing team defeated the Syracuse Uni- and Heard" column in the Philadelversity Freshmen, at the State thea-tre lest Friday night five bouts to two. The Academy mittmen dis-on the tag was stamped "John W. Played excellent form and skill and Carlton, Co. H. 148th, P. V." With very decidedly outboxed their antag- the hope of restoring the tag to some onists. The summaries: 110-pound class-Buckley, Bellefonte, 135-pound class-Buckley, Bellefonte, won from Strauss, Syracuse, by a technical knockout. 145-pound class-Weeks, Syracuse, won the decision over Adams, Bellefonte. 155-pound class-Hubbel, Bellefonte, won the decision over Spitz, Syracuse. 165-pound class-Falvey, Syracuse, deeated Temple, Bellefonte.

175-pound class-Croissant, Bellefonte defeated Thiel, Syracuse. Heavyweight-Sample, Bellefonte, won over Honberg, Syracuse, by a technical Friend George:

-Senator Willis is making it hard nomination.

—When we say lamp special we he became color bearer for his regineral to the mean it. West Company.

Herbert Stein to mean it. West Company.

Herbert Stein to mean it. We boys all agreed he could in Philipsburg; $1. mean it. West Company.

This column is to be an open forum. Everybody is invited to make use of it to express whatever opinion they may have on any subject. Nothing libelous will be published, though we will give the public the widest latitude in invective when the subject is this paper or its editor. Contributions will be signed or initialed, as the contributor may desire.—ED.

God Bless the Saintly Old Friend.

Somerset, Pa., March 10. "I enclose $1.50 for another year's

"I was so very happy to read Will "I was so very happy to read Will Truckenmiller's poem and to know that he is still among the living; for Lhad not heard of him for some for the Kepharts, Sellers, Grays and Mat-I think him a wonderfully brave per- only a few of them remain in the son to go through what he has borne valley.—Ed. and have the heart to write as hopefully as he does.

"With much love and good wishes,

MARY M. SWARTZ. A Penn State Alumnus Talks Turkey.

March 12, 1928. Editor, Democratic Watchman:

Sir: In the current Watchman the suggestion is thrown out that it is unwise for the local wiseacres of Penn a drop in potato prices is coming. State village (which ought to be politics. Inevitably so at the cost of annoyance to Penn State. Brother, it seems like touching the soft pedal at this distance. Do you York, October 6, 1928, for an eight made by Rose Elizabeth Cleveland months' trip around the world, re- when mistress of the White House ers not to increase their acreage or toduring her brother's first administra- go into potato growing unless condition? I treasured the remark at the tions permit a high yield per acre and time, and it has stuck in memory ever since.—"I wish that I could also observe Washington life in its political phase from without; for I suppose Applications are received from pre- I'm too near the center to get an accollegiate students, under-graduates curate perspective on that. Those and from those desiring to take the who live on Mount Athos do not see farmers will be tempted to use poor Mount Athos."

My Gawd! The trouble has begun loss. already, and has already cost Penn State dear, more, far, than those silly people see. Among her own graduates there are those who never hesitate to say it, and it is said in the State and outside it, that no redblooded or self-respecting man could have done other than the Governor Professor Hill will be accompanied named Gifford Pinchot did. And there ing his traps he came across a hole in there is the least suggestion of office an philistines and dumheads and balthe modern accommodations and con- alumni right now. Only the recent have been made with representative the local people sit up and think hard

Very sincerely,

The Hon. Willis Bierly Says a Word to avail themselves of the baths. for Jim Reed.

York, Pa., March 9, '28 My dear George:

I'm not quite ready to die just yet and I'd like to see a real old Andy The "Floating University" must be Jackson type of President before I do. "If we had such a type in the White House you would never see him kowtow to the east end of the British who knew how to raise rye and corn, we still had rye bread and honey and we forget.

W. R. BIERLY.

Academy Boxers Knock Out Syracuse D. M. Kerlin Remembers John W. $125.

In our issue of January 6 we pubsurviving relative of the soldier, Girard gave publicity to the incident. won over Berstein, Syracuse, by a tech. Because that company was recruited in Bellefonte and went out under Capt. Geo. A. Bayard, the Watchman published the item with the thought that somebody in this county might know of Carlton's relatives. Three days after this paper was issued, D. M. Kerlin, of Rudd, Iowa, saw it and wrote as follows: His letter got lost in the litter on our desk and turned up not more than ten minutes ago. It follows:-Ed.

Rudd, Iowa, Jan., '28

"I see by your paper of January 6" Referee-Diehl, Bucknell. Judges-Dr. that you are inquiring for informa-Leroy Locke and Essic Kline, Bellefonte. tion as to one, John W. Carlton. When, as a boy, I was living at Roopsburg, John W. Carlton worked on a farm up Buffalo Run; I think one of the Hastings' farms, near the Knox school house. He was a tall, lanky young man and it was said that surely keep the colors high in the

I do not know any of his relatives, nor where he hailed from, but I do remember, very distinctly, when he left there to join the army. And I remember of hearing of his having them tilled in hattle but just which been killed in battle, but just which battle I cannot say.

I think some one in Buffalo Run valley could remember him." Yours,

D. M. KERLIN

The last paragraph of Mr. Kerlin's letter expresses a forlorn hope, we fear. Buffalo Run valley has changed during his absence. All of its old folks have gone to bivouac with Carl-'Message from Home,' for I feel that at 76 I need it more than ever.

'Message from Home,' for I feel that Hasses, the Kerlins, the Shiverys, the Rothrocks, the Groves, the Hast-

County Agent Blaney Predicts Lower Priced Potatoes.

Fear is expressed by county agent R. C. Blaney that potato production will be overdone this year as a result. of favorable crops and prices during the past few years. Since all agricultural commodities move in price cycles, with depressions following peaks, it is reasonable to believe that

In one county, farmers who grew called something else anyhow, Priest-ley for instance after the discoverer acreage 37½ per cent. When the acreof oxygen) to stress their Republican age of beginning potato growers is added, the total increase reaches alarming proportions.

Extension farm crops specialists and rural economists of the Pennsylvania State College are urging farma consequent low cost production per bushel. Then if prices are low a profit may still be obtained.

Good quality seed is scarce this year so it is expected that many seed. This factor alone may cause

-It is not always fur and fun for-Centre county trappers according to a: story published in the Centre Hall Reporter, last week. That paper says that while Guyer Grove, of Centre Hall, was up on Nittany mountain liftwill be more men like Pinchot; and if a ledge of rocks which had all the appearance of being occupied. As the hunting and spoils and selfish smell hole was large he decided to investifrom that village, nearly close enough gate. Lying down he began to crawlto be a nuisance to Penn State, (don't in but had not gone far when there

> -We stated in last week's issue that the sulphur vapor baths that Miss Virginia Robb conducts in the Decker building would be open for business last week. They were not reopened then. It was no fault of hers or ours. They are open now, however, Miss Robb has assured us, and she would be glad to have all of her old patients as well as others who might be benefitted by the treatment

> -Robert Rote and Nelson Confer, of Spring Mills, were arrested, om Monday, by game protector Thomas dollars.

> -The young lady who lost her purse containing over fifty dollars, in St. John's Catholic church, last Sunday evening, is lucky she dropped it there, as it was found by an honest woman who either has already or will return it.

-A St. Patrick's day frolic, with a big baked ham supper, will be held in St. Mary's hall, Snow Shoe, tomorrow evening.

Real Estate Transfers.

Welmont Schick, et al, to George Berryhill, et ux, tract in Liberty twp.; Charles L. Byron to Randall H.

Graham, et ux, tract in Philipsburg; David Kunes, Sr., et ux, to Samuel R. Kunes, tract in Liberty twp.; $50. David Kunes, Sr., to Samuel R. Kunes, tract in Liberty twp.; $100:

W. F. Haines, et ux, to George F. Long; tract in Howard, $625. Jennie K. Reifsnyder, et al, to D. K. and A. S. Musser, tract in Haines twp.; $328.

Bellefonte Cemetery Association to George T. Tibbens, tract in Bellefonte; $25. J. D. Keller; et ux, to I. M. Murphy, tract in State College; $1. J. D. Keller, et ux, to R. A. Lepley; tract in State College; $800. W. H. Ertle, et ux, to A. E. Bartges, tract in Penn twp.; $1. A. E. Bartges, et ux, to W. H. Ert-le, et ux, tract in Penn twp.; $1. Jonathan Winborne White, et ux, to John Theodore Taylor, tract in State College: $1.

John T. Taylor, et ux, to Jonathan Winborne White, et ux, tract in State College; $1.

David E. Washburn, et ux, to Charles W. Keller, tract in Bellefonte; $7501 William B. Rupert, et al, to William Kessinger, tract in Liberty twp.;

$20. Herbert Stein to J. W. Stein, tract