

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet this (Friday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. James H. Potter, on west Linn street.

Officials and employees of the West Penn Power company, with their families and a few guests, motored to the top of Nittany mountain, on Monday evening, where they partook of a picnic supper.

The New York Central picnic, including the forces at Clearfield and Jersey Shore, will be held at the Clearfield driving park tomorrow. A special train will be run from Jersey Shore to Clearfield to carry the employees.

While on a business trip to Bellefonte William Motter, a traveling salesman, suffered a stroke of paralysis, at the Brockhoff house, on Wednesday night. The stroke was not a severe one and he was taken home yesterday morning.

Commandant and Mrs. J. Sanford, members of the Williamsport unit of the Salvation Army, will be in Bellefonte on Monday, June 18th, and will conduct the open air meeting at the Diamond as well as the inside meeting in the Army hall in the Schlow block. The public is invited to turn out and hear them.

Harry McTigue, 12 years of age; Arthur Matterer, 13; Thomas Lopensky, 15, and James Wilson, 15, four boys from Phillipsburg and vicinity, are under arrest awaiting action in the juvenile court on the charge of robbing the Haggerty Baking company's plant and the James Haworth candy factory, in Phillipsburg, on Monday night of last week.

Some weeks ago Bishop John J. McCort, of the Altoona diocese, appointed Rev. Francis A. McNelis, of Gallitzin, as Catholic chaplain at Rockview penitentiary. Before he could begin work in his new appointment he became ill, and because of his continued illness Bishop McCort has appointed Rev. Francis P. McGresh, of Dudley, as chaplain.

The various bands of Centre county are taking turns in giving concerts at Hecla park Sunday afternoons. Last Sunday the Aaronsburg band dispensed music to the gratification of a crowd of several hundred. The coming Sunday the Spring Mills band will be on hand and on June 24th Wetzler's Junior band, of Milesburg, will be there eighty-four strong to entertain the crowd.

The Bellefonte curb market opened, last Saturday morning, with three cars in attendance. New onions, rhubarb, dressed chickens, canned fruit, jellies, etc., were offered for sale. Home grown strawberries will be coming into market pretty soon and early cherries are beginning to turn, so that the market will offer a more diversified line of produce a week or ten days from now.

Because the wheat crop is not giving promise of a bountiful yield this year many Centre county farmers are going long on potatoes in the hope of making up for what they will lose on wheat. Over on the Colyer farm, east of the Old Fort, H. H. Decker has planted twenty acres to potatoes, using 260 bushels of seed, while W. F. Colyer has planted a fifteen acre field on the same farm. Down in Liberty township Harry L. McCloskey has put out twenty acres on which he used 450 bushels of seed.

Captain Edward Steidle, who for the past nine years has been in charge of mining instruction at the Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, has been appointed dean of the school of mines and metallurgy, at State College, to take the place of Dean E. A. Holbrook, who resigned some time ago to become head of the department of engineering and mines at the University of Pittsburgh. The new dean is a graduate of State College, class of 1911, and served with distinction during the World war, having been awarded the distinguished service cross and medal.

While at work on the penitentiary lands on Nittany mountain, on Tuesday morning, one of the inmates at Rockview found a young fawn that had evidently been deserted by its mother. The little animal, which did not stand over eighteen inches in height, had the appearance of being quite young and was quite weak from lack of nourishment. Game protector Thomas G. Mosier was notified and went out to the penitentiary and brought the fawn to his home here. He will keep it, if it lives, until it is large and strong enough to take care of itself when he will liberate it in the mountains.

As a result of the sale of the Beatty Motor company Ford agency, at State College to Russell Stein, who will conduct the garage in the future, Fred Perret, who had been service man for the Beatty company at the College, will move to Bellefonte and look after the service work in the local plant. He has rented the Emerick house, on Spring street, recently vacated by John J. Reginald and family, and will move there within a few days. J. T. Storch, former manager of the Emerick Motor bus line, will become service man for the Russell Stein company, at State College. He is in Pittsburgh this week making a thorough study of the new Ford cars.

PENN STATE GRADUATES CLASS OF SIX HUNDRED.

Many Centre Counties Included on List of Diploma Winners.

Centre county was well represented in the class of six hundred students graduated at State College this week. Every county in the State was represented and many from other States were on the sheepskin roll.

The commencement program began last Friday, and the first two days were devoted mostly to the social side of commencement, with house parties, dances, etc.

At a meeting of the board of trustees, on Saturday, the building program for the year was the leading topic under discussion. Special attention was given to the plans for the new engineering administration building, which will be started this summer.

An east campus location was decided upon for the $250,000 dormitory for girls, which the Pennsylvania State Grange is erecting as a memorial.

Prominent Grangers will be at the College today, farmers' field day, for the breaking of ground for this structure.

Preliminary plans for this building have been approved and trustees asked the architects to proceed with plans for a new botany building for the school of agriculture.

More than 100 delegates from agricultural and engineering societies assembled on Saturday for the purpose of electing four members of the board of trustees. Alumni ballots were cast for three trustees, there being no opposition to the re-election of Colonel J. H. M. Andrews, Philadelphia; Ambrose N. Diehl, Pittsburgh; and George H. Deike, Pittsburgh.

After the rendition of several numbers on the program, at the band concert on Sunday afternoon, director Thompson announced as the next number the "Musser March," written and dedicated to a former graduate and staunch friend of the College, Past Grand Master Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton. The march was a beautiful melody of old-time and popular airs.

At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association, on Monday, E. N. Sullivan, '14, announced his resignation as resident secretary to become effective not later than the last of October. Mr. Sullivan has been secretary for nine years and will leave the College to go into the insurance business in Philadelphia.

At the class day exercises, on Monday, the class memorial was presented to the board of trustees. It was a fund of approximately $3000 to be used on the construction of the artificial lake started by the class of 1927.

The regular graduating exercises were held on Tuesday morning when diplomas were awarded and announcement of prizes made. Centre county's list among the graduates was as follows:

The treasurer's sale of seated and unseated lands for unpaid taxes was held at the court house on Monday afternoon. The list was not nearly as large as in previous years and it took only about an hour to dispose of all the offerings.

Judge Fleming Appoints Leo Boden County Detective.

Judge M. Ward Fleming, who is holding court in Ridgway this week, announced through his private secretary, on Monday, the appointment of Leo Boden, of Phillipsburg, as county detective, effective June 15th. Salary, $1500 per year. The announcement states that the appointment was made with the approval of the County Commissioners and upon petition of John G. Love, district attorney.

The announcement, as given to the press, further states that Boden was born in Beaver Falls. He enlisted in the U. S. army in April, 1917, and served eighteen months overseas with the 18th air service. During 1919 and 1920 he worked in the steel mills of Babcock & Wilcox, at Beaver Falls. During 1921-'23 he served as a member of the State police and received an honorable discharge at the expiration of his enlistment. He served as a sergeant of police for the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, at Buffalo, N. Y., 1923-'25; and since then has been employed as assistant chief of police in Phillipsburg. He has been highly recommended for honesty and efficiency by all his employers.

New Hospital Ambulance Assured as Result of Drive.

A new ambulance for the Centre County hospital is assured as a result of the drive recently made to raise money for that institution. At a meeting of the drive committee, on Tuesday evening, Mr. Sommerville, the chairman, reported the total amount of money raised as $7812, with Millheim, Howard and several other places to hear from. He figured that when all reports are in the total will probably reach eight thousand dollars. Of this amount, however, a little over $2300 was pledged for the ambulance which leaves less than five thousand dollars for general hospital use.

Three bids were submitted from auto dealers on furnishing an ambulance. They included the Studebaker, Nash and Peerless. As the bids were submitted in a rather complicated form, and the committee as a whole were unable to decide on which make would be the best to purchase, a sub-committee of three was appointed to thoroughly examine all bids and make a recommendation at a special meeting of the general committee to be held tomorrow evening.

Ground Broken on Monday for New Gas Plant.

Ground was broken, on Monday, for the new plant of the Central Pennsylvania Gas company near Axe Mann, on the location of the Clinton Markle farm as published in last week's Watchman. A gang of eighteen or twenty men were put to work, preference being given to married men with families who have been out of work for some time. As necessity requires the force of men will be increased until the maximum number needed has been employed.

Borough employees digging a ditch on east Curtin street led to a report that the company had also started work in Bellefonte, but this was a mistake. A survey is now being conducted in both Bellefonte and State College to secure a list of possible customers. Just what headway is being made in this connection has not been made public. When the survey is completed those sections of Bellefonte in which the most customers have been obtained will be given the preference when it comes to putting down the supply pipes. The same condition will likely obtain in State College.

Samuel Baird Lands Biggest Daddy Trout of Season.

Samuel Baird, of Lewistown, was back at his home in Milesburg a few days during the week and naturally he tried his hand at fishing just to see whether he had lost any of the skill with which he pulled trout and suckers from the waters of Spring creek and the Bald Eagle in former years. And the success that attended his efforts, on Monday, would indicate that he is still quite adept.

Fishing near the bridge, in Milesburg, at the junction of Spring creek with Bald Eagle, he landed the biggest buck trout that has been caught in Centre county this season. It measured 29 inches in length and weighed 7 1/2 pounds. Mr. Baird quit right then and couldn't resist the temptation to bring his prize beauty to Bellefonte and display it to some of the local fishermen who pride themselves on their skill at landing the speckled beauties.

County Commissioners Will Not Build Road Through Park.

Residents of Jail hill have been considerably exercised, of late, over a rumor that the County Commissioners intended building a driveway in the rear of the court house through the park. When seen this week County Commissioner Searly stated that the matter had never been considered by the commissioners, and that all he had heard of it was talk on the streets. He stated that to build such a driveway would cost at least two thousand dollars and would be no material benefit, so far as he could see. Then again, it could not help but mar the beauty of the park between the court house and the jail, and the commissioners will not do anything to spoil the park.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

During Mr. and Mrs. Walker's absence their two daughters will be with their grandmother, Mrs. Alice Robb, and early in July will become members of a camping party Camp Cedar Pines, near Jersey Shore.

Pennsylvania Might Change Schedule on Lewisburg Branch.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company is again considering a change in its schedule of trains on the Lewisburg branch which, however, will mean any reduction in trains. The plan under consideration is to have both trains lay over in Sunbury, or to leave there on the present schedule at six o'clock in the morning and arrive at Bellefonte at the usual time. Returning the train will leave Bellefonte at ten o'clock, pick up the nine cars enroute and reach Sunbury within eight hours. The other train will make the round trip in the afternoon. This would not materially interfere with the mail service in Pennsylvania and will give residents of the South side who want to come to Bellefonte by train a longer time in the town. If this is done, however, it will mean the putting on of a star mail route between Bellefonte and State College to handle the mail that comes here on the night train for the College as also that that comes in on the Lehigh at 1:20 p. m. If such proves to be the case Nathan Kofman might get his contract after all.

Mrs. Millard Hartwick had her tonsils removed, at the Centre County hospital, on Tuesday.

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

Table with 2 columns: Commodity and Price. Includes Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, and Buckwheat.
