Severe Rain Storm Sweeps Ove Lower Pennsvalley.

A severe rain storm swept over lower Nittany and Pennsvalleys, on Tuesday afternoon, spending its force over in the Seven mountains where reports say hail fell to a depth of several inches. Hail also fell down little Nittany valley, which accounts for the cool wave of the past few days.

The most destructive part of the storm, however, was in lower Pennsvalley, in the locality of Penn Hall. There fences were blown down, gardens and newly ploughed fields badly washed. On the Roland Zettle farm a chicken coop with three hundred chickens was washed away, a hog was drowned in its pen and a bridge over Penn's creek was swept

An automobile parked in front of the home of Charles Shook was washed along the road for a quarter of a mile until it lodged against the barn of Prof. Hosterman. At the Charles Ulrich farm the water was said to be four feet deep on the State road and all the outbildings were washed away. The total damage done in that section will aggregate thousands of dollars.

"THE MIKADO" MAKES ITS BOW ON JUNE 4th.

Glee Club Show is a Sure Fire Hit.

The Bellefonte High school glee club, on Monday, June 4, will present "The Mikado," a Japanese operetta by Gilbert and Sullivan. Although this is a type of musical production never before attempted by the glee club, all who saw "M'lle Modiste" will agree that their organization is well

Gorgeous, humorous, tender, this play has been a classic operetta for forty years, and it is still a revelation of sprightly comedy and appealing romance. It is packed with suspense, beauty, and thrills-all against the gorgeous background of a Japanese palace. The play is utterly different from any other Japanese musical comedy and it contains no tea-houses, chop-sticks, or rick-shaws. The story is a tender, whimsical hood home. romance, abounding in delicate humor and riotous comedy, skillfully blended to keep you constantly laughing all the while you love, fear, and sympathize with the distraught hero and heroine.

The production is magnificent; the settings and costumes carry you to story-book Japan with its breath-taking beauty. Intricate dances, lovely girls, lusty choruses, and expert principals all combine to make this a com- land garage. pletely delightful evening in the thea-

"M'lle Modiste" was a big success and the club has a high mark to attain if it surpasses that, but the will be guests of Mrs. Spangler's daughter all-around show than its predecessor. For one thing, the music plays a more important part in this production. The solo parts are well sung and the large chorus which is on stage for every number gives a volume that was entirely missing in the "M'lle Modiste."

The cast is largely made up of the club. Louise Tanner, Peter Meek, nome on Dishop Street, and the club.
