PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Ellis Bierly has ordered a new Ford coupe. Miss Sara Wieland spent Easter with friends at Mount Union. Miss Edith Frank spent Easter at the Ed Frank home, in the Glades. Charles Campbell and family spent the Easter season at the seashore. Mrs. William Thompson and baby, of Chicago, are visiting relatives in the valley. Samuel Everhart and family spent the Easter season with friends at Franklinville. C. M. Powlley and family have moved into the Arthur Miller property, at Baileyville. Miss Maude Miller, of the Glades, was a caller at the D. W. Miller home on Saturday morning. Ed Irwin, of Juniata, spent Easter Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Julia Gates, at Baileyville. Mrs. Lucy Corl and three children, of Juniata, are visiting their grandmother Krebs, this week. Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Moyer, of Boalsburg, visited among their church people here during the week. Lee Krebs, of State College, was a caller, last Wednesday, at the home of his uncle, Dr. R. M. Krebs. Claude Witmer and wife, of Tusseyville, called on their various friends here on Saturday evening. Jacob Kepler, coal dealer of Johnstown, spent Easter Sunday with his parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. Will Kepler. After a year's absence Samuel Rudy is back at his old stand as helper on the P. W. Cori farm, at White Hall. Will Wagner, wife, daughter and baby came down from Juniata and spent Tuesday at the John Kimpport home. W. S. Ward, wife and son Max, of Baileyville, motored down the valley, on Friday, calling on friends along the line. J. P. Kyler has resigned his position with Oscar Struble and moved to the Branch to assist Samuel Everhart on the farm. Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, of Centre Hall, spent last Thursday in visiting the sick and making pastoral calls in this section. Mrs. R. G. Gearhart was taken to the St. Francis hospital, Philadelphia, during the week, to undergo a surgical operation. William Brooks Fry and wife were royally entertained, on Sunday evening, at the Dr. M. W. Neidigh home, at State College. Miss Dorothy English, a student at Bucknell University, spent the Easter vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. English. Ford Stump, farmer and dairyman, of Lemont, was in town, on Tuesday, in quest of help to handle his pure bred Guernsey herd. George H. Woods and wife, with George III, motored in from Williamsburg and spent Easter at the Dr. George H. Woods home. We are sorry to hear of the serious illness of a former Pine Grove Mills boy, Prof. Clarence McCormick, at his home at Collegeville, Pa. Charles Goss and Miss Daisy Weaver, of Harrisburg, and Fred B. Goss and wife, of State College, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Cyrus Goss. C. E. Close, of the State College creamery force, and Charles M. Dale and wife, of the Branch, called on the sick while in town on Wednesday evening. Miss Edith Sankey has returned to the Mrs. Viola Smith home after assisting her brother, Marcellus Sankey and family, fit from Middleburg to Millheim. Boyd Steel and Harry Stewart, two week known farmers of Shaver's Creek, were at the J. H. Williams home, on Tuesday, in quest of seed potatoes. Mrs. Mary Goss Bryan, of Tyrone, who recently underwent an operation at the Clearfield hospital, is back home and well along the road to complete recovery. Emanuel Weaver and wife, of Baileyville, were in town, last Thursday, helping Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fishel get comfortably fixed up in the Sue Goss home, on Main street. C. M. Dale motored to Mifflinburg, on Sunday, and visited his son, Henry and family. The latter is now superintendent of the Sheffield Farms company, at Mifflinburg. Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Goheen, of Baileyville, were in town, last Wednesday, calling on old friends. Mr. Goheen has given up the huckstering business and is now a man of leisure. Dallas Morrison and wife, of State College, were pleasant callers at the Gordon Harper home, on Thursday. Naturally they had a lot to tell about their three month's trip through the South. C. Milton Fry with his wife and daughter Joan, and sister, Mrs. Esther Ritchey, spent Sunday with mother Osman, in town. They also brought a nice offering of Easter flowers to yours truly. Mrs. Clair Bartam will open a first-class hotel and restaurant in the Evert's block, in the near future, while Mr. Bartam will continue in the chicken business at his old stand, on South Water street. Miss Madeline Gilliland is visiting this week with friends in Altoona. It is quietly whispered that she will also do some shopping for an important life event that is likely to happen in the near future. Prof. Milton B. Wright, superintendent of public instruction in Huntingdon county, spent Friday afternoon with his old-time friend, Captain Fry, who is gradually recovering from his long illness. Ernest Gilliland and Roy Stauffer motored to Bellefonte, on Sunday, to visit their chum, Earl Harper, who is in the Centre County hospital with a badly fractured leg, and found him getting along nicely. Coming to Centre county to attend the Fahr funeral, at Julian on Sunday, Walter McCormick spent Monday with his father, Hon. John T. McCormick, before returning to his home in Waynesburg. Prof. Samuel C. Miller, of Chester, with his wife and daughter, motored up and spent Easter with his father, comrade D. W. Miller, and attended the funeral of his aunt, Mary Miller, at Boalsburg, last Friday. Our supervisors are having the Branch road stoned and put in good shape. The Neidigh brothers have the contract and the work is being done under the supervision of road-master Henry McWilliams. John Hoy, station agent and merchant at Waddle, with his wife, are planning to move in with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Neidigh, at Struble, to look after the older folks in their declining years. W. A. Hemphill and wife and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mallory, of Altoona, attended the funeral of Mrs. Charles Heverly, in Bellefonte on Sunday. Homeward bound they were callers at the M. C. Wieland home in this place. The monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society was held at the M. C. Wieland home on Tuesday night. Mrs. G. D. Morrison had charge of the program. Refreshments were served after the business had been disposed of. Those from here who attended the William Glenn funeral, on Saturday, were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bailey and son Warren, Warren Bailey Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams, Mrs. Ida Williams, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Musser and W. F. Thompson. Prof. H. B. Albright took the scholars in the grammar school on a bus ride to Dry Hollow, on Friday afternoon, where they climbed to the top of the forest observation tower and took a good look over the Barrens and surrounding country. They took lunch along and ate it in the woods. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fleming, of Boalsburg, were visitors in town on Thursday evening. Mrs. Fleming only recently returned home from a month's stay in the Lewistown hospital, where she underwent a serious operation, and all her friends are glad to know that she is now much improved in health. The Easter pageant given in the Presbyterian church, last Friday evening, was thoroughly enjoyed by a large congregation. Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick was in charge. Music was furnished by a male quartette, with Miss Mary Woods presiding at the organ. Rev. Kirkpatrick and wife also sang a beautiful duet. Hon. J. W. Kepler is just now completing a job begun by his great grandfather Harter over fifty years ago, that of piping water from a mountain spring to his farm buildings in the Glades. He has put down a 13-inch pipe and the water will have sufficient force to carry it through to any point in his buildings, and also flow enough to irrigate his twelve acre potato field. Newton E. Hess, of State College, is all worked up over the big hunting trip he has planned for the far northwest during the summer. He expects to leave soon after the middle of April and with a party of enthusiastic hunting friends, will go directly to Vancouver, British Columbia, thence they will go north in quest of the big brown bear and other game animals native to that section.

AARONSBURG.

Forrest Leitzell, of Plainfield, Ill., is visiting among relatives and friends in and about town. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grove, and two children, of Williamsport, were recent guests of Mrs. Grove's mother, Mrs. J. G. Eisenhauer. Mrs. Samuel Mowery and Miss Amanda Haines came down from State College to spend their Easter vacation at their homes in town. Mr. and Mrs. Showers, of Lock Haven, were week-end guests of Mrs. Showers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stover, on north 2nd street. Mrs. C. W. Wolfe was taken ill, Sunday night, threatened with pneumonia. Her friends trust she may avert a siege such as she had one year ago. Mrs. E. B. McHose, of Millheim, was in town, Saturday afternoon, calling on the sick, A. S. Stover and Thomas Hull, who are old neighbors and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Clymer H. Stover and two sons, Gross and Ellsworth, of Kenmore, Ohio, were recent guests of Mr. Stover's sister, Mrs. George Weaver, on Main street. The condition of A. S. Stover, who has been seriously ill for the past three weeks, has made a change for the better and we trust he may soon be able to resume his duties. Mrs. T. B. Patton, Mrs. C. C. Bell C. Earl Bell and Richard Laird motored over from Huntingdon, Thursday afternoon, to visit their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull. The Stovers have had with them their daughter, Miss Marian, of Harrisburg; their grand-daughter, Miss Elizabeth Stover, of Dauphin, and Mrs. Stover's sister, Miss Lizzie Yarger, of State College. Mr. and Mrs. Shem Aurdand, of Millroy, and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Beaver and two children, of Mifflinburg, were brief callers on Sunday evening. Mrs. Herman and Mr. and Mrs. John Leenberg and two daughters, of State College, also called to see Mr. Stover. Mr. and Mrs. William C. Mingle and daughter, Ruth, and Mrs. Henry Mingle and two small sons, Harold and Robert, all of Akron, Ohio, spent the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mingle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stover.

WINGATE.

Easter Sunday was quite cool hereabouts. House cleaning, painting and papering is now the order of the day here. Harry Shawley, of Yarnell, was a Sunday visitor with relatives in this place. Rev. R. R. Lehman was a welcome caller at the Irwin home, last Saturday afternoon. George Snyder, of Lebanon, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder, over Easter. Rev. Yingling preached an interesting sermon in the Evangelical church, on Sunday morning. Rev. G. A. Herr will preach in the Baptist church, at Milesburg, at 7.30 o'clock on Sunday evening. The Divine Healers are holding forth at Runville, and their meetings are said to be well attended. Miss Edna Shawley returned home, last Thursday, from a visit with her brother, Marion, at Coalport. The W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting at the Irwin home Friday, April 20th. A good turnout is desired. Mrs. Lydia Irwin and Mrs. John Smith attended the funeral of Mrs. Weber Bitner, at Curtin, last week. Mrs. Ida Witmer was a Sunday visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Forden Walker, at Milesburg. Rev. G. A. Herr and family arrived in Milesburg, on Saturday, from Franklin, and were given a warm welcome. Mr. and Mrs. Plummer Davidson motored down from State College and spent Sunday with their various relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin, Lloyd Fisher and Miss Annie Taylor motored to Altoona, on Friday, on a shopping trip. Frank Malone, a student at Gettysburg College, spent his Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malone. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Biedent, of Hornell, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Biedent's mother, Mrs. Ida Witmer, and other relatives. The tenant home of James Davidson Sr. is about ready for an occupant. It has been painted white with green trimmings. Irwin Lucas was summoned to the bedside of his brother, Jesse Lucas, at Fairview, who is seriously ill with small hope of recovery. Rev. Yingling, Mrs. Earl Kauffman and children and Mrs. Arthur Biedent were Sunday guests of Mrs. Ida Witmer and family. The W. C. T. U. medal contest held in the Evangelical church, last Friday evening, proved very interesting and attracted a good audience. The condition of Mrs. Silas Emehizer, who was brought home from the Mont Alto sanitarium two weeks ago, has shown no improvement. Charles Reese and family moved, last week, from the Michael Wither, into the property at Runville purchased several years ago from Mrs. Lydia Irwin.

BOALSBURG.

John Hess, of Altoona, visited with friends in town last week. Elmer Houtz and family, of Bellefonte, were visitors at the Brown home on Sunday. Mrs. Laura Struble, of State College, visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. William Houtz, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Fernon Russell, of Lewisport, spent Easter with Mrs. Russell's mother, Mrs. Ellen Young. Mrs. E. E. Stuart has returned to her main street home after spending the winter with her sons, George, David and Reuben Stuart, in Crafton. Miss Elizabeth Mothersbaugh, of Abbington; Miss Anna Mary Hess, of Bloomsburg; Messrs. Joseph Shutt, of Franklin and Marshall, Russel Bohn and Paul Derner, of Lock Haven, spent the Easter vacation with their parents in town.

LEMONT.

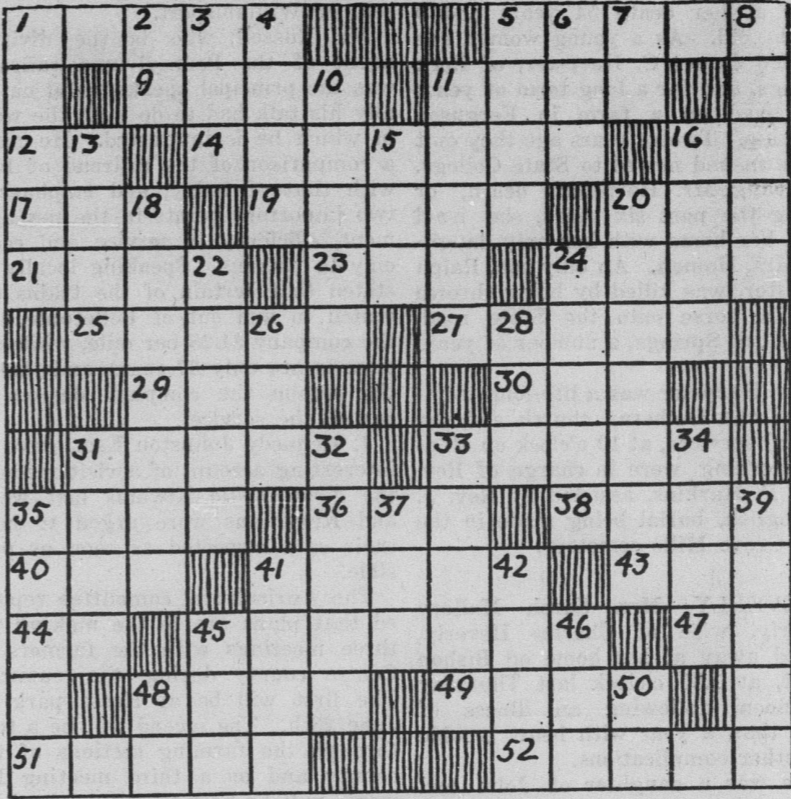

Roy Walker, who is working in West Virginia, spent the Easter season at his home. Mrs. Arthur Bohn and children spent the Easter season at Coburn, with relatives and friends. Probably the most important of all the more recent tendencies in the fruit growing business is the use of sweet clover in the apple orchard.  Feel Tired and Achy? Too Often This Warns of Sluggish Kidneys. LAME? Stiff? Achy? Sure your kidneys are working right? Sluggish kidneys allow waste poisons to accumulate and make one languid, tired and achy, with often dull headaches, dizziness and nagging back-ache. A common warning is too frequent, scanty or burning excretions. Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of bodily waste. Users everywhere endorse Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

When the correct letters are placed in the white spaces this puzzle will spell words both vertically and horizontally. The first letter in each word is indicated by a number, which refers to the definition listed below the puzzle. Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.
