

UNIONVILLE.

Mrs. Lizzie Hogan has improved her house by having a new roof put on.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCargle moved into part of George Stere's house last week.

Mrs. Marian Holderman, of Huntingdon, visited her sister, Miss Laura Rumberger, last week.

Robert Lannen, who recently graduated at Juniata College, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Arista Lucas continues very well, although at times there seems to be some slight improvement.

Miss Ruth Lucas returned home, last Saturday, from Illinois where she had been attending college.

James Stere, who is employed at State College, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stere.

Among those who attended the commencement at State College were E. Hall and Miss Katherine Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Updegraff and baby daughter, of Williamsport, are visiting Mrs. Updegraff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bauder.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons and family motored to Morantown, W. Va., where they were over Sunday guests of their son, Ray and family.

Visitors at the home of Mrs. Cora Kreps, on Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. William Kreps and family and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Comley, and Henry Comley, all of Tyrone.

Last Thursday Mr. Harry Quick and a man from Williamsport had a collision of cars in front of Fry's garage, damaging the cars considerably and injuring Mr. Quick, who was sent to the Centre County hospital.

Mr. John Holt and daughter Sara, returned on Saturday from Scranton, where they had spent the week—John is a delegate from Lumen Lodge and Sara, delegate from Lady Union Rebekah Lodge at a meeting of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Olive Spotts and little son spent several days, during the past week, at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Resides, and one day while the boys were feeding Mr. Resides' dog he bit the little Spotts boy on the arm and also scratched his face badly. We hope nothing serious develops.

The Children's day services in the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, were interesting and nicely carried out. Rev. Oakwood gave a brief report of his trip to Oklahoma, where he attended for eight days the general Synod of the church. There were fifty-two nations represented and the meeting was one of great interest and inspiration.

On Sunday morning at 10:30, Rev. Lehman preached a very impressive sermon to the I. O. O. F., in the M. E. church. Quite a number of the order marched in a body from their hall to the church for the service. In the afternoon they continued the service in Oak Ridge cemetery. Five of their number have passed into the great beyond during the year, namely: J. T. Barton, who had been a guest in their home at Grove City for some time; William Zimmerman, John Brugger, G. W. Rumberger, and Henry Parsons.

George Brugger, of Cannonsburg, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brugger, last week and on Sunday started for home, taking with him his niece, Martha Rose Brugger. They were also accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brugger to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite, who live near Stormstown, where they all spent the day. Through the generosity of Allen Rumberger, who went for them in his car, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brugger were brought home in the evening.

The public meeting in Grange hall, last Friday evening, was not very well attended on account of the inclement weather. The program was interesting and consisted of readings, recitations, music from the Grange song book—one especially pleasing number being, "In Every Land and Nation the Farmer Feeds Them All." The special speaker for the occasion was Mr. Boak, of Lawrence county, who gave a very interesting address. He encouraged the farmers and advocated strongly the principles of the Grange. He was accompanied by his cousin, Mr. Van Horn, of Homestead, and his son, who is a student at State College in the Agricultural department.

STATE COLLEGE.

Bruce Dunlap, of Harrisburg, visited in State College a few days.
