The friends of Joe Favuzza will be sorry to know that he is not responding to treatment at the Mt. Alto sanitarium, has not gained an ounce in weight and has had slight hemorrhages since being there. Mrs. Favuzza and Joseph Jr. are at McCartyne, Pa., at her home.

The Pleasant Gap Y. P. B., eighteen in number, were royally entertained by the Centre Hall Y. P. B., at the High school building on Monday evening. Centre Hall has had a Y. P. B. for several years while the Pleasant Gap one is just in its infancy. The Centre Hall folks, under the able direction of Mrs. Frank Goodhart, are doing splendid work.

The Monday evening program consisted of an entertaining playlet, readings and a song by Miss Runley, acted by Mr. Wert and Miss Fay Bradford, which won rounds of applause. Then the guests were served with delicious refreshments, after which the two branches had a song fest, enjoyed by all. The evening was surely a very enjoyable one to all participating, and is only the beginning of many good times to be enjoyed by the young folks of Penns and Nittany valley in the future.

Knitting these young folks in a close bond of friendship never to be forgotten, as well as working to make pure, true, men and women for future years. Great credit is due Mrs. Goodhart, their untiring leader. The Pleasant Gap members who attended were: Edith Hite, Margaret Irwin, Ellen Allen, Kathryn Keller, Audrey Keller, Lila Evey, Margaret Evey, Grace Millward, Stella Gheen, Mayme Griffith, Ethel Noll, Gerald Millward, John Barnes Jr., Tom Metzger, Fred Zettle, Charles Houser, Nevin Hockenberry and Mrs. Martha Noll.

Get 'Em Dumb.

The dumber a fellow is the better he can dance, thinks Miss Helen Crain who was recently chosen the "college flapper" by students of Birmingham-Southern college.

"If my date is dumb we go to a dance," she said. "If he is less dumb we go to a show, but if he is real bright and well read we stay at home and have our date."

Just a little talent, combined with genuine industry and persistence, will carry almost any person to a fair degree of success.

Feel Miserable This Spring? To Be Well Your Kidneys Must Function Properly.

SPRING find you tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and achy, subject to nagging backache, drowsy headaches and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions too frequent, scanty or burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and shouldn't be neglected. Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Doan's are endorsed everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
