

Beauty's Husband Sues Manger for Alienated Affections.

Thelma Williams, a demure Port Matilda girl until she blossomed out as "Miss Pittsburgh" in the 1926 beauty contest, is receiving more notoriety now than she did when she appeared in the Atlantic City beauty pageant. Following her arrest in Detroit, Mich., and her release at Buffalo, N. Y., she instituted proceedings in divorce, in Westmoreland County, Pa., against her husband of eighteen months, Jesse W. Gray. The latter has retaliated by bringing suit for $100,000 damages for alienation of affections against Royce Grimm, Thelma's beauty manager, in Buffalo, N. Y., on Saturday, and in his brief of complaint for the first time bares some facts on the life of the beauty and himself.

The husband alleges in his suit that he first became acquainted with Grimm in December, 1926, the latter professing toward him great friendship, stating that he wished to be of assistance to him and his wife in the promotion of a beauty review. He desired to obtain the services of his wife, Gray claims, to participate in the review.

Gray alleges that Grimm lured his wife from him, and was responsible for their home being broken up. His wife was his companion of school days, the husband alleges, both attending the grade schools in Port Matilda, Centre county, and later they were teachers in the same school, having adjoining class rooms.

As a result of the wiles and action of Grimm, the husband alleges, that his wife became cold towards him and finally left him. During March of last year, Gray alleges, that the defendant induced his wife to journey with him to different points in Ohio, and finally, he took her to Altoona, making the trip by automobile.

She finally left home on May 20 and traveled to different points in the State of New York, Ohio, Indiana and Michigan with Grimm, the suit alleges. They also resided together, it is charged, in Detroit, Mich., at which place Grimm was apprehended, being charged with violating the Mann act.

The husband alleges that from the time of their marriage in September, 1926, he always maintained a comfortable home for his wife at Trafford. He went there after giving up his position as a school teacher in Port Matilda, and has been employed at the Westinghouse plant at Trafford. They were happy together, Gray alleges, until his wife came under the influence of Grimm.

Thus No. 1 under the column headed "horizontal" defines a word which will fill the white spaces up to the first black square to the right, and a number under "vertical" defines a word which will fill the white squares to the next black one below. No letters go in the black spaces. All words used are dictionary words, except proper names. Abbreviations, slang, initials, technical terms and obsolete forms are indicated in the definitions.

Do you find yourself running down—always tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and achy, subject to nagging backache, drowsy headaches and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions scanty, too frequent or burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Doan's are endorsed everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
